

volume ten, number thirty

august 3, 1980

QUICKIE CALENDAR

Testing -- At least 150 candidates for certification by the American Board of Toxicology, Inc. will be at the Medical Center Monday to take the examination, reports Dr. Robert B. Forney, professor of toxicology. The board is a nonprofit organization that validates the credentials of toxicologists involved in chemical safety evaluation and encourages continuing education in toxicology.

Oncological -- "Ovarian Tumors," grand rounds in oncology presentation by Dr. Lawrence Roth; Radiation Therapy Building, Room R104, 11 a.m. Wednesday. This tumor conference is open to all residents and medical, dental and nursing students.

Thriller -- "Night Watch," a thriller about a "corpse-less" murder, goes on stage Thursday at the Brown County Playhouse in Nashville. Members of the Brown County Company, which is made up of I.U. theater students, will present the show at 8 p.m. Thursday through Sunday, and Wednesdays through Sundays, August 13-30. All performances start at 8 p.m. For ticket information, call 812-337-1103 or 812-988-2123.

Seminar -- "Statistical Issues in Interpretation of Chronic Bioassay Tests for Carcinogenicity," seminar by Dr. John J. Gart, head of the Mathematical Statistics and Applied Mathematics Section, Biometry Branch, National Cancer Institute; sponsors are the Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology and the Dow Chemical Company; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Thursday at 11 a.m.

The Original -- The first "Star Is Born," the 1937 version with Fredric March, Janet Gaynor and Adolphe Menjou, will be shown Friday at 8:30 p.m. on the concert terrace at the Indianapolis Museum of Art.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

High School Program -- Registration for the fall semester of the High School Program will be conducted August 25-27 in University Hospital, Room C420, from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Interested persons should attend one of these sessions. Classes begin September 2. The program is coordinated with the Adult Division of the Indianapolis Public Schools and offers the basic high school courses to persons wanting to obtain a high school diploma. High school graduates who need to review some specific subject area or who need subjects for college deficiencies are also eligible to attend. For more information, call the Department of Human Resource Development, Ext. 8119.

Position Available -- Career counseling and placement counselor for the IUPUI Office of Career Counseling and Placement; qualifications include master's degree (preferably in guidance and counseling or student personnel) or equivalent, related experience in higher education administration and/or career counseling preferred; salary negotiable; starting date is August 25. Send resume and application letter by August 11 to: Thomas T. Cook, Director, Office of Career Counseling and Placement, 1300 West Michigan Street, Indianapolis 46202.

Attn. Payroll Clerks -- Blank employee attendance records are now available in Central Stores under catalog item 61-37800. Cost is 10¢ each.

Cost Reduction -- For information on how you might be able to decrease your photocopy costs, call Diana Small in the Cooperative Copy Program, Ext. 8275.

Student Artist -- Craig M. Ogden, a student at the Herron School of Art, has an exhibit called "Hyatt Sights" in, appropriately enough, the atrium of the Hyatt Regency Hotel. The show, with artwork ranging from watercolors to graphics, will be on display through August.

How to Manage -- A three-day seminar on basic management skills for the new or prospective manager will be held August 19-21 in the Union Building. Topics will include decision making, motivation, communication and setting objectives. For information, call the School of Business, 812-337-0229.

Session -- The scientific session of the Indiana Thoracic Society will be held Saturday at 7 p.m. at the Brown County Ramada Inn at Nashville. Dr. Ronald Roberts of the Bartholomew County Hospital at Columbus will discuss "Management of Acute Respiratory Failure in the Community Hospital." Physicians and other health professionals are invited. For information, call Ron Mill by Wednesday at 632-3383.

Call for Papers -- The Third Annual Intercultural Training Conference/Workshop, sponsored by IUPUI, the University of Bradford in the United Kingdom and the Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research, will be held at the University of Bradford July 13-17, 1981. Contributions to symposia on intercultural training, research and education and solicited. For more information, call Cathi Eagan, Ext. 358 at 38th Street.

Food -- The IUPUI Day Care Center will sponsor a Child Care Food Program, beginning August 27 when the center opens. Meals (breakfast for youngsters arriving before 9 a.m., lunch and an afternoon snack) will be provided.

Scholarship Winners -- Two seniors in the School of Medicine, Jeffrey Mark Moseman and Maxwell Sobel, are the first recipients of the newly endowed Arthur B. Richter Scholarship in child psychiatry. The awards, $600 each, will be given annually to two seniors on the basis of their overall standing in their medical studies, their grades and performance in psychiatry courses and their interest in helping young people.

Thank-You -- Mrs. Clifford Strong of Building Services in the Marott Building wishes to thank everyone for their kind expressions of sympathy for the loss of her daughter, Carol Ann.

Meow -- Free to good home, kittens born May 1, one gold tabby male and one black calico female, both with shots. Call 923-7153 evenings.

* * *

(ARCH-800321)

ARCHIVES
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
420 BLAKE ST

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202