HOPPERS TO BE RECOGNIZED

Dr. Samuel H. Hopper, director of the Graduate Program in Health Administration, and former chairman of the Department of Preventive Medicine in the School of Medicine, retired Aug. 1 after 36 years of service with the university. Over a decade ago, Dr. Hopper founded the health administration curriculum whose graduates have become administrators in hospitals, clinical settings, and other health agencies throughout the state of Indiana and the nation.

The faculty of the program, along with professional and academic friends, is arranging an evening of fellowship and recognition for Dr. and Mrs. Hopper on Friday, Aug. 14. School of Medicine Dean Steven C. Beering will preside. For reservations or more information, call Ext. 7189.
