

CAMPUS FIRE EXTINGUISHING DEMONSTRATIONS ARE SCHEDULED

The IUPUI Department of Fire Prevention and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration have scheduled outside fire extinguishing demonstrations at several campus locations from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sept. 14 through 18.

These demonstrations will be conducted by a member of the Indianapolis Fire Department Fire Prevention Bureau to give university personnel the opportunity to learn the proper use of fire extinguishers to put out fires. The demonstrations will also show the consequences of using the wrong type of extinguisher on a fire and will address HOME FIRE SAFETY as well.

Being prepared to react to a fire emergency properly and effectively is essential to the success of the IUPUI fire safety program.

For the personal safety of faculty, staff and students in both the medical and academic areas, EVERYONE WHO CAN POSSIBLY FIND THE TIME SHOULD ATTEND THE PROGRAM IN YOUR AREA.

The schedule follows:

- Sept. 14-16 -- Demonstrations will be given on the hour every hour from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. except for 12 noon.
- Sept. 14 -- Place: Lawn south of the new Riley Hospital and north of Lot 16. For: Personnel in Riley, Medical Science Building, Emerson Hall and the School of Nursing.
- Sept. 15 -- Place: Lawn north of the University Hospital service drive and east of the Toxicology Trailer. For: Personnel in University Hospital, Medical Science Research and Emerson Hall.
- Sept. 16 -- Place: Rock area, southwest corner of Fesler Hall. For: Personnel in Long Hospital, Clinical Building, Cottages, Coleman Hall, Fesler Hall and University Services Building.
- Sept. 17 -- When: on the hour every hour from 8 to 11 a.m. Where: North of the University Library and east of Cavanaugh Hall. For: Personnel in Cavanaugh, Engineering and Technology, Library, Lecture Hall and Business/SPEA Building.
- Sept. 17 -- When: On the hour every hour from 1 to 4 p.m. Where: Lawn east of the School of Dentistry. For: Personnel in the Dental School, Oral Health Research and Administration Buildings.
- Sept. 18 -- When: On the hour every hour from 8 to 11 a.m. Where: Lawn east of the Union Building and north of the main sidewalk for the Union Building. For: Personnel in the Union Building, Single Student Dorm and Ball Residence.
- Sept. 18 -- When: On the hour every hour from 1 to 4 p.m. Where: Lawn north of the Rotary Building and east of the sidewalk. For: Personnel in the Rotary Building, Psychiatric Research Building, and Physical Plant.

VISITING PROFESSOR NAMED

Indianapolis businessman Thomas W. Binford has been appointed visiting professor of business administration at Indiana University. He will teach classes at both IUPUI and Bloomington beginning this fall, according to Schuyler F. Otteson, dean of the I.U. School of Business.

Binford is former chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Indiana National Bank and its parent corporation, Indiana National Corporation. He also is a director of several other companies. He has served as chief steward of the Indianapolis 500 Mile Race since 1974, is a director and former president of the United States Auto Club and is active in several national and international racing organizations.

"We are delighted that this leader of the Indiana business community will share his experience and expertise with our students and assist us in working with the Indiana business community," Dean Otteson said. "We believe his contribution to the school will be unique because of the widely varied nature of his entrepreneurial and management activities, ranging from banking and finance to manufacturing to professional sports."

* * *

EXEMPLARY DEVELOPMENTAL PROGRAMS AT IUPUI

A series of meetings, one in each of the next three months, will be held to describe and discuss for faculty and staff members innovative developmental programs now in operation at IUPUI. Sponsored by the Learning Resources Office, each of the programs will be explained by the individual who developed it, and reactors will discuss the pro's and con's of the activity. All three programs will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge at Cavanaugh Hall, Room 507. It is suggested that all who attend bring a bag lunch or use the vending machines in the basement. Coffee will be available.

The series will open Sept. 18, with Dr. James R. Roche, associate dean for faculty development at the School of Dentistry, discussing his program. Reactors will be Dr. Edward C. Moore, IUPUI dean of faculties, and Dr. Ronald Britton, associate professor of education.

A program of academic counseling, or student development, will be presented on Oct. 9 by Dr. Patricia Boaz, associate dean of the School of Science, with Alvin S. Bynum, dean of the University Division, and Dr. Sharon Alger, director of student services for the School of Nursing, as reactors.

Resource Development will be presented on Nov. 13 by Dr. Ronald Margolin, assistant to the dean for grants and administration of the School of Liberal Arts. Reactors will be Dr. Wendell F. McBurney, dean of Research and Sponsored Programs, and Andrea Pactor, assistant to the dean for public affairs and grants at the Herron School of Art.

* * *

NEW PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE

Three publications which always help schools and departments start off the year are available from the Publications Office. A new IUPUI campus map, the 1981-82

Activities Calendar, and the IUPUI Facts booklet are available in quantities for those who have not yet received copies.

The Publications Office will send quantities through campus mail to those who call (ext. 2101) or write (Administration Building, Room 136). Copies also may be picked up in the office.

In addition, the new calendar, which is funded by the I.U. Foundation, is available through Student Services and may be obtained in Cavanaugh Hall.

* * *

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY

Physicists at I.U. -- The vibrations of atoms, which influence much that goes on in our daily lives, will be the center of attention at an International Conference on Phonon Physics at I.U.-Bloomington Monday through Thursday. About 250 scientists from 25 countries will attend. The last conference of this type was held in 1977 in Paris. Sponsors include the International Union of Pure and Applied Physics, the National Science Foundation, the American Physical Society, the U.S. Department of Energy, the U.S. Office of Naval Research, the U.S. Army Research Office, I.U. and the I.U. Department of Physics.

Drop/Add Courses -- Students may drop and add courses with no additional fees Monday through Thursday.

What's on WAT -- "The Newborn: Helping Families Whose Newborns Require Special Care" will be broadcast live by WAT 21 Medical Television at 12 noon Tuesday. Carol Mahan of the Department of Social Work at Riley Hospital will present the first program in a three-part series on some of the problems faced by families whose newborns require special care. Program host Richard Schreiner, M.D., anticipates interactions via the WAT 21 'talkback' phones, with physicians, nurses, and respiratory therapists.

Oncological -- "Surgical Management of Pediatric Brain Tumors," presentation by Dr. Robert Worth, associate professor of neurological surgery, I.U. School of Medicine, at the Guest Lecture Series of the Department of Radiation Oncology; Room R-104, Radiation Therapy Building, 11 a.m., Wednesday.

It's Here! -- Safety in Today's Laboratory: A one-hour presentation/discussion featuring the safety film "Nobody's Perfect" and a slide presentation starring "Mr. D-Zaster and Miss Do-Gooder." Two sessions are scheduled from 2 to 3 p.m. Wednesday and next Wednesday in Room B-26 of the Medical Science Building. For more information contact Dr. Morris French, ext. 4851, Department of Pathology, Riley A20. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

Auditions -- Open auditions for the IUPUI children's touring play, "Mean to be Free," will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday in the Mary Cable Building at the corner of Blackford and West Michigan streets on the West Michigan Street campus. The play opens Oct. 10 at IUPUI and begins touring Oct. 16. It is based on historical records of the escape of 300 slaves led to freedom on the underground railroad by Harriet Tubman. Dr. Dorothy Webb, associate professor of Speech and Theater, will direct the play. Black and white actors are needed.

Faculty Council -- IUPUI Faculty Council meets at 3:30 p.m. Thursday in Room 100 of the Lecture Hall.

Television -- Women's Forum Series sponsored by the IUPUI Continuing Education Center for Women will present Career Development for women and girls with guest speakers Dr. Priscilla Crawford, human resource specialist; Patricia Turner-Smith, director of Girls Clubs of America, and Dawn Parrish, counselor at the Center for Women, on Channel 4 at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. The show will be repeated the following Thursday at 5:30 p.m.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

In Case You Missed It -- Dr. Sue Kiefer Hammersmith, sociology, is the latest IUPUI media star. At last report, Hammersmith, co-author of "Sexual Preference: Its Development in Men and Women," had been interviewed by the New York Times, ABC's "Good Morning, America," National Public Radio's "All Things Considered," and two reporters were en route from the Washington Post.

The book, written by Hammersmith, Dr. Alan P. Bell, and Dr. Martin S. Weinberg, all former researchers with I.U.'s Kinsey Institute for Sex Research, has made news prior to its November publication with its conclusion that environment has little to do with sexual preference and the parents' role has been "grossly exaggerated."

Visiting Celebrity -- Dr. Pinchas Temir, chairman of the Education Department, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Israel, will be a guest of the School of Education Sept. 10-15. He will present a lecture, "Interrelationships between individualized, small group and whole class instruction," Thursday, Sept. 10 at 7 p.m. in Room 200I. For further information contact Michael Cohen, School of Education, ext. 4911.

Employee Orientation Date Change -- Due to the holiday, new employee orientation will be held at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday in Nursing 221. Normally it would take place Monday in Fesler Hall.

Introduction to New Faculty -- Activities, functions and services provided by the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs will be discussed at a seminar to be held at 10 a.m. Sept. 11 in Room 2003 of the Business/SPEA Building. An explanation of over 20 internal funding opportunities for faculty projects and other professional activities will be presented. Those planning to attend are requested to call 8285 to make reservations before Sept. 8.

NEH Summer Stipends -- The $2,500 stipend offered by the National Endowment for the Humanities provides support for faculty research or study in the humanities for two consecutive months during the summer of 1982. Institutional nominees will be selected by a campus review committee. Deadline for submission of applications to Research and Sponsored Programs is Sept. 18, 1981. For more information contact W. Sidney Johnson, assistant dean, at 8285.

Lilly Endowment Faculty Open Fellowships -- Intended for faculty in mid-career who desire to broaden their educational experiences possibly during sabbatical periods or through full-time study; must have been with IUPUI for at least five years. Applications will be screened by a campus committee. The $25,000 fellowship is to be used during the academic year 1982-83. Deadline for receipt of all application materials in the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs is Oct. 30, 1981. For more information contact W. Sidney Johnson, assistant dean, at 8285.

School of Medicine Library Hours -- During the Labor Day weekend the Library will be open Sept. 5, 8 a.m.-5 p.m.; Sept. 6, 12 noon-6 p.m.; Sept. 7 (Labor Day), 8 a.m.-5 p.m.; Sept. 8, 8 a.m.-11 p.m., then resume fall schedule.

Extra Mile Award -- Jack O. Crouch of the Registrar's Office has been the "Extra Mile" Award recipient of Administrative Affairs for the month of August.

Boating Classes -- Four different boating classes will be presented this fall by Reginald C. Eggleton. Each will meet one night a week for 14 weeks. "It will be possible this year to register for these classes through continuing education," Mr. Eggleton said. "This will be the last year they will be free." To be presented are "Sailing and Seamanship," beginning at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 17 in Room 103 of the Lecture Hall; "Piloting," starting at 7 p.m. Sept. 14 in Room 110 of the Oral Health Research Institute; "Seamanship II, Advanced," starting at 7 p.m. Sept. 16 in Room 110 of the OHRI, and "Weather," starting at 7 p.m. Sept. 18 in Room 110 OHRI. For more information contact Mr. Eggleton at 293-7509 or ext. 4386.

Cheerleader Sponsors Yell -- Anyone interested in helping sponsor the Metro Cheerleaders for the 1981-82 school year should contact Mel Garland, acting athletic director, at ext. 2725 or 3764. Responsibilities will include selecting, training and occasional travel to athletic contests.

Appointed -- Karen Ford has been named unit director of the parent education and preparation unit at Riley Hospital.

Chemical -- Professor G. S. R. Subba Rao of the Indian Institute of Science will speak on "Mechanism of the Birch Reduction" next Wednesday (Sept. 9) at 4:30 p.m. in Room 231 of the Krannert Building at 38th Street, sponsored by the Department of Chemistry. Professor Subba Rao is coming to the United States from the University of Oxford where he has been working for the last two months with Professor A. J. Birch. In total, Professor Rao has spent over 10 years working with Professor Birch both in the U.K. and in Australia. They are collaborating on a book on metal-ammonia reductions.

Alcoholism and the Family -- A workshop planned for people working in the field of alcoholism and chemical dependency, as well as other professionals who have contact with drug dependent persons and their families sponsored by Fairbanks Hospital and St. Vincent Stress Center chemical dependency program in Indianapolis, and Koala Center in Lebanon. It will be held all day Oct. 15 at the Airport Hilton Inn. For further information contact Fairbanks Hospital, 1575 Northwestern Avenue, Indianapolis, Ind. 46202.

"To Market, To Market" -- Cathedral Arts, Inc., will host the "To Market, To Market" Ball from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. Sept. 19 at the historic Indianapolis City Market, 222 East Market Street. Now in its 12th year at the City Market, the ball will feature dancing under the stars, dinners and drinks of every kind from the expert kitchens of the many Market vendors and standholders.

Kiss Me Kate -- Indianapolis Civic Theatre presents the popular Cole Porter musical as its first offering of the season Sept. 10-20. For information call 923-4597.

HONORS AND ACCOLADES

Frank R. DiSilvestro, assistant professor, School of Continuing Studies, is editor of a recent book entitled Advising and Counseling Adult Learners, published by Jossey-Bass, 1981. The book describes approaches to counseling adult learners in colleges and universities, the military, hospitals, trade unions, communities, and other settings.

Dr. Brian S. Vargus, chairman of sociology at IUPUI, has been invited to address the annual Indiana Associated Press Managing Editors meeting Oct. 2 in Elkhart. He will discuss the problems of the press and the pollster. Vargus also has been elected to the board of the Greater Indianapolis Council on Alcoholism, a voluntary information and education organization.

Dr. Richard K. Curtis, professor of speech/communication, was the keynote speaker for the 400 teachers and administrators of the Noblesville School District at their opening workshop kicking off the new school year, Aug. 20.

* * *

GREEN SHEET'S FRIENDLY AD SERVICE

Ride and Rider Wanted -- Ride wanted from University Hospital to vicinity of 38th and Moller Road. Evenings only (5 p.m.). Monday through Thursday. Call ext. 3440 or 299-6616 and ask for Debbie. . . . Wanted, rider to carpool from Lafayette Square area to the main IUPUI campus. Monday-Friday from 8-5. Prefer non-smoker. Contact Joann C., ext. 2522 or Ellen, ext. 8312.

For Rent -- 2 bd, 1 bath condominium with washer, dryer, garage and pool. $340/mo. Call 255-7852 after 6 p.m. Location, 34th and High School Road (west). . . . Room with household privileges. $130/mo. You pay your own long distance calls, nondrinker, nonsmoker. On bus line, Georgetown and 30th area. Owner works I.U., you can ride to campus. Call 293-5713 between 9 and 10:30 p.m. and on weekend evenings.

Pet Department -- Five lovable, 6-week-old Afghan mix puppies. One look and you're hooked! Ready to be given to good homes. Call 638-7432 or the Family Practice Center, Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons. Ask for Dr. McCalla.

House for Sale -- 1444 N. Graham, 3-bdrm, 1½ bath, CA, full basement, 2-car gar., near Community Hospital. $57,900. Call Bob Harton, 897-3300 or 359-9959.

Wanted -- Trundle bed, good condition, contact Toni Sheldon after 5:30 p.m. at 299-7556.

Miscellaneous for Sale -- Secluded 80 acres, Greene County. 45 acres of timber, 35 tillable, currently rented in soybeans. Nice lake site. Gravel county road access. $725/acre. Also secluded 111 acres, Lawrence County. All timber on three beautiful hills. Breathtaking view in the fall. Nice lake site. Black top county road access with city water available for development. $500/acre. Call 846-7323. . . . Air-dried hardwood lumber: Walnut, cherry, oak, maple, poplar, ash, at 1/3 to 1/2 off retail prices. Ideal for furniture, indoor paneling, etc., call 846-7323.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University - Purdue University at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

(ARCH-800321)

ARCHIVES
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
420 BLAKE ST