Mission

The mission of Herron School of Art is to provide exceptional educational opportunities for college students committed to careers in the visual arts (i.e., ceramics, drawing, painting, printmaking, photography, sculpture, visual communication, woodworking design, art education, and art history), and for students and the public as they seek greater understanding of the visual arts. This is accomplished through a variety of courses, and creative specialty programs and activities.

Goals and Objectives

- ▶ 2. Herron will continually seek ways of enhancing teaching, research, scholarship, creative activity, and service.
- ▶ 3. Herron will play critical arts roles, locally and regionally.
- ▶ I. Herron will attract and retain highly qualified, highly engaged faculty.
- ▶ II. Herron will serve increasingly as a resource in the arts, locally, regionally, and beyond.
- ▶ III. A highly qualified faculty will provide exceptional educational opportunities to a diverse array of students.
