

green sheet

Cr

volume eleven, number fifteen

april 19, 1981

OPEN HOUSE FOR REJUVENATED COLEMAN

Shiny and new again, the refurbished, renovated and renewed Coleman Hospital, now Coleman Hall, is back in service housing the Division of Allied Health Sciences of the I.U. School of Medicine.

To celebrate their new quarters, and to let everyone know how fine they are, the Division will hold an open house from 1 to 3 p.m. this Wednesday (April 22), with tours of the building starting from the lobby every half-hour. Everyone is invited.

"The Indiana University Division of Allied Health Sciences comprises all the recognized allied health disciplines and is represented on a statewide basis through the I.U. Regional Campus System," Dean Steven C. Beering of the School of Medicine pointed out. "The Coleman renovation will provide a new headquarters for the division in one strategic location," he said. A total of 612 students are enrolled in its various programs.

About half of the allied health science teaching will be concentrated in Coleman. "Acquisition of this magnificent facility for allied health already has strengthened the morale of faculty and staff members in the entire division, Dr. Edward R. Pierce, director of the division, said.

* * *

CAMPUS FOOD SERVICE--TODAY AND TOMORROW

Food consultants from Laventhol and Horwath of Chicago will discuss immediate and future food service plans at IUPUI at 12:15 p.m. and 5:15 p.m. Tuesday in the School of Nursing auditorium, and Wednesday at 12:20 p.m. in Room 101 and 3:45 p.m. in Room 102 of the Lecture Hall. Students, faculty and staff members are encouraged to attend since feedback from these discussions will be the basis for planning the campus food service.

Note the questionnaire inserted in this Green Sheet. Fill it out and turn it in at any food service location on campus, or address it to the Office of Administrative Affairs, AO Building, Room 110, and drop it in the campus mail.

* * *

NEW JOURNAL EDITED BY GRAY

The Journal of the Early Republic, edited by Ralph D. Gray, professor of history, has joined the ranks of publications that form the scholarship of history. It is the official publication of the Society for Historians for the Early American Republic.

To mark the publication of the first issue this month, the Center for American Studies will sponsor a symposium and public lecture featuring Edward Pessen, distinguished professor of history at Baruch College (City University of New York). Pessen will speak at 8:15 p.m. Monday (April 20) in Lecture Hall 101 on "How Democratic Was Jacksonian Democracy?" The topic also will be the subject of an interdisciplinary symposium led by Christoph K. Lohmann, director of the American Studies Program, and Irene D. Neu, professor of history, both from I.U.-Bloomington, and Sue K. Hammersmith, assistant professor of sociology, and Patrick J. McGeever, associate professor of political science, both from IUPUI, and others. The symposium will continue at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at Conner Prairie Farm, with discussions centering on what daily life was really like in the era depicted by that museum. Persons interested in attending either or both of the symposium sessions should call the Center for American Studies, Ext. 3759.

* * *

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY

Pharmaceutical - Pharmacy displays, University Hospital; Monday, Breon Laboratories; Wednesday, Jobst Laboratories; Friday, Pfizer Laboratories.

Win a Classic Chevy - The Classic Chevy Club has restored a 1957 Chevrolet and is selling chances on it for $1 for the benefit of Riley Hospital. The car will be parked on the circle drive in front of Riley from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday (April 20) for inspection. Tickets will be on sale there. The car also will be shown and chances sold at some of the shopping centers. Drawing will be held May 17.

Free Film - "The Shadow Catcher," epic movie filmed in 1914 by Edward Curtis who is considered to be the earliest commercial filmmaker to be concerned with native American Indians. Features footage of the Kwakwaka'wakw dancers in British Columbia. Room 105, Lecture Hall, 4 p.m. Monday (April 20).

Physiological - "Effect of Aminoglycosides on Glomerular Structure and Function," Physiology Department Seminar by Dr. Andrew Evan, associate professor of anatomy, I.U. School of Medicine; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Monday at 4 p.m.

Biochemical - "Regulation of Alcohol Metabolism by Alcohol Dehydrogenase. Effects of Nutrition and Hormones," Biochemistry Faculty Seminar by Dr. David Crabb, Gastroenterology Fellow in the Department of Medicine, I.U. School of Medicine; Medical Science Building, Room 326, Monday at 4 p.m.

Middle East - "The United States Historical and Current Relationship with Iran and the Middle East," free public lecture by Dr. Charles Winslow, assistant professor of political science at IUPUI, sponsored by the Institute for Race and Religion, St. Maur Theological Center; Maurwood Lake Pavilion, 4545 Northwestern Avenue (Michigan Road), Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Nursing Research - "Measurement of Attitudes Related to Health Behaviors," nursing research colloquium by Victoria Champion; School of Nursing, Room 305, noon to 1 p.m. Tuesday. Bring your lunch if you wish.

Psychiatric - "Psychopathology, Psychosocial and Interpersonal Dynamics of the Chronic Psychiatric Patient," third of four seminars sponsored by the Department of Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing of the I.U. School of Nursing. This seminar features Dr. Mark Snelson, I.U. Department of Psychiatry and Midtown Community Mental Health Center; Dr. Dan Hicks, assistant medical director of the Gallahue Mental Health Center, and Joyce Berner, B.S.N., R.N., team leader for community support center of and Midtown Community Mental Health Center; School of Nursing, Room NU 110, Tuesday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Sigma Xi Competition - Annual graduate student research paper presentations sponsored by Sigma Xi will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Room B-26 of the Medical Science Building. All interested faculty and staff members and students are invited.

Executive - The IUPUI Faculty Council Executive Committee will meet at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in the AO Building.

Secretaries Day - Professional Secretaries International is sponsoring a National Secretaries Day dinner at 6 p.m. Wednesday at the I-70 Sheraton Inn, East. Cocktails at 5 p.m. Alvin Fernandex, president of the Downtown Merchants Association will speak. For reservations, call Martha Beidelman at 263-2427. C'mon, bosses! Show that "right hand" how much you appreciate her!

Oncological - "Cervical Cancer," Grand Rounds in Oncology by Dr. Emmanuel Sandou of South Bend Memorial Hospital; Radiation Therapy Building, Room R-104, Wednesday at 11 a.m. Open to all residents and medical, dental and nursing students.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

A Tisket, A Tasket - I found a silver locket in the vicinity of the Union Building; anyone who can identify it may have it. Please be specific! Call Ext. 8971, Laurie Corbin.

Pet Department - Rocky, a really super "Benji-type" pooch, needs a loving home and a little attention. Spirited, affectionate and a good alarm dog--about one year old. Call 7711, 637-4735, or 253-7131.

Call for Dental Research Volunteers - Eight-month study of two experimental dentifrices. Those who have calculus formation will have their teeth cleaned at no charge and will receive a dentifrice for home use over a 6-month period. They will be recalled after two months and six months and examined for the presence of calculus. Upon termination of the study, all participants will receive a complimentary supply of a fluoride toothpaste, a supply of toothbrushes, and a dental cleaning. Those interested in participating should call Ext. 8671 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. and ask for Donna.

Scholarships - The Advertising Club of Indianapolis is offering a $500 scholarship as a memorial to Charles B. Lord and to encourage talented students to enter the advertising field. Applications must be postmarked no later than May 1. The Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Fund Bar stipends will be offered to Puerto Rican and other latino law school graduates to help subsidize their expenses during the period preceding State Bar examinations. Deadline is this Thursday. Students interested in applying for either of these scholarships should call Junia M. Little in the Financial Aids Office, Ext. 4162.

Magna Carta - An original exemplar of the Magna Carta, the priceless English document that is the foundation for all the laws and liberties of English-speaking peoples, will be displayed to the public free of charge Saturday (April 25) through April 29 at Trinity Episcopal Church, 3243 North Meridian Street. Trinity is a replica of an English parish church built in the century the agreement between king and subjects was signed. It is the first time the document has been shown in the Midtown.

Green Fee Discount - IUPUI students and faculty members may receive a $1 discount toward green fees at the Coffin Golf Course, 2401 Cold Springs Road, by presenting their current University identification cards to the cashier. Tee time reservations are encouraged.

Position Available - Research Associate, Cardiovascular Physiology, to design and conduct experiments on the chemoreceptor and low pressure receptor control of vascular capacitance of dogs. Ability to handle complex surgery and instrumentation required. Doctorate desired. Available May 1; funded by 5-year NIH grant. Send resume and names of references to Dr. Carl Rothe, Department of Physiology, IUMC.

White River Clean-Up - In cooperation with the Sierra Club, IUPUI Student Activities is recruiting people to help clean the banks and flood plains of the White River from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday (April 25). Student groups and/or individual student volunteers (other volunteers are welcome) should call Student Activities, Ext. 8264 to sign up. Sandwiches and soft drinks will be provided for workers. Groups may earn packets of Kid's tickets to the Indiana baseball game with Oklahoma City that night. The free tickets can only be used by children under the age of 16.

Needed Desperately! - Room-mate (s) to share 3 bedroom house in Broad Ripple. Lots of character, close to everything. A/C, gas heat, garage, garden, fenced back yard, washer/dryer. Call Marcy 255-0474 (home) or Ext. 7271.

Award - Dr. Daniel B. Wolf, associate dean of the School of Liberal Arts and professor of journalism, received the Lola L. Lohse faculty appreciation award at the annual IUPUI Student Assembly honors banquet on April 10. "Dr. Wolf exemplifies the devotion and integrity of former dean Lohse for whom the award is named," the selection committee announced.

Collegial Presentations - "Contemporary Poland," by Dr. Paul Nagy, associate dean of the IUPUI Faculties. He will describe the political, economic, social conditions of everyday life in Poland, and will touch upon the state of American studies in Poland and other European countries. Cavanaugh Hall, Room 507, Thursday at 8 p.m. Refreshments.

Chemical - "Systematic Optimization of the Mobile Phase in Liquid Chromatography," Chemistry Seminar by Joseph L. Glajch of the E.I. duPont de Nemours & Co. Krannert Building (38th Street), Room 217, Thursday at 5:45 p.m.

How To Use the Calcomp Plotter - "Demonstration of Calcomp, Versatec, and Color Plotting," by Professor G. David Huffman; last of a series of seminars by the Computer and Information Science Section; Krannert Building (38th Street), Room 059, Thursday at 3:30 p.m. Knowledge of FORTRAN programming (the equivalent of CSCI 220) is assumed.

Arthur B. Richter Conference - The fourth Annual Arthur B. Richter Conference in Child Psychiatry will be presented by the Department of Psychiatry of the I.U. School of Medicine from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Thursday at the Hilton-at-the-Circle. "The Impulse-Ridden and Aggressive Adolescent" will be discussed by Carl P. Malmquist, M.D., professor of law, criminal justice, and child development at the University of Minnesota, and a group of local lawyers and psychiatrists.

Mathematical - "Solutions of Laplace and Poisson's Equations in Multiply Connected Circular and Rectangular Regions, and Applications," Mathematical Sciences Seminar by Professor A.K. Naghdi of the IUPUI School of Engineering; Krannert Sciences Building (38th Street), Room 059, Friday at 3:30 p.m.

Advance - "Ionic Mechanisms of Secretory Control," Physiology Seminar by Dr. Josephine O'Doherty, senior research associate, Department of Physiology, I.U. School of Medicine; Medical Science Building, Room 205, April 27 at 4 p.m.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University - Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

(MATT-720118)

JEANNETTE MATTHEW
LIBRARIAN, SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS
420 BLAKE STREET