WASTE NOT, WATT NOT

The campaign to cut IUPUI electrical usage apparently is working, with a reported reduction of 13 percent in July when compared with July, 1978.

According to Ralph K. Bennett, electrical engineer for the Physical Plant, the reduced usage can be attributed partly to the intensity of faculty, staff and students in becoming Watt Watchers and watt savers.

Bennett listed an honor roll of a dozen buildings where usage was down and commended the Watt Watchers in these buildings for their efforts. In alphabetical order, the buildings are: Administration, Ball Residence, Board of Health, Coleman Hall, Emerson Hall, Engineering and Technology, Larue Carter Hospital, Law School, Lecture Hall, Long Hospital, Psychiatric Research and University Library. (These are figures for University Quarter only; figures for the other locations will be available soon.)

Bennett urges everyone to continue watching watts. Nearly 60 suggestions have been given for ways to reduce consumption, some of them excellent and some now being implemented for long-term savings.

Send your suggestions to: R.K. Bennett, Room 202, Physical Plant. Remember, there is a pot of $500 in prizes to be awarded in October for the best suggestions.

INPUT NEEDED FOR PUTT-PUTT, OTHER SPORTS

To satisfy the sports and recreational desires and needs of all IUPUI faculty, staff and students, the Intramural and Recreational Sports Department needs to know who wants what.

To facilitate this procedure, Jeff Vessely, director of the department, will host two informal meetings next week. You can bring your lunch and soft drinks will be provided. The first meeting will be Monday, August 27, at 11:30 a.m. in the faculty lounge of the Krannert Science Building at 38th Street. The second meeting will be Tuesday, August 28, at 11 a.m. on the east lawn of the Union Building.

Speaking of intramurals, a couple of entry deadlines are coming up: This Wednesday (August 22) for 12" Slow Pitch Softball and Friday (August 24) for the Circle City Circuit tennis matches.

For information, call Vessely at Ext. 3764.

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY

Monday -- Last day for walk-in registration at Cavanaugh Hall.

Closed -- Because of registration, the Bursar Office will be closed to the public on Tuesday, Friday, and August 31. The cashier deposit and change order processes will continue on these days.

Wednesday -- Fall classes begin.

Medicine Rounds -- Dr. James Hager will talk about "Clinical Application of Balloon Counter Pulsation" and Dr. John W. Brown will discuss "Balloon-Assisted Circulation" during Department of Medicine grand rounds Wednesday at 8:15 a.m. in Myers Auditorium of Wishard Memorial Hospital.

Displays -- Pharmacy displays this week in University Hospital will be Reed & Carnrick on Wednesday and Upjohn Co. on Friday. Hours are 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Oncology Rounds -- Dr. Eugene Stevens will discuss "Acute Lukemia" during grand rounds in oncology on Wednesday at 11 a.m. in Room R-104 of the Radiation Therapy Building. This tumor conference is open to all residents and medical, dental and nursing students. Please call Ext. 8809 if you plan to attend.

Affordable Food & Drink -- Once again it is time for the "Two-Bit Day Food Festival" at the Union Building. The day is Thursday and tickets go on sale at 11 a.m. This annual event features all kinds of goodies on the east lawn where, for a mere 25¢ to 50¢, you can buy ice cream, elephant ears, popcorn, orange and pineapple whip, Italian sausage, knockwurst, corn-on-the-cob, candied apples, strawberry shortcake, and more. To eliminate long lines, more food stations have been added. And, if it rains Thursday, the festival will be held Friday, or next Monday, or Tuesday, etc.

Stadium Special -- Thursday is "IUPUI Night" at Bush Stadium. The students will take on the faculty and staff at a 6 p.m. softball game and the Indianapolis Indians will meet the Springfield Redbirds at 7:30 p.m. Tickets, $2.50 or $1, are available at the Student Activities Office in Cavanaugh or the Union lobby.

Ballet -- The Indianapolis Ballet Theater will present pops concerts Saturday and Sunday at 8:30 p.m. at the Indianapolis Sports Center. Special prices are available for a block of 50 adult tickets. For information, call 923-3937.

Coming Up -- Annual reception for new faculty members and new graduate students, sponsored by the Society of the Sigma Xi, will be held Tuesday, August 28, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the faculty lounge (Room 127) of the School of Nursing.

"BLOODLINE" ON CAMPUS

To avert a Labor Day shortage of blood, the I.U. Hospitals Blood Bank (in Room N-442 at University Hospital) is conducting a blood collection drive this week. And, Blood Bank personnel will be in Riley Hospital Wednesday through Friday to schedule appointments for next week.

Some statistics: Only 2 percent of the population gives blood for the remaining 98 percent. Last year's figures from the Blood Bank revealed that 23,525 units of blood/components were transfused while only 1,581 were donated. Obviously, the gap needs to be narrowed.

You are qualified to donate if you are between 18 and 65, if you weigh at least 110 pounds, if you have no history of hepatitis, kidney, liver or heart disease, if you have not given blood for two months.

The Blood Bank is open from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Saturday. Special appointments at other times can be made. For information, call Ext. 7637.
