Komen Tissue Bank to partner with 2012 Super Bowl

The Susan G. Komen for the Cure Tissue Bank at IU Simon Cancer Center has announced a partnership with the 2012 Indianapolis Super Bowl Host Committee to launch "Indy's Super Cure," a project to raise awareness about the Komen Tissue Bank, increasing the diversity of breast tissue donations and fundraising for the Komen Tissue Bank to advance breast cancer research.

Leading up to Super Bowl XLVI, Indy's Super Cure will host a major fundraising dinner on Friday, Nov. 18, with nationally recognized breast cancer advocates. Several tissue donation events will also be organized, including events during the week leading up to the Super Bowl.

Additional representatives partnering on Indy's Super Cure include IUSM, IU Health, Central Indiana Affiliate Susan G. Komen for the Cure and the Indianapolis Colts.

For more information, visit www.indianapolissuperbowl.com/media-releases/54.

IUSM institutions participate in Indiana Black Expo

The IU Simon Cancer Center and Indiana Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute are among the IUSM institutions participating in the 2011 Indiana Black Expo July 14-17 in downtown Indianapolis.

To promote healthy eating, IUSCC will partner with the Little Red Door Cancer Agency to give away 3,000 seed packets to those who play an interactive game about nutrition and cancer prevention and also with Side Street Deli to offer samples of healthy foods. Participants in the Indianapolis Department of Health's One Stop-One Stick Program who have never been diagnosed with cancer will also be given the option to donate their blood sample to the IU Cancer Biomarker Study, led by Noah Hahn, MD, assistant professor of hematology and oncology.

The Indiana CTSI Office of Research Recruitment will provide information about INresearch, an online registry created by the Indiana CTSI to encourage volunteer participation in clinical research studies conducted by IUSM faculty. Interested participants will be able to sign up on the spot via laptop. Indiana CTSI representatives also will offer information about the Indiana Biobank, a new clinical sample repository under development to enhance research across the state. A daily drawing for two AMC movie tickets will also be held.

Both groups will be participating in the INShape Indiana Black & Minority Health Fair in Hall D of the Indianapolis Convention Center. IUSCC will be in booths 237, 239, 241 and 243 from 1 to 8 p.m. Friday, July 15; 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, July 16, and noon to 6 p.m. Sunday, July 17.

The Indiana CTSI booth will be staffed from 1 to 8 p.m. July 15; 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. July 16 and noon to 6 p.m. July 17.

Medical library main entrance reopens

The IUSM Library main entrance has reopened so library users no longer need to enter from the second floor.

The closure was caused by a tile replacement project on the first floor of the Medical Research/Library Building, which is now completed. Work continues on additional renovations outside the building near Walnut Street.

To monitor any future changes in library access, visit revelation.medlib.iupui.edu/rlmlnews.

Student Outreach Clinic seeks physician volunteers

Physician volunteers are needed for the IU Student Outreach Clinic at the Neighborhood Fellowship Church, 3102 East 10th St., Indianapolis.

IUSOC is a non-profit student-run clinic dedicated to providing free medical care and other services to the underserved and uninsured patients on the near-eastside of Indianapolis. It was created by students and faculty at the IU School of Medicine who recognized the many unmet medical needs of people living in the area. The clinic is open most Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Volunteer responsibilities will include staffing each patient with students, reviewing and co-signing each visit chart before leaving the clinic, signing any necessary prescriptions (volunteers are asked to provide a script pad) and assess patient needs case by case to recommend the best approach to care, including patient education/information, referrals and follow up. All faculty staff physicians volunteering at the IUSOC will be covered by the School's malpractice insurance.

To volunteer, visit www.iupui.edu/~msaprjct/soc.

Apply to mentor a Crispus Attucks student

Medical student volunteers are sought to mentor or tutor middle- and high-school students at Crispus Attucks Medical Magnet High School. Graduate and undergraduate students in the science and health professions also are needed.

Participants will provide mentorship in such skills as career exploration, goal setting and time management, or tutoring in math and science. The goal is to stimulate students' interest in and improve their ability to enter a career in biomedical science. This is an opportunity to earn money while helping students meet their educational goals and succeed.

This project is supported by the Howard Hughes Medical Institute Pre-College Program. Applications are due by Wednesday, Aug. 3.

To apply, contact Carrie Harris at 278-1783 or harriscl@iupui.edu.

This week on Sound Medicine

This week, IU breast cancer specialist Kathy Miller, MD, will discuss research findings unveiled at the 2011 American Society of Clinical Oncology meeting. Also, physician experts explain the importance of diagnosing mood disorders during pregnancy, and why it's better to be morning person, not a night-owl. Plus, don't miss Barbara Lewis's interview with the authors of Don't Cross Your Eyes, a new book debunking common medical myths. Sound Medicine airs July 16 and 17 on WFYI, 90.1FM, and on many other public radio stations nationwide.

Sound Medicine is an award-winning radio program co-produced by IUSM and WFYI Public Radio (90.1FM). It is underwritten by IU Health Physicians and IUPUI. Reports on Primary Health Care topics are sponsored by Wishard Health Services.

Nominate a Riley Champion — July 15

Riley Hospital for Children is seeking children between the ages of 8 and 18 who've received care from the hospital within the last three years to nominate as a "Riley Champion."

The Riley Children's Foundation offers this honor to courageous patients who have inspired communities with their commitment to help others. (Children's philanthropic efforts do not have to be related to Riley Hospital.) Riley Champions will be announced in the fall at the Riley Children's Foundation Annual Luncheon and will be invited to attend a Colts game.

To nominate a Riley Champion by Friday, July 15, visit www.riley.org/stories/nominate_a_champion.

Indiana CTSI P3 Awards — request for applications

The Indiana Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute, with support from the IU School of Medicine, is offering a new funding mechanism to support the submission of Program Project Grant (PPG)-type extramural applications and similar multi-PI funding opportunities.

Indiana CTSI Program Project Planning (P3) Awards will range from about $75,000 to $100,000. P3 Awards are designed to support PPG-type grants spanning bench to bedside T1 research and clinic to population-based T2 studies at IUSM. Program project grants eligible for P3 award support are broadly defined as any multi-PI, multi-project extramural grants with annual direct budgets of $600K or higher in direct costs per year, including NIH P series, U series or other unique mechanisms from federal government agencies.

The applications may be submitted throughout the year. For more information, see the complete application guidelines at <http://www.indianactsi.org/grants/p3-guidelines.pdf>. To apply, visit www.indianactsi.org/grants.

Questions to the Indiana CTSI at 278-2874 or ictsi@iupui.edu.

Clinical Quad, Eskenazi Health projects

Significant impact on car and foot traffic is expected on Clinical Drive and near Gatch and Fesler halls due to the Clinical Quad project. The route from West Street to Medical Drive between Coleman and the Riley Outpatient Center Garage will be closed to through traffic. The entire area will be closed for construction in the next five to six weeks. Pedestrian traffic and delivery plans are to be announced.

In addition, the Eskenazi Health project will require the installation of a new sanitary line on or after Monday, July 18. The line will run from Lot 1 across Elmwood into the Wishard Parking Lot. It will be installed between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. All open trenches will be road plated prior to 6 a.m. the following day. Construction will start in the Wishard Parking Lot and then progress to the west, toward Elmwood and eventually Lot 1 (north of Psych Research). Traffic lanes will be maintained during the crossing of Elmwood and parking spaces will remain open.

At Your Fingertips

Continuing Medical Education

The Continuing Medical Education office launched a new and improved website at cme.medicine.iu.edu. In addition to online registration and listings of grand rounds, conferences and courses, the site provides in-depth tools and information for presenters and program developers. Included are forms, tips, links, contacts, maps, and a host of other handy resources to make it easier to participate in CME events, prepare a presentation or plan an event.

Resources

Want to find a room that has a Polycom hook-up? Need official IUSM templates for your PowerPoint presentation or poster about a guest lecturer? Check out the new “Resources For” page on the IUSM web site. Resources For is accessible from the school’s home page (medicine.iu.edu) – look on the right-hand side of the page.

If you have suggestions of other resources that would be beneficial and could be added to this list, contact the Office of Public and Media Relations at medschl@iupui.edu.

MedTV

The Office of Public and Media Relations now manages the MedTV screens on the medical school campus. This closed-circuit TV system, part of the IUPUI network, presents a wonderful opportunity for faculty, staff and students to communicate events and information of interest to others. It also serves as a source for broadcasting emergency information on campus.

The MedTVs are located in public areas of the HITS building, the VanNuys Medical Science Building atrium, the Daly Center, Research II, Walther Hall (R3) and the Cancer Research Institute (R4).

Announcements from departments and offices are welcome. To have your department or office announcements posted on MedTV, please read the MedTV guidelines: medicine.iu.edu/medtv. Questions? Phone 274-7722.

Scope submission guidelines

Scope wants your news items.

The deadline for submission is 8:30 a.m. on Thursdays. Scope is published electronically and sent to faculty, staff, students, and residents on Fridays (except on holiday weekends when it is published on the following Monday).

There are three easy ways to submit story ideas or information to Scope:

- e-mail the information to scopemed@iupui.edu
- mail the information to Kevin Fryling, 1110 W. Michigan, LO 401, IUPUI
- fax your information to (317) 278-8722

Contributions submitted by e-mail should be forwarded in 12 point, plain text format. Word document attachments in lieu of fliers are encouraged.

In the interest of accuracy, please do NOT use:

- acronyms
- abbreviations
- campus building codes (use full, proper name of building and include the room number)
- Dr. as a preface before names (designate MD or PhD)

To keep the electronic version of Scope as streamlined as possible, only seminars and lectures of general or multidisciplinary interest will be included.
