

volume eleven, number forty-one

october 18, 1981

UNITED WAY REPORT DUE

Pledges to the United Way campaign for this year should be returned to the various coordinators at once so that they can be included in the campaign report meeting scheduled for noon Thursday at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

Frank Basile, vice president of the Gene Glick Management Corporation with responsibility for the company's 20,000 apartments in 13 states, will be the keynote speaker. He will speak on "Putting It All Together," emphasizing the need for practical application of knowledge and skills to accomplish personal and business goals.

* * *

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PROGRAM SPONSORS WORKSHOP

Clinical workers in occupational therapy will be brought together with academic professionals in the field in an invitational research workshop to be co-sponsored by the Occupational Therapy Program of the School of Medicine's Division of Allied Health Sciences and the American Occupational Therapy Foundation.

The workshop will be held Friday through next Sunday at Coleman Hall. It is being organized by Zona R. Weeks, associate professor of occupational therapy, and Catherine E. Barrett, adjunct professor of O.T., both of the I.U. program. They also are regional research consultants for the Midwest Region of the O.T. national association, which includes Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin. The workshop is limited to four teams of four members each and a few auditors from the 13 schools in the region that have O.T. programs. Faculty members, drawn from the I.U. Medical Center, will be Dr. James A. Norton Jr., professor of biostatistics; Harry Brittain, assistant professor of psychiatry; Dr. Leon R. McKenzie, coordinator, human resources, I.U. Hospitals, and assistant professor of education, and Ann VanCamp, search analyst and computer specialist with the School of Medicine Library.

* * *

WHAT'S AHEAD FOR EGYPT?

"The Post-Sadat Era" will be examined and discussed this week in a program sponsored by the International Affairs Program Steering Committee. A panel of experts, moderated by Richard A. Fredland, chairman of political science, will discuss Egypt's future in the wake of Sadat's assassination. The other participants will be Charles H. Winslow, political science; Clark Williamson from the Christian Theological Seminary, and Dr. Mahmoud Abdul Fadil, visiting professor in medical genetics. The program begins at 11:30 a.m. Thursday (Oct. 22) in the Riley Room at the Union Building. All interested persons are invited.

* * *

SOLAR WATER HEATING TO BE DISCUSSED

An informational meeting on what to expect at a solar water heater workshop will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Room 1202 of the School of Engineering and Technology, 799 West Michigan Street.

The school has been designated as a primary sponsor for the National Solar Water Heater Workshop (NSWHW) program for Central and Northern Indiana by the Indiana Department of Commerce. Program coordinators are Paul L. Brink, acting assistant dean; Dr. John W. Hammann, associate professor of electrical technology, and Terry L. Bradbury, assistant professor of architectural technology.

IUPUI sponsored two similar workshops last spring in which 16 homeowners built solar collectors. A third such workshop is planned sometime in mid-November, pending response to this month's meeting.

* * *

NURSING PROFESSIONS DAY SCHEDULED

Recruiters from approximately 80 health care facilities will descend on the I.U. School of Nursing Monday for this year's Nursing Professions Day. The representatives of hospitals, nursing homes, clinics and other groups will set up booths in the corridors of the first and second floors of the buildings to distribute literature and describe their programs to nursing students.

* * *

PROMINENT SOCIAL WORKER TO SPEAK AT RECEPTION

Internationally-known social worker Abraham Lurie, Ph.D., will speak on "The Role of Social Work within the Ever-Changing Interdisciplinary Patient Care Team" at a reception for medical social workers at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in the auditorium of the Regenstrief Health Center. The reception, sponsored by the social services department of Wishard Memorial Hospital, precedes the annual fall conference of the Indiana Society for Hospital Social Work Directors to be held Thursday and Friday at the Marten House, where Dr. Lurie will be the featured speaker. He is director of the department of social services, Long Island Jewish-Hillside Medical Center.

* * *

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, & SOMETIMES WHY

Physiological -- "Apple Computer Tutorial," Physiology Department Seminar by Dr. Robert D. Hogan, Jr., research scientist, Ultrasound Research Division, ICFAR; Room 205, Medical Science Building, 4 p.m. Monday.

Biochemical -- "Classification of Protein Phosphatases Involved in Regulation of Glycogen and Lipid Metabolism," Department of Biochemistry Seminar by Dr. Tom Ingebritsen, NATO Fellow, Department of Biochemistry, University of Dundee, Scotland; Room 205, Medical Science Building, 12 noon, Monday. Coffee and tea, 11:30 a.m., Room 409.

Law Lectures -- "The Indiana Court of Appeals: Its History and Future," one of the I.U. School of Law-Indianapolis, Distinguished Lecturer Series by the Hon. Jonathan J. Robertson, judge, Indiana Court of Appeals; Moot Court Room of the Law School, 12:10-12:50 p.m. Tuesday.

Afro-American Studies -- "Black Identity: Rediscovering the Distinction between Personal Identity and Reference Group Orientation," a free public lecture by Dr. William E. Cross, member of the psychology faculty at the Africana Studies and Research Center at Cornell University; Lecture Hall 102, 8:15 p.m. Tuesday. Widely published and traveled, Cross is an expert in the fields of family and child psychology. His appearance is sponsored by the Afro-American Studies Program, and a reception following the lecture to be held in Room 405, Cavanaugh Hall, will be co-sponsored by the IUPUI Black Student Union.

Nursing Research -- "Parental Attitude and Adjustment to Epilepsy," Nursing Research Colloquium by Joan Austin, R.N., D.N.S.; Room 305, School of Nursing, 12 noon to 1 p.m. Tuesday.

Oncological -- "The Treatment of Pain in Cancer Patients," Department of Radiation Oncology lecture by Dr. Thomas O'Connor of the Department of Radiation Therapy at Community Hospital; Room R-104, Radiation Therapy Building, 11 a.m. Wednesday.

Staff Council -- The IUPUI Staff Council will meet in the Roof Lounge, Union Building at 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Chemical -- "Analytical Chemistry using Crown Ethers," Department of Chemistry Seminar by Dr. Gilbert Pacey, Miami (Ohio) University; Room 231, Krannert Building (38th Street), 4:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Dental Continuing Education -- "Advances and Controversies in Endodontics," continuing dental education course by Dr. Franklin S. Weine, professor and director of postgraduate endodontics, Loyola University School of Dentistry, and Dr. Samuel S. Patterson and the I.U. School of Dentistry graduate endodontic faculty; Howard Johnson's, 501 W. Washington Street, all day Wednesday.

Staff Training Program -- "The Employment Process," designed for those individuals who coordinate departmental activities with Personnel Services relative to employment. Room 240, School of Nursing Building, 9-11 a.m., Thursday.

More Biochemical -- "New Results on the Binding of Substrates by Cyclic Hepata Amaylase," Department of Biochemistry Seminar by Dr. Jean Hamilton, associate professor, Department of Biochemistry, I.U. School of Medicine; Room 205, Medical Science Building, 4 p.m., Friday.

Honors Meeting -- Information meeting for the School of Business Honors Program; Room 4095, Business/Spec Building, 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. Friday. Students with grade point averages of 3.5 and above are invited to attend. The Honors Program enables qualified undergraduates to begin MBA level course work while still undergraduates.

On Stage -- "They're Playing Our Song," Broadway musical starring Sonia Walsk, 8 p.m. Friday at the Indiana University Auditorium, Bloomington. Limited number of tickets available at Auditorium box office, phone 812-337-1103.

Wildlife -- "Olympic Elk," half-hour film presented free at 1 and 3:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at the Indianapolis Zoo takes a look at the elk in the wilderness of the Olympic Peninsula, Washington, their herd life, and their annual hazardous trek to high country in search of food.

More Wildlife -- "The Yearling," 1946 film with Gregory Peck, Jane Wyman, and Chill Wills; Indiana State Museum, 2 p.m. Sunday. Free.

Advance Announcement -- "Research in Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing: Past, Present, Future," Department of Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing seminar by Dr. Grayce M. Sills, visiting professor; Room 110, School of Nursing, 12 noon to 1 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 27. Dr. Sills, one of the most distinguished names in the field, did pioneering work with Dr. Hildegard Peplau in helping nurses in chronic care facilities develop their therapeutic skills. She is director of the graduate nursing program at Ohio State University.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Lions Support Ophthalmology -- Leadership in the diagnosis and treatment of eye problems has been enhanced at the I.U. School of Medicine by the purchase of approximately $50,000 worth of the latest diagnostic ophthalmic instruments for the Department of Ophthalmology by the Indiana Lions Eye Bank, Inc. "We have supplied quite a number of pieces of equipment to the Department of Ophthalmology over the years," said Fred Mohr, Elkhart, president of the Eye Bank, "but this is probably the largest amount the department has received at any one time."

Credit Union Nominations Needed -- Names are being accepted by the I.U.I. Federal Credit Union nominating committee for consideration for vacancies on the board of directors or credit committee for 1982. Nominees must be a Credit Union member, 18 years of age and currently employed at one of the employers affiliated with the Credit Union. Names must be submitted in writing, with a short biographical resume, including name, home address, home phone number, business phone number, Credit Union membership number and whether the nomination is to the board or the credit committee. Send letters to the nominating committee, c/o David Paul, Student Union Building, Director's Office, 1300 W. Michigan Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202.

Named -- George Rowley has assumed the position of director of the Occupational Therapy Program of the Division of Allied Health Sciences to succeed Professor Carol Nathan, director of the program for the past 13 years who now is assistant dean of the faculties. Rowley, who holds the B.S. in occupational therapy from the University of Kansas and the M.A. in education from the University of Alabama in Birmingham, came to Indianapolis from Sykesville, Md., where he held the position of occupational and activity therapies consultant, Department of Health and Mental Hygiene Administration and director of rehabilitation services, Springfield Hospital Center. His office is Coleman Hall, Room 311, ext. 8006.

Wine Cornucopia -- Over 180 wines will be available for tasting from 5 to 9 p.m. Nov. 4 at the Indiana Convention Center when the Crossroads Guild of Indianapolis and the Bacchus Wine Society present Wine Cornucopia. All proceeds will support the Children's Developmental Program at Crossroads. Advance sale tickets ($6) are available at the Crossroads Rehabilitation Center, 3242 Sutherland Avenue, phone 924-3251. Tickets at the door will be $10.

To Retire -- Retiring this Friday is Elnora A. Jenkins, special seamstress and cutter for the Riley sewing room for the past 17 years. She plans to visit her family out of the state, knit, crochet and do lawn work.

Career Workshop -- Students, alumni and staff members may take advantage of four workshops in career and employment sponsored by the Career Counseling and Placement Office to be held in Room 2010 of the new Business/SPEA Building. They are: "Factors in Career Decision-Making," at 3 p.m. Nov. 2; "Job Search Strategies," 3 p.m. Nov. 4; "Resume Writing," 3 p.m. Nov. 9, and "The Art of Interviewing," 3 p.m. Nov. 11.

Appointed -- Lorraine Schrader has been appointed assistant bursar for collections, according to Bursar Robert E. Martin. Schrader has been with Indiana University since 1977, most recently as administrative coordinator/advisor with the MBA program of the School of Business. She assumed her new position Sept. 14.

Moved -- The offices of the IUPUI Department of Military Science and the ROTC have moved to the third floor of Cavanaugh Hall, Rooms 333 and 335. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Campus ext. is 2691.

Elected -- Officers elected to the Black Faculty and Staff Council for 1981-82 are: Myra Mason, president; Philip Seabrook, vice president; Deborah Long, secretary; Rose Gaither, corresponding secretary; and Dr. Monroe Little, treasurer. A large contingent of members attended the annual meeting held Sept. 16 in Cavanaugh Hall. Chairmen of the five standing committees appointed by the new president are: Claudette Gar-Lands, education; Jay Smith, community affairs; Deborah Hamilton, professional development; Norm Brown, communications/membership; and Dr. Edwin Harper, calendar committee.

Ride Needed -- To and from Medical Center for 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. shift. Could be picked up at 34th and Wallace, 38th and Wallace, or 3620 Wallace. Can be ready any time between 7 and 7:40 a.m. Call 546-4171 after 5:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. Can also be reached in the morning.

Medical Library Newsletter Available -- I.U. Medical Center faculty members, staff members or students who do not receive the School of Medicine Library Newsletter/Booklist, issued quarterly, may be placed on the mailing list by calling Mrs. Brenda Treadwell, ext. 7182.

Extra Mile Award -- William Lyle Hayes of Building Services has been nominated as the Extra Mile recipient for the month of October.

Dinner Theater Set -- "Cerberus," an original play by Gary Kornell, will be the fare at a dinner-theater performance scheduled for Nov. 5-7 and 12-14 in the Union Building cafeteria. Dinner is at 7 p.m., performance is 8 p.m. Tickets for Fridays and Saturdays (dinner and show) are $9. Thursdays they are $4 (dessert and show). The play will be directed by Dr. J. Edgar Webb. For tickets and information call ext. 7685.

Nursing Workshop -- Margo McCaffery, noted consultant in the nursing care of people in pain, will present a one-day comprehensive workshop, "Pain: Assessment and Intervention in Nursing Practice," at the Sheraton Inn East on Nov. 6. Contact the I.U. School of Nursing Continuing Education Program, ext. 7779, for information.

* * *

HONORS AND ACCOLADES

Linda E. Richwine of the Office of Publications and Information Services, is the designer of "The IUPUI Student Checkbook," a pamphlet which has received a Merit Award from the University and College Designers Association. Richwine returned recently from the annual conference of the organization in Kansas City, Mo., where the "Checkbook" was among 150 pieces chosen from 1,500 entries to be hung in the 1981 National Design Competition. Earlier this year, the "Checkbook" won a 1981 Special Merit Award in competition sponsored by the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

Dr. Nancy C. A. Roeske, professor of psychiatry and coordinator of medical education for the department, was invited by the Canadian Psychiatric Association to be a special lecturer at the group's 31st annual meeting in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, in September. The title of her presentation was "Women and a Changing Society: Implications for Transference/Countertransference."

Thomas DeCoster, professor and director of executive education for the School of Public and Environmental Affairs, led sessions on productivity policies at a management conference on "Productivity in the Public Sector" sponsored Oct. 9-10 at the Indianapolis Hilton by the American Society of Public Administration.

Dr. Eugene E. Levitt, director of the Section of Psychology, and Dr. Elgan L. Baker Jr., director of training in psychology, both in the Department of Psychiatry of the School of Medicine, each gave a workshop and read a paper at the meeting of the Society for Clinical and Experimental Hypnosis in Portland, Ore., last week. Dr. Baker also offered a special training film.

Ann Marriner, R.N., Ph.D., professor and associate dean for the baccalaureate program at the School of Nursing presented the keynote address at the annual conference on nursing administration at the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Sept. 11.

Dr. Robert C. Dick, chairman of Communication and Theatre, will present a paper "Faculty Evaluation From a University Chairperson's Perspective," Oct. 30 at the Indiana Speech Association Convention.

Dr. Sidney Ochs, professor of physiology and director of Medical Biophysics, was an invited participant in a symposium, "Role of Calcium in Nerve Function," sponsored by the International Neurochemistry Society at Nottingham, England, Sept. 7-11.

Professor Monroe H. Little of the History Department is the co-author of an article, "The Afro-American Elite, 1930-1940: A Historical and Statistical Profile," appearing in Phylon, The Atlanta University Review of Race and Culture, XLII, Nov. 2.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

(MATT-720118)

JEANNETTE MATTHEW
LIBRARIAN, SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS
420 BLAKE STREET