OVERSEAS STUDY FOR IUPUI STUDENTS

Qualified students in the Indiana University system can choose from several programs to do part of their academic work in other countries.

The university's full-year academic programs are held in Sao Paulo, Brazil; Strasbourg, France; Hamburg, Germany; Bologna, Italy; Jerusalem, Israel; Madrid, Spain, and Lima, Peru. Participating students receive IUPUI credit, not transfer credit; 30 to 36 credit hours are customary in the academic year program. The deadline for applications for full-year programs is November 1.

IUPUI students may also participate in summer programs in Dijon, France, and Mexico City. Six to eight hours of academic credit are customary. The deadline for applications for summer programs is April 1.

Dean Walter Nugent, director of the All-University Overseas Study Office, will be in Room 141 of Cavanaugh Hall on Monday (October 29) at 3 p.m. to meet with interested students.

Students should contact the following professors for more information: Carlos Goldberg (612-356) for Sao Paulo, Leon H. Bourke (Ext. 3902) for Dijon, Tod Luethans (Ext. 8246) for Strasbourg, Bologna and Jerusalem, Harry Reichelt (Ext. 3943) for Hamburg, Nancy Newton (Ext. 7342) for Mexico City and Madrid, and Peter J. Sehlinger (Ext. 8160) for Lima.
