

green sheet

843
C2

volume fifteen, number fourteen

April 7, 1985

SIX SCHOLARS TO WRAP UP RESEARCH SHARING SERIES

Topics that include aging, learning, homosexual studies, creativity and more are all on the agenda of the last session of the year-long research sharing series sponsored by the Institute for Humanities Research, Frances Dodson Rhome, director. The free public program is April 11, 3-5 p.m., Bus/SPEA, Rm. 4095. Speakers and their topics are: Bette Joe Davis, associate professor of education, "Learning Styles;" Sue K. Hammersmith, assistant dean for student affairs, School of Liberal Arts and associate professor of sociology, "Homosexual Studies," and William L. Martz, professor of medicine, "Adjustment to Aging." Also, Mary H. Mitchell, attorney and associate professor of law, "Law and the Elderly;" Ronald B. Britton, associate professor of education, "Creativity: Brain Dominance," and David F. Metzger, associate professor of social work, "Transference of Cultural Skills." For more information, call Ext. 2447.

A free CPR (Cardiac-Pulmonary Resuscitation) training program is being offered to all IUPUI students, faculty and staff by members of the newly formed student IUPUI campus Red Cross. Training will be April 16, 1-4 p.m., in the Bus/Spea Building, Room 1000. Enrollment is limited to 50 people who will be taken on a first come-first served basis. Registration begins at 1 p.m. For more information, call Amy Hartman, 299-2699 or Neil Lantz, Ext. 4511.

EDUCATION'S TOP MAN TO SPEAK HERE

U.S. Secretary of Education William J. Bennett will speak April 11 during a breakfast meeting on campus for state school superintendents, college and university presidents and members of the IUPUI Institute for Humanities Research, sponsor. This is the first of many planned meetings in which he plans to discuss educational issues. He will be accompanied by Wendell Willkie III, former legal counsel for the National Endowment for the Humanities, which Bennett headed before accepting his latest appointment.

ALUMNUS TO HEAD CARDIOLOGY AT VETERAN'S HOSPITAL

A noted alumnus of the IU School of Medicine is returning to play a key role in cardiology research and services. Dr. John F. Williams Sr., immediate past president of the American College of Cardiology, has joined the staff of the medical school as a professor of medicine and will be chief of the cardiology section of the V.A. Medical Center. He also will be a senior research investigator at the Krannert Institute of Cardiology. Dr. Williams is a 1956 graduate of the medical school and has completed fellowships in cardiology at the med center and the National Institutes of Health. In 1965 he served here as an assistant professor, then as associate professor of medicine and chief of cardiovascular research at V.A. Before his return to campus, he was at the University of Texas. Dr. Williams is the fifth current IU faculty member to have served as president of the American College of Cardiology. The other four are Dr. Charles Fisch, distinguished professor of medicine; Dr. Suzanne B. Knoebel, Herman C. and Ellnora D. Krannert professor of medicine; Dr. Bill L. Martz, professor of medicine, and Dr. Borys Surawicz, professor of medicine.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Nice Going--Our Office of Publications, under the direction of Noel H. Duerden, has won another national award. This time it's from the NUCEA, National University Continuing Education Association, for the Christmas card done for Independent Study. The other award was for the Viewbook.

Artist/Alum Show--Herron graduate Gloria Fischer has an exhibit at the Editions Limited Gallery, Inc., along with L. Brent Kington. Runs through April 20.

Chemistry Seminar--D.F. Evans, Chemical Engineering Dept., U. of Minnesota, presents "Video Enhanced Microscopy of Biological and Synthetic Colloids," April 10, 4:30 p.m., KB 231.

Wishard Passes Muster--Wishard Hospital was recently awarded maximum accreditation (three years) by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, certifying that the hospital provides a standard and quality of care that is consistent with accredited hospitals nationally.

On Sex And Gender--Florence Juillerat, assistant professor, biology; adjunct professor, Women's Studies, presents "Sex and Gender Generalizations from Animals: Undoing the Damage" on April 16, noon, CA 537. Brown Bag Series.

"Dallas" Star to Join Quayle--TV series star and Hoosier-born Ken Kercheval will be the guest speaker at the 1985 Voluntarism--Opportunities for Leadership and Service (VOLS) conference sponsored annually by Senator Dan Quayle. Koala Center is co-sponsor of the conference set for April 13 on campus. To register or more info, call 269-5555.

Pathology Seminar--George Sandusky, DVM, Ph.D., senior pathologist, director of Immunocytochemistry Lab, Eli Lilly & Co., presents "Immunocytochemistry: Techniques and Inherent Problems in Tumor Diagnosis," April 11, noon, UH N436.

Wishard Will Benefit--Proceeds from St. Margaret's Hospital Guild 1985 Show House, the Booth Tarkington home, will benefit Wishard. Showing is April 28-May 12. For tickets, call 283-SHOW.

Microbiology/Immunology Seminar--Robert H. Schloemer, Ph.D., Dept. of Microbiology and Immunology, IU School of Medicine, presents "Interactions Between Hepatitis B Virus and Interferon," April 11, 4 p.m., MS 205.

Problem: IU+PU=IUPUI--Dr. Maynard K. Hine, chancellor emeritus, a man who remembers it well, will present "Problems Associated with Merging Two State Universities" on April 9, 10:30 a.m.-noon, University Library, Room 318. Part of the ongoing series celebrating Archives' 10th anniversary.

Sigma Xi Forum--The graduate student research forum and competition, sponsored by Sigma Xi honorary scientific research society, is April 17, 2-6 p.m., MS A506/518.

April 11 Deadline--Graphic artists have until April 11 to present a portfolio in order to be considered a competitor in the 1985 Cathedral Arts poster contest. For more, call 637-4574.

Honors Banquet Set--The 11th Annual IUPUI Honors Banquet, sponsored by Student Assembly, is April 13, 6 p.m., Union Building cafeteria. Student tickets, $3.75; non-students, $6.75--advance sales only. Call Ext. 3907.

DR. GRIFFIN'S GUIDELINES FOR HELPING SEIZURE VICTIMS

Recent reports of people having seizures prompted Acting Dean of Student Affairs Patricia Boaz to seek professional guidelines for helping them. Following is the advice of L.G. Griffin, M.D., IUPUI Student Health Center:

First, remember that most seizures are short-lived and abate within seconds or a few minutes. The head of a seizure victim should be protected and can be done by placing the person prone on the floor or ground. If possible, tongue biting should be prevented by placing a firm (not hard) object between the jaws. Avoid placing your fingers in the victim's mouth. Do not attempt to give seizure victim fluids or medication by mouth, and do not attempt to "stop" the seizure. Attempt only to prevent bodily injury. Some seizure patients lose control of bladder and/or bowels during an attack and helping the person to the restroom after the seizure is appropriate. A person may or may not feel ill following a seizure. If a seizure persists for up to four or five minutes, a visit to a private physician, the Student Health Clinic (Ext. 8216) in Coleman Hall or Wishard's emergency room is recommended. Call a Wishard ambulance at 630-7111. The patient should be advised that transportation is at his/her own expense. Patients may decline this service. In an uncommon situation (medical emergency) where the seizure persists, the victim should be transported to Wishard as quickly as possible. If you need more information, call the Student Health Clinic.

POSITION AVAILABLE--Lecturer, Writing Program, non-tenurable, three-year appointment with possible renewal. (Will not ordinarily involve participation in department, school or university governance.) Salary $12,000 for ten months; higher if budget permits. Teaching load is 12 hours per semester--six of which may be in courses beyond W001-W131. Qualifications include experience in IUPUI's Writing Program, documented excellence in teaching college composition, a thorough knowledge of process-based language theory, minimum of one graduate composition and rhetoric course. Send application letter and CV by April 12 to Dr. Ron Strahl, director of the Writing Program, CA 502N.

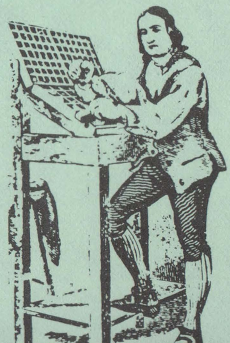

HERRON GOES TO WASHINGTON (STREET) 1985

Herron School of Art students and faculty will take over all seven floors of the huge Selig Building, Goodman QUAD, 20 West Washington St., for a show featuring paintings, sculpture and drawings. The "Herron Goes to Washington" exhibit is sponsored by the school, IUPUI and Goodman QUAD/Goodman Jewelers. Grand opening is April 26 from 8-11 p.m. The show runs through May 4, Tuesday through Saturday, 11 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

GIFT HELPS OPHTHALMOLOGY TAKE OUT BIFOCAL 'LINES'

The Dept. of Ophthalmology recently received a donation of a multifocal demonstration set from the Multi-Optics Corporation, Foster City, Calif. The set is designed to show patients different types of lenses for their special fitting requirements. It also makes it possible for patients with presbyopia (farsightedness) who need bifocals or trifocals to have lenses made without the definite lines in them.

For your group, a department meeting, conferences or other meetings, the future, the past and several topics that fit in with today's living are included in the 1985 edition of the IUPUI Speaker and Program Guide. The 40-page guide is a service of the university and is available at no charge by calling Publications and Information Services, Ext. 2101.

MEETINGS TO FOCUS ON HYPERTENSION AND GYNECOLOGIC ONCOLOGY

Two medical conferences, one on the controversy over the treatment of mild hypertension on April 10, the other on the newest developments of gynecologic oncology on April 12, will feature experts in the fields. The mild hypertesion conference is in Wishard's Myers Auditorium and will feature nationally known experts in cardiovascular disease, Dr. Donald B. Hunninghake, associate professor of medicine and pharmacology at the U. of Minnesota, and Dr. Norman L. Lasser, associate professor of medicine, U. of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. IU School of Medicine faculty who will participate are Dr. Myron Weinberger, professor of medicine and director of the Hypertension Research Center, and Dr. August M. Watanabe, professor and chairman of the Dept. of Medicine and professor of pharmacology. Obstetricians and oncologists from Indiana and nearby states will meet at the Airport Holiday Inn to discuss the newest developments in surgical, chemotherapy and radiation treatments for gynecological malignancies. Sponsors are the American Cancer Society, Indiana Div. and the Marion County Cancer Society (Little Red Door). Presenters are the IU Departments of Radiation Oncology and Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Need Physicians: Physicians are needed for medical coverage of the AUL-Governor's Cup Runs. Nine runs are set for: Lafayette, April 6; Brown County, April 20; Mounds, May 18; Indiana Dunes, June 1; Harmonie, June 15; White Water, July 20; Pokagon, Aug. 17; Shakamak, Sept. 7, and Potato Creek, Sept. 21. If you would like to help, call Dr. Amy Fremion, Ext. 8747.

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Natatorium Notes--Swimming lessons for beginner adults and little people, diving lessons, jogging, master's track and field training and fun runs are all planned for this month. For dates, times and fees, call Ext. 3517.

Remind 18-Year-Olds--The two million young men in this country who have 30 days after their 18th birthday to register with Selective Service should be reminded that it's the law to do so.

Ad Space Limited--The Div. of Continuing Studies is getting together its fall catalog that reaches more than 250,000 folks here and in the surrounding counties. This is a self-supporting component of IUPUI. Call Harriett Bennett, Ext. 4501.

Health Librarians Meeting--The annual meeting of Indiana Health Science Librarians Association, "Directions '85," is April 18-19 and features Herbert S. White, author of "Managing the Special Library." Call (219) 424-6664.

Save Those Heinz Baby Jar Labels--The Cheer Guild turns Heinz baby food labels into useful projects for people large and small in our hospitals. Send just the label--not the jar--to Riley, Room 403. The Guild celebrates Chapter/Founder's Days on April 16. For reservations, send your $7 for lunch to the address above.

Medicine's Changing Trends--Former Surgeon General of the U.S. Air Force Lt. General (retired) Paul W. Myers presents "Changing Trends in Medicine" on April 12, noon, Regenstrief auditorium. Sponsor is the Medical Officer Training Corps, IU School of Medicine. All welcome, no charge.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

(ARCH-800321)

ARCHIVES
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
420 BLAKE ST