

FFA Alumni Association

WINTER - 1983

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Ken Seering, Denmark, Wisconsin

I personally want to extend a wish for a successful year of support of vocational agriculture and the Future Farmers of America. "Think Big" and "Move On" were themes selected by past National FFA Alumni presidents. I have selected "Attitude Adjustment" as the theme for 1983. For eleven years we have been in the business of "Attitude Adjustment" with FFA Alumni members across this nation and many more whom we have not been able to convince to join our ranks. ATTITUDE means showing one's feeling, action, opinion, or commitment to a cause, while ADJUSTMENT means to alter so (Left to Right) Harold Lineberry. 1982 as to make fit, become suited, or to bring into proper relationship. In other words, you must get into the right frame of mind for the FFA Alumni.

ATTITUDE ADJUSTMENT will be a huge factor in whether or not the local, state, and national FFA Alumni grow to greater heights in the future. We have such potential all around us, it's like two golf balls, one has FFA written on it. Many of us, like myself, have gone through this positive learning experience program, whether it was raising livestock show animals, being an officer, or being a local delegate to the National FFA Convention. The other ball has agribusiness written on it. Just think of all the individuals who possess knowledge, abilities, and expertise in the area of agriculture. These two groups of individuals will hold onto their talents unless someone can ADJUST their ATTITUDE.

I hunted a lot of ducks this fall. While sitting in the blind at sunup, ducks started circling the pond. As I watched them, it reminded me of the FFA Alumni. Some of the ducks circled once and in they came. They had the proper attitude if you're a hunter. Some circled several times and then landed, while others circled several times and never did. We have some new Alumni members who join immediately when asked, others need to see the benefits before joining, and some community people just never take that extra step to join, and drift away. But let's not give up on them! Like hunting ducks, there'll be opportunities tomorrow or even a year later. The thing to remember is that once that new member has joined, get them involved. Involvement is the KEY, and now you have their ATTITUDE ADJUSTED for the betterment of the FFA.

We must set our sights high in 1983. FIRST, membership must be a top priority item. The retention of the members we already have must receive our attention. I know that all of us would be shocked by how fast our membership would go up yearly if we didn't lose any members from the prior year. Presently, we only retain 65 percent of our yearly membership. SECOND, the backbone of any vo-ag program is the Supervised Occupational Experience Program. This past summer a tremendous SOE workshop was held in Washington, D.C., with 45 states participating. It is felt that this program, somehow, should be brought back to each local school. Your National FFA Alumni Council will pursue ways of accomplishing this. THIRD, is a challenge to the individual FFA Alumni member, entitled "SUPPOSE . . . '

"SUPPOSE membership in your affiliate was limited to three less than you presently have. Would you be "in" or "out"?

SUPPOSE you had to run for membership in the affiliate as candidates run for public office. Would you "win" or "lose"?

SUPPOSE that membership was good for one year only and reelection depended on YOUR SERVICE during the preceding year. Would YOU be reelected?

SUPPOSE every member in your affiliate did exactly as You have done during the past year. WHAT KIND OF AN AFFILIATE WOULD YOU HAVE?"

FOURTH, is an area for expansion by all Alumni members, called "Planned Giving Program." This program, through the National FFA Foundation, was created to give "individuals" like you and me an opportunity to further their support to the FFA. Also, we cannot forget to mention the need for additional promotion of the great Executive Sponsor program which benefits the FFA and the Alumni.

There's a three-letter phrase we all refer to as "FFA". The FFA is truly a builder of people. The FFA motto is really a series of threeword phrases, "Learning To Do, Doing To Learn, Earning To Live, Living To Serve". As we consider the FFA program, isn't this why each of us is involved in the FFA Alumni? Each of us doing our thing. We have another three-word phrase, "Supporting Vocational Agriculture", as our FFA Alumni central theme. I am confident that the world will be better because we as FFA Alumni members will continue our support of vocational agriculture and the FFA. We have a big job to do. It's up to each of us in '83 to AD-JUST some ATTITUDES for the FFA Alumni!

ELECTION AND APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Mr. Eldon Witt from Roanoke, Illinois, was elected as the 1983 National FFA Alumni Vice President. He represents the State FFA Executive Secretaries on the Council. The Eastern Region representative elected for a three-year term is Mr. Jay Householder from New Lexington, Ohio. Mr. J. Lamar Branch of Tifton, Georgia, will serve a three-year term representing the Southern Region. The American Association of Teacher Educators appointed Dr. L. H. Newcomb from The Ohio State University to represent the Teacher Educators. Mr. Craig Wiget from Mount Blanchard, Ohio, is the National Vocational Agriculture Teacher Association representative. We also welcome Miss Jan Eberly of Fallbrook, California, as the National FFA President to the Council. The next meeting will be held in February in Denmark, Wisconsin.

OUTSTANDING FFA ALUMNI AFFILIATES

The 1982 Outstanding FFA Alumni Affiliate Awards were presented at the National Convention in November. The top 22 FFA Alumni Affiliates recognized by the National had previously been selected as exemplifying outstanding qualities of support and service by their State FFA Alumni Associations.

SUPERINTENDENT SAYS "THANKS"

Mr. Harold D. Gehrke, Algoma School District in Wisconsin, says thanks to the Algoma FFA Alumni. I have just returned from my first national convention and one of the most uplifting conferences I have ever attended any time or any place. The invitation extended by them for me to attend the 55th National FFA Convention in Kansas City was most appreciated. The fact that the also provided my transportation was "frosting on the cake."

The theme of this year's convention "VOCATIONAL AGRI-CULTURE EDUCATING THROUGH EXPERIENCE" was most appropriate for all of us, but especially for me. Having been brought up in town, I did not become involved in vocational agriculture. While teaching I did not become involved in vocational agriculture other than filling in as a substitute teacher for one period in Reedsburg High School. This is the first school district in which I have served as administrator that offers a vocational agriculture program. The convention provided me with a most intensive cram course on the total FFA program and concept.

Prior to the convention, I had what I considered to be an adequate understanding of the FFA. I now feel that I have gained much knowledge of the Future Farmers of America, but more importantly to me at least, I have gained a tremendous respect for the program and its participants. It is a TOTAL program covering every aspect of the life of a future farmer. In fact, it is life itself!

YOUNGEST LIFE MEMBER

Wesley Adam Hooker, born July 17, 1980, became one of our youngest Life members. Wesley is a member of the Kingfisher, Oklahoma Affiliate which was chartered in October 1982 with 73 Life members, 44 prorated Life members, and 36 annual members.

FFA OFFICERS BECOME LIFE

ALUMNI INVITED ON TRAVEL SEMINAR TO CHINA

The FFA Alumni have been invited to participate in an FFA Travel Seminar to the Peoples' Republic of China. The 15-day trip will depart on June 15 and will include visits to Beizing, the Green Wall, Harbin, Shanghai, Hangchow, and Canton in China. Stok in Tokyo and Hong Kong have also been planned. Total costs including hotels, most meals (all in China), and transportation from Los Angeles will be approximately $3,750. For information, contact the International Department, FFA Center, Box 15160, Alexandria, VA 22309.

ALUMNI INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN TRIP TO FRANCE AND GERMANY

The French-American Foundation and the Carl Duisberg Society in cooperation with the FFA Alumni Association, announce a 14-day study tour of farms, cooperatives, agribusinesses and historic sites in France and West Germany between July 25-August 5. American farmers, professionals and students in agricultural fields will meet and discuss mutual concerns with their European counterparts.

Total cost of the trip will be covered by grants from the FAF and the CDS and a participant's fee of about $850 each. This will include a one-day orientation program in New York City, airfà. from New York/France and West Germany/New York, ground transportation, hotel accomodations, three meals per day, tour guide and interpreters.

Further information and application forms can be obtained from Denise M. Hetorilla, French-American Foundation, 680 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10021, telephone (212) 682-7237. Applications must be postmarked by May 15.
