

green sheet

8P3
C2

volume eleven, number seven

february 22, 1981

"Genetics, Ethics and Law"

A lecture and panel discussion on "Genetics, Ethics and Law" will feature Dr. Harvey Bender, professor of biology at the University of Notre Dame and adjunct professor of medical genetics at the School of Medicine, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the School of Nursing auditorium. The program is open to all who are interested.

After Dr. Bender's presentation, the issue will be discussed by a panel composed of Dr. William Beranek, associate director of the Holcomb Research Institute at Butler University; Dr. Michael Gemignani, chairman of Mathematical Sciences at IUPUI, and Dr. Alan Shusterman, executive director of the Indiana Committee for the Humanities. The program is sponsored by the I.U. Medical Center Chapter of The Society of the Sigma Xi, scientific honorary.

Well known in the field of genetics, Dr. Bender is the author or co-author of more than 50 papers published in scientific journals. He has been a visiting professor and consultant to many universities and programs. As an adjunct professor of law at Notre Dame, one of his research areas is biomedical legal ethics.

Says Dr. Bender, ". . .man's technological evolution may have outstripped his biological evolution--however, we should and must be able to replace the blind force of natural selection by conscious direction, based on knowledge of nature and based on our own true values."

* * *

Free Film Festival

A free film festival featuring classic films of the early 1900s, which record vanishing ways of life, is being sponsored by the anthropology and geography departments of the School of Liberal Arts. Most of the movies to be shown were made for profit, but have since become priceless historic records.

The festival includes four sessions: Today, Monday, February 23, see listing on Page 2; March 11, April 1, and April 20. They will include documentary films on childhood by Margaret Mead, the migrations of Bakhtiari nomads in Persia, and one of the earliest commercial films to be concerned with native American Indians. For more information call Ext. 2383 or 2602.

* * *

Lt. Gov. John Mutz crowned Sherri Leach, a 21-year-old physical education student, as IUPUI's homecoming queen at Market Square Arena Wednesday.

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY

String Quartet--Berkshire Quartet, 8:30 p.m. Monday, Recital Hall, I.U. Bloomington. "Quartet in D Major" for flute and strings, K.285, Mozart; "Quartet No. 2" Sz. 67, Bartok; and "Quartet in E Minor: Op. 44, No. 2, Mendelssohn. Free.

Continuing--Imagery/Abstraction, a show at the Herron School of Art Gallery dealing with photography, painting and sculpture abstracted from realist images by the individual artists, continues through March 9. Harvey, American theater classic, continues at the Indianapolis Civic Theater on the grounds of the Museum of Art through March 1. Special student rush discount rates available Thursday, February 26, at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, March 1 at 2 p.m. Students with proper student identification may arrive one half hour before curtain time and receive tickets for $2.00.

Awards Luncheon--United Way Annual Meeting Awards Luncheon, noon Monday at the Indianapolis Downtown Hilton Ballroom.

Biochemical--"Phosphoprotein phosphatase in cytosol fraction and that associated with plasma membrane," Biochemistry Seminar by Dr. Masamao Kobayashi, Department of Biomedical Chemistry, University of Nagoya, Japan; Medical Science Building, Room 326, Monday at 4 p.m. Refreshments at 3:30 p.m., Room 409.

Physiological--"Comparative Cardiac Depressive Effects of Pentobarbital and Pentothal at Equivalent CNS Depression," Physiology Department Seminar by Dr. Kenneth A. Haselby, assistant professor of anesthesiology; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Monday at 4 p.m.

Cinematic--"Nanook of the North," depicting the traditional Canadian Eskimo hunter and produced in 1922 by Robert Flaherty will be shown Monday at 4 p.m. in Room 105 of the Lecture Hall as part of the free film festival being sponsored by the anthropology and geography departments.

Ice Capades--Show runs from Tuesday, February 24, through Sunday, March 1, at Market Square Arena with Peggy Fleming, Olympic and World Champion, as special guest star. Performances at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday; matinees on Saturday at 12 noon and 4 p.m., Sunday at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. Special discounts available for youths, senior citizens and groups at select performances. Call 639-4444.

Flight--"Romanticism; The Flight from Reason," study program includes lectures, concerts, films, and a symposium at DeBoest Lecture Hall of the Indianapolis Museum of Art at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday through April 12. Call 923-1331.

International Forum Noon-Hour Series--"Labor Relations in Poland", by Dr. Withold Kiezun, chairman of the Department of Public Administration in the Institute of Management Organization and Development for the Council of Ministers of Poland, from noon to 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Riley Room of the Student Union Building. Dr. Kiezun holds a law degree from Jagiellonian University in Cracow, and a doctorate in economics from the Central School of Planning and Statistics in Warsaw. He has held a number of important posts in the Polish government and the Bank of Poland, and teaching posts in a number of prestigious schools throughout the world. Visitors and guests may purchase their lunch in the mezzanine cafeteria and bring it to the meeting room or bring their own lunch. No reservations are required. The program is sponsored by the IUPUI Office of International Programs and Services and the Council on World Affairs of Central Indiana. For further information call Ext. 7294.

Free Teaching Seminar--"What It Means To Be a Teacher," seminar by School of Education Associate Dean Hugh Wolf and David Smith, coordinator of education student services, and practicing teachers, open to anyone interested in a teaching career, 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 305 of the School of Nursing Bldg. For reservations call Paul Gabonay, Office of Career Counseling and Placement, Ext. 2554.

Oncological--"Systemic Therapy of Bladder and Prostate Cancer," Grand Rounds in Oncology by Dr. Steven Williams; Radiation Therapy Building, Room R-104, Wednesday at 11 a.m. Open to all residents and medical, dental and nursing students.

Romantics to Rodin--The most comprehensive exhibition of French nineteenth-century sculpture ever organized, Indianapolis Museum of Art, Wednesday through April 26.

Black Heroes/Heroines--Malcolm X--presentation and film sponsored by the Black Student Union and the Black Life Academy, Lecture Hall, Room 102, Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

Chemical--"Turning Water into Wine," Chemistry Department Seminar by Dr. Dudley Herron, Purdue University; Krannert Building, Room 231, Wednesday at 4:30 p.m.

Basic Supervision--"Time Management," one of five programs presented by Personnel Services designed to improved individual performance as a supervisor; School of Nursing Building, Room 211, Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Pharmaceutical--Pharmacy display, University Hospital, Wednesday, Beecham Laboratories.

Over the Bounding Main (Sort Of)--USCG course on Sailing and Seamanship for the beginner starts Thursday in Lecture Hall 102 from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The course continues on Thursday nights for about 11 weeks. The text is about $6; there is no charge for the course. For information, call Prof. R. C. Eggleton at Ext. 4386.

Biophysical--"High Frequency Genetic Recombination by Protoplast Fusion in Streptomyces," Medical Biophysics Program Seminar by Dr. Richard Baltz, Eli Lilly & Co.; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Friday at noon.

Reno Nite--The 14th Annual "Reno Nite" begins with a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the Hoosier Room in the Student Union Building. Reservations for dinner may be made by calling Ext. 3931. Cost of the dinner ($6.00) includes $10,000 in special IUPUI currency for use in "casino gambling" and an auction. Reservations are not necessary for "gambling" or the following dance with music by Tuxedo Junction. Originated by the Student Activities Board, this annual fun night for students, staff and faculty members and their families and friends is being continued by Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity.

Coming Attractions--Physiology Seminar entitled: "Non-Traditional Roles for Peripheral Noradrenergic Sympathetic Nerve Fibers: Innervation of Thymus, Spleen, Appendix and Liver," by Dr. David Felton, associate professor of anatomy, Medical Science Building, Room 205, next Monday (March 2) at 4 p.m. Center for American Studies--will host a Collegial Conversation with Tometro Hopkins (English Department) to discuss her research on Afro-American language on the Sea Islands of South Carolina. Interested faculty members are invited to attend and participate in this informal discussion. Refreshments will be served. 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 3, Cavanaugh Hall, Room 208.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Weather or Not--In spite of last week's warm spell, this season generally provokes a barrage of queries as to whether classes are being held at IUPUI. The News Bureau notifies all radio and television stations in the metropolitan area if classes are to be canceled and they put out the word. If you cannot get the word from listening to the radio or watching television, now you may pick up your telephone and dial 264-IUPU (264-4878) and an automatic tape recording will let you know if classes have been canceled. The dial 264-IUPU method will work for day and night classes (including Learn and Shop) Monday through Friday. Weekend College students will rely on radio and television reports as usual. The tape will be changed as conditions change.

Learning Resources Symposium--"What Research Says About Good Teaching", by Dr. Harold Hodgkinson, executive director of the Professional Institute of the American Management Associations, will be the highlight of the general session of the Annual Learning Resources Committee Symposium scheduled for all day Friday, March 13, in the School of Nursing auditorium. Presentors from the Indianapolis and Bloomington campuses will lead 17 different workshop sessions during the day. Dr. J. Marvin Ebbert, associate professor of education and director of Learning Resources, and Dr. James Roche, professor of pedodontics and chairman of the committee, advise early registration. Other details or a request for copies of the preliminary announcement already mailed out may be made by calling Ext. 7442. The completed form indicating choice of sessions must be returned to accomplish actual registration.

Acting Director--Frank Blaudow, director of building services, will serve as acting director of physical plant until an appointment is made on a permanent basis, it has been announced by Neil E. Lantz, director of administrative affairs. Dan Adams has been named acting assistant director of physical plant responsible for building services.

Positions Available--Physical Therapy Program academic clinical coordinator with rank of instructor or assistant professor. Teaching in areas of expertise and interest. Minimum requirements: three years clinical experience including clinical teaching, licensed or eligible in Indiana. Completion or progress toward a master's degree in an area related to physical therapy preferred. Send cv by March 15 to Professor Becky Porter, chairman, Physical Therapy Program Search and Screen Committee, Division of Allied Health Sciences, I.U. School of Medicine, Coleman Hall 326, 1100 West Michigan Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46223. Faculty opening, Graduate Program, Department of Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing. Available Fall semester, 1981-82. Doctorate preferred. Contact Dr. Helen Dorsch, associate dean, graduate programs, School of Nursing, Room 408.

Retiring--Rosemary L. Davis, LPN in Surgical Nursing, with 18 years of service, and Clara M. Loviscek, night auditor for the Union Building, with 22 years of service, both will retire February 28. Ms. Loviscek plans to pursue her watercolor and oil painting and do some part time work. Ms. Davis adds flower growing and needle work to these activities. John F. Curry, sheet metal mechanic with the Physical Plant, will retire April 1 after 15 1/2 years with the University. He will visit his family in Arizona and Florida and do some improvement on the homefront.

Report--Dr. Lehman Adams, co-chairman of the Tanselle-Adams Commission, will discuss that body's activities on Wednesday, March 12, from noon to 1:30 p.m. in Room S115 of the School of Dentistry. The Commission is investigating the issue of police use of deadly force.

Recruiters--Job-seeking IUPUI students will be interviewed by recruiters from steel, chemical and shipbuilding companies, banks, accounting firms and others throughout February and March. Students interested in meeting with recruiters must establish a placement file with the IUPUI Office of Career Counseling and Placement. For more information call Ext. 2554.

Auditions--Open auditions for the award-winning play "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds" will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday by the University Theater in Room 011 of the Marott Building, 902 North Meridian Street. For more information call the IUPUI Theater, Ext. 2094.

Closed--The University Post Office will not open until 9:30 a.m. Thursday.

Last Call for Volunteers--Faculty members in the Department of Prosthodontics at the School of Dentistry are conducting a complete denture study for two to four years. They need people who have worn complete dentures (full upper and full lower) for two or more years. Participants must be in reasonably good health. For information, call Erna Martin at Ext. 8322 between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Editorial--Dr. Douglas P. Zipes, professor of medicine and director of cardiovascular research, was the author of an editorial, "New Approaches to Antiarrhythmic Therapy," published in the February 19 issue of The New England Journal of Medicine.

Trustees Reaffirm Collegial Model of Governance--On February 7, the I.U. Trustees unanimously passed a resolution which states, in part:

". . .we have concluded that collective bargaining is not an acceptable alternative to the present relationship. . .because(1) collective bargaining does not provide positive benefits to the university, nor to the faculty, and (2) the collegial model of governance is superior to any known alternative, including collective bargaining, for a university like ours. Therefore, we affirm our support of the present system of governance which, we strongly believe, serves the best interest of the university and the constituencies it serves, the faculty, the administration, the students, the alumni and the citizens of the State of Indiana."

Visitors--Dr. Lynton Robins, who lectures in British Politics, and Dr. Martyn Denscombe, who specializes in the sociology of British education, will visit IUPUI from March 31 to April 2 to meet with faculty members who are interested in discussing self-assessment by university students. They also will be available to lecture in their fields. Interested faculty members should contact Dr. Patrick J. McGeever, Political Science Department, Ext. 7547 (messages Ext. 7387).

Trustee Update--At their February meeting at IUPUI, the I.U. trustees approved the appointment of Dr. Martel Zeldin as chairman of the Department of Chemistry at the Purdue School of Science at IUPUI effective May 1. Dr. Zeldin comes to IUPUI after 13 years at the Polytechnic Institute of New York where he was associate professor and deputy head of the chemistry department. The trustees also named John C. Aplin Jr. as chairman of the MBA program, replacing Daniel W. DeHayes Jr. who has been named associate dean for Academic Computing, Research and Graduate Development. He retains his appointment as professor of business logistics in the School of Business. . .The trustees also approved the appointment of Dr. Dietrich C. Bauer as acting chairman of the Department of Microbiology and Immunology. . .Also, Dr. Glenn W. Irwin, Jr., I.U. vice president, and Harry L. Gonso, an I.U. trustee, were announced as I.U. representatives on the board of directors of the Indiana Sports Corporation, a not-for-profit organization that promotes national and international amateur sports competition and athletic events in Indianapolis and central Indiana.

Wins Award--Robert T. Bass of the Building Services Department has been awarded the Administrative Affairs "Extra Mile" Award for the month of February.

Invitation--Members of the faculty and administration of IUPUI who have occasion to go frequently to the Bloomington Campus have been invited to join the University Club and to use the Club rooms while they are in Bloomington. The Club Rooms are located in the Indiana Memorial Union and provide an array of facilities for relaxing and reading. Dues are $5.00 per year plus $1.00 deposit for a key. Interested persons may call Vice President Irwin's office, Ext. 4417, and ask for a membership form.

* * *

DEPT. OF HONORS & ACCOLADES

Elsa F. Kramer, director of student publications, has been named an "Outstanding Young Woman of America for 1980" by the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

IUPUI staff members were recognized for their services and contributions during the recent Martin Luther King Award Dinner, sponsored by the Black Student Union. Among those cited were Shirley Boardman, director of financial aids; Claudette Gar-Lands, adviser in University Division, and Norman Brown, assistant director of admissions.

Joseph A. Koss, director of respiratory therapy, has been elected delegate from the Indiana Society for Respiratory Therapy to the AART House of Delegates. He also served in this capacity in 1974-75.

Dr. Richard H. Childress, associate professor of medicine, has been awarded the first Administrator's "Hands and Heart" Award of the Veterans Administration Medical Center here. Dr. Childress was cited for distinguished performance in exercising professional expertise, in providing emotional support and help and guidance to patients.

Giles R. Hoyt, assistant professor of German, has assumed the presidency of the Indiana Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of German. He also has been elected one of two university faculty advisers to the Indiana Association of Students of German.

Jean E. Schweer, assistant dean of continuing education in the School of Nursing, has been appointed to the Continuing Education Approval Committee of the American Nurses' Association, Inc.

Dr. Samuel S. Patterson, chairman of endodontics in the School of Dentistry, has been reappointed for the second year as dentist-in-residence for the national Veterans Administration Medical Centers. He has been invited by eight V.A. Medical Centers to spend up to three days working with the dental staffs of those centers that are not associated with dental schools.

An administrator and two faculty members of the School of Physical Education were recognized or elected to offices recently in the Indiana State Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. Dean Nicholas Kellum was named president-elect of the organization and Mary M. Kimball was selected vice president of the dance section. Marilyn D. Reinhardt was selected as the outstanding young professional of the year.

IUPUI's Learn & Shop and Weekend College were mentioned on Page 291 of the final report of the Carnegie Council on Policy Studies, Three Thousand Futures: The Next Twenty Years for Higher Education. The inclusion of IUPUI in the report followed Clark Kerr's visit last spring to the Learn & Shop classrooms shortly before the report went to press and the completion of Dr. Kerr's assignment as chairman of the Carnegie Council.

Dr. Richard Curtis, professor of speech-theater-communications, was in Acapulco last December to deliver a paper to the International Congress for Applied Systems Research and Cybernetics. The paper will be included in to the proceedings to be published by Pergamon Press.

Benjamin H. Enockson Breitzkreuz, associate director of the Chaplaincy Department, recently passed his national "boards" for certification as a clinical pastoral education supervisor at their annual convention at New Orleans.

* * *

(FUNK-780801)

SANDRA N FUNK
LIBRARY
420 BLAKE ST