

MEMORANDUM

TO: William Plater, Dean of Faculties

SUBJ: Ivy Tech State College Articulation

DATE: September 29, 2003

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
CONTINUING STUDIES

This document will serve as an agreement by the IUPUI General Studies Advisory Committee to accept graduates of any Ivy Tech State College into the IUPUI General Studies baccalaureate program. Technical credits will be distributed to the maximum allowable (30 credits as stated in the SCS bulletin) to satisfy elective credit. Articulated general education classes will be distributed to meet the required arts and sciences requirements of the Bachelors in General Studies.

This articulation will be retroactive for students graduating from any Ivy Tech campus in May 2002 or after. This agreement will be implemented effective fall 2004. This agreement does not affect any other campus of Indiana University.

This agreement was passed unanimously by the IUPUI General Studies Faculty Committee on September 16, 2003.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Stephen Hundley'.

CONTINUING STUDIES

In September 2003, the IUPUI General Studies Faculty Advisory Committee (GSFAC) passed a motion to accept Ivy Tech Associate's degrees from any Ivy Tech campus in the same fashion as the current Passport agreement between IUPUI and Ivy Tech Indianapolis. This policy will take effect at IUPUI in the fall of 2004 and will be retroactive to the fall of 2000. On behalf of Dr. Stephen Hundley, chair of the GSFAC, I am forwarding a copy of this transferability agreement for consideration at your campus. Please share this with your faculty and any interested parties.

For more information on the Passport Program see www.iupui.edu/~ivy.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM

TO: William Plater, Dean of Faculties

SUBJ: Ivy Tech State College Articulation

DATE: November 19, 1997

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
CONTINUING STUDIES

This document will serve as an agreement by the IUPUI General Studies Advisory Committee to accept credit hours (with a minimum of a C grade) earned at Ivy Tech State College, Indianapolis Campus, in its Associate in Science and Associate in Applied Science programs. Technical credits will be distributed to the maximum allowable (30 credits as stated in SCS bulletin) to satisfy elective credit. Articulated general education classes will be distributed to meet the required arts and sciences requirements of the Bachelors in General Studies.

This articulation will be retroactive to January 1991, for all courses except those general education courses articulated under separate agreements. This agreement does not include course work taken at other Ivy Tech campuses (except for the 10 mandated classes), nor does it affect any other campus of Indiana University.

This agreement state was passed unanimously by the IUPUI General Studies Faculty Committee on November 18, 1997.

Respectfully,
