

PULITZER PRIZE-WINNER GWENDOLYN BROOKS AT IUPUI

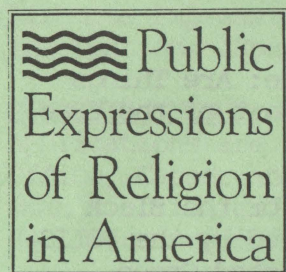

Pulitzer prize-winning poet Gwendolyn Brooks will hold two free, open-to-the-public sessions March 9 on campus. The first will be a "meet-the-author" session in Richard Turner's L115 class in BS 2003 from 2:30-3:45 p.m. At 7 p.m., she will read her some of her works at the Madame Walker Urban Life Center. Brooks, the poet laureate of Illinois, was the first black writer to win a Pulitzer. Her visit is co-sponsored by the Indianapolis-Marion County Library Foundation, the IUPUI BookMarks program and the Undergraduate Education Center.

Brooks

In the first of two more BookMarks events, Brooks' life and work also will be scrutinized when the film "Gwendolyn Brooks" is shown Feb. 25 on the second-floor lounge of Ball Residence. The film will begin at 7 p.m. and free refreshments will be served. The event is sponsored by Residence Life. The second BookMarks program features a discussion of "In Search of the Double Helix" Feb. 27 at a noon luncheon program at the Institute of Psychiatric Research library. The discussion will be led by Dr. John J. Nurnberger Jr. and free pizza will be served. The event is open to anyone interested. For more, call 4-4371.

IUPUI HOSTING NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON RELIGIOUS DISCOURSE

The Center for the Study of Religion and American Culture will kick off a three-year project exploring the ways religion is discussed in public with the first of four national conferences April 2-4 at the University Place Conference Center. Musical works, books and other writings about the public discourse of religion will be part of the three-year project, funded by Lilly Endowment. Future conferences will cover sources of public expressions of religion, the expression of American religion in the media and the public expression of religion in the arts.

NATIONALLY KNOWN SINGER HEADLINING GOSPELFEST

Gospel star Phebe Hines will be the featured performer at "A Salute to Gospel Music" Feb. 22 at the Madame Walker Urban Life Center. Tickets for the 7 p.m. event are $3 for general seating and $5 for VIP seating. Admission is by ticket only and no tickets will be sold at the door. The annual gospel event, which also will feature other soloists and Indianapolis choirs, is a tribute to Black History Month and is co-sponsored by the Office of Minority Student Services and Students Interested in Gospel Music. For more, call 4-4239.

Hines

IUPUI PART OF COLLEGE TALENT INTERVIEW DAY

Recruiters from more than 50 industries will meet job-hunting seniors and alumni from 10 Indiana colleges and universities, including IUPUI, at the 10th annual College Talent Interview Day Feb. 26 at the Indiana Convention Center and Hoosier Dome. The event runs from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more, call 274-2554.

'AN ARTS EXTRAVAGANZA' RETURNS

Movies, music and the works of Herron School of Art graduates will be featured at "An Arts Extravaganza" Feb. 21. The annual event will open at 6 p.m. with an alumni art exhibit/reception at the Conference Center, with music provided by the School of Music. The movie "The King of Comedy" will be shown, followed by a discussion of director Martin Scorsese's dark comic view of modern media and celebrity. Tickets are $3.50 per person and available by mail at the IU Alumni Relations office. Or call 4-5063.

REVIEW COMMITTEE PLANNING OPEN INTERVIEWS

Open interviews on the performance of executive vice chancellor and dean of faculties William M. Plater by the Administrative Review Committee. The individual and confidential sessions are set Mar. 12 (1-5 p.m.) and Mar. 13 (8 a.m.-noon) in University Library room 216 and will last 20 minutes each. For an appointment, call 4-8342.

SCIENCE, LIBERAL ARTS FACULTY EARN EXCELLENCE AWARDS

Four faculty members from the School of Science and two from Liberal Arts have received 1992 NET (Network for Excellence in Teaching) Grants from the Faculty Development Office and the Office of Learning Technologies. Award winners include Kristine Brunovska Karnick (communications) and Robert White (sociology) from Liberal Arts and Robert W. Cox (CSCI and mathematics), Gregor Novak (physics), Mathew J. Palakal (computer science) and Michael A. Penna (mathematics) from Science.

NEWS 'N' NOTES

EDUCATION POLICY--SPEA will host "The Equity of Indiana School Finance: Are Things Improving?" from 2:30-4:30 p.m. Feb. 21 in BS 4095. The session is part of the free Education Policy Seminar Series.

URBAN AGENDA--Eric Bailey of anthropology will discuss "Health Care for the Black Urban Population" during "Urban Agenda: IUPUI On The Circle," sponsored by the POLIS Research Center Feb. 26 from noon-1 p.m. in Conference Room A, Associated Group headquarters, 120 Monument Circle.

LABOR RELATIONS--The Human Resources Administration is offering a labor relations series for supervisors each Wednesday in March, plus April 1. Topics include progressive discipline, grievances, absenteeism, employee substance abuse problems and the union. All sessions begin at 9 a.m. in UB 372. The registration deadline is Feb. 17. For more, call 4-8931.

WORK-STUDY STUDENTS--A few students are still available for work-study positions this semester, with the employer portion of payments just 30 percent. For more, call Jeanne Shackelford in Student Employment at 4-4577.

CAMPUS GREETERS--Noel Duerden, director of the IUPUI Visitor Information Center, is planning an information meeting for those who handle campus visitors Feb. 21 from 2-4 p.m. in the Conference Center, room 231. For more, call 4-2323.

GREEN SHEET NOTES--For those wishing to publish a notice of an upcoming event in the Green Sheet, the next issue will include any event March 1-14, with a Feb. 25 deadline (5 p.m.) for turning in the information. Or call 4-7711.

AIDS AWARENESS, TREATMENT FOCUS OF FEBRUARY EVENTS

AIDS awareness and treatment are the topics in separate events this month. "Medical and Political Research Perspectives" will be the focus of a Feb. 17 event at the Conference Center from 6:30-8 p.m. Kenneth H. Fife of the School of Medicine and Richard A. Fredland of Political Science will lead the discussion. For more on the event, sponsored by the Student Affairs AIDS Awareness Committee, call 4-5024. AIDS survivor Michael Callen and former School of Medicine faculty member Dan Hicks are the featured speakers at the "Living With AIDS" symposium Feb. 22 in BS 4095. The event begins at 9 a.m. and will focus on how health-care professionals can provide effective treatment for people with AIDS. The symposium is sponsored by the School of Social Work, Indiana Physicians for Human Rights and the Damien Center. Registration is $55 before Feb. 17 and $65 the day of the event. To register or for more, call 4-6732. — Alicia Dean Carlson

KENYA STUDY TOUR PLANNED FOR JUNE

Those interested in a 13-day study tour of Kenya, scheduled June 26-July 8, still have time to sign up with Continuing Studies. Kenyan art, culture, government, business and education are among topics to be studied. The instructor is Deanna Cathcart of Continuing Studies, which is co-sponsoring the tour with Purdue University. Registration deadline is March 2. Continuing Studies also is seeking sign-ups for one longtime favorite class, "Indy 500" with historian Donald Davidson, and the new class "Architecture and Icons" with instructors provided by Landmark Tours and the Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana. For more information or to sign up for the tour or classes, call 4-5051.

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

NEW SERVICE--Departments interested in setting up an express mail account with Airborne Express should contact Purchasing Services (Linda Melton, 4-7037) for more information. Special rates are being set up for the service.

STUDENTS SOUGHT--Student ambassadors are needed to help host upcoming IUPUI events. Applications are available at Cavanaugh Hall information booth, Student Activities Office, Career and Employment Services, Student Affairs Office, Herron School of Art dean's office and Ball Residence Hall. The deadline to turn in applications is Feb. 24. For more information about the qualifications, call 4-3931.

HEALTH KICK--The Recreational Sports Department is offering a four-on-four half-court basketball league for faculty and staff and a running/walking club for anyone interested. For more about either program, call 4-2824.

POSITIONS OPEN

PSYCHIATRIC SERVICES--The Psychiatric Outpatient Clinic of Larue Carter Hospital is accepting applications from prospective patients for evaluation and treatment. They must be 18 or older and suffer from emotional problems. Fees are based on a sliding scale. For more, call Wynonia Cunningham at 634-8401, extension 474.

HYPERTENSION STUDY--Adults with high blood pressure are needed for an outpatient medication study covering 16 weeks, with a possible 40-week extension. Medication and medical care is free and participants are paid. For more, call 4-0791.

YEAST STUDY--Non-pregnant females ages 18-65 with symptoms of a yeast infection are being sought for a vaginal yeast study at the Bell-Flower Clinic. The program offers free treatment plus payment of between $50 and $150. Call 630-7221.

IUPUI STAFFER FEATURED IN AFRICAN LIFE, CULTURE ART EXHIBIT

Depictions of African life and culture created by artist Patricia A. Gaines are on display at the Central Library in downtown Indianapolis this month, which is Black History Month. Gaines is a member of the School of Social Work's clerical staff and is one of 14 local people featured in the exhibit of outstanding African-American artists. She is the director of Youth in Arts at Madame Walker Urban Life Center and the owner of Studio 5000. Her work "Pottery Maker I" is shown (right).

— Alicia Dean Carlson

SOCIAL SCIENTIST TO DISCUSS CHANGES IN AMERICAN VOLUNTEERISM

Noted social scientist Robert Wuthnow of Princeton will discuss "Rediscovering Community: The Cultural Potential of Caring Behavior and Voluntary Service" in a March 3 appearance sponsored by the Center on Philanthropy. Wuthnow will focus on how the breakdown of community in American society has changed the character of volunteerism and philanthropy. The event will begin at 4 p.m. at the Sigma Theta Tau building, is free and open to the public. For more, call 4-4200.

URUGUAYAN LINGUISTIC TO VISIT IUPUI

Distinguished professor of semiotics, linguistics and comparative literature Lisa Block de Behar of Uruguay will visit the campus Feb. 27-28 as a fellow from the Institute for Advanced Studies in Bloomington. Block de Behar will lead a faculty seminar Feb. 27 at 2:30 p.m. in CA 438, then join in a discussion with students at the International House Commons at 8:30 p.m. the same day. Both events are free and open to the public. Please note that these dates are different from the ones originally announced in brochures and flyers. For more, call 4-2081.

NEWMAN CENTER JOINING VOLUNTEER EFFORT IN FLORIDA

Ten Newman Center volunteers will spend a week volunteering at Covenant House in Ft. Lauderdale beginning March 14, helping homeless kids in the Florida city. IUPUI volunteers will live and work with full-time volunteers providing food, clothing, counseling and support. Newman Center also is raising funds to support the struggling Covenant House. Donations can be made by check (payable to Covenant House-Florida) to the Newman Center, 1309 W. Michigan St. Or call 632-4378.

HONORS 'N' ACCOLADES

ARTICLE FEATURED--Chancellor Gerald L. Bepko contributed a strong featured article, "Heroes for Education," encouraging public support for academic achievement and excellence for the January 1992 edition of The American Legion magazine.

PEDIATRIC EXCELLENCE--Debi Wagner of Riley Hospital for Children has received the Jean Fergusson/Sandoz Inc. Award for excellence in pediatric oncology nursing in education. The award is presented by the Association of Pediatric Oncology Nurses.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202