

green sheet

volume ten, number forty-four november 9, 1980

Everyone is invited to a ceremony marking the start of construction of the natatorium and school of physical education building, noon, Nov. 12, near Agnes and New York streets. University and community leaders will participate in the ceremony.

Thanks to you it worked! The United Way campaign at IUPUI has gone over its goal! More than $101,000 has been pledged or collected from more than 2,000 employees. A more detailed report will be given as soon as the community's campaign ends in mid-November. If you have not turned in your pledge card, please do so immediately.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dr. William D. Sawyer, chairman of the Department of Microbiology and Immunology of the School of Medicine, has accepted the position of dean of the Wright State University School of Medicine. He will assume his new responsibilities on Jan. 1. Dr. Deitrich C. Bauer, professor of microbiology and immunology, has been named interim chairman by Dr. Steven C. Beering, medical school dean.

A search and screen committee for the recruitment of a qualified person to fill the position vacated by Dr. Sawyer chaired by Dr. Carleton D. Nordschow, professor and chairman of pathology, has been appointed by Dr. Beering. This department is multidisciplinary with active research programs and teaching responsibilities in the School of Medicine as well as Dentistry, Nursing and the Graduate School.

Other members of the committee include Margaret Applegate, associate professor of nursing; Joe C. Christian, professor and chairman of medical genetics; Chris H. Miller, associate professor of microbiology, School of Dentistry; Donald Niederpruem, professor of microbiology and immunology; Ann Roman, assistant professor of microbiology and immunology; Eugene D. Weinberg, professor of microbiology, Medical Sciences Program, and Arthur C. White, professor of medicine.

Any recommendations for nominees for this important position should be directed to Chairman Nordschow, Ext. 4806.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Political Analysts -- IUPUI experts manned the microphones of major television and radio stations for their Election Night coverage: Lending their knowledge, information and commentary were Brian Vargus, sociology, on Channel 6, Patrick McGeever, political science, on Channel 8, Richard Fredland, political science, on Channel 4 and WIFE, and Robert Kirch, political science, on WIAN. Vargus was director of the IUPUI Statewide Election Poll, the only poll to correctly predict the winners in the state races. In the aftermath of the election results, The Indianapolis Star in its Wednesday edition described Vargus as "the vindicated pollster" who "called it on the nose."

Athletic -- The orthopedic surgeons have retained their title. For the past three years the orthopedic men of the I.U. Medical Center have played an annual game of football with the general surgeons. The orthopods won the first three and last Saturday (Nov. 1) the general surgeons were out to stop them. Alas, the battle was close, but the orthopedic surgeons won 28 to 26.

About 150 fans were on hand to cheer the teams on during the contest at the Crispus Attucks High School field. The doctors obtained the field at no charge in exchange for doing physicals next May for Attucks students.

Wishard Hospital nurses "manned" a first aid station during the game, and Riley nurses helped dispense hotdogs, hamburgers, and refreshments.

Goodies -- Each year Kappa Kappa Sigma sells a truckload of grapefruit and oranges with the proceeds going to scholarships and to promote research in heart disease, cancer and kidney disorders. The prices are 20-pound boxes of either fruit for $6, 40-pound boxes of either for $10 (cash only). Delivery deadline for ordering is November 21; delivery date is December 15. For information, call 291-1432 or 297-3821.

Help -- Miss Lute Troutt, former director of the Department of Nutrition and Dietetics, is seeking someone to live with here in her Riley Tower apartment. Miss Troutt has recently recovered from a broken hip and presently has a broken left wrist. Call Bernice Boucher, 264-8516, for more information.

Surplus -- There is some surplus office equipment in the Union Building and at the 38th Street Campus that may be purchased through intramural payments. This equipment now belongs to computing services. Call Jim Wyatt for further information at Ext. 7753.

Assertiveness Workshop -- The IUPUI Counseling Center will present an introductory assertiveness training workshop Saturday in Room 318 of the University Library, 420 Blake Street. Registration is at 9 a.m., the workshop starts at 9:30 and continues all day. Workshop leaders are Connie Clodfelter, Cheryl Crowley, Fred Huffman, Donald P. Wakefield, and John A. Whitesel. For further information and reservations contact the IUPUI Counseling Center, 419 North Blackford Street, phone 264-2548.

Career Information -- Career information and job placement assistance again is available at the IUPUI 38th Street Campus. Representatives from the Office of Career Counseling and Placement and from IUPUI Student Services will be in Room 060 of the Krannert Building. For more information call Mary Jane Koch at Ext. 2554.

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY

Basics -- "Fundamentals of Marketing," School of Business "Management in Action" seminar; Union Building, Monday through Wednesday.

Pharmaceutical -- Pharmacy displays this week in University Hospital will by Bio Dynamics on Monday and Astra Co. on Wednesday. Displays in Riley Hospital will be Mead-Johnson on Wednesday and Blueline Pharmaceutical Co. on Friday.

Move -- The Research Instrumentation Laboratory is now called the Design and Fabrication Section-Clinical Engineering and has moved from the basement of Fesler Hall to the basement (Room 917) at Riley Hospital. Drop in Monday for an open-house welcome.

Biochemical I -- "Cellular Regulation of Cartilage Matrix Organization," Biochemistry Seminar by Dr. Michael Stack, assistant professor of medicine; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Monday at 4 p.m.

Colloquium -- Cheryl Stetler will keynote the seventh annual Patient Care Research Colloquium this week, sponsored by the School of Nursing and the I.U. Hospitals Nursing Service. Her topics will be "Nursing Research in an Acute Care Setting: Problems and Promises" and "A Sample of Clinical Studies by One Nursing Service." To be held at the nursing school, the conference on Tuesday starts with 8:15 a.m. registration. For more information, call Ext. 4395, Ext. 8546 or Ext. 4575.

Biological -- "The Protocell -- Its Origin and Early Development," Biology Seminar by Dr. William Stillwell; Krannert Science Building, Room 357, Tuesday at noon.

Faculty -- The University Faculty Council will meet Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in Room 109-110 at the law school.

Genetic -- "The Use of Restriction Enzymes to Detect Polymorphisms," Medical Genetics Seminar by Patricia Goodman, graduate student; Riley Research, Conference Room 138, Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Impact -- State Sen. Louis Mahern (D-Indianapolis), chairman of the minority caucus of the Indiana General Assembly, will be the featured speaker Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the nursing building. His subject will be "The Impact of the General Assembly on Local Decisions." The public is invited to the lecture, sponsored by the School of Public and Environmental Affairs.

Attn. Staffers -- The IUPUI Staff Council exists to represent the interests and concerns of all IUPUI staffers -- nurses (NU), secretaries (CL), technicians (TE), ADs and PRs. If you're interested in learning about the council, want to share your ideas and information, stop by the library at the Herron School of Art from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday. Brown-bag-it if you wish; council members will be on hand to acquaint you with the group. (Future brown-bag get-togethers are planned for December in Cavanaugh Hall and January in the School of Nursing.)

Chemical -- "Analytical Applications Involving Enzymes and Chromatography," Chemistry Seminar by Dr. Neil Danielson from Miami (Ohio) University; Krannert Science Building, Room 231, Wednesday at noon.

What's on WAT -- "Total Hip Replacement" with Dr. William N. Capello, "Grand Rounds in Surgery" series on WAT 21 Medical Television; Wednesday at noon and 7:30 p.m., plus November 14 and 18 at noon and 7:30 p.m.

Collegial -- This week's "Collegial conversation," a series of programs sponsored by the Center for American Studies, will focus on "the black experience" with John Leill, sociology, and Monroe Little, history. The informal session will begin at 1 p.m. in Room 109 of Cavanaugh Hall. Anyone interested is invited.

Biochemical II -- "Cell Specific Cytotoxic Reagents: An Immunological Approach," Special Biochemistry Seminar by Dr. Clarence L. Villemez, professor of biochemistry at the University of Wyoming; Medical Science Building, Room 321, Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Oncological -- Henry Briggs of the Environmental Health and Safety Office at IUB will discuss the cyclotron during grand rounds in oncology Wednesday at 11 a.m. in the Radiation Therapy Building, Room R104.

Developmental "Asymmetry of the Brain," Child Development Program Seminar by Dr. William E. DeMyer, professor of neurology; Meiks Conference Room at Riley, Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

Physiological -- "Pulmonary Edema," Physiology Seminar by Dr. Julius J. Friedman, professor; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Thursday at 4 p.m.

Last Chance -- The final three performances of "The Hasty Heart" dinner theater are Thursday through Saturday in the Union Building cafeteria. The dinner starts at 7 p.m., the play at 8 p.m. Tickets are $7. For reservations, call Ext. 7685; for information, call Ext. 2094. The play is a production of the IUPUI University Theater.

Alumni -- The alumni of the School of Liberal Arts have scheduled their annual dinner meeting and presentation of officers for Friday at La Scala Restaurant. Featured speaker will be Mayor William Hudnut. Reservations are $9 per person for the program which starts with a 6:30 p.m. cocktail hour. For information, call Ext. 8828.

Opener -- The IUPUI Metros open their ninth year with a match against Goshen College Friday at 4:45 p.m. in Market Square Arena, followed by the Pacers-Washington game. For ticket information, call Ext. 3764.

* * *

IN MEMORIAM

The University community was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Dr. Edwin Lee Gresham, 47, professor of pediatrics at the School of Medicine and director of the Newborn Special Care Center at Riley Hospital for Children. He died Nov. 1 at University Hospital. Services were held last Tuesday and burial rites were observed Wednesday at Aurora, his home town.

Dr. Gresham was the person "most responsible for remarkable advances in neonatal care in Indiana in the last decade," Dr. Morris Green, chairman of the Department of Pediatrics and physician-in-chief at Riley, said. "The nation has lost a pre-eminent neonatologist, Indiana her foremost champion for excellence in the care of newborn infants and the Riley staff a beloved friend and esteemed colleague. Thanks to his ceaseless efforts, thousands of Hoosier babies and parents can look forward to life without handicap."

(FARA-791112)

JOSEPH C FARAH
INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS
ALLIED HEALTH BLDG ROOM 228