GETTING ORIENTED

More than 1,000 new IUPUI students are expected to be on campus next week for the sixth annual Student Orientation programs and festivities. Sponsored by the Office of Student Services, the orientation on August 9-10 is designed to familiarize new enrollees with the IUPUI community, services and educational programs.

The sessions will be held in the Lecture Hall on August 9 at 6 p.m. and on August 10 at 9 a.m., 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. Enrollees may attend any one of the sessions.

The program also will feature a variety of booths set up with people and literature to help explain student organizations and academic disciplines.

Meanwhile, out on the Cavanaugh Mall, the Union Building will set up a "food festival" a la its its "Two-Bit Day" production. For a mere 25¢ to 50¢ you can get goodies like knockwurst, corn-on-the-cob, bratwurst, candied apples.

As a finale, the festival will include a free outdoor concert by "Exquisite Taste," a combo cum vocalists who will perform from a repertoire of ballads, soft jazz, disco and top 40s music.

If it rains, all outdoor activities will be moved from the Cavanaugh Mall area to the Hideaway Cafeteria in the basement of University Library.

The public, other students, staff and faculty are invited to participate in the orientation sessions and to enjoy the food and entertainment.

(Note: This orientation program should not be confused with the Small Group Registration Counseling which is presented by the University Division.)

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Anyone for King's Island? -- A bus has been reserved for a trip to King's Island next Sunday (August 5). The bus will leave the Union Building at 7 a.m. and get back there about 8 p.m. The $16 fee includes the bus trip and the admission into the park. For information, call Edna Dotson at Ext. 2451 or 924-2521 after 5 p.m.

Publication -- The School of Medicine Library Newsletter is a quarterly publication about the library's services, a list of book acquisitions and a list of new serial subscriptions. Any medical student, nursing student, Allied Health Division faculty member or student, or hospital staff member who wants to be placed on the mailing list should call Jan Johnson, Ext. 7182.

Move -- The Student Financial Aids Office has moved from Cavanaugh Hall to the Berkey Building, 920 West Michigan Street. The phone is Ext. 4162.

Bazaar -- Items are needed for the Riley Cancer Research for Children's Christmas Bazaar usually held in October at the shopping centers. If you can make items to be sold or know of someone willing to help, please call 283-3474 or 784-5958.

Hypertension -- If you are a nurse or other health care provider and if you are interested in hypertension, you may want to attend the workshop on the "Care and Education of the Hypertensive Patient and Family." The program will be held August 15-16 at the School of Nursing and University Hospital. For information, call Gayle Lawrence or Sandy Small at Ext. 7256 or 4733.

Guide -- A new public service reference pamphlet called "The International Guide to Indianapolis" is now available by calling the International Center, 923-1468. The project, a guide to international and ethnic programs, services, shopping and dining, is the result of the Center's efforts to meet a growing public need. The pamphlet was produced in cooperation with the Tourism Development Division of the Indiana Department of Commerce and IUPUI's Office of International Programs.

Tennis, Anyone? -- Tennis players are looking for mixed teams of at least four persons each, preferably six (three men and three women) for a Wednesday night all-campus tennis league. Staff, faculty, students and spouses are eligible. Actual cost would be determined by the number of teams but would be about $1 a week. The league would meet at the West Indy Racquet Club, 4400 North Guion Road. Quality of play should not be a major consideration. League will follow World Team Tennis guidelines. Contact Jeff Collins or Mel Dallas, NICER, Nursing School, Ext. 4567. Please call as soon as possible because the league is scheduled to start the first week of August.

Plan Ahead -- The Photography Section of Medical Illustrations will be operating on a limited basis August 27-31. Materials needed that week for teaching purposes should be brought in and scheduled before August 10. For information, call Ext. 7478.

Predicting -- A seminar on "Forecasting and Decision Making" will be held August 13-15 by the I.U. Graduate School of Business as part of its "Management in Action Seminar Series." It will be held in the Roof Lounge of the Union Building from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day. For information, call Ext. 2736.
