

HERRON VISITING ARTISTS SERIES CONTINUES

Chicago sculptor Richard Hunt will be the next featured artist in the Visiting Artists Series at the Herron School of Art. Hunt, an educator and printmaker known for his works in bronze and stainless steel, will speak at 1:30 p.m. in the Herron auditorium (time and place for each of the series lectures, which are free and open to the public.) Educated at the Art Institute of Chicago, Hunt has received impressive awards, including John Simon Guggenheim and Ford Foundation fellowships. His works are exhibited in private collections across the nation and in notable museums, including the Whitney, Metropolitan, Guggenheim and Hirshhorn.

Brooklyn, N.Y., painter and photographer Juan Sanchez will be the featured artist March 15. His work explores cultural, social and political aspects of his Puerto Rican heritage and the struggle for self determination and empowerment. The Cooper Union School of Art graduate received a master of fine arts degree from Rutgers University, and has participated in more than 100 exhibitions in the United States, Japan, Cuba, Canada, Puerto Rico and Taiwan.

Indiana State University visiting assistant professor Janet Ballweg is scheduled to lecture March 21 about her prints and drawings, which reflect a world she finds surrealistic and filled with humor and visual puns.

The Herron series is supported by the Arts Council of Indianapolis, National Endowment for the Arts and private donations.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION RECORDER & HUSBAND SHARE TOUGHLOVE

It's common for the piercing ringing of a telephone to break the silence of late night or early morning hours at the Chuck and Dottie Ball home. The southwest side couple say they do not mind; they are members of a national parent support network, Toughlove, and often times are the caller's final attempt to get help in a crisis with troubled teens.

Dottie, recorder and librarian for the School of Physical Education, and Chuck are founders of the West Indy Parent Support Group of Toughlove, which helps parents, some court-ordered to attend the 7-9 p.m. Monday meetings at 2302 West Morris Street. They also edit a monthly newsletter mailed to more than 1,200 homes nationwide and conduct active parenting programs for Wayne Township Schools. Life with Toughlove and their son, David, inspired a new book, My Son, My Greatest Teacher, written by Chuck and available at Light and Life Bookstore in Pike Plaza.

The Balls say that many of the Toughlove parents seek simple survival ideas, and that 90 percent of the troubled teens abuse drugs or alcohol.

SPIRITUALITY & WELLNESS TOPIC THURSDAY

The IUPUI Wellness Month Committee will sponsor a panel discussion, "Spirituality and Wellness," Thursday (Feb. 22) 3:30-5 p.m. at the IUPUI Newman Center, 1309 West Michigan Street. Panelists will discuss the meaning of spirituality and its relationship to one's health and wellness. The event will include group discussion and an exercise on spirituality. Panelists include Dr. Billie Griffin, Student/Employee Health Service; the Rev. Wayne Olson, Zion United Church of Christ, and Rev. Don Romsa, Lutheran Campus Pastor at IUPUI. Refreshments will be served, and everyone is invited to attend. For more, call 4-3931.

TEACHING AWARDS DEADLINE EXTENDED

Applications for the 1990 Network for Excellence in Teaching Awards are available in the Faculty Development Office, AO 112, phone 4-8880, and the deadline has been extended to March 15. The awards, with stipends of up to $6,000, are for full-time, on-campus efforts during Summer Session I to design new (or rework existing) courses. Priority is given to projects that increase learning and teaching efficiency.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Tennis Now Indoors at IUPUI--The new Indianapolis Sports Center indoor tennis facility, southeast of the Natatorium, is open and the winter season lasts until May 31, says head pro Tim Siegal. Hours are 6:45 a.m.-10:30 p.m. Mondays-Fridays, 7 a.m.-10:30 p.m. Saturdays and 7 a.m.-9 p.m. Sundays. For membership information or court fees, call Tim at 636-7719.

Search for Employment Help--Faculty are asked to encourage students to meet informally with representatives from 13 state agencies and discuss job opportunities at State Career Day, Wednesday (Feb. 21), 11 a.m.-2 p.m. in BS second floor hallway. For more, call Janice Parks, 4-2554.

RHI Offers Souper Snacks--Restaurant and Hotel Society students will sell Souper Snacks Tuesday (Feb. 20), 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in ET 1201. The snacks include 15-bean and broccoli-cheese soups, spice cake and peanut butter cookies. Enjoy a cup-of-soup for $1.

Adult Scholarships Available--Undergraduate students who have returned to school after an absence of at least five years and maintained a 3.5 GPA in their previous studies may apply for $1,000 Adult Merit Scholarships, renewable up to four years. Applicants must be at least enrolled in six credit-hours, 30 years old, earned 12-credit hours before returning to school and highly motivated. Applications, due March 30, are available at the Adult Education Coordinating Center, Cavanaugh Hall 001E.

IU Ballet Theater at IRT--The IU School of Music presents the IU Ballet Theater Co. of Dancers and Musicians in performances at the IRT Upperstage, 140 West Washington Street, Feb. 23-24 at 8 p.m. and Feb. 25 at 2 p.m., featuring works choreographed by George Balanchine, IU ballet department chairman/artistic director Jean-Pierre Bonnefoux and faculty members Jacques Cesbron and Virginia Cesbron. For ticket information on the chamber music and dance performances, call 635-5252.

TEACHING & WRITING FOCUS OF FRIDAY CONFERENCE

All faculty are invited to attend the "Teaching and Responding to Student Writing: Writing Across the Disciplines" conference Friday (Feb. 23) from 10 a.m.-3:45 p.m. in the conference center. Sponsored by the IU Intercampus Committee on Writing Assessment, the free conference will open with a plenary session on how the instructor's own writing influences the teaching of writing, featuring chemistry, nursing, anthropology and English faculty from various IU campuses. Post-plenary workshops feature a range of practical topics, including scoring writing holistically in large lecture sections, student collaboration, using writing to learn, evaluating student writing and the portfolio in the classroom. Interested faculty are asked to register before Feb. 21 by calling intercampus committee chairman Barbara Cambridge at 4-3824 or 4-2258.

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Medicine Society Meeting--The John Shaw Billings History of Medicine Society and IU Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology will sponsor an open-to-the-public meeting at 4 p.m. March 2 in Emerson Hall. Toronto historian and author Dr. Michael Bliss will discuss "Insulin: The Indiana Connection." For more information, call Dr. Jans Muller, 4-8577 or 4-8578.

Interview Day Thursday--IUPUI and nine other colleges and universities offer help to graduating seniors at the eighth College Talent Interview Day 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Feb. 22 at the Indiana Convention Center/Hoosier Dome. Representatives of some 70 companies will meet with students to discuss job opportunities. For more information, call 4-2554.

Couples Can Communicate--The Counseling Center plans a workshop on couples and communication 6-8:30 p.m. Feb. 28 at the center, 419 North Blackford Street. The workshop will explore interpersonal communications to increase awareness of interactions and transactions in relationships. Registration is $1 for students and $5 for others. For more information, call 4-2548.

Graduate Fellowships Available--The Educational Opportunity Fellowship Committee offers graduate student fellowships of about $500-$1,500 for the 1990-91 academic year. Based on the premise that some promising students do not fare well in general competition for fellowships, the committee encourages graduate students, particularly minorities, to apply by the March 16 deadline. For an application or more information, call 4-4023.

Corrections Commissioner Speaking--Indiana Dept. of Corrections Commissioner James E. Aiken is featured speaker 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Feb. 28 in the ES fourth floor commons. Sponsored by the School of Social Work and open to the public, the talk is one of the school's Social Policy Colloquium Series. For more information, call 4-6705.

Series Includes IUPUI Faculty--Upcoming 1990 Great Decisions discussions, sponsored by the Church of the Saviour at 5400 East 62nd Street and open to the public, feature IUPUI political science department faculty. Richard Fredland, department chairman, will discuss the United Nations Feb. 21, and Charles Winslow, assistant professor, will discuss the Palestinian question Feb. 28. Both are scheduled for 7:30-9 p.m. at the church.

BREAKFAST SERIES FEATURES WOMEN IN POWER

Featuring city, university and legislative leaders, a "Women in Power: Myth or Reality" breakfast series is offered three Thursdays in March. Designed to explore what has happened to Indy's top 20 women of influence since The Indianapolis Star survey of 1986, the series is sponsored by the IUPUI Office of Women's Research and Resources, Division of Continuing Studies, Humanities Institute and School of Liberal Arts. Speakers and topics include Deputy Mayor Paula Parker-Sawyers, "State of the City," March 15; Indiana Women's PAC President Marilyn Schultz, "State of the State," March 22, and School of Liberal Arts Dean John Barlow, Director of the IUPUI Women's Studies Program Linda Haas and Marriage/Family Therapist Natalie Siegel, "Intra- and Inter-dependent Relationships," March 29. Each begins at 7:30 a.m. in the conference center. To register or for more information, call 4-4784 or 4-2447.

MATH LECTURES

The Department of Mathematical Sciences colloquium series continues with "Representations of Lie Groups and Index Theory I" by Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University Professor Peter Haskell on Feb. 23, and part II by University of Colorado Professor Jeffrey Fox on Feb. 26. Both, in KB 060 from 2:30-3 p.m., are open to the public.

POSITION OPENING

The IU School of Medicine Department of Dermatology seeks applications for an assistant professor to establish a Laboratory of Dermatopathology. Candidates should have experience in general molecular biology techniques with emphasis in the regulation of prokaryotic/eukaryotic gene expression and knowledge of DNA viruses. The successful candidate will be expected to develop a strong research program and supervise a doctoral graduate program. Applicants must have a Ph.D. and at least two years of postdoctoral experience. Forward CV, complete bibliography, publication copies, research interests and names/addresses of three references to: Dr. Arthur L. Norins, IU School of Medicine Department of Dermatology, RG 524, 1100 West Michigan Street, Indianapolis, Ind. 46202.
