

ACCESS POINT OFFERS ON-THE-SPOT UPGRADE

Software upgrade day, sponsored in part by IUPUI ACCESS Point, is Nov. 19, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. in room 132 of University Place Conference Center. Special software upgrades can be made by the following participating manufacturers: IBM, Lotus, Microsoft, WordPerfect, Apple and Claris. Interested departments, units and individuals will be able to upgrade such software as IBM PC-DOS 5.0, MS DOS 5.0, LOTUS 1-2-3 versions 2.3 and 3.1+ and Windows, MacWrite Pro, MacDraw Pro and Filemaker Pro, among others. Individuals who are members of ACCESS Point can purchase with cash or check, and university-related purchases can be made with departmental purchase orders or University purchase orders. For more, watch for an insert in the Nov. 17 Green Sheet, or call Ron Pirau, 4-0735.

IUPUI CAMPUS WATCH WELCOMES YOUR HELP

More than 600 students have already have shown interest in the new IUPUI Campus Watch initiated by the IUPUI police. Lt. Bob True is in charge and says the program goal is to make the campus safer for everyone through education, information and communication. "This is an ears and eyes program to help us protect one another," True said. "Most importantly, we want everyone on campus to know that whenever they see or hear something on campus that makes them uncomfortable--anything from someone carrying a gun to a loose manhole cover--we want them to call us. We are never too busy to take calls, and nothing is too insignificant to report. Even if the problem is not a police problem, we can direct the call to right place," said True. Campus Watch also will provide speakers to discuss awareness and crime prevention, and workshops will be provided for those who volunteer in the program. Anyone interested in participating can call the IUPUI Campus Watch, 4-2058. The emergency police number remains 4-4911 and phone stickers with all police numbers are available at no charge by calling 4-7971.

NOVEMBER IS TIME TO CHANGE INSURANCE, TAX BENEFITS

November is the only time to change health care plans and to enroll in or change the tax saver benefit plan. There are three health plans from which to choose, benefits are becoming increasingly complex, premiums are changing and other plans, including a new long-term disability insurance plan for full-timers, are being offered. Also, you must enroll or re-enroll each November in the Tax Saver Benefit Plan, a pre-tax program for handling medical expenses (Part B) and dependent care expenses (Part C). To help you sort all this out and make your decisions, Human Resources Administration is offering free information sessions at different times throughout the day on Nov. 7, Nov. 13 and Nov. 20. For a complete schedule, call 4-4596; see your latest issue of Life at IUPUI, or ask your dean, director or department head for recent information from G. Chris Keeley, director of human resources.

A CHRISTMAS BOUTIQUE OF "LOVE-CRAFTED" GIFTS AND DECORATIONS

is Nov. 7-8, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. in the main lobby of University and Riley Hospitals. Items are crafted with love by members of the Cheer Guild.

SIMON'S CHEKOV SATIRE SET TO OPEN

George Willeford, pictured left as General Brassilhov, and other seasoned Indy and IUPUI actors have roles in Neil Simon's hit play, "The Good Doctor," set to open in University Theatre Nov. 15 in the Mary Cable Building. In the takeoff on Anton Chekov's satirical short stories, the Writer will invite you into his study as he and costumed dancers spin yarns about turn-of-the-century Russia. IUPUI theatre students are producing "The Good Doctor" and are handling directing, set design, costume design and business. J. Edgar Webb, professor of theater, is the faculty adviser. Other performances are Nov. 16 and Nov. 21-23. Curtain is at 8 p.m. Call 4-2095 for tickets.

WOMEN'S STUDIES RESEARCH DAY FEATURES THORNE FROM USC

All academics and the public are invited to Women's Studies Research Day, a systemwide event Nov. 9 at the School of Law at IUPUI. Lunch is free to those who register before Nov. 5. Barrie Thorne, the Streisand Professor, Dept. of Sociology and the Program for the Study of Women and Men in Society, U. of Southern California, will give the keynote address, "Entering Our Third Decade: Theoretical and Empirical Issues in Current Women's Studies Research." Eleven different workshops to which researchers can bring course syllabi and recent abstracts, will cover such women-related topics as spirituality, health, world peace, race and class, domestic violence and the criminal justice system, work, family, social policy and much more. Anne Donchin, chairman of Women's Studies at IUPUI, has spearheaded the event and welcomes everyone. She notes that Women's Studies has only been institutionalized for about 20 years, and that "research has been developing at a break-neck pace. Women's Studies is in an upward turmoil and this will be an exciting exchange," she said. To register, call 4-8926 or 4-7611.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Moose-stake--It is estimated that each week in New York City falcons killed 150 pigeons; each year in Maine 580 moose are hit by humans. (Harper's Index, Oct. '91)

Hiring Workshop--A workshop designed for IUPUI people involved in interviewing and selecting new biweekly employees and handling PAFs and personnel requisitions is offered free Nov. 19, 9-11:30 a.m. in UN 372. Focus will be on filling vacancies, recruitment methods, promotion/transfer, and more. Register before Nov. 12 by calling the sponsor, Human Resources Administration, 4-8931.

Worldly--International Affairs invites everyone to upcoming events such as coffee hours in the International House commons area at the Warthin Apartments and to the next EDUCATE program that will focus on the firsthand foreign travel experiences of faculty members. A coffee hour Nov. 8, 4-6 p.m., will focus on Japan. On Nov. 12, 4-5:15 p.m., in LE 105 is the EDUCATE program, "Art, Politics and the Reality of War in Eastern Europe," with Sherri Richarddi from journalism, who recently experienced the war in Yugoslavia, and Matei Calinescu from comparative literature at Bloomington, who will discuss the changing political scene in Eastern Europe and its effect on art. Then on Nov. 15 is another coffee hour, 4-6 p.m., that will focus on Liberia. No charge, all welcome. For more call 4-5024.

Assert Yourself--You can learn to speak up for yourself in constructive ways in Assertiveness Training Nov. 13 in two separate sessions, noon-1 p.m. or 6:30-8:30 p.m. in UN 418. IUPUI Counseling and Psychological Services staff will lead. Cost is $1 for students, $5 for others. To register, call 4-2548.

BLACK SAYS UNITED WAY IN THE PINK

At deadline this week it looked like the generosity of the IUPUI campus community would make it possible for us to meet our United Way goal of $270,000. More than $200,000 in pledges and cash are accounted for and that includes a record-breaking number of key club members (49) who gave $1000 or more. Students raised more than $340 in cash and there's more coming from them. The victory dinner is Nov. 13 at the Westin Hotel and one of this year's IUPUI campaign co-chairman, Karen Black, said, "I feel confident that IUPUI will be announced as making its goal." Dig in and help others dig out.
