PARTS OF IUPUI TO CLOSE FOR HOLIDAYS

Energy conservation will be observed for the sixth straight year at IUPUI as 14 buildings are closed for eight days and thermostats are turned back to 55 degrees. Hospitals are not affected. Also, most IUPUI offices and departments will close for Christmas and New Year's days.

The 14 buildings will be closed from Wednesday at 5 p.m. until Jan. 2, 1981. The closings include all five IUPUI campus sites. Seven buildings will operate on a limited basis, with some areas closed and heat reduced.

The buildings that will close include Cavanaugh Hall, Lecture Hall, Administration Building, Engineering and Technology Building, School of Nursing, ICFAR Administration Building and University Library.

Closings at the 38th Street campus will be the Administration Building, Women's Center, Community Services Building and the Continuing Studies Craft Center. Also closing for energy savings are all Herron School of Art buildings, the School of Education and the School of Physical Education.

Seven buildings will be operated on a limited basis during the Christmas recess. They are the Krannert Science Building, the School of Dentistry, Emerson Hall, the Oral Health Research Institute, Service Building, Law School Building and the University Services Building.

All other buildings will operate as usual for the holidays.

Other holiday closings at IUPUI include the Bursar Office which will be closed Thursday through Jan. 1. The IUPUI Day Care Center closes Monday (December 22) and re-opens Jan. 12.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Health Service Moving -- Because the Student-Employee Health Service is moving to Coleman Hall, the service will be closed this week and next. Arrangements have been made for employee accidents to be seen in University Hospital Admitting Rooms providing the admitting officer at Ext. 7903 is called before the employee is sent.

Hours -- The campus post office will close at noon Tuesday and will re-open for business Wednesday at 8 a.m. The post office will be closed December 31 for inventory from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Grants Deadline -- The next deadline for Grants-in-Aid of Research is February 16. The grants are intended to provide seed money for research of 10-month faculty and are primarily for faculty in the early stages of career development. Funds are available for a limited number of awards this year. The maximum award is $1,500. Call Ext. 8285 for application materials.

PDP Deadline -- February 16 also is the deadline for receipt of applications for the IUPUI Project Development Program Interdisciplinary Grants, University-Community Cooperative Grants and University-Industry Cooperative Grants. Call Ext. 8285 for materials and information.

Correction -- Please make a note of the following correction in the alphabetical section of the Campus Directory: Page 62 -- 8378 (not 7378) Welty, Robert D., Dean's Office-Medicine, Fesler Hall 302.

Workshop Coming Up -- The Indiana Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers announces that Ann Wilson Schaef, nationally known feminist and therapist, will present a one-day workshop next month. Called "You Don't Have to Deny Another's Reality to Affirm Your Own," the program will be held January 16 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the North United Methodist Church, 38th and Meridian streets. For registration information, please call 923-9878 or 637-6112.

A Word About Mailing Lists (Or, Patience Is a Virtue) -- The Green Sheet mailing list (which now numbers close to 3,000 "subscribers") is being updated constantly. Unfortunately, there is a lag time between the time we receive your name (or change) and the time it shows up on the labels -- a lag time of anywhere from four to six or seven weeks. So if you have sent in a name or names to be added to the list, the labels will not spring forth instantly. Also, we have learned over the years that it is generally not a good idea to mess around with the list any more than necessary. Sometimes for minor changes (like changing Joanne to Jo Ann) it's best not to try at all -- because sometimes names get dropped totally. In other words, unless the change is major (like you've moved), leave well enough alone. Thanks for your help.

Volunteers -- Two graduate nursing students are looking for volunteers to participate in a research study of families with two working spouses. Subjects must be legally married for at least one year, each spouse must be employed at least 32 hours a week, and the couple must have at least one child at or under 12 years old. Volunteers will be asked to fill out a questionnaire, and some will be selected for interviewing. Confidentiality and anonymity will be maintained. If interested, please call (after 6 p.m.) 888-6762 or 293-7629.

Distinguished Visitor -- Dr. Arthur H. Keeney, emeritus dean and distinguished professor of ophthalmology at the University of Louisville Medical School, will speak on "Careers in Ophthalmology" on January 15 at 4:30 p.m. in the second-floor lecture room of the Rotary Building.

Analyst Needed -- The Regenstrief Institute needs a data analyst to provide data processing, computer programming and analytical skills for a project in health care delivery research. A bachelor's degree is required. Priority will be given for background in math, statistics and computer science. Experience in biological sciences or research is helpful. Salary depends on qualifications and experience. Call Ext. 4577.

Know What You Can Do With This Green Sheet? (Don't Answer That) -- The cover of this Christmas Green Sheet has been especially designed for colorers -- either for grade schoolers, doodlers or bored executives. Color it Christmas.

In The Money -- The new I.U. pay check is expected to be ready for use on the combined monthly-biweekly payday, January 30. To familiarize departmental payroll personnel with the new check format, two briefings have been scheduled, one for January 12, the other for January 19. Both will be held at 1 p.m. in Hurty Hall C of Fesler Hall. These briefings should be 30 to 45 minutes long. Departmental payroll personnel will be contacted individually by the payroll office to schedule their attendance. Also, some department heads/administrators can be accommodated. For the supervisory personnel, it would help if you would contact the payroll office, Ext. 4983, and indicate which session you plan to attend.
