

volume eleven, number forty-seven

november 29, 1981

FINAL REPORT

Final report of the United Way fund drive finds the IUPUI campus way over the top, according to Ken Beckley, director of University Relations and campus campaign head. A total of 2,871 faculty and staff members have given cash and pledges amounting to $120,363.76. Last year 2,603 people gave $107,005.34.

KINSEY SYMPOSIUM SET

The life and times of Alfred Kinsey will be explored this week at a special symposium, "Kinsey as an American Cultural Figure," to be held Thursday by the IUPUI Center for American Studies.

Regina Markell Morantz, associate professor of history at the University of Kansas and a recognized American scholar on feminism and science will be a special guest for roundtable discussions from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in Room 318 of the University Library, when invited participants will discuss previously submitted questions that focus on Kinsey and his sex research, plus the awareness of human sexuality more generally in the American cultural experience.

The afternoon session will be followed by a 5 p.m. reception and 6:30 p.m. dinner in the Union Building. Faculty and staff members interested in attending the afternoon reception or dinner should call the Center for American Studies, ext. 3759, by noon Wednesday.

"The Scientist as Sex Crusader" will be the topic for Morantz at a free public lecture at 8:30 p.m. in Lecture Hall, Room 104. The entire Kinsey program is being held to commemorate the latest publication of the Alfred C. Kinsey Institute for Sex Research: Sexual Preference: Its Development in Men and Women (I.U. Press, 1981). One of its authors, Sue Kiefer Hammersmith, is an assistant professor of sociology at IUPUI and a member of the executive board of the Center for American Studies.

REMEMBER THE MADRIGAL DINNERS

Remember the pageantry, song and fellowship of the annual Madrigal Dinners to be held at the Union Building at 7 p.m. this Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Tickets are $8.50 and may be purchased at the Union Building ticket office. For reservations or more information, call ext. 7685.

TO REVIEW DEAN'S PERFORMANCE

Dr. J. Marvin Ebbert, chairman of Learning Resources, ext. 7442, and Dr. Richard H. Turpin, engineering, 38th Street campus, 923-1321, ext. 277, are IUPUI representatives named to a committee to review the performance of K. Gene Faris, dean for Learning Resources, by I.U. Executive Vice President W. George Pinnell. The committee is soliciting the views of those who work with the Learning Resources Department and Dean Faris.

There are many in the I.U. system who have direct knowledge of Learning Resources and Dean Faris that they may wish to share with the committee. Such persons are invited to get in touch with the committee to arrange an interview, or a written statement may be submitted which will be held in confidence. The committee would like to hear by Dec. 15. Call a committee member or send your statement to the committee chairman in AO Building, Room 124, IUPUI.

ARBUCKLE HEADS GIFT LIFT

Katherine Arbuckle, a public accountant, has been appointed volunteer chairperson for Gift Lift, the traditional program of the Mental Health Association in Marion County to bring Christmas warmth to patients in the county's psychiatric facilities. Her committee will collect, wrap and distribute over 10,000 gifts to the patients.

Gifts, which should be new and unwrapped, may be left at collection depots at all Indianapolis city fire stations, selected suburban fire stations, and in the lobby of the Indianapolis Power and Light Company on Monument Circle. Wrapping headquarters is at the Association offices, 1433 North Meridian Street, from 9 a.m. to noon Monday through Friday. Volunteers "shop" for patients, attempting to meet needs and desires of each patient as indicated by the staff of the institutions. At Christmas parties held at each facility, the gifts are distributed amid festivities arranged by participating civic organizations.

For additional information or to arrange an interview, contact Lowell Jackson, program director, Mental Health Association in Marion County, phone 636-2491.

MINI-CALENDAR

What's on WAT -- "Management of the Infant with Cleft Palate," another in "The Newborn" series with Drs. Marilyn J. Bull, Bernard L. Swartz, Theodore R. Lynch and Richard L. Schreiner, providing the clinician with information concerning the management of the baby and family after the birth of an infant with cleft lip and/or palate. I.U. School of Medicine medical television, with "talkback," noon Tuesday. The program will be repeated at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday and at noon and 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Top-of-the-News Topic -- All interested persons are invited to Jan Shipps' American religion class Tuesday to hear Jon Walters discuss "The Electronic Church." An expert in this field, Walters is executive director of the Indiana Commission on Human Equality. Room 237, Cavanaugh Hall, 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Chemical -- "Synthesis and Biological Actions of Brain Hormones and Their Analogs," Chemistry Department Seminar by Dr. Arno Spatola of the University of Louisville; Room 231, Krannert Building (38th Street campus), 4:30 p.m. Wednesday. Coffee and refreshments 4 p.m., Room 249.

Biochemical -- "Structure and Regulation of Vertebrate Protein Phosphatases," Department of Biochemistry Seminar by Dr. J. Gordon Foulkes, Department of Biochemistry, University of Dundee; Room B26, Medical Science Building, noon Wednesday. Coffee and tea 11:30 a.m., Room 409.

Visiting Professor -- Dr. Daniel Shannon of the Massachusetts General Hospital will be Visiting Professor at the Riley Hospital for Children Wednesday. He will discuss sudden infant death syndrome and apnea of infancy at Pediatric Grand Rounds at noon in the Meiks Conference Room in Riley. Different aspects of the same topics will be presented at 3 p.m. in Fesler Hall, Hurty Hall C. All physicians are welcome to attend both talks. There is no registration fee.

Faculty Council Meets -- IUPUI Faculty Council will meet in Room 116 of the Law School at 3:30 p.m. Thursday.

"Report from Poland" -- Talk by Tom Fedor, director of International Programs for IUPUI, at the next luncheon-meeting of the University Faculty Club, Lilly Room, Student Union, noon Thursday. Dr. Fedor has just returned from two years in Warsaw.

Biophysical -- "The Role of Calcium in Transmitter Release from Motor Nerve Endings: Effect of Cadmium and Lead Ions," by Dr. Richard S. Manalis, Biological Sciences, IU-PU Fort Wayne; Room 205, Medical Sciences Building, noon Friday.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

The Warsaw Uprising -- A slide-film lecture on "The Warsaw Uprising -- 1944" will be presented by Jerzy Tomaszewski at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Riley-Lilly rooms of the Union Building. Mr. Tomaszewski was the official photographer for the Polish Home Army during the uprising until he was wounded in action. Through seldom seen photos and film, he will recount the heroic struggle of the Polish underground to liberate Warsaw from the occupying German forces. The uprising, ultimately crushed as Soviet armies across the Vistula River refused assistance, resulted in the total destruction of the Polish capital. The lecture is sponsored by the Office of International Programs and the School of Journalism.

New Production -- The Indiana Repertory Theatre again is presenting Charles Dickens' holiday favorite, A Christmas Carol, with a new cast and new staging by Tom Haas, artistic director, and David Adamson, assistant director. It will continue through Dec. 27. Ticket information and reservations are available at the box office, phone 635-5252, 140 West Washington Street.

Advisor/Counselor Trainees -- Graduating college seniors, new graduates and graduate students are invited to apply for the "live-in" Pre-Professional Resident Advisor/Counselor Traineeships offered at the CAREER HOUSE Unit of the Devereaux Foundation in suburban Philadelphia, a multidisciplinary residential and day care treatment and rehabilitation center approved by the American Psychological Association for pre-doctoral internships in clinical psychology and counseling psychology. A combined stipend and allowance of $416.66 per month, housing and meals are offered to qualified applicants who are U.S. citizens, unmarried and at least 22 years of age. Information and applications are available from Dr. Henry Platt, director, Devereaux Foundation, CAREER HOUSE, Devon, Pa. 19333.

Change -- The Computer and Information Science Department has moved from Krannert Building Room 018 to Krannert Building Room 060 (where Evening Administration was located). The department telephone number is 923-1321., ext. 353.

Position Available -- Chairperson, IUPUI Department of Sociology. Associate or full professor. Ph.D. in sociology, considerable teaching experience, established scholarly reputation, skills in interpersonal communication required. Administrative experience desirable. Responsibilities include supervision of faculty (12 full-time, several part-time), instruction, curriculum development (undergraduate, looking toward a graduate program), budget management, support of faculty scholarly endeavors, promotion of effective relationships with related academic units and surrounding urban community. Send curriculum vitae and names of three references to: Prof. Linda Haas, chairwoman, search and screen committee, Department of Sociology, IUPUI, 925 West Michigan Street, Indianapolis 46202. Deadline Feb. 15, 1982. Position begins July 1. Equal opportunity employer.

"Patchwork" -- A story of three generations of frontier women by Indianapolis Playwright Sharon Hatton, a student of Dr. Sam Smiley of the I.U. Bloomington Theater Department, is being presented by the Broad Ripple Playhouse, 916 East Westfield Boulevard, through Dec. 12. Showtimes are Thursday-Saturday, 8 p.m., and Sunday, 6 p.m. For tickets call 253-2072.

It's That Time Again -- "The Sounds of Christmas," an annual program of food and song sponsored by the IUPUI Music Program and the Student Union Building, is scheduled this year for Thursday, Dec. 10, in the Union Building Cafeteria. The traditional turkey-and-all-the-trimmin's dinner, plus seasonal selections by the New York Street Singers (directed by Charles Manning), plus the special guest -- Santa Claus -- are on the agenda. Dinner ($3.75) will be served from 6 to 7:15 p.m. and the concert will start at 7:30 p.m.

Christmas Tree Sale to Benefit "Our House" -- "Our House," otherwise known as the Ronald McDonald House, a home-away-from-home for patients at Riley Hospital and their families now under construction on Michigan Street across from Ball Residence, will benefit from a Christmas tree sale being held by the Northwest Indianapolis Kiwanis. The trees are Indiana-grown Scotch Pines, from five and one-half to seven feet tall, sold on a presale basis for $13. Orders may be placed with a Northwest Indianapolis Kiwanian or by calling Dan Brackemyre at 873-3774, or Buck Buckner at 745-3410. Pick up is in the Kroger parking lot at 96th and Meridian streets from 4 to 9 p.m. Thursday and Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday (Dec. 3, 4, 5). Trees will be sold on-site for $15.

Notice to Grantees -- The Office of Research and Sponsored Programs will close for the holidays at 5 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 24, and reopen at 8 a.m. Monday, Jan. 4. Grant applications having an agency receipt date of Jan. 8 or earlier must be received by Research and Sponsored Programs no later than Friday, Dec. 18. No arrangements will be available for processing applications during the holiday period. Anyone anticipating difficulty in meeting the Dec. 18 deadline should contact Research and Sponsored Programs immediately, ext. 8285.