COLLEGIAL CONVERSATION

DR. GLENN W. IRWIN, JR., vice president of Indiana University (Indianapolis), will present his own version of "West Side Story." Dr. Irwin has developed a slide show illustrating the history of the area where IUPUI now stands which points out the rich heritage of the west side of the city of Indianapolis.

The "Conversation," scheduled for 2 p.m. Feb. 27 in Room 102 of the Lecture Hall, is open to the public and any interested persons are encouraged to attend this enlightening and entertaining program.

"Collegial Conversations" are sponsored by the IUPUI Center for American Studies.

TRUSTEES MAKE KEY APPOINTMENTS

Thomas J. Henry, who has been executive assistant to Indianapolis Mayor William H. Hudnut III for six years, was named director of University Relations for IUPUI at a meeting of I.U. trustees Feb. 4. He will assume his new duties on Feb. 20.

Henry will succeed Kenneth A. Beckley who resigned the position last fall to become vice president of advertising and public relations for H.H. Gregg, Inc. His major responsibilities will be overseeing the activities of the News Bureau, the Office of Publications and Information Services, and athletic information for the campus as well as general public relations duties. A member of the Indianapolis Press Club, he received his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Missouri in 1973. Henry has been responsible for the mayor's media relations and speech writing and has served as liaison with a number of local, state and federal agencies.

"We are most pleased to have someone of Tom's experience and proven abilities here at IUPUI in this important post," said Dr. Glenn W. Irwin Jr., I.U. vice president for Indianapolis.

At the same meeting, Dr. August M. Watanabe was appointed chairman of the Department of Medicine at the I.U. School of Medicine. Watanabe is professor of medicine and pharmacology and has been senior research associate of the Krannert Institute of Cardiology. He was named acting chairman of the Department of Medicine, the largest department in the school, last year after Department Chairman Dr. Walter J. Daly was appointed dean of the School of Medicine.

A graduate of Wheaton (Ill.) College, Watanabe received the M.D. degree from I.U. in 1967. He took an internship and residency in internal medicine at the I.U. Medical Center before spending two years in clinical pharmacology with the National Institute of Mental Health at Bethesda, Md. He returned to Indianapolis to be chief resident in internal medicine at the I.U. Hospital and stayed on at the Medical Center to take a traineeship in cardiology under the auspices of the U.S. Public Health Service. He joined the faculty of the I.U. School of Medicine in 1972 as assistant professor of medicine and pharmacology. Since 1976 he has been chief of cardiology at the Veterans Administration Medical Center.

In still other action, the trustees approved the appointment of Dr. A. George Wagner as chairman of the Department of Complete Denture at the I.U. School of Dentistry. He comes from the University of Kentucky College of Dentistry, where he has been associate professor and chairman of the Department of Prosthodontics. Before his appointment to U.K. in 1980, he served for 21 years in the U.S. Army Dental Corps with tours of duty in Germany, West Germany and Korea. He was chief of the U.S. Army Regional Dental Activity at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C.

Wagner received the bachelor's degree from Albion College in Michigan. In 1956 he was awarded the Doctor of Dental Science degree from the University of Michigan and the master of science degree from the University of Missouri at Kansas City School of Dentistry. He holds licenses and special certification in Michigan and Kentucky and with the National Boards of Dentistry and the American Board of Prosthodontics. He is a member of the Omicron Kappa Upsilon and Delta Sigma Delta honoraries.

He replaces Dr. Robert H. Derry, who was chairman of I.U.'s Department of Complete Denture from 1973 to 1979 and has been acting chairman since 1979. Derry will continue as director of continuing education at the School of Dentistry, a post he has held for several years.

POLSA SPONSORS FOREIGN POLICY DISCUSSIONS

A four-part series of discussions on major topics of American foreign policy will be sponsored by the Student Political Science Association (POLSA) in Room 208, Cavanaugh Hall, from 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. on Feb. 15, 22, 29, and March 7. Feel free to bring your lunch and a friend for the sessions.

Discussion topics are: "USSR Under Andropov," "Mexico and the U.S.," "U.S. Security and World Peace," and "China and the U.S." The important background information on each topic is covered in a booklet, Great Decisions '84, published by the Foreign Policy Association for this purpose. These booklets may be checked out from the Political Science Department office, CA 506, prior to the meetings.

DRAMA WORKSHOPS SCHEDULED

Ezra Stone, who for 15 years played Henry on the radio comedy "The Aldrich Family," and his real-life wife, Sara Seegar, who played Mrs. Wilson on the televison series "Dennis the Menace," will conduct two four-hour workshops at IUPUI beginning at 9 a.m. Feb. 26 in the Mary Cable Building theater. IUPUI theater students will participate. The public is welcome and there is no charge.

The veteran actors also will judge a new play, "Liberty Taken," written by IUPUI student Ron Dye. Productions are Feb. 24-25 and March 2-3 at the Mary Cable Building. The play is entered in the David Library of American Freedom Playwriting Award Competition as part of the American College Theater Festival. Stone and the Hoosier-born Seegar are representing the David Library. Both have impressive credentials on Broadway, radio and television. For further information or tickets call ext. 2094.

Love A Volunteer

The spotlight will shine on both volunteers and the agencies nominating them for the Indianapolis Volunteer of the Year (IVY) Award as part of the 1984 Volunteer Recognition Week, April 8-15, sponsored by the United Way/Volunteer Action Center. Deadline for IVY nominations is March 5. Nomination forms may be obtained from Jane Schuler, University Relations, ext. 2104. The 10 IVY Award finalists and the IVY Award winner will be announced at a reception from 3 to 5 p.m. April 9 at the Children's Museum.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Associate Dean of the Faculties, IUPUI--Open on July 1, 1984, this position will be filled by a tenured member of the IUPUI faculty who will serve for the period July 1, 1984 to June 30, 1987. The following persons have been asked to assist Executive Dean Howard Schaller in preparing a recommendation to Vice President Irwin: John Barlow, School of Liberal Arts; Barbara B. Fischler, University Libraries; Edwin T. Harper, School of Medicine; Mary H. Mitchell, School of Law, Indianapolis; Robert M. Pearlstein, School of Science. Persons interested in the position or in suggesting names for it should communicate in writing with Dean Schaller or one of the above faculty members by March 12.

Director, Polish Studies Center, Bloomington--The Director reports to the Dean of International Programs, and is the University's principal officer responsible for the systemwide activities of the Polish Studies Center located on the Bloomington campus. Should be a tenured or tenure-track faculty member at I.U. with a strong interest in Polish Studies. Feb. 22 is the deadline for applications. Nominations and applications should be sent to Dr. Paul J. Nagy, Office of Academic Affairs, IUPUI, AO 108. Appointment is three years at 50 percent FTE.
