

JAPANESE GIVE GIFTS OF TREES TO HONOR FIVE-YEAR FRIENDSHIP WITH DENTISTRY

There was a tree-planting ceremony recently on campus to honor the 5-1/2 friendship between the Matsumoto Dental College in Japan and the IU School of Dentistry, which began in 1985 as an agreement between the two institutions to promote research and other scholarly activity. A delegation from Japan presented Dean H. William Gilmore with 171 seedlings that include Japanese varieties of buckeye, white birch, mountain cherry, maple and keaki. The remaining trees will be cared for in the IU Bloomington nursery until university landscapers decide on their permanent home. In the photo above, left to right, are Associate Dean Dr. Donald Tharp and Associate Dean Dr. Hala Henderson, both from dentistry; Dr. Hiroshi Yagasaki, visiting researcher and son of Yasushi Yagasaki, founder and president of Matsumoto Dental College; Takuma Takayama, representative from Matsumoto; Dean Gilmore, and Emily Wren, director of campus facility services.

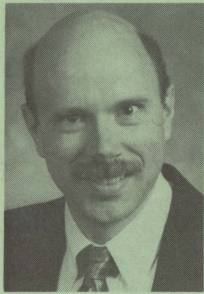

SAFETY FIRST ON THE FOURTH: NO FIREWORKS ON CAMPUS PLEASE

As IUPUI and Indianapolis join the nation July 4 in celebrating 215 years of independence, everyone is reminded that no fireworks will be permitted on campus July 4 or anytime. Lowell Black, director of Fire Protection Services, reminds us that for our own protection, and that of children, the university policy includes not only illegal fireworks, but sparklers and all other "over the counter" fireworks. July 4 is an official university holiday and the libraries, many offices and schools will close. Hospitals, police and other services will remain open and staff who work that day will take the day off at another time. Downtown on the 4th beginning at 2 p.m. there will be a memorial service and parade. The celebration, "Hoosier Hero Homecoming," will honor the military, offer food from more than 40 vendors and will culminate with the traditional fireworks display from atop the INB building at 9 p.m. Harriett Bennett in the Undergraduate Education Center, 4-5037, has more about the Indy July 4 celebration. Happy Holiday.

EDITOR'S NOTE 🎵 This is to remind you that the Green Sheet is on a bimonthly summer schedule. The next issues will be July 7, with a special deadline of 5 p.m., July 1, and July 21, with the regular deadline of 5 p.m. Tuesday (July 16) before the issue. Mail items or address changes to AO 136, FAX 4-5457. The campus calendar will be inserted the first issue of the month. Mail calendar items to UN 115, FAX 4-3322.

CENTER WILL GROW WITH NEW GRANTS FROM LILLY AND OTHERS

DIAL

DONNA

Wise and ethical stewardship of the gifts by the faithful are among economic issues taught to clergy through the national center for Economic Education for the Clergy (EEC) on campus. The center recently announced a new three-year development grant of $169,000 from Lilly Endowment, Inc. which will be used to expand operations and programs to educate clergy on economic issues that affect their congregations, other institutions, and secular arenas of politics, business and sociology, where the clergy also serve. "Historically, ministers, priests, rabbis and others have had no real opportunity for education in economics. This grant will help us expand our outreach and develop programs for clergy of all faiths," said Donna K. Dial, president of EEC and associate professor of economics at IUPUI. The new grant is in addition to Lilly Endowment contributions of more than $18,500. EEC also received a $10,000 grant from the John Templeton Foundation and another $5,600 gift from Chevron USA, Inc. The EEC does not accept gifts from any group with religious ties. Assisting Dial is Jerry Donna, vice president and secretary-treasurer of EEC. Dorane Fredland is project director for grants and Rita Hall is administrative secretary. EEC offices are in the Union Building.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Something About June 16--A day to celebrate dad, amateur radio operators, baseball's first squeeze play in 1894, June 16 was also the day in 1976 that the students in Soweto and other places in South Africa began their uprising and prompted the U.N. to declare the day ever after "International Day of Solidarity with the Struggling People of South Africa."

Odd Hours--Campus libraries have special hours June 20-June 25. Call before you go.

Zoo Do--There is still time to stop by the natatorium weekdays 9 a.m.-4 p.m. and pick up your $3 tickets to IUPUI Night at the Zoo. It is June 20, 6-10 p.m. and is an evening of fun planned just for us and our families.

100 Reasons Why--The Dept. of Surgery, section of pediatric surgery, is celebrating its 100th (plus) neonatal ECMO patient with a reception June 28, 2-4 p.m. at Riley Hospital in the fifth floor crosswalk. ECMO stands for Extra Corporeal Membrane Oxygen, a procedure critical to the care of premature newborns.

Mental Notes--The Dept. of Psychiatry welcomes all to the following continuing medical education events. On June 20 at noon in the PR conference room John I. Nurnberger Sr., M.D., distinguished professor of psychiatry, IUSM, presents "The Investigation of Mental Illness through Animal Models." On June 21, Steven Hayes, M.D., Dept. of Psychiatry, U. of Southern California School of Medicine, presents "New Concepts in the Treatment of Bipolar Disorders," and on June 28, Douglas Mullinix, Dept. of Psychiatry, IUMC, presents "Should Non-Physician Mental Health Workers Be Allowed to Prescribe Medications;" both at 11 a.m., Carter Hospital auditorium.

How Sporting of Us--At the track and field the Black Expo 10K run is June 22, the Indianapolis/Scarborough Peace Games Trials are June 25, and the National Turnfest is June 26-30. At the natatorium, the Senior Circuit Swim Meet is June 28-30. Call 4-3517.

Help Yourself--Free lab supplies that include 13 cases of coated/uncoated TLC glass plates, 6 holders and 4 bottles of silica for coating are available by calling MaryAnne Wagner, 4-2848.

WILLIAMS NAMES ACTING DIRECTORS

John Williams, director of Campus Services, announces that Harry Vogel is acting director of IUPUI Bookstores and Terry Waldon is acting director of Mailing Services, both effective June 1. Vogel is a 19-year employee and has extensive experience in Bookstores. He takes over for Joe Fulmer, who left for a position in Florida. Waldon, manager of Mail Center Operations, has an extensive background in diversified management positions. He replaces Jim Geswein who resigned.

NOLTE NOTES PARKING WOES

To make parking as painless as possible, new parking garages are planned and lots are being expanded, but with the construction of the library and SET III and a parking garage set to start between the natatorium and the School of Law, "projects will create a very difficult situation for us this fall," said John Nolte, director of Parking Services. His office is using all available space to accommodate vehicles, including a 500-space expansion of lots on the east edge of campus adjacent to West Street along California Street, north of Michigan Street, and south of the AO Building. Some spaces may open when the new garage east of University Hospital opens in August, Nolte said. A new improved shuttle route should be in service by Aug. 1. Your cooperation and understanding is asked.

GRANTS TO SUPPORT STUDY OF THE WHY AND HOW OF PHILANTHROPY

The IU Center on Philanthropy at IUPUI has awarded grants of between $500 and $5,000 to 44 researchers across the nation in universities, colleges and the philanthropic sector. Their research will relate to fundamental questions about philanthropy, such as why people give time and money; how government, business and non-for-profit sectors interrelate, and what impact religion has. A summary of the researchers' work will become part of a database of national and international scope for use by others studying or teaching about philanthropy. Those on this campus who received grants include Danny Dean, dentistry; Margaret Frisbie, law; David Henry Frisby, University Library; Lisa Elizabeth McGuire, social work; Jennifer Fisk Roneau, history (liberal arts); Philip Scarpino, history; Eric Pumroy, University Library, and J. Roger Ware, psychology (science).--S. Matthys Roob

HYPERTENSION STUDY White adults with high blood pressure are needed for a 10-week outpatient medication study. Participants must be willing to wear an ambulatory blood pressure monitoring device for two 26-hour periods. Medicine and medical care are provided free and persons who qualify will be paid for participation. For more, call Jerrlyn Jones, 4-0791. (Please note that hypertension medication studies often require separation of subjects by age, weight, sex or race.)

NEW PATIENTS WELCOME AT LARUE The Psychiatric Outpatient Clinic of Larue Carter Hospital is accepting applications from prospective patients for evaluation and treatment. Patients should be 18 years old or older and suffer from emotional problems or problems with daily living. Fees are based on a sliding scale, taking into account family size and income. All attempts are made to provide services to patients in financial distress. Call Wynonia Cunningham, 634-8401, Ext. 474.

NEW CAMPUS MAPS READY The new campus map is published and is available at no cost to offices and individuals. Small quantities can be mailed, but orders of more than 100 must be picked up in the Visitor Information Center, Union Building. Call 4-2323.

IUPUI HAS NEW TOLL-FREE NUMBER FOR CALLING FROM LONG DISTANCE

Telecommunications Services has made it possible for staff and faculty to call into campus toll-free from long distance points in Indiana and in the continental U.S., Alaska, Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, Mexico and Canada. The new number for the Direct Inward System Access (DISA) IN-WATS is 1-800-274-8944. The local Indianapolis calling area number remains 274-5575. DISA, also known as Remote Access to IUPUI Telecommunications System, may be used while you are away from campus or the city. DISA should be limited to official university business by faculty and staff only and should not be given to others.

EVENTS FOR NEXT ANNUAL CALENDAR DUE SOON

The annual IUPUI events and monthly calendar will be published by mid-August and can include events in every school, department and unit for the coming year. Forms for listing your event are available in the Internal Communications Office located in IUPUI Visitor Information Center, Union Building lobby. The forms include space for the name, time, date and place of the event and the speaker. They should be returned no later than June 30. The information will automatically be included in the IUPUI Campus Calendar that is available in the campus computing system and also is inserted regularly in the Green Sheet. For forms or more, call 4-2323.

DEADLINE TO ORDER IUPUI YEARBOOK IS JUNE 29

The Circle, IUPUI's "revived" yearbook, has been compiled carefully by an energetic staff who offer you a permanent record of history and activities of staff and students. The Circle can be a handy reference for offices and units, as well as gifts for students, faculty and staff. This is the first time in 11 years that a yearbook has been published and every effort has been made to make it the best one yet. The cost is $25 and orders are due no later than June 29. No extras will be printed.
