JOIN OR RENEW YOUR IUAA MEMBERSHIP

The IU Alumni Association does not raise funds for the university, but provides many services as a membership organization that collects dues. Member dues support the association's communications, programs, and services.

The following benefits are available exclusively to IUAA members:

- Subscription to INDIANA ALUMNI MAGAZINE
- Full access to the IU alumni online directory
- Eligibility to be a member of the IU Credit Union
- 10% member discount at the IU alumni store
- Discounts on hotels, rental cars, and interstate moving
- Priority points on IU football and basketball tickets

Memberships make great gifts!

IU Alumni Association membership is the perfect gift for new graduates, alumni, or anyone who loves IU! Gift recipients receive a gift card and a membership packet which includes a welcome letter, member card, decal, and information about their member benefits.

Join or renew online at <http://alumni.indiana.edu/membership/join/> or call
812-855-4822 or 1-800-824-3044

Hoepfner to Head Hoosier Football Program

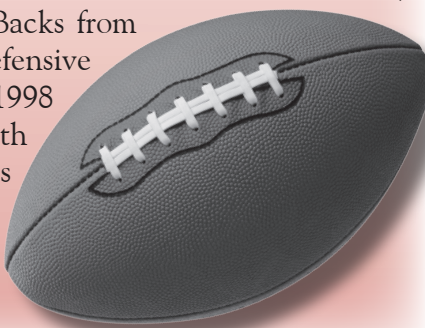

Woodburn, Indiana native, Terry Hoepfner, who led Miami (Ohio) University to a pair of consecutive Mid-American Conference East Division titles and bowl game appearances for the first time in 30 years, has been named Indiana University's 26th head football coach.

Hoepfner arrives in Bloomington after spending 19 seasons at Miami, including the past six as head coach. During his head coaching tenure, Hoepfner helped restore the national spotlight to the tradition-rich RedHawk football program. In addition to compiling a 48-24 overall record, Miami has finished among the top three in the MAC East each of the last six years. The RedHawks closed the 2003 season by winning the MAC and GMAC Bowl Championships and were ranked 10th in the final Associated Press poll and 12th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll. In addition, Miami was rated as high as 11th in the Bowl Championship Series.

Prior to taking over the MU program from current Northwestern coach Randy Walker in Jan. 1999, Hoepfner spent 13 seasons as an assistant coach, including Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs from 1993-95 and Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator from 1995-98. During the 1998 campaign, Hoepfner's defense ranked fourth in the nation in scoring defense, fifth in pass efficiency defense and 16th in total defense. Miami's record with Hoepfner as Assistant Head Coach was 42-22-2 (.652)

YOUNG ALUMNI EVENTS

Come join the IU Young Alumni to cheer on the Hoosiers and network with fellow alumni ages 35 and under! This group is organized by volunteers and supported by the Indianapolis Club to plan events. The IU Young Alumni send out monthly email invitations for meet ups to watch the Hoosiers in action.

We are planning future events such as golf outings and an Indians game, so get on the list now! Come out to an event and find out about our discounted opportunities to become a member of IUAA.

Believe it or not, Summer is just around the corner!

Reservations for Camp Brosius for the summer 2005 are now being accepted!

Camp Brosius, the century-old resort, located on crystal clear Elkhart Lake, Wisconsin, is the perfect summer get-away for IU alumni, faculty, staff, and their families.

Camp Brosius was founded in 1921 by the Normal College of the American Gymnastic Union, the predecessor institution of the Indiana University School of Physical Education and Tourism Management. When the school merged with Indiana University in 1941, the camp became an integral part of the university. While the school has continually used Camp Brosius as an academic facility during the month of May, the rest of the summer is devoted to family camping. The Indiana University Alumni Association established the family camp in 1975, but management is now in the hands of the School of Physical Education and Tourism Management.
