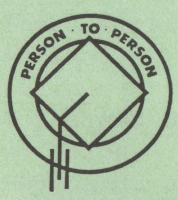
MOVING COMPANY CELEBRATES LIFE WITH DANCE

The IUPUI Moving Company, the modern dance troupe directed by Mary Maitland Kimball, invites you to its 5th anniversary concert, "Dance--A Celebration of Life," on April 29-30 at 8 p.m. in the IUPUI University Theatre in the Mary Cable Building. The troupe will dance to a range of music from Hoagy Carmichael to John Cougar Mellencamp. An oldie, "Somewhere Out There," from the movie, "An American Tail," also will be performed. A contemporary arrangement, "Designs, Images and Textures," will celebrate the relationship which exists between visual and performing arts. There is lots more. Tickets are $3 each and can be charged by phone by calling 4-0557. Box office hours are Monday and Wednesday from 2:30-5:30 p.m. and Friday, 1-5 p.m.

President Thomas Ehrlich will discuss proposals for the future of the University in an open faculty meeting at IUPUI on April 28, 1:30-3 p.m. in Emerson Hall. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the working draft of the proposal entitled, "Indiana: One University, Indiana at its Best, Academic Planning Paper, Spring 1988." The draft was printed in the April 4 issue of The I.U. Newspaper. Among the many proposals are a language requirement and increasing student/faculty contact. Susan Zunt, secretary of the IUPUI Faculty Council, reminds faculty that there is no parking adjacent to Emerson Hall.

JERRY AND JEAN BEPKO HEAD PERSON-TO-PERSON VOLUNTEERS ON CAMPUS



Higher education will be "up close and personal" with IUPUI's first Person-to-Person Week April 25-28. Almost 200 faculty and staff members will meet with potential students of all ages who have been invited from across the state. An "academic fair" of nearly 40 booths representing our 17 schools and divisions will be set up in the PE/Natatorium Building. Financial Aid, Admissions, University Access Center and others also will have booths. Vice President Gerald Bepko and his wife Jean have signed up to host prospective collegians. Nearly 200 staff and faculty members also will be hosts. Sessions are from noon-6 p.m. on April 25 and 9 a.m.-6 p.m. on April 26-28. Carol D. Nathan, associate dean of the faculties who is directing the project, said "We want to put a human face on higher education." She encourages all of us to participate. "If all faculty and staff would invite just one person to campus sometime during the week, there could be as many as 9,000 prospective students here that week," she said. Nathan's staff has brochure/invitations for you to give neighbors, friends and associates. You can help people register for a Person-to-Person visit by calling 4-2526 weekdays, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

THE DEADLINE NEARS FOR THE FREE EXCHANGE OF YOUR UNITY III PHONES. Units and departments not satisfied with the Unity III telephones have until April 29 to exchange them for one of two other choices, at no installation cost. This offer from Telecommunications includes only a one-for-one exhange, not additional phones. Demonstrations of the two other phones available, the Unity VII and the Panasonic Easa-Phone can be arranged. Lead Counselors should fill in the Unity III replacement form and mail it soon, or call 4-9900.

TRUSTEES GIVE NOD TO NEW APPOINTMENTS

A reception is already planned for Dr. Robert A. Harris, award-winning faculty member, whose appointment as chairman of the Dept. of Biochemistry was among the approvals given by the IU trustees at a recent meeting in Ft. Wayne. Former chairman Dr. David Gibson also will be honored at the reception on April 29, 3-6 p.m. in room 402, Medical Science Building. The trustees also approved the appointment of Dr. W. Eugene Roberts Jr. as department chairman and professor of orthodontics in the School of Dentistry, effective Aug. 1. He comes to us from the Pacific Dental Research Foundation, where he was director of the bone research lab. Dr. T. Dwight McKinney's appointment as professor of medicine and chief of the Section of Nephrology, School of Medicine, also was approved. He comes to us from the University of Texas Health Science Center, San Antonio. Other approvals include Dr. William J. Martin II as the Floyd and Reba Smith Professor of Medicine and chief of the Section of Pulmonology, School of Medicine. He was associate professor of medicine at the Mayo Medical School and Mayo Foundation and associate faculty member in the Dept. of Pharmacology in the Mayo Graduate School of Medicine, Rochester, Minn. Also, professor of pathology Dr. John E. Pless as the Culbertson Professor of Pathology. And, Ronald D. Anderson, former faculty member, returning to campus as the American United Life professor of business administration and professor of marketing, School of Business.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

They Stack Up--It is library week, April 17-23. Besides the tons of tomes they procure and handle, librarians answer thousands of reference questions, serve on the faculty and more. You might want to whisper your thanks.

Trio Ends Forum--The spring Women's Studies Forum concludes with three presentations to which everyone is invited. On Apr. 19 Connie Patsiner presents "The Working Woman: Myth & Reality (or) What We Want Ain't What We Got." On Apr. 20 Marshal Walz presents "Domestic Violence: Learned Attitudes toward Women." On Apr. 21 Haya Ascher-Svanum, psychologist from LaRue Carter Hospital, and graduate student Roselinda Cassini present "Sex of the Therapist: How Important Is It in Psychotherapy?" The forums are from noon-1 p.m. in CAV 001C-D. Bring lunch and enjoy.

Ego Building--University Access Center welcomes you a workshop called "Improving Self-Esteem" to be presented by Keith Truesdale on Apr. 20, 4-30-5:30 p.m., in the Center at 38th St. Call 4-2237.

Acting Up--Two one-act plays, "The Indian Wants the Bronx" and "Reasonable Circulation" will be presented at 8 p.m. and 9 p.m., respectively, on Apr. 19-20 in the Mary Cable Theatre by the IUPUI Student Directing Class. Tickets are $2 for one play, $3 for both and are available at the door. For more, call 635-6564.

Reminder--Graduate social work students at IUPUI, concerned with the spread of AIDS, will sponsor a forum on the subject on Apr. 19, 1:30-4 p.m. in the fourth floor commons, E/S. For more, call Brenda Hohman, 4-8364.

From Berkeley--John Zysman, political science professor from the U. of California, Berkeley, will give the keynote speech at an IU conference in Indianapolis on Apr. 26 on the impact of technological change in the workplace. Edmund Byrne, professor of philosophy at IUPUI, will be among the panelists. There is no charge. Register by calling the sponsor, the Poynter Center at IUB, SUVON 6-703-50261.

Next--Kathleen Gurney, author and president of Financial Psychology Corporation, will speak during a luncheon meeting of the Network of Women in Business on Apr. 20. For fees and more, call 637-2557.

DIRECT BANK DEPOSIT WILL BE AVAILABLE SOON ON CAMPUS, and to tell you about it, the payroll office is sponsoring information sessions on April 22 in the Nursing auditorium, 9:30-11 a.m. and 1:30-3 p.m. You can also fill in and return the brochure you should have received about the new procedure which makes it possible to have your payroll put into one account in the bank of your choice. Direct deposit can save you time and the headache of lost or stolen checks and deposits will be made automatically, even if you are traveling or on vacation. For more, call Lori Forsyth, 4-3910.

PLAN TO PLAN FOR FUTURE ON FRIDAY

What to do with the family place, taxes, the IRAs, pension plans and places to live, what will be in the coffers and what won't when you retire and more are subjects offered in Personnel's annual retirement planning program, "Designing Your Financial Future." You and your spouse are welcome to one or all sessions on April 22, 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. in the School of Nursing.

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Cancelled--The conference "Accessing Theatre through Playwriting" that was scheduled for Apr. 15-16 on campus is cancelled for lack of registrants. Planned for the handicapped and older people, the conference was to be sponsored by Very Special Arts Indiana and the IUPUI University Theatre.

For Nurse Managers--Indiana University Hospitals, with assistance from Baxter Corp., is sponsoring one-day workshops for nurse managers/administrators on May 9 or May 10. Titled "Team Building for the Nursing Manager: Attaining and Retaining into the 90s," the workshops feature Evelyn Hartigan, EdD, associate administrator of patient care services and associate dean of the College of Nursing, U. of Utah Hospital, Salt Lake City. Registration deadline is Apr. 29. For costs and more, call Linda Hughey, 4-3717.

Benefit--Clara J. Marshall, from Communications and Theater, will direct benefit performances of Studs Terkel's play, "Working," Apr. 18-19, 8 p.m. at the Vogue Theater in Broad Ripple. Tickets, at the door only, are $10, with proceeds going to Very Special Arts Indiana, the Damien Center and the new Center for Attitudinal Healing.

A Pat for All--Dr. Angenieta A. Biegel, professor of medicine, noticed the "pat for pathology" lab folks in last week's Green Sheet, and hopes we will all note that there are thousands of others on campus who also diligently do lab work and assist greatly in the care of our patients and in research.

Back by Demand--By request, Dr. Tom DeCoster, director of executive education, SPEA, is again offering the workshop, "Superwoman/Supermom." It will be Apr. 30, 9 a.m.-noon in SPEA. Call Peggy Zike, 4-3418 for fees and more.

Last Lunch--The last lunch offered in a series by advanced students in Restaurant, Hotel and Institutional Management is Apr. 18 at noon in the Lockerbie Fare Restaurant and features New England cuisine of stuffed mushrooms or a baked bean and tomato soup, cider baked ham, parsley potatoes, broccoli, baking powder biscuits, applesauce pie and coffee or tea. Cost is $10; no tips or tax. Proceeds benefit the Ronald McDonald House. For reservations, call 4-7649.

Microbiology/Immunology--Dr. Richard D. Karp, professor, Dept. of Biological Sciences, U. of Cincinnati, will present "The Adaptive Immune Response in Insects" on Apr. 21, 4 p.m., MS 205. Refreshments at 3:30 p.m.

Women Talks--Mary Jo Brock, RN, MSN, presents "Exercise and Pregnancy" in the next Women's Health Awareness talk on Apr. 21, noon, UH-C261. Register at 4-1621.

PUDDING DROP, RAPPELLING, MUSIC IN COLOSSAL COLLEGIATE "WEEKEND"

It's not on the weekend now, but someday it will be, so planners from the IUPUI Student Government have renamed the annual campus spring celebration, the Colossal Collegiate Weekend. Its new beginnings are from Apr. 25-28, more or less, on or around Library Mall. On Apr. 25 a band plays from noon-1:15 p.m. Sports Spectacular is Apr. 26, 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Teams should think now about entering Dizzy-Izzy, a super silly relay that fools with your equilibrium. There is also Pudding Drop, in which one team member crawls atop a ladder and from a wooden spoon drops pudding into the mouth of the team member at the bottom of the ladder. There's a Little Red Wagon race for teams of two and there are free T-shirts for the first 300 participants. The same day, Apr. 26, from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., rappelling cadets and cadre in the Dept. of Military Science/ROTC will jump into spring from atop Cavanaugh Hall and land at the end of their ropes somewhere close to the northwest corner of the building. Finally, the finale is the Celebration of Spring Dance on Apr. 28 at the Indiana Roof Ballroom from 8 p.m. 'til midnight. You can still get your tickets from Student Activities in LY 002 or from Student Government in LY 006A. For more, call Robert Schilling, Student Government president, who is in charge of the festivities.
