

green sheet

C1

volume fifteen, number 32

september 29, 1985

LANTZ LEAVING WITH HIGHEST RED CROSS HONOR

Neil Lantz, director of Administrative Affairs on our campus, will be leaving us in a few months for a new career in business, and he will be taking with him the highest honor that can be given a man by the Indianapolis Area Chapter of the American Red Cross. An 11-year member of the Red Cross, Neil was recognized during the chapter's 69th annual meeting last week as a dedicated man who gives up personal time to aid victims of small and large disasters. He has headed many committees and is vice president of the board of directors of the chapter. Last year he founded a Red Cross chapter on campus. He does all this with "sensitivity, humor, dedication and thoughtfulness"--like the 40-year Red Cross volunteer, Charles J. Lynn, for whom the award is named. After 24 years in secondary and higher public education in Indiana, Lantz begins a more private career as sales supervisor for A.H.M. Graves Realtors. In announcing his resignation to Vice President Glenn W. Irwin, Jr., Lantz said his decision to leave IUPUI after 18 years was "difficult." He added that he is excited with the prospect of a new career.

✂ Funding Phone Correction--The deadline nears for Lilly Endowment Faculty Open Fellowships and many other internal funding opportunities. If you tried to call for forms and information using the number in last week's Green Sheet--you did not reach Research and Sponsored Programs. The correct person to call is Ann Kratz. The correct number is Ext. 8285.

'THE STATE OF BEING HUMAN' ON THE CIRCLE

City folks, visitors and campus people who would like to lunch and listen at the City Center on Monument Circle every Wednesday at noon from now until Nov. 20 will hear discussion on such topics as future foods, future moms (will they be obsolete?), what computers do to us, leisure time and the future itself. The Humanities Mini-Series on the Circle is presented by the IUPUI Institute for Humanities Research and the Indianapolis City Center. First in the series on Oct. 2 is Frances Dodson Rhome, Ph.D., director of the Institute and professor of English, and Kenneth L. Gladish, executive director, Indiana Committee for the Humanities, which made the series possible. Their topic is the basic concerns of "New Technologies and Their Impact on the Fabric of Hoosier Society." Bring lunch--coffee and tea are free.

ESPAÑOL, DEUTSCH AND FRANCIAS SET FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Parents can enroll their children ages 5 to 14 in IUPUI's new foreign language school for children which will offer Spanish, German and French on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., Oct. 5 through Nov. 14. Classes will be in the Mary Cable Building on Blackford Street. Sponsor is the Foreign Language Outreach Programs in the School of Liberal Arts. For information or registration call the director, Larbi Oukada, Ext. 2812 or Ext. 8419.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

No Dull Maps Ours--Our campus map featuring the IUPUI Parkers has won the "Arnold's Admirables," award from the Ragan Report, a rag much like the Green Sheet for PR people, et al. The map was designed Diane Alfonso in Publications under the direction of Noel Duerden. "Will" Hanshew from Parking and Transportation wanted a "fun" map and he got it. Only 10 of the 200 entries won. Selection of the best non-periodicals was based on creativity, design, execution and communication.

Learn About Rehab--The first in a series of brown bag rehabilitation research seminars is Oct. 4. Campus and community people invited. Vera S. Maass, Ph.D., Living Skills Institute, will speak on "Addressing Sexual Dysfunction with a Focus on the Handicapped," noon-1 p.m., KB 053.

Topic Picking--"The Black Death: How I Choose a Research Topic" is the subject of a University Writing Center workshop on Oct. 2, 1-2 p.m., CA 427.

Women 'n' Business--Div. of Continuing Studies is offering "How to Start a Woman-Owned Business" on Oct. 22, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Sheraton Meridian. Topics will include legal needs, loans, finances, insurance, location researching and more. For fees and registration, call Ext. 4784.

Industrial Update--An industrial update seminar series, sponsored by Purdue's Continuing Engineering Education Office, will be offered via television to all students and faculty from 1 p.m.-2:20 p.m. in KB 257 every Tuesday through Nov. 19. Next in the series on Oct. 1 is "Machinery Noise Deficit: Are Quiet Machines in Our Future?" with Robert J. Bernhard and J. Stuart Bolton, Herrick Labs, School of Mechanical Engineering.

Focus on Family Issues--A large conference of family life experts will be here Oct. 24-27 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. Sponsor is Family Service America. Title is "Unity in Diversity: The State of Families." For rates, schedule or more info, call James Miller, Family Service Association, 634-3347.

Biochemistry Seminar--Dr. Howard Zalkin, professor of biochemistry, Dept. of Biochemistry, Purdue U., speaks on "Study of Enzyme Function by Site-Directed Mutagenesis" on Sept. 30, 4 p.m., MS 326. Coffee/tea, 3:30 p.m., MS 321.

Opera for All--Beginning with Johann Strauss' "Die Fledermaus" (The Bat), IU Opera Theater opens its season of classics, Broadway musicals and operatic premieres. "Die Fledermaus" has performances Sept. 28, Oct. 4-5 and Oct. 12. Season and single tickets are on sale. Call the Musical Arts Center box office, noon-4:45 p.m., Mon.-Fri., 335-7433.

International Fun--Food, unique gifts just in time for Christmas shopping and entertainment that includes a Chinese Magic Review, a steel band from Trinidad, a naturalization ceremony and merriment in the Cabaret are all offered in the 1985 International Festival, Oct. 25-27 in the Indiana Convention Center. See you there.

Forum--Women's Studies present Priscilla Crawford, Ph.D. speaking on the subject of "Feminization of the Workplace" on Oct. 1, noon-1 p.m., CA 438.

Intercollegiate Athletics--Come and watch our athletes play on campus. On Sept. 27 the tennis teams play IU-Southeast at 3 p.m. in the Sports Center. The volleyball bunch plays Mt. St. Joseph's and U. of Southern Indiana on Sept. 28 at noon in the School of P.E. There's lots more. Call Ext. 3764 for a schedule.

Auditions--CTS' Repertory Theatre has auditions for "Mr. Scrooge" on Oct. 7-8, Room 122, Christian Theological Seminary. Call Edith Bruce, 924-1331, Ext. 139.

EDUCATION VIPS TO HEAR FUTURE OF TEACHERS AND EDUCATION

The School of Education is sponsoring two workshops in which the newest ways to improve the quality and achievement level in state education will be discussed with alumni, business and community leaders, as well as school superintendents and school board members. Other subjects will include reform of teacher education, competency testing for teachers and the legislative forecast for education. Panelists include H. Dean Evans, superintendent of state public education; Gerald Marker, professor of education and director of the Coalition of Teacher Education Programs; Edward Robbins, associate professor of education and director of the Measurement and Evaluation Center for Reading Education; Charles Fields, executive director of the Indiana Superintendents Association; Howard Mehlinger, dean of the School of Education. The first workshop, for the School of Education Alumni Association, is Oct. 15 from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the E/S Building, fourth floor commons area. The second is Oct. 16, 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. in the Sheraton Meridian Hotel. (Alumni can make reservations by calling Ext. 8828.)

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Employee Savvy--The next orientation for new employees at IUPUI is Monday, Oct. 7, 9 a.m.-11 a.m., in Fesler Hall, Hurty C. Personnel would like to see you there.

Fete for Grads--The annual fall reception for Graduate School students in scientific disciplines is Oct. 2, 3:30 p.m.-5:30 p.m., Fesler Hall, Room 319. Sponsor is Sigma Xi, Zacharie Brahmi, Ph.D., president.

Food and Furs--The Network of Women in Business welcomes you to a scholarship benefit party at L.S. Ayres downtown, third floor, on Oct. 10 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Two fashion shows, food, music and fur modeling are planned. Reservations due Oct. 4. Call 636-6059.

Artsy/Crafty Types--Artists and craftsman can enter work in the third annual YMCA Flat Rock River Camp Fall Festival in St. Paul, Ind., on Oct. 13. Call 635-5417.

Human Service Service--The Indiana Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers invites all human service professionals to a workshop, "Innovations in Marital and Family Therapy" on Oct. 4, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Hyatt Regency. Speaker is Peggy Papp, M.S.W., A.C.S.W., "pioneer in the development of sculpting and choreography with couples and families." Call 923-9878.

TechnIQUE Expo--An Artificial Intelligence Exposition, sponsored by the Indiana Corporation for Science and Technology, is Oct. 10 at the Indianapolis Convention Center. Keynote speaker is A.I. expert, Gary Moskovitz from Xerox. Lunch speaker is Harry Pratter, Ph.D., professor emeritus, IU School of Law. For reservations, call 635-3058.

Medical Genetics Seminar--Dr. Edmond Chiu, Dept. of Psychiatry, U. of Melbourne, Australia, speaks on "Neuropsychological Aspects of Huntington's Disease" on Oct. 1, 4 p.m., Riley Research Conference Room 138.

Playshops--The North American Simulation and Gaming Association's 24th annual conference is in Bloomington, Oct. 2-4. Call (812) 335-2536.

Physiology/Biophysics Seminar--Ruth S. Gurd, M.D., professor of biochemistry, IUB, speaks on "Glucagon and Glucagon-Like Peptide Receptors in CNS, Pituitary and Liver" on Oct. 2, 4 p.m., MS 205.

FEMINIST PERSPECTIVE FOCUS OF NEW SERIES

The feminist perspective in research, politics, anthropology, literature, health and nursing are among the topics to be discussed in the 1985-86 Research Seminar Series sponsored by Women's Studies Program at IUPUI. Anne Donchin, assistant professor of philosophy and coordinator of Women's Studies, will begin the series on Oct. 2 with the topic "Research in Feminist Theory." The seminar is from 4 p.m.-5 p.m. in CA 438. All welcome.

***

The Oral Health Research Institute, School of Dentistry, is looking for 100 adults ages 18-30 to participate in a study involving the use of commercially-available toothpastes and a fluoride mouthrinse in order to evaluate their effects on the development of dental plaque and gingivitis (inflammation of the gums). Qualifying volunteers must be available daily and some Saturdays for seven weeks for appointments of 10-15 minutes. Teeth will be cleaned twice during the study and there is no cost to volunteers. Those completing the study will receive $150. For more information, call Ext. 8822, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., weekdays.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

REFERENCE LIBRARIAN, faculty position, IU School of Medicine Library. Requires master's degree from an American Library Association-accredited school. Address inquiries to: Dana McDonald, head, School of Medicine Library, 625 Barnhill Dr., Indianapolis, 46223.

ASSOCIATE DEAN, Research, Development and Resources, IU School of Nursing. For details, contact Dean Elizabeth Grossman, NU 132, Ext. 8637.

RESEARCH ASSOCIATE, part-time, IU School of Nursing. Responsibilities include developing computer-assisted instruction related to perinatal nursing training grant. Prefer MSN in nursing; requires knowledge of computer language and programming skills. Salary $10 per hour. Call Frances Strodbeck, NU 451C, Ext. 4839.

BIG BLOOPERS DEPARTMENT

Portfolio Day: It's important that you "remark" your calendar for Portfolio Day, sponsored by the Herron School of Art and institutions of the National Association of Schools of Art and Design. Art work can be evaluated from noon-4 p.m. on Oct. 5 (not Oct. 15 as it incorrectly said in last week's Green Sheet). Call 923-3651.

Barbara Simonton's Reception: A reception honoring the retirement of Barbara Simonton, Bookstore Textbook Manager, is on Sept. 27 from 2-4 p.m. (not just at 4 p.m.), in the Hoosier Room, Union Building. Come and celebrate with our 20-year employee.

***

More than 450 people are expected to attend the "The Indiana Association for the Education of Young Children" conference and exhibit on campus Oct. 4-5. Sponsor is Continuing Studies. For more, call Cyndi Langel, Ext. 4501.

green sheet

*News Bureau

Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202