

green sheet

volume thirteen, number twenty-two

june 12, 1983

Celebrate the Extraordinary!

The Indianapolis Museum of Art celebrates its 100th anniversary this year. The Centennial will be recognized from 7 p.m. to midnight Saturday, June 25, at the Party of the Century, which will be held on the Terrace of the museum's Krannert Pavilion

Open to the public, the party is expected to attract a large number of business and government leaders. Guests are being invited to wear costumes reflecting four periods in the Museum's history; The Gay Nineties, Roaring Twenties, Fabulous Forties, and Extraordinary Eighties. The music and menu for the evening will be in keeping with these eras.

Museum galleries will be open for the party, featuring the current exhibition, "The 69th Indiana Artists Show." Bands and individual performers will provide music throughout the party, and dance presented by the Indianapolis Ballet Theatre and Dance Kaleidoscope and a midnight fireworks display will complete the evening's entertainment.

Tickets are $30 per person for Museum members, $45 per person for nonmembers. Tickets will be sold at the first floor information desk of the IMA and the Indianapolis City Center, located on Monument Circle.

FAMILY RECREATION OFFERED

Family members of a recreation pass holder may use the facilities at the School of Physical Education from 4 to 6 p.m. each Monday, beginning tomorrow (June 13) through Aug. 8. A family member with a valid recreation fee receipt or validated ID card must accompany any and all family members.

The instructional pool, outdoor basketball courts, gymnasium, track, softball diamonds and weight rooms will be at the disposal of the family. For more information, contact Jeff Vessely, director of intramural and recreational sports, ext. 2824.

SPECIAL AQUATIC WHEELCHAIR ACQUIRED

A specially designed aquatic wheelchair soon will be purchased for use in the pools and showers at the natatorium and physical education facility. Purchase is made possible with proceeds from a recent campus-wide sale of 5,000 roses sponsored by the Disabled Student Organization (DSO) and Delta Sigma Phi scholastic honorary, and by matching funds from the University.

Dr. Glenn W. Irwin Jr., I.U. vice president for Indianapolis, accepted the gift

From DSO officers, Vice President Bill Bayh, freshman, and Treasurer David Scott, senior, and from Ann Williams, vice president of Delta Sigma Phi.

CORRECTION

In the list of promotions carried in the May 22 issue of the Green Sheet, the name of Dr. J. John Harris was omitted. He was promoted from associate to full professor in the School of Education. Also omitted from the School of Medicine list of those promoted from assistant professor to associate professor were Steven Eyanson and William B. Fisher (clinical). We regret the error.

NEW 'N' NOTES FROM 'N' THERE

Administrative & Fiscal Affairs Forum-- The Forum will meet at 9 a.m. Tuesday (June 14) at the Universty Theatre in the Mary Cable Building. Dr. J. Edgar Webb will make a presentation.

Radiation Oncology Residents' Day--The Department of Radiation Oncology will sponsor a Residents' Day program from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday, (June 18) in the auditorium of Emerson Hall. In addition to presentations by department residents, Dr. Lawrence Davis, associate chairman of the Radiation Therapy Oncology Group, will discuss "RTOG Head and Neck Studies Involving Chemotherapy." Physicians, residents, nurses and all allied health personnel are welcome.

Pulmonary Nursing Fellowship--A $7,500 fellowship in pulmonary medicine funded by the American Lung Association of Indiana is available for a qualified doctoral student in the Nursing Synthesis major at the I.U. School of Nursing. Applications and two letters of reference should be received by July 1. Notification will occur after July 15. For additional information and/or submission of application for fellowship contact Dr. Rosanne C. Perez, I.U. School of Nursing, NU 439, ext. 4839.

Positions Available--Needed: Instructors to teach laboratory sections in the following Fall Semester courses--N261, human anatomy for nurses, TR 5:30-7:20; K341, ecology, MW 1-2:50, or 3-4:50; and K323 genetics, MF 10:30-12:20 or 1-2:50. Contact Dr. Ralph Ockerse at the 38th Street Campus, phone 923-1321, ext. 271, as soon as possible...Part-time position to teach B215 Nutrition throughout the Life Cycle, School of Nursing, Baccalaureate Program. Masters degree in nutrition expected. Contact M.J. Pontious, chairperson, search committee, I.U. School of Nursing, 610 Barnhill Drive, Indianapolis 46223.... Full-time faculty position, Graduate Program, I.U. School of Nursing. Teach Community Health Nursing. Masters degree in nursing and doctorate required, as well as evidence of scholarliness in research, and teaching at the graduate level. Contact Dr. Helen Dorsch, Associate Dean, Graduate Programs, I.U. School of Nursing.

Closing--The Office of the Bursar will be closed for Summer II Registration on the following dates: June 23, June 24, June 27, June 28, June 30. The office will open at 1 p.m. on July 1.

Volunteers Needed--Hospitality Center volunteers are needed to greet athletes from all over Indiana who will compete in the First Annual White River Park State Games, July 2-4. Call Joan Straszewski, 299-3555, or Lisa Vasquez, 783-4838, after 6 p.m.

Pet Department--Good home needed for three 7-week old male kittens. Call Karen, ext. 7671....Two kittens (tiger striped, housebroken) need good homes. Phone 872-7401.

Housesitter Available--IUPUI faculty member interested in "housesitting" during the academic year of 1983-84. Contact Cathy Hines at ext. 2812.

Wanted to Rent--Furnished two-bedroom apartment or home for a pastor and his wife (returned missionaries from India), no children or pets, from August 1, 1983 through June 1984. Couple will bring personal linens, dishes, kitchen utensils. Contact Mary Ann Spengler at 842-1717, if no answer call Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 251-5139, and ask for Pastor Spengler.

Identification Card Schedule--IUPUI Identification Cards for faculty members and students will be made June 20-24 in the Physical Education Building. Call ext. 3931 for specific details and a time for an appointment.

Retiring--Retiring this month are Dallas R. Burns Sr., refrigeration mechanic with the Physical Plant for 23 years, and Geneva Robinson, who has worked as a maid with Environmental Services for 29 years. Both intend to relax and travel.

Benefit Picnic Jam--Local rock acts and other good things will be the order of the day when the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation of Indianapolis sponsors a Benefit Picnic Jam at 10 a.m. Sunday, June 26, at Stoneycreek Farm in Noblesville. Advance concert tickets ($5) may be purchased at all Indianapolis Convenient Food Marts. Tickets will cost $6 the day of the concert. Proceeds go the Foundation for the detection, treatment, and search for a cure for Myasthenia Gravis, a neuromuscular disorder that may strike anyone at any age. For more information call 543-4538.

Brown County Playhouse Opens--"The Philadelphia Story," a comedy of manners set in mainline Philadelphia, is the opening offering of the Brown County Playhouse, well-known summer theater operated by the I.U. Department of Theater and Drama in Nashville, Ind. It may be seen Wednesday through Sunday June 15-19, 22-26, and June 29-July 3. "On Golden Pond" will be presented in July. For further information or to purchase tickets ($6 for adults, $3 for persons 12 and under, and coupon books providing six admissions for $30), call the I.U. Auditorium, (812) 335-1103, or the Playhouse in Nashville, (812) 988-2123.

Operatic--The Indianapolis Opera will present Gilbert & Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore at 8 p.m. Friday (June 17) and 2:30 p.m. Sunday (June 19) at the Murat Theatre. There is an opera Preview Program one hour before the curtain. Tickets are available at Ross & Babcock, L.S. Ayres Stores Ticket Booths, and the Indianapolis Symphony Box Office in Clowes Hall, or call Charge-A-Ticket, 637-7000.

And Symphonic--The second Annual Symphony on the Prairie summer concert series will be presented by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra at the Conner Prairie Pioneer Settlement beginning June 22 and continuing throughout July. Concerts will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Conner Prairie, 13400 Allisonville Road. Gates will open at 5:30 p.m. and concertgoers are encouraged to bring a blanket or folding chairs, a picnic supper and tour the 1836 village in full activity with costumed interpreters before the concert begins at sunset. Joshua Bell, 15 year old violin prodigy, will be the soloist in the opening concert. Other dates are June 25 and 29, and July 2, 6, 13, 20, and 23. For further information call 923-2500.

Midsummer Festival--And Cathedral Arts will sponsor the Eighth Annual Midsummer

Festival from 5 p.m. to midnight Saturday (June 18) in Monument Circle and surrounding areas. Billed as a night of music, merriment and feasting, special family hours have been arranged from 5 to 8 p.m., when youngsters may shake hands with jovial clowns and delight in a "small world" of jugglers, unicyclists, magicians, mimes and street theater. More than 40 of the city's restaurants will be represented with tables and booths. Advance sale tickets at all AFNB branches are $3; gate admission is $4, with children under 10 free. Food and beverage tickets at 50 cents each are available in books at $5.

HONORS & ACCOLADES

Dr. Dorothy Webb, associate professor of theater and communications in the School of Liberal Arts, recently was elected to the board of directors of the American Theater Association, the governing body for the Association's 9,000 members representing every area of non-commercial theater across the country.

John D. Williams, Director of Communication Services, has been recognized as International Member of the Year by the In-Plant Printing Management Association (IPMA). He was chosen from members of all chapters throughout the 50 states. The award was presented at the Annual IPMA International Conference in May.

Corki Wilson, producer/director for publications and information with the Medical Educational Resources Program of the School of Medicine, was presented with a special award of appreciation by the board of directors of the International Health Sciences Communications Association at the Association's annual meeting at San Francisco in May. She has served on the board for four years, and was secretary of the Executive Committee for the past two years. She has edited the Association's eight-page newsletter since 1977.

Dr. Angela B. McBride, professor in the School of Nursing, has been asked to serve on the Social Policy Committee of the Society for Research in Child Development.

Dr. E. R. (Ed) Stone, associate professor of speech pathology in the Department of Otorhinolaryngology of the School of Medicine, recently presented a full-day workshop on Voice Disorders and two half-day workshops on Non-Organically Based Voice Disorders and Laryngectomy Rehabilitation at the New Jersey Speech and Hearing Association. He also was an invited lecturer on Voice Disorders at the Canadian Speech and Hearing Association National Convention.

Dr. David Bostwick, associate dean of the Purdue University School of Engineering and Technology at IUPUI, has been elected president of the Indianapolis Scientific and Engineering Foundation. It is the liaison organization among 44 scientific and engineering societies in the Central Indiana area.

Dr. Marguerite Shepard, professor of OB/GYN, was the keynote speaker for the Professional Childbirth Educators Workshop at IU-PU Fort Wayne recently.

Dr. Elizabeth Kelly-Fry, a senior research scientist, Indianapolis Center for Advance Research, presented an invited paper to the Third International Congress on Ultrasonic Examination of the Breast in Tokyo, Japan last week.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

(ARCH-800321)

ARCHIVES
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
420 BLAKE ST