UNITED TIME

Faculty and staff members at IUPUI are now engaged in the annual campaign to help 120 local agencies that help more than 500,000 local people each year. A letter from Chancellor Glenn W. Irwin, Jr., a leaflet and a pledge card will reach each individual.

In deciding on your gift, please consider using the payroll deduction option. The IUPUI goal is $55,000, up from last year's total of $51,500. Because the United Way relies on volunteers, its cost of raising funds is low, so more of your gift goes directly to the agencies.

Division chairmen leading the campaign in IUPUI schools and departments include Dr. David McKinley and Robert Welty in medicine, Michael Curtis in dentistry, Dorothy Medcalf in nursing, Donald Franklin in the hospitals and Dr. Jack Lukemeyer in allied health. Also Donald Schultheis in liberal arts, Howard Wisner in science and engineering technology, William Garrett in student services, Maureen Dougherty at Herron, Kenneth Swisher in law, Sue Barrett in physical education, Dr. Merle Draper in education, Mary Alice Arbuckle in social service, Malcolm Ross in physical plant, and Carol Ahlgren in business. Tom Duane in personnel and Bill Spencer in the chancellor's office are co-ordinating the effort.

DAVENPORT TO HEAD IUPUI SAFETY DIVISION

Indianapolis Deputy Chief of Police Spurgeon D. Davenport has been appointed director of the IUPUI Safety Division. Davenport, a veteran with 39 years of service in the city department, will assume command of the 62-member IUPUI division on November 1.

Chancellor Glenn W. Irwin, Jr., said in his announcement of the appointment that " . . . Chief Davenport is highly qualified for a very sensitive job." Irvin K. Owen, safety director for the I.U. system, said that Davenport emerged as the best applicant after intensive interviews with a series of candidates who had extensive experience in law enforcement at city, state, and Federal levels.

Davenport began his career as a patrolman in 1934. He has risen through the ranks with supervisory and administrative assignments in most major areas of the Indianapolis department. His most recent assignment has been commanding officer of the inspection and training division.

His community interests include the Citizens Forum, Indianapolis Leadership Committee, Urban League and Forward Inc.

FINAL COUNT

Final tabulations for the fall semester show Indiana University with 68,869 students on eight campuses, a gain of five-tenths of a per cent (323 students) over 1972.

Registrar M.D. Scherer said the totals were almost exactly as predicted in late summer. He released the following totals for the campuses:

Bloomington, 30,714, down 566 students (1.8%).
I.U.-Purdue, Indianapolis, 17,666, up 728 students (4.3%).
South Bend, 5,189, down 150 students (2.8%).
Northwest (Gary), 4,762, down 19 students (0.4%).
Fort Wayne, 4,876, up 236 students (5.1%).
Southeast (New Albany), 2,849, up 104 students (3.8%).
Kokomo, 1,998, down 90 students (4.3%).
East (Richmond), 794, up 90 students (12.8%).
Evansville (one class), 21, down 10 students (32.3%).

"SON OF GREEN SHEET" COMING

Because of the fantastic demands made on the all-too-limited space of the Green Sheet, the News Bureau redactors have somewhat hysterically decided to put out another, single-page Green Sheet during weeks when the situation calls for it and when our sanity can afford it. Hopefully, we'll be able to out-put most of the Green Sheet input this way. Just keep those cards and letters coming to the News Bureau, Cottages 113.

NURSING CONVENTION

The School of Nursing will be host to the national convention of Sigma Theta Tau, national honorary nursing society, at Stouffer's Indianapolis Inn Wednesday through Friday.

The school established the Alpha Chapter in 1922 and the organization now has 57 chapters across the country. Five founders will be honored at the three-day convention.

I.U. President John W. Ryan; Dr. Elizabeth K. Grossman, dean of nursing, and a representative from the office of Mayor Richard G. Lugar will dedicate the organization's first national headquarters to be established at the School of Nursing.

Dr. Shirley Karlson, president of the local chapter, will preside at the meeting, Rebecca Markel, assistant professor of nursing, is program chairman.

U.N. DAY WEDNESDAY

Films and lectures will be featured in the annual United Nations Day program on Wednesday, according to Dr. Robert V. Kirch, director of the program and chairman of political science IUPUI.

Dr. Walter H. C. Laves, I.U. professor of political science, will discuss the roles, responsibilities, and challenges of the U.N. in a lecture at 10 a.m. in Room 507 of Cavanaugh Hall. Dr. Laves is vice-chairman of the United States Commission for UNESCO.

Dr. Pathe Diagne, a Senegalese scholar now serving as a consultant to the African Studies Center of DePauw University, will present a study at 11 a.m. of the drought and famine threatening several nations in West Africa. Dr. Diagne will also discuss problems in the U.N. and U.S. relief efforts in the region.

"Sahel, the Border of Hell," a special documentary about the drought in the Sahara Desert, will be shown at noon and 1 p.m. in Lecture Hall 205.

A reception for Drs. Laves and Diagne will be hosted by the dean of liberal arts from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. in the faculty lounge. Interested persons, students, staff, and faculty are invited.
