

green sheet

INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY AT INDIANAPOLIS

iupui

volume five, number thirteen

april 6, 1975

LAW DAY PROGRAM TO FOCUS ON "JUSTICE AND THE MEDIA"

An outstanding criminal lawyer and a television reporter whose coverage of the "Chicago Seven" conspiracy trial earned an Emmy award will participate in a Student Law Day program sponsored by the Student Bar Association of the Indianapolis Law School at IUPUI.

Attorney Henry B. Rothblatt and anchorman Bill Kurtis of WBBM-TV, Chicago, will discuss "Criminal Justice and the News Media" in morning and afternoon programs at the law school Thursday (April 10).

Rothblatt, adjunct professor of law at the New York Law School and chairman of the penal reform committee of the American Trial Lawyers Association, was chief civilian counsel for eight members of a Green Beret company charged with murdering a double agent in Vietnam. He served as chief civilian defense attorney in the court martial of Army Col. Oran Henderson, brigade commander of Lt. William Calley.

Felipe De Diego, charged with breaking into the office of Dr. Lewis Fielding, Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist, was represented by Rothblatt, as were the original four defendants accused of breaking into the Watergate office of the Democratic National Headquarters.

Besides his lively criminal practice, Rothblatt has written extensively. In association with F. Lee Bailey, he has written eight books dealing with various facets of criminal trials. He also has written two books on New York state criminal law and collaborated in the writing of two novels, Court Martial and A Handy Death, both based on his experience as a trial attorney.

Bill Kurtis is co-anchorman of the evening news broadcasts on WBBM-TV (CBS) but he prefers the title of reporter. His coverage of the "Chicago Seven" conspiracy trial in 1969 won an Emmy award. Kurtis earned two more Emmys -- for his work as a reporter and anchorman in 1974, and his reporting of heroin traffic on Chicago's North Side.

When assigned in 1970 to the Los Angeles bureau of CBS News he covered the highly publicized trials of Charles Manson, Angela Davis and Daniel Ellsberg. Kurtis also covered the 1972 Democratic and Republican national conventions at Miami Beach.

Rothblatt and Kurtis will be joined by a panel of broadcast, newspaper and wire service reporters, and the Hon. John B. Wilson, judge of Marion County Criminal Court 4 and Marion County Deputy Prosecutor Craig E. Pinkus. At 10 a.m. the panel will discuss "Criminal News Coverage" -- investigative news reporting, a newsman's privilege and the effect of the "gag rule." At 1:30 p.m. the panel will discuss "Impact of the Media on a Celebrated Case."

The registration fee for either the first or second program is $5, $8 for both programs. Checks payable to SBA-I.U. Indianapolis Law School should be mailed by Tuesday to SBA Law Day Program, Indianapolis Law School, 735 West New York Street, Indianapolis 46202.

* * *

CALENDAR CHECK-OFF

Seminar -- "Chromosome Polymorphism and Twin Zygosity," Medical Genetics Seminar by Daniel VanDyke, graduate student; Riley Research, Room 139, 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Flea for the Asking -- Wednesday is Flea Market Day outside the Union where tables will display all sorts of weird and wonderful goodies for sale from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.. If you would like more information about this Student Activity Board-sponsored annual event, or if you want to reserve a table or more for your wares, call Ext. 8265 or Ext. 8933.

Wednesday -- "Force-Velocity-Length-Time Characteristics of Smooth Muscle," Physiology Seminar by Dr. Richard A. Meiss, assistant professor of OB/GYN and physiology; Medical Science Building, Room 205, 11:45 a.m.

Same Speaker, New Topic -- Dr. Arthur Mirsky, geology department chairman, was going to talk on "Geology in the City: A Walking Tour in Indianapolis" for the Wednesday noon meeting of the Dean's Convocation Series of the School of Science. But the color slides he needed weren't available. So Dr. Mirsky has changed the topic to -- ready? -- "No Deposit-No Return, or What About All Those Bottles and Cans, or Will John and Mary Find Happiness in a Society in which Beer Comes in Returnable Bottles." Place, as usual, is the faculty lounge of the Krannert Building at 38th Street.

Wednesday -- William D. Ruckelshaus, former assistant U.S. attorney general, will be on campus in the School of Nursing Building Wednesday for an IHETS general press conference from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Alchemy at IUB -- Dr. Martin D. Kamen, known internationally as the co-discoverer of Carbon 14 and the Visiting Patten Professor of Biochemistry for 1974-75 at IUB, will talk on "Alchemy Revisited" at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Fine Arts Auditorium in Bloomington. "The Alchemy Connection" will be the topic for his second lecture Wednesday, April 16, same time and place.

Thursday -- "Head Start-Home Start Program, Indianapolis," Child Development Seminar by Miss Marilyn Krueger, director of the program; Riley Hospital Motor Laboratory, Room A534, 2:30 p.m.

American Studies Forum Lectures -- The second of two programs on the "The Invention of the American Landscape: From Garden to Park" will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday in the faculty lounge of Cavanaugh Hall. Samuel A. Roberson, assistant professor of art history, will talk about "Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson Downing: The Transatlantic Passage." Bernard Friedman, professor of history, will discuss "From Countryside to City: Frederick Law Olmstead."

Opening -- The 1975 Senior Exhibition at the Herron School of Art opens Friday with a reception from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the auditorium. The exhibit, which includes drawings, paintings, lithographs, etchings, sculpture, graphic designs and art education works, will be open to the public until May 2, Monday through Friday, from noon to 5 p.m. in the gallery.

ISO -- "Sunday Afternoon Serenade" will feature Donald Voorhees as guest conductor with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra next Sunday (April 13) at 2:30 p.m. in Clowes Memorial Hall.

Films -- "Joseph Schultz" and "Conscience in Conflict" are the films in the second of a five-part series on "Freedom and Responsibility" sponsored by the Indianapolis YWCA. Time is 2:30 p.m. Sunday (April 13) at the "Y" (822 Fort Wayne Avenue). Free admission; child care (no charge, by reservation only). Call 635-5471.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Planning Ahead -- The university program for development of a campus master plan by Woollen Associates and Urban Design Associates is entering its second phase. The two firms have completed more than 125 interviews with campus and community groups. The second phase calls for analyzing this material, identifying planning issues and proposing alternatives. Faculty, staff and students are invited to observe and comment on these matters during open sessions on campus April 14 at the Law School 109-111 from 10 a.m. to noon and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. -- and on April 15 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. in the auditorium of the A Building at 38th Street.

Nominate -- Nominations are being received for the directorship of the General Assistance Center. Qualifications include administrative experience in university and/or public projects, experience in school desegregation, integration processes and knowledge of Indiana public schools. A Ph.D. or Ed.D degree in an appropriate field is desired. If interested, contact Ed Robbins, Division of Education, Ext. 8347.

Parking Notes -- The Radiation Therapy Building will soon be opening for the treatment of cancer patients. The metered parking spaces in the semicircular drive west of this building will be reserved for parking by radiation therapy patients with mobility problems who are receiving daily treatment over an extended period . . . Evening and night employees on the Medical Center Campus who are eligible for and properly display "evening parking permits" may park in any legal parking space after 2 p.m.

The Bureaucracy Lives -- In order to assure that the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, PL 93-568, which amends the original act set forth in PL 93-380, Section 438 is upheld, the Indianapolis Public Schools have requested that any attempts to use the Indianapolis Public School for surveys, data gathering activities and "observations" by students and staff be channeled through an institutional officer responsible for students' rights to privacy--the equivalent of human subjects used in research. Any request to conduct such research should be submitted on IPS forms through the Office of Sponsored Programs. For information or forms, call Ext. 8285.

* * *

DANCERS IN RESIDENCE

One of the brightest young dance groups in the nation will spend this week in residence at the School of Physical Education at IUPUI. The Cliff Keuter Dance Company, presented by Sol Hurok, will offer a series of classes, lectures and demonstrations, and performances of modern dance and gymnastics.

The program is supported by grants from the Indiana Arts Commission, the National Endowment for the Arts, the IUPUI Research and Development Committee and the I.U. School of Physical Education Alumni Association.

NEIL MATTHEW
FINE ARTS
CA BLDG.

NB*

*A News Bureau Publication
Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis
1100 West Michigan Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

- 4 -

Friday the company will present a program of ballet revivals and new works related to American themes and the American bicentennial celebration. Included will be two premieres -- "Voices," with music by Bach, Ravel and Shostakovich, and "Burden of Vision," inspired by the prophet Isaiah. Another ballet will be danced to Bluegrass music, another will present a view of love and another is titled "Amazing Grace."

The program will be presented at 8:30 p.m. in the Hedback Community Theater, 1847 North Alabama Street. Admission is $3.

Mary M. Kimball, who is co-ordinating the Keuter Company activities at IUPUI, said the group will present classes at 9 a.m., 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. Monday through Thursday, with workshops from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. each day. Classes and workshops will alternate between dance and gymnastics with the exception of a workshop Wednesday evening on movement for the actor.

* * *

FRIENDLY GREEN SHEET'S CATCH-ALL MARKETPLACE

Wanted to Rent -- Quiet apartment in residential area; prefer apartment attached to well-maintained residence, private entrance, easy commuting distance to Medical Center; prospective renter is Ph.D. scientist. Please call Dr. Senff at Ext. 7671.

Wants to Rent -- Graduating Bloomington law student would like to rent Indianapolis home for coming year; will furnish references. Contact Greg Pawlowski, 1202 North Lincoln, Bloomington, 812-334-2620.

Wants to rent -- House or apartment furnished for month of June, one or two bedrooms. Write Russell McDermott, 3000 Cahuilla Hills, Palm Springs, Calif. 92262.

Collie Dog & Calico Cat -- Spayed female collie for sale, two years old, has shots, doghouse included, $45. Calico is 2 1/2 years old, spayed, has shots, is housebroken, free to a good home. Call Ext. 8784 or 839-5896 after 5:30 p.m.

For Sale -- Two-year-old, three-bedroom townhouse condominium in Wildwood (6800 Georgetown Road); 1 1/2 baths, gas furnace, roofed patio, all-electric kitchen. Sale includes range with self-cleaning oven, frost-free refrigerator, dishwasher, washer, dryer, and all drapes and rods. $23,000. Call 297-4588.

For Sale -- 1973 Chrysler Newport, vinyl top, cream over bronze, new battery, good tires; $2,750. Also electric adding machine with paper tape printout, repair key, $30. For car or machine, call Ron at Ext. 4797.

* * *