

green sheet

volume fifteen, number twenty-three june 23, 1985

SUMMER INSTITUTE SET FOR PROFESSIONAL EDUCATORS

Teachers and anyone else interested in a new summer institute designed to review "topics that undergird American society" can enroll now for three one-week, one-credit-hour seminars that are offered by the Institute for Humanities Research and the School of Liberal Arts. The intensive studies are offered July 15-Aug. 2, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-noon.

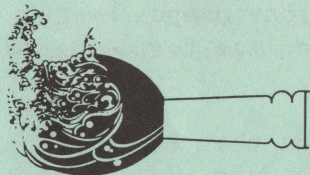

Sessions:

July 15-19, (S512), Historical World Movements: Shapers of the Western Tradition

July 22-26, (E590), Historical and Theoretical Influences on Economic Issues

July 29-Aug. 2, (L695), Literature of Cross-Cultural Experiences

Special registration will be at 8 a.m. on the first day of each session in the School of Liberal Arts. To apply, or for more information, call Frances Dodson Rhome, director of the institute, Ext. 2447.

IUPUI and the White River State Park Arts Festival are sponsoring the first White River Distinguished Student Scholarships. The '86 awards will be available to students in grades nine-12 for achievement in dance, drama, piano and the visual arts. Initial applications are due June 29. Call 634-4567.

CAMPAIGNERS HOPE TO HEAR FROM THE OTHER HALF

People on our campus working for the success of the Campaign for Indiana, Campus Campaign, would like to hear from those of us who have not turned in our pledge cards. With a little less than half the cards in, we have raised $517,671 so far--most of it designated to particular areas. Maynard K. Hine, one of our three chairmen on campus, reminds us that you may be approached again about your campaign card.

And, Executive Director of the I.U. Foundation on our campus Gene Tempel reminds you that in regard to your federal taxes, next year the non-itemizing donor can claim the full gift to the campaign as a gift deduction. And that all gifts to the Foundation are subject to the Indiana Tax Credit. So if you don't itemize you can take advantage of both the 50% deduction and the State Tax Credit for the gift to the Campaign for Indiana. That makes the real cost of the gift less, while the gift improves IUPUI.

The goal for our campus is about a half million dollars. You can help. Call Gail Plater, Ext. 3711.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Happy 209th--All the campus offices that can will close so that we can celebrate the country's birthday. Those who can't take the official day off will get time off some other day--sort of an "un-birthday." The School of Dentistry library announces special Independence Day hours. Hours are 7:30 a.m.-5 p.m. on July 3; closed July 4; 7:30 a.m.-5 p.m. on July 5; 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. on July 6; closed July 7; regular hours begin July 8.

Pay to Ride--James Hawkins will help pay expenses for a ride back and forth from Old Mill Park Subdivision to campus. Call Ext. 8441.

Baseball Builder Goes Private--Craig Moore, our head baseball coach, is leaving to enter private business. He built the program into a top contender in NAIA District 21, and Athletic Director Bob Lovell says Craig's efforts of the past four years "are appreciated."

Mime's the Word--Adults and children can take summer classes, July 8-26. Learn pantomime, masks, makeup, juggling and more. Call Midsummer Mime Theatre, 636-0667.

Smoothed Over--You will find it smooth going now on Lansing Street--that's west at the McDonald House. The new paving job is great.

Workshop for Interviewing/Hiring--Supervisors, managers and clerical employees can take advantage of Personnel's Non-Exempt Employment Process Program training workshop on July 17, UV 200, 1:30-3:30 p.m. This is a change from the originally planned workshop of June 12. To register, call Ext. 8931.

Want in the Calendar?--If you want your seminar, workshop or any other campus event listed in next year's IUPUI activities calendar, June 30 is the deadline for doing so. Send info in writing to Publications, A0 136.

Focus on Aging--The Div. of Continuing Medical Education reminds you that there are special programs on aging on the Medical Television Network through July 12. Life support, hypertension and more offered. Call Ext. 8353.

Need Healthy, Non-smoking Men--Normal, healthy, non-obese, non-smoking men ages 21-50 are needed for a physiologic experiment. Must not have had hepatitis or take medication or drugs. Five-hour experiment--safe, but tiring. Requires withdrawing less than one pint of blood. Remuneration is $125. Call Dr. S. Edwin Fineberg, 630-6056.

Scholarship Benefit--Landon Turner, our coordinator of minority affairs, will be a special guest at fund raiser to which we are all invited. The Neal-Marshall Indianapolis Committee of the IU Alumni Association is having its scholarship and recognition banquet on July 13 at 6 p.m. at the Sheraton Inn East. Featured speaker is Mary E. Busch, director of community services, Indiana Central. For costs and reservations, call Gail Barnes, Ext. 2507, before July 9.

Teaching High Tech to Teachers--Virginia R. Harvin, professor of mathematics education, and Mary A. Gilchrist, associate professor and associate director of the Office of Instructional Computing in the School of Education, are directing a LOGO summer teaching training institute for the Indiana Consortium for Computer and High Technology Education. The institute for elementary teachers is June 24-July 3 on campus. Call Ext. 2907.

Editor's Note--One more time. If you need to make Green Sheet mailing changes--deletions or additions--please send only that information. Your changes will be delayed if you send lists of people for whom there are no changes.

DEAN MCDONALD HONORED FOR 40 YEARS OF SERVICE

Friends and associates of Dr. Ralph E. McDonald, retiring dean of the School of Dentistry, met at the Marten House last week and honored him for his 17 years as dean and nearly 40 years total of faculty service. Another former dean of the school, Chancellor Emeritus Maynard K. Hine was emcee. Associate Dean Robert Bogan presented gifts to Dean McDonald from his faculty and staff that included a bust and a watercolor portrait of himself and his wife, both done by Dr. Rolando DeCastro from the school. The McDonalds' three children were among the guests.

NEED HEALTHY VOLUNTEERS FOR RESEARCH

Endocrinology needs healthy volunteers for research on a blood protein involved in bone metabolism. Subjects will be hospitalized for 24 hours in the Clinical Research Center and will have an IV line for blood sampling. Reimbursement is $50 and meals. For more information, call Mary Ann Harris, Ext. 4356.

FIRST 'DELI MAN' SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

A scholarship to honor Max M. Shapiro, the "deli man" who in 1940 created the nation's first cafeteria-style delicatessen, has been started by the Department of Restaurant, Hotel and Institutional Management at IUPUI. Shipiro came with his parents and seven brothers and sisters to the U.S. from Russia in 1905 when they opened a grocery here. According to Raymond A. Dault, chairman and professor in the department, Shapiro's success is attributed to his business philosophy: "Cook good, serve generously, price modestly and people will come." Max died last year, but his philosophy lives on in the family-run business that is in its original location in Indy. The first $1,000 Max M. Shapiro Restaurant Excellance Scholarship went to John D. Christianson, a student in the department.-JG

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Games New Address--The White River Park State Games are under way and if you want to visit the offices or call for information, the Games and the Indiana Sports Corporation have a new address and phone number. It is Capital Center, 251 N. Illinois St., Suite 910, Indianapolis, 46204. Phone 237-2200, or for Games info, 1-800-85-GAMES.

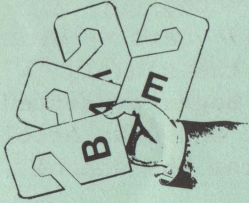

CTS Meetings--The Corporation for Science and Technology has two meetings June 27. The Indiana Emerging Business Forum, co-sponsored by Purdue, is in the Indiana Convention Center, 4:30-6:30 p.m., and the CST Advanced Materials Conference meets in the Holiday Inn Airport, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Call 635-3058.

Register Now--"Health Care Ethics: Dilemmas, Issues and Conflicts" is the topic of the Midwest Alliance in Nursing fall workshop set for Sept. 5-6 at the Hyatt Regency here. The sixth annual workshop will focus on nurses coping with ethical dilemmas. Registration deadline is Aug. 23. For fees or more information, call MAIN, Ext. 3255.

Kittens Need Homes--Need homes for "darling" house-trained kittens. Call Mrs. Burgess, 877-2054.

For the Patients--Men and women who give their time, talents and money as members of the Cheer Guild of Indiana have since January donated more than 12,000 hours of service. On behalf of the young patients who each get a toy, and for all the patients and staff--thanks, Cheer Guild.

A FINE DECISION

The administration has approved increases in fines for parking violations and parking rates for permits and meters. For example, fines can cost you from $5 for meter violations, parking in the wrong lot or line straddling; $10 for parking in a handicapped space, yellow zone or other marked areas, and a hefty $25 for using a permit after employment termination, using a counterfeit permit, or that other trick of using a parking ticket on the windshield.

It's time to renew your parking permits and they will cost a little more this year. "A" permits are $10.75 a month, "B" permits are $5, and evening permits are $2 a month. Monthly garage card rates are $17.50 for "A" and $16.75 for "B." Meter rates are five cents for 7.5 minutes, 10 cents for 15 minutes and 40 cents for an hour. Meters take nickels, dimes and quarters.

To renew your parking permit, or to get a copy of parking regulations, go to Parking Services, 420 Agnes Street, or call Ext. 4232. New, fun campus maps are also available.

CENTRAL STORES ON THE SKIDS

Central Stores only has 430 orange skids they need to deliver material all over campus and 183 of them are missing. Deliveries are delayed because of the shortage. Central Stores hopes that those departments that are keeping the skids or using them for storage will return the skids. (At $100 each, Stores is missing more than $18,000 worth of skids.) If you have some skids in your area, please return them or call Ext. 7368 to have them picked up.

ATHLETIC CLUB INVITES YOU TO 5TH ANNUAL GOLF TOURNEY

IUPUI faculty and staff get a price break for the 5th Annual IUPUI Metro Athletic Club Golf Tourney set for Harbour Trees Golf Club on July 23. The $75 fee ($50 less than others pay) includes greens fees, buffet dinner, cart and chances for some great door prizes. (Dinner-only tickets are $20.) Prizes include $25 gift certificate for each foursome, closest to pin and longest drive. Registration is at 11:30 a.m. for the 1 p.m. shotgun start. Dinner is at 7 p.m. with catering by Calloway's. Proceeds go to athletic scholarships and the athletic club. For information and registration, call Athletic Director Bob Lovell, Ext. 2725.

POSITION AVAILABLE

NURSING FACULTY, part-time, available August, 1985. Baccalaureate program teaching clinical courses in the areas of fundamentals, pediatrics, medical-surgical and chronic illness. Requires BSN degree, master's degree, clinical experience, and prefer previous teaching experience in clinical specialty. Contact Office of Assistant Dean, School of Nursing, Ext. 7901.