Agenda Item III: Memorial Resolutions for Librarian Marie Turner-Wright (University Library) and Professor Marilyn S. Bartlett (School of Medicine)

Circulars 2015-05 and 2015-06 appended to the minutes.

Agenda Item IV: Updates/Remarks from the Chancellor

Charles R. Bantz, Chancellor

Bantz reported on the following:

- The Purdue University Board of Trustees met at IUPUI this month. He felt their visit was successful.
- The Ph.D. in music technology was approved by the Board of Trustees.
- Associate Vice Chancellor for Enrollment Management Rebecca Porter was the speaker at the faculty retiree luncheon held earlier in the day. Although she was expected to retire, Porter was asked, and agreed, to stay one more year while a search is done for her successor.
- The Graduate Professional Student Group held an “Elite Top 50” event for the top graduate students. Over 100 applications were received. Janice Barlow won top student.

- The Indiana legislature closed its business for the year. The university budget went well and will show an increase for IUPUI and the university as a whole. The Woodrow Wilson Fellows received $5 million in funding and the program will continue.
- Occupants of University Hall should begin moving into their new offices in three weeks. Some will begin moving the first part of June with everyone in by the end of June. The IU Foundation and Alumni Association are on the first floor where two high-tech classrooms are also located, the School of Social Work is on the second floor, the Lilly Family School of Philanthropy is on the third floor, and administration is on the fourth and fifth floors. The building is in walkable distance for meetings and the conference rooms have fabulous views.
- Groundbreaking has occurred for North Hall, the new student residence hall.
- IU Health announced last week they will be building an entirely new hospital at 16th Street and Capitol. All of IU University Hospital and some departments of Methodist Hospital will move to that facility.
- The legislature did not fund renovation for Carroll Stadium. That does not mean that it could not happen in a future session.
- There is downward pressure on tuition. He will be surprised if the university receives 2%.
- The eastside of Indianapolis was chosen for improvement by the state. He anticipates this project will be good for campus community engagement.
- Robin Newhouse has been appointed as the new dean of the IU School of Nursing. Newhouse comes from the University of Maryland Baltimore.
- It was announced that IUB Provost Lauren Robel's husband died earlier in the week from a surfing accident in Hawaii. Vice President John Applegate will serve as acting provost in her absence.

Agenda Item V: Updates / Remarks from the IFC President

Marianne Wokeck, IUPUI Faculty President

Wokeck reported on the following:

- The search for the next IUPUI chancellor is underway.
- The pilot project for the online course questionnaire/evaluation has finished. Several schools participated. The administration is poised to take the next step. In light of the experience in piloting Blue, attention needs to turn to the questions asked to students. The questions are changed once a year.
- The search for the vice president for research is in the silent phase with the goal of filling the position by August 2015.
- She thanked the members for their participation on the IFC this academic year and offered a special thanks to those who participated on IFC committees as well.

As the motions needed no second, the votes were taken and the motions approved.

Agenda Item VIII: [Discussion Item – Vote] Faculty Bonus Plan for IUPUI

Ben Boukai, Committee Member, Faculty Affairs Committee

Boukai presented the revised policy as appended. The appended draft reflects the discussion below.

Discussion:

- Russomanno asked if a bullet point could be added to say bonus pay is separate from research incentive pay and extra compensation and to make it explicit so it is not left to interpretation. Boukai responded yes, and that the committee meant it to be that way. Russomanno said it should be separate from unanticipated overload.
- Hassell asked if a unit has no bonus plan, we cannot just say we do not have one, right? Lavitt responded yes.
- S. Rhodes acknowledged that Boukai mentioned in his introduction of the policy that the School of Medicine was complex. But, he thought the goal of the policy was consistency. He asked the School of Medicine faculty present if the sentence in the policy makes sense. [recording inaudible] Rhodes said the council was told the policy was overarching policy for the campus. Boukai said in terms of the procedure, the oversight was the same, but the question is how to figure salary for the bonus. Hurley said the medicine policy had not be implemented in his department, but core plus adjustable was considered base. Rhodes said then he could change that part of his motion to “10% of individual base salaries is the maximum for faculty bonuses (component 4 in medicine).” Hurley said that would make sense. Rhodes then said that was his motion and it would make the next sentence make sense. The motion was seconded and discussion opened. Froehlich said as Hurley mentioned the base was seen as adjustable already, she was not sure the extra language was needed as it is still base. Berbari said some people think it is set and other do not. How does everyone feel? An unidentified faculty member said the phrase “total compensation” to some people is going to mean salary plus benefits. Hurley said from the School of Medicine side, that has been a major point of contention between the faculty and administration. The faculty member said she was not sure if the term “total compensation” should be used. The motion passed.

- Russomanno made a motion to add a bullet point saying that “Bonus pay is distinct from research incentive pay and extra compensation.” The motion was seconded and passed.
- A question was asked about the word “must” in the first three bullet points under “process.” Was that intentional? Boukai responded that it was. One bullet point says “should.” It should be changed to “must.” The change was made. A motion was made to change this and it was seconded. Discussion was that the second bullet point was not being consistent. It makes a distinction over who approves the bonus pay. In the one we just did, it must be done by a faculty governance group, not an administrator. Once we have a policy, who decides? This raises a different issue. Who approves? We need to be consistent. It should be by faculty governance group. The motion passed.
- A motion was made to change “total compensation” to “total salary.” The motion was seconded. Hurley said that if the School of Medicine wants to calculate bonuses on total compensation that is money out of their pocket. Rhodes supported the motion because it makes everyone on the same playing field. Schneider asked if the School of Medicine specifically asked for the language and who is the School of Medicine? [inaudible] Boukai said it is the view of the School of Medicine. The motion passed.
- Froehlich asked to consider shortening the second bullet point to, “10 percent of individual’s base salary is the maximum for faculty bonuses (base salary in the School of Medicine is defined as core plus adjustable).” Also delete the next two bullet points. This was made in the form of a motion. The motion was seconded and passed.

A motion was made to approve the revised policy. The motion was seconded and passed. The policy as passed is as follows:

Faculty Bonus Plan for IUPUI

Scope

This policy applies to Responsibility Centers (RC) that elect to award faculty bonuses.

Policy Statement

Each Responsibility Center (RC) must develop its own specific policy and process, in consultation with appropriate faculty governance groups. The bonus policy must be approved by IUPUI Finance and Administration.

Faculty bonuses at IUPUI differ from annual merit raises in terms of the source and process for funding. RC leaders recognize annual meritorious contributions during annual pay increase opportunities. A one-time cash bonus may be awarded no more than once every fiscal year in recognition of extraordinary accomplishment in service, teaching, research, and/or creative activity.

Cash bonuses cannot replace raises but are awarded in addition to raises. Raises should be awarded equitably and independent of any cash bonus award. Bonuses may not be given from funds that are intended for yearly raises. Bonus awards, like salaries, must be a matter of record made available upon request. The percentage and amount of each awarding RC's budget allocated to such bonuses annually must be available upon request.

Procedures

Only full-time appointed faculty members are eligible for faculty bonuses.

Agenda Item IX: Board of Review Annual Report

Marianne Wokeck

Wokeck gave the following report:

Annual Report on Board of Review Activity Since May 2014

Total Number of Board of Review Cases:	0
Total Number of Requests Denied:	0

Number of Board of Review Cases for:

- Dismissal
- Academic Freedom
- Non-Reappointment
- Tenure
- Promotion
- Salary Adjustment
- Nature or Conditions of Work
- Office of Equal Opportunity

Board of Review Case 12-01 disbanded due to inaction by the grievant.

Members of the Faculty Grievance Advisory Panel reported one contact by a faculty member or librarian during the 2013-2014 academic year.

- 0 Grievances were resolved prior to any request for a Board of Review.
- 0 Grievance was sent to a Board of Review.
- 0 Grievances have not been referred to a Board of Review.

Agenda Item X: [Information Item] Office of Equal Opportunity Annual Report

Kim Kirkland, Director

Kirkland gave the report as appended to the minutes.

Among the questions asked during the presentation, it was asked why the campus is losing so many faculty in comparison to the number applying. Kirkland responded saying that the faculty are resigning for better opportunities, going with their spouses elsewhere, or taking early retirement. Some of the separations were voluntary.

Agenda Item XI: [Information Item] Athletics Annual Report

W. Patrick Sullivan, Chair, Athletic Affairs Committee

Sullivan gave the presentation appended to the minutes. The committee is an advisory committee with a primary focus on student athlete's wellbeing. They may also review coaches, serve on search committees, and provide advice on potential disciplinary issues. In the last academic year, the committee asked the Faculty Council to reduce the size of the committee, and that recommendation passed by council vote. He said the small committee size has worked very well. They adopted a set of standard issues that would be discussed at each meeting, setting an agenda focusing on compliance. The student Athletic Affairs Committee does community work in a proactive way. Coaches work on community service with their students. Student athletes do exit surveys when they exhaust their eligibility. The data is not as complete as they would like and have met with Dr. Jeff Dean to work on that. In their most recent meeting, the budget was discussed. While men's basketball moved to the Fairgrounds Coliseum, they have been disappointed with the number of game attendees, but are pleased with the facility and program.

Sullivan shared the Commissioner's Cup standings. IUPUI is third in overall conference points. The program is successful even with the small budget they have compared to their peers. Athletic success is not compromised in the classroom. Bantz said there is a university that spends three times the budget IUPUI has, yet we are still doing very well.

Agenda Item XII: Report from the Campus Planning and Budgetary Affairs Committees

L. Jack Windsor, Chair, Budgetary Affairs Committee

Tom Hurley, Member, Campus Planning Committee

The committee reports are appended to the minutes, and includes the results of the 2015 Faculty Survey.

Agenda Item XIII: Call for IFC or UFC Standing Committee Reports

Research Affairs Committee (RAC): Simon Atkinson, committee chair, reported on progress toward the Grand Challenge Initiative. Not much has been talked about since January or February with the announcement of Vice President Jose stepping down. The President's Office wanted the initiatives coordinated across the entire system. The Office of the Vice President for Research is going ahead with conversations to move the initiative forward. It is hoped the campus will start to see significant progress in the Research Strategic Plan in the new academic year.

Agenda Item XIV: Question / Answer Period

The following questions were asked and discussed:

- Silverman asked about a rule that was introduced in March that prohibits all non-faculty/staff with JD degrees from using or mentioning their degree in any professional correspondence they do for the university. Soon after, the edict was revoked, but now has been reinstated again. He said this is not a faculty issue directly, but it is about our students we teach, alums we graduate, and employees we want to hire and whose morale needs to be maintained. The rule sends a negative message about the graduate degree from this university, and it sets a very dangerous precedent. He is strongly opposed to the rule and has a letter from an alum and employee who is outraged, but cannot state his case strongly because of the way hiring and firing is done. How could this measure be put in place without the input from the Faculty and Staff Councils and other bodies? Silverman said he may make a motion to recommend a statement by the IFC opposing the rule. He asked what the campus was doing about the rule. Bantz said it is something that came from the Office of General Counsel from a complaint by a person who felt he was misled by another person as being counsel for the university. How does one stipulate that you are a legal representative of the university? The complaint was not adjudicated with a negative outcome, but it was felt the university was at risk. Other universities are doing it and has done it. It is a risk management decision that was made and was not an accident. Taking the policy back in the first place was not done by general counsel. It can be done without consultation. It is one that could/should have been consulted. It cannot be applied to academics. Silverman said there are many steps that could be taken that say people have the right to state they have completed a degree. Bantz agreed to that statement.

- Schneider asked what the raise percentage, if any, for the new academic year might be. Bantz said there has not been guidance issued on tuition or raises to date. The model in the budget hearings was 2.5% in raises and tuition; however, you can never separate tuition from raises. There is no other revenue stream that is significant. If he was to project, the modeling was pretty close. The deans will have the availability in their own RCs to do less or more. In addition, he said the university continues its stance on no flat raises. The Board of Trustees do not approve of flat raises or across-the-board raises. Instead, they approve in the differentiation of merit raises. He said there will be some significant attention on tuition in what we are charging residents and non-residents. He is pleased the university can continue to talk about raises when another major university has gone with raises for six years. IU was able to hire faculty during the recession.
- Regarding the hospital consolidation, what will happen to the building here and the monorail? Bantz said he is not on the board for the hospital and reads newspaper reports carefully. The Indianapolis Star recently said that IU Hospital could be used as a rehabilitation/long-term care hospital. He was told casually, the report on its analysis is that it needs major renovation. It was also very clear in the article that the transition could be five to eight years. No one is clear how healthcare should be delivered eight years out.

Bantz took the opportunity to thank those faculty who had been members of the IFC for a long or short time. He appreciated the work of faculty governance and thanked them for the support even when questions were not always easy to answer. This meeting marked the last meeting with Bantz as chancellor.

Agenda Item XV: Unfinished Business

There was no Unfinished Business.

Agenda Item XVI: New Business

There was no New Business.

Agenda item XVII: Report from the IUPUI Staff Council

- The spring blood drive was successful yielding 82 donations.
- The School of Dentistry donated the most bottle caps from the Staff Council for the Bottle Caps to Benches campaign.
- Stone thanked the Faculty Council for their work with the Staff Council during his three years as council president. This marked his last meeting. Jim Klenner will be the new president.

Report on Council Actions 2014-15 (per Bylaws Article 1. Section C.3)

Items that have been completed by the committees follow the Assignments for committees.

Assignments (Items in red have been brought to the IFC for a first read):

Academic Affairs Committee

- Campus Policy on Limits in Withdrawal: Policy to be voted on by AAFC, EC, and IFC fall 2013. (Oct. 2013: The AAC agreed that the policy was too restrictive. They agreed that students should not be allowed to enroll and withdraw (or fail) a given course numerous times. Perhaps an alternative solution is to block registration for such students, initiated at the unit level. The registrar will investigate creating lists of students who enroll repeatedly in the same course. These lists could be provided to the appropriate unit for action (registration block), if the units choose to do so. Annual Report 2014: The proposed policy was put on hold pending further fact-finding and deliberation.)
- Attending Classes Without Being Enrolled: Policy to be voted on by AAFC, EC, and IFC fall 2013. (Oct. 2013 & Annual Report: The AAC has put the policy on hold and will do further fact-finding.)
- Calculation of GPAs. How much campus policy harmonization is going to be suggested as a part of the student services initiative? (Annual Report 2014: Carried over from 2012-2013. Should this assignment be eliminated?)

- FGAP Bylaws revision (problem raised by Handbook Committee/Faculty Affairs Committee last year). (Update 7-10-14: No action at this time; keep on agenda.)

- Undergraduate Curriculum Advisory Committee: Is the committee doing what the vision for the committee was set out to do. (Update 2-25-14: With the Strategic Plan, this committee is under review by the Academic Affairs Committee and Faculty Affairs Committee as they determine whether the IFC should endorse an Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. The Constitution and Bylaws Committee will be asked to make a motion to remove the UCAC from the IFC Bylaws should the IFC endorse the new committee. The committee has been endorsed, so a motion is needed.)

At the 4-24-14 EC meeting, an administrative committee was formed composed of Melissa Lavitt, Rick Ward, Simon Atkinson, Jack Windsor, and the chair of the FAC. (*Note: 1-22-15 IFC-EC: The IFC-EC heard a report from Melissa Lavitt on the usage of the policy. It was decided the academic deans would be surveyed to see how often the policy is used. Marilyn Snyder Bartlett MS (1928 - 2015)

Emerita Professor Pathology and Laboratory Medicine

Marilyn was born in Lincoln, Nebraska, on October 19, 1928, to Mildred and Ivan Snyder. She was raised in Indianapolis and attended Shortridge High School then Purdue University for a BS. She trained in Medical Technology at Indiana University. She married James Bartlett in 1951 and had five children. After the youngest began school in 1970, she began to work in the Microbiology Laboratories at IU Hospital. She also began studying for a Master's Degree under Dr. Clyde Culbertson receiving an MS in 1974. In the hospital microbiology laboratory there was a need for better Parasitology, and she did an outstanding job of developing that area. She subsequently did the same for the field of Mycology, the study of fungi. In the late 1970's an outbreak of Pneumocystis pneumonia occurred in children at Riley Hospital who were being treated for Acute Lymphatic Leukemia with an aggressive new leukemia therapy that severely depressed the child's immune system. In the early 1980s at IU hospitals and around the country, Pneumocystis pneumonia began to appear in gay men, a manifestation of the immune suppression in HIV/AIDS. Because Pneumocystis pneumonia was so devastating for these patients, Marilyn performed pioneer work to develop animal models of Pneumocystis in rats and mice and to develop a culture system to allow study of this difficult organism. The need for alternate therapies for Pneumocystis was urgent and as one of the few research groups working with that organism, Marilyn along with Dr. James W. Smith applied for and received NIH funding. Adding Dr. Sherry Queener in the Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology, the Indiana Pneumocystis group discovered that the combination of Clindamycin plus Primaquine was effective in animal models and subsequently in humans. Today, this combination is a recognized alternate therapy for Pneumocystis pneumonia. She held two patents for anti-Pneumocystis drugs.

Marilyn Bartlett was a gifted microscopist who worked in diagnosing pulmonary infections in immunocompromised patients. These complicated infections were often caused by fungi and occasionally by parasites, viruses, or bacteria. The diagnostic protocol developed with Marilyn saved many lives by assuring proper diagnosis and therapy.

After retiring from IU in 1998, Marilyn became a Fulbright Research Scholar at Moi University School of Medicine and Moi Teaching and Referral Hospital in Eldoret, Kenya, where she trained technologists to identify parasites and fungi, including those seen in HIV/AIDS patients. She subsequently served on a Fulbright SubSaharan Study Section 2000-2003. Marilyn wrote over 130 referred scientific publications, and presented numerous talks and workshops at regional, national, and international meetings. She also served on some NIH grant review bodies as a recognized leader in mycology and parasitology.

Some of her professional activities include National Committee for Clinical Laboratory Standards; Member National Institutes of Health-Planning Panels; "Outstanding Contribution to Clinical Microbiology Award"; Foundation Lecturer American Society for Microbiology; President, South Central Association for Clinical Microbiology;

Medical Mycological Society of Americas, International Society for Human and Animal Mycoses, American Society for Tropical Medicine and Hygiene, Immune Compromised Host Society, and Sigma Xi. She is listed in Who's Who in American Women and Who's Who Women of Science.

Marilyn's community interests and contributions were extensive and involved the Indianapolis Museum of Art, St. Margaret's Hospital Guild, Eiteljorg Museum, the Children's Museum, IUPUI University Library, Indianapolis Sailing Club, Antiquarian Society, and Maxinkuckee Yacht Club in Culver. She was a Sagamore of the Wabash. Marilyn is survived by husband of sixty four years, James D. Bartlett Sr.; her five children, James D. Bartlett Jr. (Michele), Elizabeth B. Foland, Thomas M. Bartlett (Rosie), Matthew Clark Bartlett (Cindy), and Amy L. Cooper (Rick); nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

THUS, BE IT RESOLVED: that this memorial resolution be placed in the minutes of the IUPUI Faculty Council with a moment of silence observed in her honor.

Prepared by James W. Smith, Professor Emeritus of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, IU School of Medicine

Adopted by the IUPUI Faculty Council at their meeting on May 5, 2015.

Memorial Resolution on Behalf of

Marie Turner-Wright
May 13, 1936-December 8, 2014
Librarian Emeritus
IUPUI University Library

The IUPUI University Library is profoundly saddened by the passing of our esteemed colleague, Marie Turner-Wright. Ms. Turner-Wright served the campus for twenty years as a librarian, as well as an adjunct faculty member in the English Department of the IU School of Liberal Arts at IUPUI.

Ms. Turner-Wright graduated from Shortridge High School in Indianapolis and received her Bachelor of Arts from Indiana University in Bloomington. In addition to an M.L.S., also from IU Bloomington, she held a post-master's specialization in Folklore.

Ms. Turner-Wright began her professional career as an elementary school teacher in the Indianapolis Public Schools system. Her first library position was with the Indianapolis Marion County Public Library as an assistant in Children's Services. She later served as a head branch librarian.

After a term as a visiting assistant librarian, Ms. Turner-Wright joined the University Library as an associate librarian in 1985. During her tenure at University Library, Ms. Turner-Wright worked in Government Documents, Bibliographic Instruction, and Reference. She was Acting Head of Public Services for two years. In addition, she was successful in bringing to the library a number of culturally significant national exhibits, which facilitated exchange between the campus and the Indianapolis community. Ms. Turner-Wright retired in 2001.

Throughout her IUPUI career, Ms. Turner-Wright was esteemed by colleagues campus-wide. A number of awards and distinctions demonstrate her significant contributions to the IUPUI community. These include the Glenn W. Irwin, Jr., M.D. Experience Excellence Recognition Award (1995), the Herbert S. & Virginia White Professional Development Award (1999) and the Outstanding Contribution Award from the IUPUI Black Faculty and Staff Conference in 2002.

In retirement, Ms. Turner-Wright taught as an adjunct faculty member at Martin University. She also served on the Board of Directors of the Indianapolis Public Library and the Dean's Advisory Council for the IU School of Liberal Arts at IUPUI. In 2007, in commemoration of the important people in her life, she established the Marie Turner-Wright Scholarship for Africana Studies for undergraduates at IUPUI.

Ms. Turner-Wright had many interests beyond the University. Among these were horticulture, music and story-telling. Her passion to fight censorship led her to be active in the Freedom to Read Foundation. She was also a member of the Indianapolis Fortnightly Literary Club.

Ms. Turner-Wright was an advocate for life-long learning and diversity. She was a trusted teacher and mentor, a caring friend and a community connector. Her service at IUPUI made a difference in the lives of many.

THUS, BE IT RESOLVED: that this memorial resolution be placed in the minutes of the IUPUI Faculty Council with a moment of silence observed in her honor.

This resolution is written on behalf of Ms. Turner-Wright's students, staff and colleagues. This resolution was prepared by Kindra Orr, University Library Assistant Dean for Administration.

Adopted by the IUPUI Faculty Council at their meeting on May 5, 2015.

Scope

This policy applies to Responsibility Centers (RC) that elect to award faculty bonuses, only to those units that are able to afford the cost of faculty bonuses. If unit level resources are available, then bonuses should be awarded according to this policy.

Policy Statement

IUPUI seeks to implement a faculty bonus plan for the purposes of recognizing, rewarding, and retaining faculty talent. Each Responsibility Center (RC) must should develop its own specific policy and process, in consultation with appropriate faculty governance groups. The bonus policy must written document should be approved by IUPUI Finance and Administration.

Faculty bonuses at IUPUI differ from annual merit raises in terms of the source and process for funding. RC leaders recognize annual meritorious contributions during annual pay increase opportunities. A one-time cash bonus may be awarded no more than once every fiscal year in recognition of extraordinary accomplishment in service, teaching, research, and/or creative activity.

Cash bonuses cannot replace raises but are awarded in addition to raises. Raises should be awarded equitably and independent of any cash bonus award. BAC members overall comments about Cluster Conservations

Process is very interactive and great opportunity for the Deans/Associate Deans/Vice-Chancellors to share among themselves and with faculty from all across the campus serving on these committees.

The Cluster Conservations should continue in some form.

Collaborations are enhanced and not impeded by RCM (Responsibility Centered Management).

Need for better communication overall and especially in regards to what people are doing in other schools/units to identify common themes and potential collaborations, as well as to reduce duplications of efforts.

Be proactive in increasing and maintaining diversity (defined broadly) and it might be valuable to create a working document compiling best practices.

Be proactive in faculty and staff retention and development (maximize potential and opportunities).

Continue to maximize “urban and engaged”.

Share more widely high impact student engagement and successes.

Enhance communication to students and parents about scholarships, as well as increase need based scholarships.

Students should leave IUPUI with job skills and potential, NOT just debt!

PROUD to be IUPUI!

Thank you!
