TWO OPENINGS, TWO SHOWS, ONE PLACE

The Gallery at the Herron School of Art will open two shows for the month of February with a reception February 1 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m..

On view in the West Gallery will be "Sculpture Indiana: Breath and Beauty" (photographs of sculpture). Also opening that night will be the "Faculty Exhibition" which presents the works of the school's full-time studio faculty members, about 48 works by 23 artists.

"Sculpture Indiana" consists of 16-inch by 20-inch black-and-white photos executed by the 10 finalists in a competition to award $20,000 in commissions for public sculpture to artists from Indiana. The program was started last year by the Gallery and the Lafayette Art Center, with the support of the Indiana Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts.

The 10 finalists represented in the show will be Gary Freeman and Peg Lovett, both of Indianapolis; Alan Greenberg and Rick Paul, both of Lafayette; Barry Heheman, Margaret Lanterman and Steve Lauckig, all of Chicago; Jim Huntington, New York City; Robert Pessler, Dayton, Ohio, and John Spofforth, Athens, Ohio.

The "Faculty Exhibition," which includes prints, sculpture, paintings, ceramics, drawings, illustrations and photographs, focuses on the pivotal role that Herron faculty members play in the cultural life of the institution and the city.

Among the exhibitors will be Lance Baber, Robert Berkshire, Edmund Brucker, Stanley Burford, Sarah Burns, Harry Davis, William Detmers, Rose Divita, Adolfo Doddoli, Robert Eagerton and Gary Edson.

Also M.D. Fierke, Gary Freeman, Darryl Jones, James Janecek, Steve Mannheimer, Neil Matthew, Richard Nickolson, Jan Tenenbaum-Aguet, Phillip Tennant, Ralph Thomas, Dale Traugott and Robert Weaver.

Both shows will be on display through February 29. Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Wednesday.

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY

Memorial -- A memorial exhibition of work by the late Robert Parker Marks is on display at the Herron Gallery through January 21. Mr. Marks was an assistant professor of photography at the Herron School of Art from 1970 until his death last October. The 26 works -- photographs and paintings -- are a selection from a collection of his work donated to the school by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Marks of Franklin, Tennessee.

Seminar -- "Biochemical Approaches to the Design of Selective Cancer Chemotherapy," Biochemistry Faculty Seminar by Dr. Robert C. Jackson, associate professor of experimental oncology; Medical Science Building, Room 205, 2 p.m. Monday.

Physiological -- "Metabolic Dependence of Active Cl Transport in Aplysia Intestine," Physiology Seminar by Dr. George A. Gerencser, associate professor of physiology at the University of Florida; Medical Science Building, Room 205, 3:45 p.m. Monday.

Pedodontics -- A four-day continuing education course on "Clinical Pedodontics" will be hosted by the School of Dentistry this week. Pedodontists and general practitioners will gather at the school Tuesday morning to launch the sessions which will include a range of topics from "Behavior Guidance in the Dental Office" to "Hypnosis and Dentistry" to "Dental Management of the Handicapped and Retarded Child."

On Stage -- "Toys in the Attic," the Lillian Hellman drama, will be the attraction all month at the Indiana Repertory Theater. Performances this week will be Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 8 p.m. and Saturday at 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. For ticket information, call 635-5252.

Grand Rounds -- Dr. Carwile LeRoy of the Medical University of South Carolina at Charleston will discuss "Scleroderma and Related Connective Tissue Disorder" during Department of Medicine grand rounds Wednesday at 8:15 a.m. in Myers Auditorium at Wishard Memorial Hospital.

Display -- E.R. Squibb & Sons, Inc. will have a pharmacy display in Riley Hospital Wednesday from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Staff -- The next meeting of the Staff Council will be Wednesday at 1 p.m. in University Hospital N-436. The agenda includes an informal discussion of staff issues. Please contact your district representative if you have any material to be discussed. (If you do not know who that person is, call Sharon Graves at Ext. 2215.)

Faculty -- The next IUPUI Faculty Council meeting will be Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in the School of Law, Room 116. Dean William A. Nevill will present his Graduate Programs Report at this session.

Proper Form for Forms -- The Adult Education Information Center will sponsor a workshop Saturday on "How to Prepare the Financial Aid Form" for college, business and technical schools and other BEOG eligible schools. Adults who are considering applying for financial aid for the 1980-81 school year are urged to attend. Attendees are encouraged to bring a statement of income if they wish to complete the form at the workshop. The workshop will be held from 10 a.m. to noon at the Central Library Auditorium. There is no charge. For information, call Ext. 3463.

Program -- An all-day program on "How to Assess Hearing in Infants and Toddlers" will be held Saturday at the School of Nursing auditorium. Sponsored by the Department of Otorhinolaryngology, the continuing education course is intended mainly for primary care physicians. Besides I.U. School of Medicine faculty members, guest speakers will be Dr. Kurt Hecox, assistant professor of pediatrics at the University of Wisconsin Medical School, and Dr. F. Blair Simmons, chairman of otolaryngology at the Stanford School of Medicine. All I.U. faculty and students are invited to attend free of charge.

Special Dinner -- The IUPUI Black Student Union will sponsor the Second Annual Memorial Dinner in honor of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on Sunday at 6 p.m. in the Hoosier Room at the Union Building. The program will include music, a buffet dinner, keynote speech by Lamont Yeakey from Purdue and the presentation of the "I Have a Dream Award" to a BSU member. Cost is $7 and paid reservations will be accepted until Thursday. For information, call Ext. 2279.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

R&R -- Broady-Campbell, Inc., contractor, plans to start repairing the south front entrance to the Medical Science Building on Monday, weather permitting. This will involve removing the flagstone terrace and granite steps. Fire regulations prohibit locking the four front doors, so persons should use other entrances to the building. The work will require about three weeks to complete. When the south entrance is reopened for use, similar repairs will be started on the north front entrance.

Bus Stops -- The Inter-Campus Bus Service offers fast and convenient transportation for $7.50 round trip to and from IUPUI with four round trips per day. The bus leaves Bloomington at 7 a.m., 11 a.m., 3:15 p.m. and 5:10 p.m., and leaves IUPUI at 8:45 a.m., 12:45 p.m., 5:15 p.m. and 8:35 p.m. The service will be available to faculty and staff of both campuses traveling on official business. Students registered at either campus and taking a class at the other campus can use the service for class-related travel only; they must make advance arrangements with department chairman or dean. The bus has almost all the comforts of home: extra-wide double seating, carpeting, extra insulation, card tables, air conditioning and free morning coffee. Reservations are suggested. For information, call, in Bloomington, Ext. 4639.

Number Change -- The new number for the Columbus Center is Ext. 8962. To reach Columbus from 264-prefix phones, dial 6-8962; from 923-prefix phones, dial 8-8962.

Lost -- Glasses with clip-on sunglasses in tan case lost last month in Long Hospital area. Call Betty Allen, Ext. 4787.

Aid -- The James Whitcomb Riley Memorial Association has announced the availability of research grant-in-aid applications for the 1980-81 grant year. Research proposals are limited to those that deal with children and which are conducted in Riley Hospital. Application forms are available in the School of Medicine Dean's Office, Fesler Hall 318, or by calling Ext. 2346.

Evacuate -- The warehouse at 957 West New York Street is scheduled for demolition starting April 1. Any department that stores items in this building should remove them by March 1. Any items left after this date will be sold as surplus material. There is no other designated central storage space at this time.

Nominations -- Names are now being accepted by the Credit Union Nominating Committee for consideration for vacancies on the board of directors or credit committee. Names must be submitted in writing, with a short biographical resume, home address, home and business phone numbers, credit union membership number, and the position for which you wish to be considered. Send your letter to: Credit Union Nominating Committee, 420 Agnes Street, Indianapolis 46202 by January 25. Elections will be held in March by mail ballot.

Compute -- The NCS 7003 Scanner is now operational. The old scanner forms cannot be used and will not be accepted. Computing Services will sponsor a workshop on the 7003 scanner January 22 at 10 a.m. and January 24 at 2 p.m. in the Lilly Room at the Union Building. Topics will include changes to the test scoring and general purpose forms, new procedures for submittal, an overview of the statistics, discussion of grade assignment and test validity. For reservations, call Ext. 7813.

Labels -- Central Stores has begun marking all gas cylinders issued by Central Stores with an inventory control label which should not be removed. Call Ext. 7222 to have the cylinders picked up as soon as they are empty.
