FILM SERIES STARTS WEDNESDAY AT HERRON

Pioneers of Modern Painting, the new six-part film series written and narrated by Kenneth Clark, will be shown at the Herron School of Art beginning March 7 at 11:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. in the Herron Auditorium. Showings will be every Wednesday for the next six weeks.

Herron School of Art will receive the six Pioneers of Modern Painting films on loan, free of charge, from the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. under a program offered through the Gallery's Extension Service.

The distribution of Pioneers of Modern Painting has been made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The new series covers the life and works of six leading artists of the late 19th and early 20th centuries: Edouard Manet, Paul Cezanne, Claude Monet, Georges Seurat, Henri Rousseau, and Edvard Munch. A 45-minute color film has been devoted to each of the six artists whom Lord Clark considers to be "the pioneers of what we still call modern painting."

Most of the series was filmed in France, with the exception of the Edvard Munch film which was photographed in Norway, the artist's native country. Lord Clark has not relied solely, however, on the paintings found in the artist's own country. Thirteen of the works discussed in the series are hanging in the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. Others are in museums and private collections all over the world.

Pioneers of Modern Painting was produced by Colin Clark, Lord Clark's son. Although Colin Clark has been a television producer since 1956, this is the first father-son venture.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION: PART I

The Search and Screen Committee appointed by Chancellor Maynard K. Hine to recommend individuals for an Affirmative Action Officer for IUPUI has suggested that Dr. Frances Rhome, associate professor of English, be appointed as interim officer. In their opinion, it will take several months to identify candidates for the permanent Affirmative Action Officer, and they believed that action in this field should not be delayed. Therefore, Chancellor Hine has asked Dr. Rhome to serve at least until July 1, 1973.

Chancellor Hine reported that much "affirmative action" already has been instituted. He has instructed the deans and directors of the various IUPUI schools and divisions that, before preparing their 1973-74 budgets, careful consideration must be given to any possible inequities that might exist in salary levels. He also had previously asked that the academic ranks of all faculty members be studied. He urged each dean to use a "match-up" system, whereby faculty members who are women or members of a minority group, would be compared with other individuals (within and/or outside the university) with comparable training and responsibilities.

If any salary inequities are identified, the dean must give top priority to correcting them.

Last summer Chancellor Hine appointed an Affirmative Action Committee and a Commission on Women's Affairs. These committees were given the responsibility of studying the problems associated with equal rights at IUPUI, to develop guidelines for future action, and to act as an interim grievance committee. These committees will undoubtedly be restructured soon. Plans for monitoring procedures and records are to be developed, grievance and hearing committees established.

The new Affirmative Action Officer is being asked to recommend programs and committees which are required to be in compliance with civil rights and equal employment opportunity requirements.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

You Can Still Get There From Here, Most of the Time -- Wilson Street, that perennial favorite exit-entry artery for the Medical Center, is due for a face-lifting. Avco Construction Inc. is going to widen Wilson to four lanes between West 10th Street and North Drive in the General Hospital area. The street will be open for two-way traffic during construction except for about 10 days, probably in late April. The new Wilson should be finished by the first of June, if the weather co-operates.

Visitors -- Members of the State Assembly Woman's Club visited IUPUI last week, touring the new additions at Riley Hospital and the Dental School. At a luncheon before the tours, the wives of state legislators heard a talk on IUPUI by Chancellor Hine. At the new facilities, they also were briefed by Dr. Morris Green, pediatrics chairman, and School of Dentistry Dean Ralph E. McDonald.

Reminder -- School of Medicine Library hours this week are 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. today (March 4), 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Regular schedule resumes March 11.

Missed -- Edgar Fleenor, associate professor of industrial education, is serving on the Faculty Board Review Committee of the All-University Council. His name wasn't included in last week's listing of IUPUI people on the council.
