

green sheet

8p3

volume twenty-one, number thirteen march 31, 1991

"COASTAL DISTURBANCES" NEEDS 20 TONS OF SAND TO MAKE SUMMER

Playwright Tina Howe says that to appreciate her play, "Coastal Disturbances," it will have to be "embraced with high spirits" and will need "major trickery and illusion" to convince a cool indoor audience to laugh at a hot outdoor romp on the beach. So, on the stage in the Mary Cable Building 20 tons of sand is on stage. That and a willing winter-weary audience, good lighting, a little paint and a little swim suit will go a long way to set the scene to enjoy the zany vacations of people who haunt the north shore Atlantic beach in Howe's hilarious two-act. It's play all about the summer's effect on puppy love, lifetime love and lost love. Pictured here is little Katie Bertsch in the role of Miranda Bigelow, an adopted girl whose mom is about to have another baby. J. Edgar Webb, professor of theater, directs University Theatre's last production of the season. Performances are Apr. 12-13 and Apr. 19-20, with curtain at 8 p.m. Tickets are $5 for staff and faculty, $4 for students and senior citizens and $7 for others. To charge by phone or to make reservations, call the University Theatre box office, 4-2094.

BERTSCH

THE APR. 4 MEETING OF THE IUPUI FACULTY COUNCIL IS CANCELLED The next meeting of the Faculty Council is May 2 at 3:30 p.m. in room 116, School of Law. For more, call Bernice Chumley, 4-2215.

NEW LOAD OF APPLES ARRIVES ON CAMPUS IUPUI's Access Point announces the arrival of the new Apple Macintosh computers and printers. Everyone is welcome to see them in University Place Conference Center, room 138, Apr. 4, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

FOCUS STILL NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

Those of us who know a lot about higher education and Hoosier hospitality are still needed to help those who don't during FOCUS, Family Orientation to College and University Selection, the state's first National College Fair, set for Apr. 14, from noon-6 p.m. in the Indiana Convention Center. You'll be among reps from 150 institutions across the country. To volunteer for a two-hour shift, call Kim Manlove, 4-2527.

MARABLE TO KEYNOTE CONFERENCE

Manning Marable, professor at the Center for Studies of Ethnicity and Race, University of Colorado, will be the keynote speaker at the 12th annual Conference on Graduate Education for Minority Students, Apr. 5, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. in University Place Conference Center. Free to all participants, the conference program is designed to help Native American, African-American, Latino and Asian-American college students learn about opportunities for graduate education. For more, call 4-4023.

NOTE: This issue of the Green Sheet is two pages because the week was four days. The next issue returns to the four-page format. Your editor regrets any inconvenience this causes and wishes all joyous spring holidays.

LONE, DISSENTING S & L BOARD MEMBER TO SPEAK ABOUT THE FIASCO

Last year the federal government reportedly spent $7.4 million an hour on the savings and loan bailout. Lawrence J. White, former S & L regulator, will give a free public talk about the costly fiasco and its lessons for the current banking crisis, Apr. 11 at 5 p.m. in the University Place Conference Center. Author of The S & L Debacle: Public Policy Lessons for Bank and Thrift Regulation, White is chairman and Arthur E. Emperatore Professor of Economics at NYU's Stern School of Business. He was the dissenting minority member of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, 1986-1989, which regulated S & Ls and their insured FSLIC deposits. The Dept. of Economics, sponsor, welcomes all. For more, call Martin Spechler, 4-7379.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Apr. 1 Deadline--Registration is due Apr. 1 for the IU Foundation "Corporate and Foundation Development Seminar," set for Apr. 9 on campus. Lunch is included and there is no charge. This seminar is back by popular demand. For more, call 4-3711.

Also Apr. 1--The city's biggest law firm, Ice Miller Donadio & Ryan is sponsoring a seminar "Changes and Challenges" for Hoosier college and university administrators, Apr. 10 on campus. The cost is $45 per person and includes lunch. Registration is due by Apr. 1. Call 236-2486.

AIDS Answers--Health, social work and other professionals who deal with AIDS patients and their families are invited to the next AIDS satellite TV network presentation on Apr. 3, with telecast from 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. in Fesler Hall, Hurty C. On the agenda is HIV in the Adolescent Population; Liquid Nitrogen Therapy for Kaposi's Sarcoma Lesions, and HIV in the Prison Population. For more, call 4-8456.

Speaker from Kenya--Peter Indalo, director of Oyani, a rural development organization he helped found in the district of Suna, Kenya, will speak at a free, public brown bag lunch Apr. 2, 11:45 a.m.-1 p.m. in the fourth floor commons, School of Social Work. Oyani is involved in such projects as health, nutrition, energy and economics. Indalo, a legislator and an Anglican priest, will lead a discussion entitled "Dialogue on Empowerment: Empowering Indigenous Populations." The lecture is brought to us by the School of Social Work in conjunction with the International Affairs Club, the African Student Association and the Political Science Student Association, all at IUPUI.

Congrats to the Ladies--While there is little space for sports on these pages, it has not gone unnoticed that IUPUI's women's basketball team, the Lady Metros, made basketball history at IUPUI as they advanced to the recent Final Four NAIA National Tournament.

Blues Harmonica Anyone?--Back by popular demand is Larry McCullough's Continuing Studies course, "Blues & Country Harmonica for Beginners. Classes begin Apr. 2. Call 4-4501.

Franklinites--Cyndi Pote needs a ride weekdays, back and forth from Franklin to the Aerospace Research Application Center, 611 N. Capitol. Call 262-5062 or 738-2805.

Psych Rehab--Virginia Selleck from Thresholds, Chicago, presents "Rehabilitation Strategies in the Real World" in the next Dept. of Psychology rehab seminar, Apr. 4, 1-3 p.m., KB 131. All welcome.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

