

green sheet

C1 8P3

volume thirteen, number fourteen

april 10, 1983

SOCIOLOGY EXPLORES NEW TREND

A new trend in the field of sociology will be explored Friday when the Department of Sociology acts as host for a "Symposium on Applied Sociology."

The symposium will bring together sociology scholars and practitioners and will feature two nationally prominent leaders in the field of sociology research. There is a $25 registration fee for the program, which begins at 8:30 a.m. with registration. The program will be held in various rooms in the SPEA Building and the Lecture Hall.

Irwin Deutscher, past president of the Society for the Study of Social Problems and author of several books, will address the symposium in the morning. In the afternoon, William Foote Whyte, a professor of industrial relations at Cornell University, past president of the American Sociological Association, and author of numerous papers in the field of sociology, will speak.

Whyte has been studying failing industrial concerns in the United States and is knowledgeable about the recent revival of interest in employee ownership of business.

Applied sociology brings sociological knowledge to bear on practical community affairs, according to Richard Hope, chairman of the IUPUI Department of Sociology. Symposium organizers say that both government agencies and the private sector increasingly recognize the special contribution applied sociologists have to make.

For further information contact Sue Hammersmith, professor of sociology, Ext. 8894.

COMPUTERIZED REGISTRATION SYSTEM IN PLACE

A "new and improved" computerized registration system will begin Monday for next fall's classes. Information once kept on more than a quarter of a million bulky cards is neatly stored in the new system and for the first time students will schedule all their classes, register, and be billed by mail on an automated system that has taken four years to streamline.

"While this may at first seem foreign to students, except for new forms and saving time, the automated systems closely follow the old process," said Richard Slocum, IUPUI registrar. "Unlike the old manual system where information moved slowly, students will know while they are still in school that their classes are confirmed for next fall."

Class schedules of the more than 1,700 courses offered to IUPUI's 23,000-plus students are in the computer. Some particulars regarding financial aid and scholarship programs will be worked in for the next go-round in 1984.

FAMILIES AGAIN NEEDED TO HOST FOREIGN VISITORS

For the fifth year families are needed to host 14 participants in a 15-week professional and cultural exchange program co-sponsored by the I.U. School of Social Work at IUPUI and the Council of International Programs. Host families are an integral part of the exchange, providing a vital link with American culture and life style through family and community participation, while themselves benefiting from this cross-cultural exchange.

The foreign visitors will arrive in America with a variety of educational and work backgrounds. They will represent 12 countries.

Starting dates for the three, five-week periods are May 1, June 5 and July 10. Families are needed to accommodate the social workers for June and July. Families may volunteer for one or both of the last periods by applying directly to the host family committee. Families must be able to provide a private room, daily morning and evening meals and weekend meals for their guests.

For more information or applications, call Eve Perlstein, committee chairman, at 846-6806, or David Metzger, program director and assistant professor at the School of Social Work, at Ext. 7405.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE WANTS YOU!

The University Theatre will be presenting Tom Taylor's early American comedy, "Our American Cousin," on April 22-24, 29, 30 and May 1 in the Mary Cable Building theater. The production is the centerpiece of an Early American Theatre Festival being co-sponsored by the Center for American Studies and the University Theatre.

To create an authentic flavor of early American theater, a variety show is planned. Singers, dancers, musicians, and vaudeville-style performers are needed to present short skits between acts. Faculty and staff members and administrators and their spouses are invited to take part. For additional information call Dorothy Webb, associate professor of speech-theater-communications, at Ext. 2094.

ALLIED HEALTH CAREERS EXPLAINED

Students in high school and college are invited to attend a day of presentations from 9 a.m. to noon Friday in Room 101 of the IUPUI Lecture Hall by Allied Health Sciences faculty members and students. Special demonstrations and booth exhibits will help students to learn about the requirements for careers in medical technology, cytotechnology, radiologic sciences, medical record administration, occupational therapy, physical therapy and respiratory therapy.

The Division of Allied Health Sciences of the I.U. School of Medicine is the oldest in the country and has been a leader in shaping many of the programs. Call this opportunity to the attention of your students. For more information call Ext. 4702.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Carpool -- Driver wanted, Bloomington to Indianapolis daily 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Statehouse and IUPUI. Call Shirley at Ext. 4689.

College Work Study Program -- The 1983 CWSP will officially begin with May 8, at the first working day. There will be approximately 200 students seeking part-time employment through this program, and they will be attending a Job Referral and Orientation Session on April 27, 28, and 29. If an EMPLOYER is interested in posting a position for this session, contact the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid at Ext. 4163. Any questions about CWSP should be referred to the same office.

Life Planning Workshop -- Reservations are being accepted for an introductory life planning workshop to be offered from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Saturday by the Counseling Center and the Office of Career Counseling and Placement. There is no charge. It will be held in the Grissom Room of the Union Building. For reservations or more information call Ext. 2548.

Book Sale -- The Accolade Honor Society is sponsoring a sale of all types of books this week in the Reserve Reading Room on the first floor of the University Library. Books are 75¢ and under. Hours are Monday, 10 a.m. - 7:30 p.m.; Tuesday-Thursday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. - noon.

Lung Cancer Symposium -- A two-day symposium on recent advances in diagnosis and treatment of lung cancer will be held Thursday and Friday at the Marriott Inn, co-sponsored by the Indiana Thoracic Society and the I.U. School of Medicine. Guest speakers include David Sanderson, M.D., chairman of Thoracic Diseases at Mayo Clinic and director of the Mayo Lung Project for Early Detection of Lung Cancer, and Thomas DeMeester, M.D., chairman of Cardiothoracic Surgery of the University of Chicago. Local speakers include Vernon Vix, M.D., director of Diagnostic Radiology; Michael Glant, M.D., director of Cytopathology, and Stephen Williams, M.D., Section of Oncology of I.U. Students and house staff may attend the program at no cost. For additional information, contact the program chairman, Mitchell L. Rhodes, M.D., at Ext. 2136 or Dennis Alexander of the Indiana Thoracic Society at 632-3383.

Operatic -- "The Tryptych," three one-act operas by Puccini, will be presented by the I.U. Opera Theater at the Musical Arts Center in Bloomington at 8 p.m. Saturday. Tickets available at the MAC box office, (812) 335-7433. Additional performance, April 23.

Theater -- "Cabaret," a musical play by Masteroff, Kander and Ebb is at the University theater in Bloomington at 8 p.m. Monday through Saturday. Tickets available at the I.U. Auditorium box office, (812) 335-1103.

Duplicating Central's Hours Increased -- Duplicating Central, located in the Post Office Building, has increased its hours to 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. The shop will remain open through the lunch hour for added customer convenience. Any questions, call Phil at Ext. 4323.

Needlework Exhibit -- The Indiana State Museum in conjunction with the Indianapolis Chapter of the Embroidery Guild of America is sponsoring an exhibit entitled "The State of the Art: An Exhibit of Needlework Techniques," at the Museum from April 9 through May 8. Jane Zimmerman, nationally-known needleworker, will present "Development of Silk and Metal Thread Embroidery Through the Centuries" at 1 p.m. Monday in the Museum auditorium.

The Dutch Touch -- A Holland adventure is being organized by Dr. Nels Goud of the School of Education, co-founder of QUEST/Humanistic Adventure Education. The trip is set for July 4-14. Participants will design their own adventure (singly or with other QUEST members) -- biking; canal cruises; train excursions; touring the Rembrandt and Van Gogh art museums; giant street markets, medieval castles, windmills and dikes, and vast flower preserves; or lounge on North Sea beaches and stroll the streets of Amsterdam. For further information contact Dr. Nels Goud, School of Education, 902 W. New York Street, Ext. 8296, or home, 849-6568.

Retiring -- Retiring this month are Charles I. White, custodial worker at the Rotary Building with 13 years of service, and Maria M. Edwards, administrative assistant director of clinics at the School of Dentistry with 28 years of service. Ms. Edwards will retire April 30, Mr. White left April 6.

Physical Fitness Department -- A number of athletic-type programs are on the horizon. First is the opportunity to shape-up at the I.U. Track and Field Stadium. Registration for spring programs designed for everyone now is in progress. For information contact Brian Kimball, Track and Field Supervisor, Ext. 3517 or 4040. . . . A Swim for Breath sponsored by the Breath of Life Guild to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation will be held from 1 to 5 p.m. April 23 at the Natatorium. All ages are eligible who can swim in 10-foot water, can complete at least one length of 25 yards and bring a minimum of $5 in pledges from sponsors. To sign up now call 545-5218. Official sponsor sheets available at Public Libraries, Hook's Drug Stores, Athletic Department Stores, and area banks. . . Also on April 23 is the ISometric Run, a fund raiser for the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. Entrants are asked to solicit donations for each kilometer run. A trip for two to Bermuda is the prize for the top money-raiser and other trophies and awards will be given. Prizes will be announced at ceremonies set for 2 p.m. at the I.U. Track and Field Stadium. Entry forms are available at Central Indiana Kroger Stores, the City Center on Monument Circle, or by calling the Symphony, 925-5853. . . A little later, July 2-4, will be the first White River Park State Games for Hoosiers of all ages. Regional qualifiers and trial meets will be conducted in June. Hook Drugs, Inc., the official corporate sponsor, has White River Park State Games handbooks and entry information in all their Indiana stores. For further information contact Sam Davis, promotion manager, the Indiana Sports Corporation, 632-6610.

Oral Cancer Society -- Dr. Joseph A. Regezi, professor of oral pathology at the University of Michigan School of Dentistry, will speak on "Denal Management of Patients Irradiated for Oral Cancer" at 5:15 p.m. Wednesday in Room S116 of the I.U. School of Dentistry. Co-sponsored by the American Cancer Society and the IUPUI Student Activities Fund, it is open to all those with a professional interest in oral cancer. The program has been approved for continuing education credit by the Indiana Academy of General Dentistry.

Student Activities Honors Banquet -- The 1983 Student Activities Honors Banquet will be held at 6 p.m. April 22 in the Champions Room of the Indianapolis Sports Center. Admission is $7 for non-students and $5 for students. Tickets may be reserved by calling the Student Assembly Office at Ext. 3907. Reservations must be made by Friday (April 15). Mail checks to Student Assembly, c/o Lana Allen, CA 001C. Tickets will be held at the door or may be picked up in the Student Assembly Office.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

(GRIF-821007)

ANN GRIFFIN
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
LY