

green sheet

INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY AT INDIANAPOLIS

volume three, number fifteen

april 8, 1973

iupui

TAKE A FRIEND TO "YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

Laughter is in store when the University Theatre of IUPUI presents "You Can't Take It With You," a delightful comedy by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart. Performances are scheduled this weekend (April 6-8) and next (April 13-15) in the IUPUI Intimate Theatre at 902 North Meridian Street. Friday and Saturday performances have an 8 p.m. curtain; Sunday matinees are at 2:30 p.m.

Leading the cast are Lee Bailey as Grampa Vanderhof, Marijane Sawyer as Penelope Sycamore, Penny McCreay as Alice and Mark Coogan as Tony Kirby. The play is produced and directed by Dr. J. Edgar Webb, assistant professor of speech and theater.

"You Can't Take It With You" has been described as being about a family who refuses to fit into patterns regarded by society as normal. The situations created by Kaufman and Hart are hilarious. The excellence of the cast of the University Theatre, and its intimate atmosphere, promise an enjoyable evening of superbly produced and performed comedy.

Others in the production are Anita Pearson, Lynn Latimer, Michael Pyle, Michael Christy, Gregg Porter, Gregg Peterson, Thomas Test, Jacqui Cook, George Boalbey, Julie Short, Steve Rose, Jim Burkeen, Dan Adams and Catherine Brunson.

Tickets may be reserved by calling 264-7659 and picked up any time before 15 minutes before curtain. The price is $2 each for all seats for students, faculty and the public.

* * *

"DEAN FOUST WEEK"

Several activities have been planned this week to honor Cleon H. Foust, dean of the Indianapolis Law School, before his retirement.

On Tuesday the Student Bar Association will hold a reception in the student lounge of the Law School from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Members of the university community are invited to attend. On Wednesday, I.U. President John W. Ryan will be the featured speaker at the annual dinner of the Indiana Law Review. On Thursday, Dean Foust will be honored by the school's Visiting Committee and a portrait of the dean will be presented. Later that day, the Indiana Convention-Exposition Center will be the site of a 6 p.m. reception and 7:30 p.m. recognition dinner.

* * *

BARGAIN BOOKS

Browsers and buyers and bargain hunters should have a field day during the Bookstore's semi-annual book sale April 17-19. They are promising a wider selection of books, including sports, gardening and the like.

* * *

CALENDAR CHECK-OFF

Now through April 30 -- Senior Student Exhibition in Gallery at Herron School of Art; daily (except Fridays), 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Pharmacy displays this week in University Hospital are Pfizer Laboratories on Monday and Safeguard Business Systems on Friday. Displays in Riley Hospital are Hollister Inc. on Wednesday and Beecham-Massengill Pharmaceuticals on Friday. Exhibit hours are 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

3 Reception -- More than 300 IUPUI employees will receive pins signifying the completion of 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25 years of service and 48 retirees will be honored at recognition ceremonies at 7:45 p.m. Monday (April 9) in the Union Building cafeteria. The ceremonies will be preceded by a 6 p.m. banquet given by I.U. President John Ryan and IUPUI Chancellor Maynard K. Hine. Normal College students will present a program.

Monday -- "The Origin of the Isoenzyme Pattern of Salivary Amylase," Biochemistry Faculty Seminar by Robert C. Karn, Ph.D., postdoctoral fellow; Medical Science Building, 4 p.m. (3:45 coffee)

Picture This -- "The Photograph as Object" will be discussed by William G. Larson at 4:30 p.m. Monday in the Herron Auditorium. Larson, a professional photographer and faculty member at the Tyler School of Art of Temple University, has had his photographs published in the New York Times, Art in America, Playboy, Modern Photography, among others. He has exhibited at the Philadelphia Museum, San Francisco Art Institute, George Eastman House and the Museum of Modern Art in New York. The public is invited to the free lecture.

6 Tuesday -- "Automated Chromosome Analysis," Medical Genetics Seminar by Daniel L. Van Dyke, graduate student; Riley Research, Room 139, 4 p.m.

Wednesday -- "Intestinal vascular response to changes in venous pressure," Physiology Seminar by Bruce Johns, graduate student; Medical Science Building, Room 205; 4 p.m.

8 Parents' Meeting -- Dr. Bonnie Patterson, who was born with a spina bifida defect, will speak at the Thursday night meeting of Spina Bifida Parents. The session will begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fifth floor of the new wing of Riley Hospital.

Concert -- The Indianapolis Philharmonic Orchestra will present its final subscription concert at 4 p.m. Sunday (April 15) at Marian College, 3200 Cold Spring Road. Saxophonist Eugene Rousseau, chairman of Wind Department at I.U.'s School of Music, will be the featured soloist. Tickets are $2 at the door ($1 for students). If you need a ride, a free chartered bus will leave Wasson's on the Circle at 3 p.m. and stop at 16th and 30th Streets and return by the same route 20 minutes after the concert.

Coming Up -- A reception to honor three School of Nursing faculty members will be given Tuesday, April 17, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Ball Residence. The three, who teach public health nursing, are Dr. Lucy Perry, retiring after 25 years; Mrs. Beatrice Robinson, 17 years, and Miss Hulda Edman, 10 years.

WOMEN'S CLUB PROGRAM

A comprehensive "Look Ahead at Post-High School Education in Indianapolis" will be offered Saturday by the IUPUI Women's Club. The 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. program will be held in the Lecture Hall Building.

Highlights of the presentation will be Dr. John Leill on the potential of the Consortium for Urban Education, Normal College Dean Lola Lohse on the IUPUI goals and objectives, Ivy Tech President William Renner on his school's plans and needs, Jack Dustman from the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, IUPUI's Shirley Boardman on alternatives in higher education and a post-luncheon discussion by Chancellor Maynard K. Hine.

Deadline for luncheon reservations ($3.95 per person, checks payable to the IUPUI Women's Club) should be in by Wednesday to Mrs. Mary K. Gillam, University Hospital C139, 926 West Michigan Street. Please also include your name, address and telephone number.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Career Shopping? -- The University Division Office has a library of career information that describes hundreds of occupations and employers. Subjects included are foreign employment, job hunting, living with a job, career planning, educational planning, employment concerns of minorities, careers without college, how majors relate to careers and volunteer work. Open to all IUPUI students and faculty, the library is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Room 303 of Cavanaugh Hall. For more information, call Mary Hyne, Ext. 3988.

Savings Bonds -- IUPUI is co-operating with the U.S. Treasury Department in providing opportunity for staff and faculty to join the Payroll Savings Plan for U.S. Savings Bonds. You recently received a letter from Chancellor Hine, an explanatory leaflet and a payroll-deduction authorization card. Filled-in cards are to be returned to the Payroll Department in the Allied Health Building. Please consider taking part in this regular, automatic and convenient means of saving for future needs.

Appointed -- James L. Rice Jr. has been named associate director of the Indiana University Hospitals. Rice comes to Indianapolis from a similar position with the University of Oklahoma Hospitals at Oklahoma City. He is a past president of the Oklahoma City Area Hospital Council and the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Federal Credit Union. His memberships include the American College of Hospital Administrators, the Oklahoma Hospital Association and the American Hospital Association.

Sunday Closing -- The Downtown Campus Library will be closed Easter Sunday, April 22. Regular hours will be maintained except for that day.

Tune In -- Dean Cleon H. Foust of the Indianapolis Law School will reflect on his career on the IUPUI Magazine, which can be heard Sunday (April 8) at 1:30 p.m. and Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. on WIAN, 90.1 on your FM dial.

RCC Note -- The Research Computer Center says to reserve April 27 for a PLATO demonstration on the mezzanine of the Union Building. More details later.

(continued)

JEANNETTE MATTHEW
LIBRARIAN, SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS
420 BLAKE STREET

NB*

*A News Bureau Publication
Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis
1100 West Michigan Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

Have You Had Trouble Reaching Persons in Personnel? -- The chronic signal syndrome hopefully will be eased by more phones installed and "direct dialing." Effective Monday (April 9) are these new listings: Ext. 7617 for Thomas E. Duane, director; Clifford F. Robinson, assistant director, and Louise Lant, Sam Baldoni and John Roscoe, recruiters; Ext. 4596 for Thomas Hines and Mary Maddox, retirement and group insurance; Ext. 4537 for Janet King, staff training and development; Ext. 8241 for James Mathews Jr., wage and salary administration, and Ext. 4437 for employees' records, attendance and verification.

Keys to the Kingdom? -- A man's topcoat has been found in Fesler Hall, Hurty Hall B. The coat has keys in the pocket. Call Virgil Hunt's office, Ext. 7163.

"Exchange" Program -- Foreign-born female university student would like to exchange baby-sitting or light housekeeping duties, during evenings, for board and room. She will be available from May 11 to August 21. For more information, call International Affairs Office, Ext. 7294.

* * *

IT'S UNANIMOUS

The Indiana General Assembly has passed by unanimous vote a resolution honoring retiring law dean Cleon H. Foust. The resolution was introduced by two of the Indianapolis Law School students, Speaker of the House Kermit O. Burrous (R-Peru) and Representative John M. Blevins (R-Anderson).

* * *

PUT IT IN WRITING

Dr. Gerald E. Hartdagen, associate professor of history, had an article called "The Vestry as a Unit of Local Government in Colonial Maryland" in the Winter, 1972, issue of the Maryland Historical Magazine.

Adult and Child Care -- A Client Approach to Nursing is the title of a book by two School of Nursing faculty members: Associate professor Janet Miller Barber and assistant professor Diane McGovern Billings. The book will be published this month by the C.V. Mosby Company.

Dr. Arthur L. Norins, professor of dermatology, wrote "Effects of Light on Skin," Unit 19-1 in Vol. 4 of Clinical Dermatology.

Judith Gersting, assistant professor of mathematics, had an article, "A Note on Infinite Series of Isol" in The Rocky Mountain Journal of Mathematics, Vol. 2, No. 4, 1972.

Dr. Martin Bloom, professor of social service, was one of the authors of "Older Persons after Hospitalization: A Controlled Study of Home Aide Service" in the American Journal of Public Health, 1972, 62:8.

* * *