Meeting on September 9, 1920.

Present: F. Vonnegut, Lieber, Stempfel, Rath, Pantzer and Scherer.

Dean Rath informed us that the Seminary class would probably consist of twenty-four men and fifty-six women.

The issue of organizing a summer camp was discussed exhaustively and it was decided to form a committee, which will continue to work on this. The chair appointed Stempfel, Scherer and Rath to serve on it.

The following invoices were sent on for payment:
