

IUPUI GAC Reviewer Form

Documents Reviewed: Graduate Certificate in Environmental and Natural Resources Law (ENR)

Summary of Proposal: The proposal clearly stated the goals of the ENR, the resources to be utilized, and the importance of the ENR to students, the School of Law, and IUPUI. The proposal also makes a convincing case for job placements after students enrolled in the ENR graduate.

1. Are the goals clear and achievable?

Yes, the goals of the ENR are clearly stated and achievable.

2. Is the program academically sound?

Yes, the ENR will build upon the inherent strengths of the School of Law.

3. Are faculty resources available to offer this certificate without undercutting other key missions of the unit?

Yes, the ENR courses will be taught by the current faculty and would lead to no new teaching demands.

4. Is there overlap, either real or potential, with any other unit that could harm the program or be exploited to help the program?

No, there is no unit that could harm the ENR. Although, I think the ENR may benefit from some of the courses offered in SPEA.

5. My recommendation, comments/concerns regarding this proposal...

I recommend that this proposed Graduate Certificate in Environmental and Natural Resources Law be accepted.
