

Normal College Moves to New Campus

On Friday, September 18, 133 students registered at the Normal College's new home at 1010 West 64th Street. No doubt some of the upper classmen had to stop and think a minute when they started out on this particular day that the school was no longer located at Michigan and N. New Jersey streets; that it was north and approximately one and a half miles west of North Meridian street.

The enrollment statistics are 50 freshmen, 53 sophomores; 22 juniors and 8 special students. A number of sons and daughters of alums are in the new group: Linda Weasner, daughter of M. Harold and Marie (Kolb) Weasner of Succasunna, New Jersey; Becky Jo Siegman, daughter of Henry and Ruth (Lorenz) Siegman of Indianapolis; Joseph Garcea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Garcea of Buffalo, N.Y.

In addition to alumni children, we have brothers and sisters of alumni: Christopher Lawrie whose sisters, Kathryn, is teaching at Manual High School, Indianapolis; Merle Safford, of Indianapolis whose sister, Karen (Safford) Wolf is teaching in Kokomo, Carol Elliott of Indianapolis whose sister, Catherine, is in her junior year at Normal College; Kathy Haynes of Indianapolis whose sister, Peggy, was formerly a student here in '67, and Gary Herman of Rochester, N.Y. whose sister, Donna, is in her senior year on the campus.

The traditional picnic was on a beautiful Sunday. Practically everyone was busily engaged in some activity, such as baseball, football, and volleyball. Those who were not engaged in any of these sports tried skills at rowing or just lolled in the sun hoping to extend their tan for another couple of weeks. Then, there were some who had an impromptu swim.

On Thursday, October 8, John Endwright, Dean of the School of HPER, visited us to extend his warm and best wishes to all the students.

Classes are well under way, and everyone is thoroughly indoctrinated and well acquainted with the 23 acre campus that includes a three acre lake, two tennis courts, athletic field for the various sports, two separate buildings for classrooms, and the main building (which houses the spacious gymnasium and all the offices) and, last but not least, ample parking facilities.

John Endwright, dean of the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, addressed Normal College students at an assembly at the new campus early in the semester.

Portable buildings clustered around the campus provide classroom space at the new 23 acre campus on West 64th Street.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

I just came into my office. It is so quiet now for the students have left for the day. A few moments ago there was a wild duck on the lake busily diving for food. Flocks of birds are circling right outside my office window and I watch them as they wheel and turn before settling into the trees. The pine trees lining the approach to the office are lovely in the late afternoon sun. Fred has just asked me to write the lead article on our move, so I ask myself—what has this meant for the students?

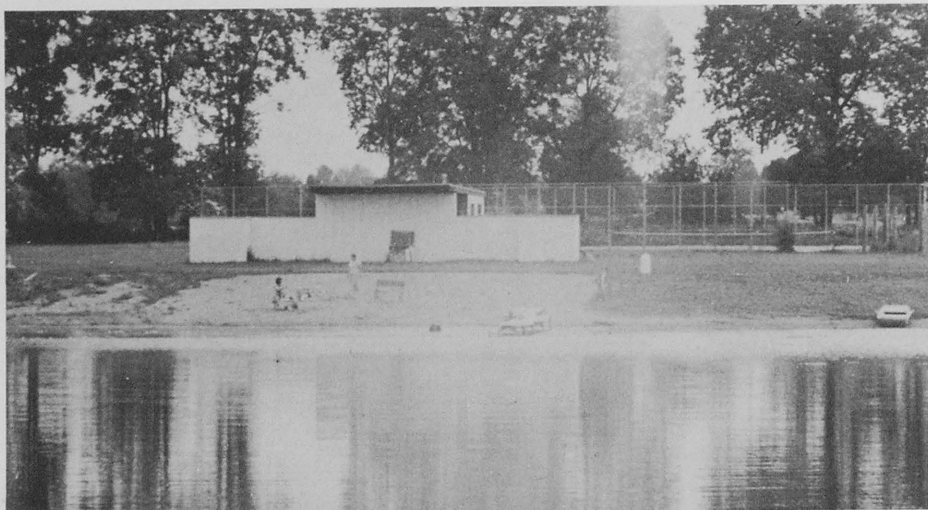

Between classes this morning students were playing tennis on the courts at the far end of the lake. Boys were throwing a football in the aimless way so common to their kind. In the shade of a big tree a group of girls were playing euchre in a never-ending chain of euchre games. Couples were walking about or sitting, talking, talking. An exhibition of karate had spontaneously developed outside the Student Lounge. And scattered here and there were hand-standers, practicing in their free time. It is a campus—and the students like having a campus.

The classrooms are carpeted and air conditioned and big enough. No sirens or trucks disturb the speaker. The playing fields are all right here on campus. No more driving off to Riverside and lugging the equipment a quarter of a mile to the field. Here the equipment is stored close to the field. The gym is larger, cleaner, lighter and has fine acoustics. No stairway drops dangerously off the edge of the floor. In point of fact: we have no stairways, and we have no danger from fire!

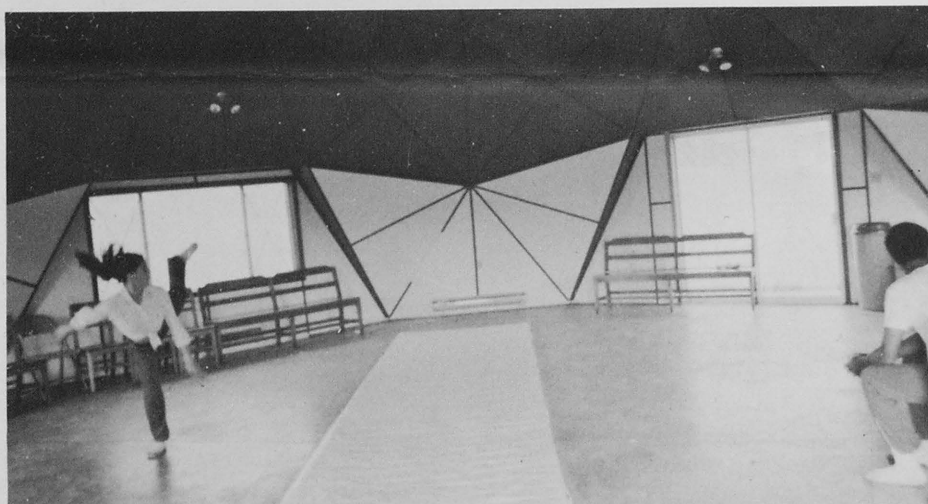

With all that we have, we are content to wait until all the detail work is finished; the walks cemented in; the last coat of paint applied. Everyone here appreciates the tremendous job that Walt has done. We will be eternally grateful. I must express my appreciation to the faculty, the students, alumni, and their families who all pitched in and donated days of work, helping to get our furniture moved and everything ready so school could start on time. We could never have done the job without them.

I know that, to some of our alumni, moving our classes from the Athenaeum leaving only our intramural program behind seems like a real break from the past. Well, it is, but all for the better. At our next Homecoming in May of 1972, we do hope you all will come and see our new home. Although our future will take us to the Medical Center Campus, this will not come to pass for some years yet. Until then we will be happily at home at 1010 West 64th Street.

JUNE CAMP

The two weeks in June, which the Normal College freshmen spent at Camp Brosius, were filled with events that have become unforgettable memories.

For the first time in years the weather was ideal—warm and sunny; everyone enjoyed it. It was difficult to believe that steady rain and unbearable cold weather existed during some of the past years. Nevertheless Elkhart Lake still remained traditionally cold and, true to tradition, some swimmers had to be “efficiently” rescued by fellow classmates. Prior to the termination of camp, a Water Carnival was held; while the students bravely jumped around in the freezing water, there sat the faculty, Mrs. Lohse, Mr. Kellum and Dr. Schreiber, dressed in their winter coats. Oh!—That water was cold! But the students did get the best of the faculty when they won the war canoe race by a pretty big margin.

Many memorable events took place which made Camp Brosius a difficult place to leave when the camping session ended. Stunt Night and Theme Night showed that many students possessed many "hidden" talents. Even the indoor games and relays brought forth with great zeal that ever-present competitive spirit. On the overnight hike at a nearby park, our "Spartan Spirit" was really tested when we had to brave hundreds and hundreds of pesky, giant, dive-bombing mosquitoes ... What a night!

On a few of the sunny days the girls donned their bikinis, while the boys ran for their binoculars and did some girl watching. On days of less leisure time, boys and girls worked as a team with Farmer Kellum leading the way as they literally made Camp Brosius a track.

Mrs. Lohse thoroughly enjoyed herself again this year as she once again drained the antique stores dry. And Dr. Schreiber affectionately took on the nickname of "Sweetie"—and never a meal went by without cries of, "And here's a Sweetie!"

There were many more happy times which the student and faculty will long remember. Throughout the two weeks both worked as a team in making Camp Brosius a happy learning spot. The campfires, the songs, the friendships made will not be forgotten.

EDITOR'S CORNER

First, my sincere thanks to all the reporters and alumni who submitted news for this issue. It's always a pleasure to hear from them, and it's through the news of your colleagues that our family keeps intact.

At the time of this writing I have just a vague idea what the style of this bulletin will be. As I understand this issue is the style that is being used now by a great many organizations. From herein Indiana University will undertake the printing of our bulletin at a reduced cost, mail the bulletins, keep our mailing file up to date, collect all dues and remit a certain amount periodically to your treasurer. Encloser is a letter from your president plus a dues statement explaining everything in detail which was approved at the Alumni Business Meeting, May 9, 1970, and a copy of Nick Lestnee's letter which was read at the meeting. This will relieve your editor and treasurer of a considerable amount of additional work. A copy of the mailing file will be available for our office at anytime we should need it. May I take this opportunity to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to Indiana University for these many courtesies.

Since Indiana University Alumni Publications has an extremely heavy printing schedule news must be received and compiled much earlier than previously. Therefore, news for the April issue should be in my hands not later than MARCH 1st. Will all reporters and alumni who may have news please make note of this deadline. Many thanks.

IMAGINE, after all these years, having Homecoming in Indianapolis in May when it was customary to have it during the Thanksgiving week-end. When this news was announced in the April '70 issue it probably was a terrible shock to many of you to think that our traditional Thanksgiving Homecoming would be changed to another date. But, believe it or not, it was another successful event that was very well attended. It also points out that deviating from traditional customs can be done graciously at times when everyone is fully aware of the circumstances. The reason for changing the date of Homecoming was also explained in the April issue. In case you overlooked this, here are the reasons: Difficulty in holding rehearsals with the students because of classes scheduled at the Extension on different days and at different times; very limited time (September to November) to prepare the students for a demonstration and still carry-on with course material in the various floor classes; many people like to observe Thanksgiving with their families and relatives.

Herb Schack and Bobbie Larsen again deserve recognition for traveling the greatest distance. It seems that both visit California occasionally and make their homes here. Of course, we also had many of our faithful alumni from New York, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Missouri and all other points that spell N.E.W.S.

Friday evening, May 8, Ray Ping took over the duties as Song Leader and when Ray took over everyone sang.

Saturday morning the traditional volleyball game between the students and alums took place. As we all know, there is no substitute for experience. The "Old Timers," although slightly handicapped by excess poundage and also finding oxygen somewhat scarce, did manage to win the series.

Saturday noon, after a delicious luncheon, Detective First Sergeant John Ferguson, director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, gave a very enlightening talk with slides which was followed by a question-answer period.

After the luncheon, Freddy Ploetz, president, called the Alumni Business Meeting to order in the large ballroom.

Saturday evening, promptly at 8:30 p.m., the students presented their demonstration — "Signs of the Zodiac" —

The students presentation at Homecoming was as well done and well received as usual.

Betty Lou Olliges and her father, Lou Roth, were among the Homecoming participants.

Prof. Emil Rinsch, retired, and Freddie Ploetz, alumni president, found lots to talk about.

Ray Ping (left) was song leader for the Friday evening session. He met with the late Carl J. Baumann of Buffalo.

Mary Beth (Shafer) and Herbert Allender came from Knoxville, Tenn.

The conversation is always lively when alumni get together—William Kleinman from Connecticut, Herb Schack from California, and Wally Eberhardt from St. Louis.

which was very well received. The ballroom again was filled to capacity with standing room at a premium.

The closing event of Homecoming was climaxed by the traditional Alumni Dance in the Kellarsaal. It was a wonderful evening and when the last note brought the dance to an end, it was — Adieu — Auf Wiedersehen — and see you at Brosius in August, 1971.

CAMPUS NEWS

Currently ten men and sixteen women of the Normal College class of '69 are enrolled in classes on the Bloomington campus. Several of the seniors are doing their student teaching this year and will be graduating in June. But in addition to working toward a degree, many of the twenty-six students are involved in extra-curricular activities.

Recently, Donna Daly, Brent Day, and Attila Horvath qualified for I.U.'s modern dance performing group and Myra Johnson as co-captain of the pom-pom girls. Many of the other women have participated in the WRA intramurals program and a few in the extramural program. Donna Herman played with the tennis team, Bobbie Guhl with the basketball team, Kandy Wright with the softball team, and Sandy Anthony and myself with the volleyball team. Sandy will also be competing with Indiana's gymnastic team this winter. Hopefully, all will regain their positions on the extramural teams again this year.

Besides participating in athletic events, most of the women belong to PEMM club and served as "big sisters" in the fall orientation program for first semester physical education majors. The Women's Recreation Association is also supported by Normal College graduates of which I am publicity chairman, Donna Herman, Sandy Anthony, and Kandy Wright are on the publicity committee, and Bobbie Guhl is an intramural sportshead.

All the seniors are glad that Sue Mull, Jan Chiavara, and Nancy Zollman have rejoined the class and are attending classes on campus for the first time this fall. Other additions to our class are the wives of Terry Morgan and Ernie Grant, but the newest addition will be Ernie's wife's baby.

All of us are anticipating graduation and teaching next fall, but we will reluctantly say good-bye to Indiana University, Normal College, our instructors, and the friends we have made in the past four years.

STECHER AWARD

Joann Caplick, formerly of Depew, N.Y., and now teaching in the Warren Township Elementary Schools, was honored during the Spring Demonstration at Homecoming, May 9, when it was announced that she was the 1970 recipient of the Stecher Award. This cash award, given annually to the outstanding graduating senior from the Normal College of Indiana University, has been established to honor the late William A. Stecher, outstanding leader and pioneer in physical education.

SPUTH AWARD

At the Farewell Banquet last June at Camp Brosius, Elkhart Lake, Wis., three outstanding students, completing their sophomore year, were the recipients of the Spath award. The students who received this outstanding honor were: Catherine Elliott, Hoanna Hafer and Jeff Wagley. All three are from Indianapolis.

We know they will continue their fine work and are worthy of the honor bestowed upon them; a memorial to our Dr. Carl B. Spath.

HPER SCHOLARSHIP

One of our students, on the campus, Debbie Schmidt, was honored last July when she was awarded the School of HPER Scholarship at the banquet of the Annual Alumni Conference. Debbie is the daughter of Karl and Burdeen (Southern) Schmidt of Indianapolis.

Debbie is completing her senior year on the campus and is very active in the PEMM Club and the Women's Recreation Association.

ALUMNI OFFICERS

The Alumni Officers, elected for a three year term at the annual business meeting of the Normal College Alumni Association at Camp Brosius, Elkhart Lake, Wisconsin, August 16, 1969.

President: Frederick Ploetz, 102 Flintstone, San Antonio, Texas 78213

Vice-President: Adolph Winter, 7827 Kilbourn, Skokie, Ill. 60076

Secretary: Barbara Vargo, 4963 Media Drive, Indianapolis, Ind. 46208

Treasurer and Editor: Fred Martin, 1010 West 64th Street, Indianapolis, Ind. 46260

Burdeen Southern Schmidt

Burdeen Schmidt, who teaches at Arlington High School, Indianapolis, was elected President of the I.U. HPER Alumni Association at the Annual Conference last July.

Joseph Hoog, '42, who lives in Calif. traveled to N.Y. recently to visit his family. Being in the field of physical therapy for a great many years he was able to be very helpful to his father who suffered a stroke some time ago.

Henry W. Schroeder was recently awarded the "40-Year Honorary Gold Membership Card" of the National American Turners. At a meeting, and afterwards at a party, he was warmly received by the members, and a gold pin and a plaque were presented to him by the New York Verein where he has been the teacher since 1936.

Norman Schulte, past president of the Alumni Association, was elected president of the Cincinnati Elementary School Principal's Association and also president of the Administrative-Supervisory Council of the Cincinnati Public Schools.

Justina (Wiederer) Samuels of Kennebunkport, Maine was honored this fall at the State HPER Meeting where she received the award "For Outstanding Contributions in Physical Education."

PFC Steve White paid us a visit on his way to his next assignment as Flight Operations Specialist at Fort Rucker, Ala. Steve would certainly enjoy hearing from some of his classmates. His address is: PFC, Steve White 305-54-3855, 11th Co. 1st BN., Fort Rucker, Ala. 36360.

Scott Brewer, of South Bend, Ind. paid us a surprise visit at our new home last October. It was so nice to see Scott and hear him tell how interested he is in the courses he is taking relating to art and painting.

Scott attended Normal College during the school year of '68-'69 and it was the following summer that his dream of becoming a Physical Education teacher was shattered when the car in which he was a passenger was involved in an accident leaving him a teenage paraplegic.

Last May the greatest highlight of the Homecoming Exhibition came during the last number when Scott was wheeled down to the front of the stage. It was then the entire student body practically jumped off the stage as one to greet him as only classmates can.

ALUMNI NEWS

Two faculty members of the Normal College were promoted this year: Rudolph R. Schreiber from associate professor to professor and Walter Lienert from instructor to assistant professor.

Paul Paulsen's impressive new title in the Los Angeles School System is: Boys Physical Education, Instructional Specialist, Instructional Planning Branch, Division of Research Planning. (He is making an intensive study of the dictionary to find out what all it means!)

Otto Ryser, professor of physical education at Indiana University was named chairman of the United States Gymnastics Commission at the NCAA Gymnastics Championships in Philadelphia.

Carol (Siegmán) Bass and her husband, Bill, have moved to Iowa City, Iowa where he will attend the University of Iowa.

Kate Steichmann's address has changed, so for her friends who would like to have the new one, it is: 152 N. Hiwy 101, Encinitas, Calif. 92024.

Elmer Gates has moved into a new home in Cupertino, Calif. Elmer is teaching physical education at De Anza College.

Bill Streit has had some fine articles published pertaining to hazards of smoking. Bill is chairman of the Ohio Education Program on Smoking and Health. One article appearing in the Cincinnati Enquirer, January 27, 1970 was titled 'Congress Toys With American Lives By Inaction On The Cigarette Issue.' Another article hit hospitals for cigarette sales.

According to Bill, progress on non-smoking is slowly being made. He mentions what some companies, news media, associations, and some well-known people are doing regarding this.

Bobbie Larsen, now touring the Far East, sends word that Japan is all that one dreams about and more, and the scenery superb.

Debbie Schmidt

Wayne Murray, who was married recently, is in the Marine Corps and is stationed at Millington, Tenn. Wayne is studying to be an Aeronic's Technician and this course will last 22 weeks and is equivalent to 20 credit hours. He "hits the deck" at 4:30 a.m. and classes are from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. with one hour off for lunch. Believe it or not, he did find time to make the football team.

HOMEcoming WILL BE AT CAMP BROSIUS,, AUGUST 13-14-15, 1971. Jot this date down and include this event with your summer plans. Details will be in the April issue. We'll be looking forward to seeing you.

Lola and Henry Lohse and Ruth and John Brogneaux visited Ireland and surrounding countries last July. Needless to say they had a wonderful time traveling around in a rented car.

Mrs. Clara Hester has the "Wanderlust Bug." After her fascinating trip to the Far East last year, she flew to Europe with her sister, Martha Clearwater, for a three week tour last September. In February she's looking forward to a Caribbean Cruise.

On May 15, Fred Martin was honored at the 15th Annual Recognition dinner of the Student Union Board of Indiana University-Purdue University where he was named the Distinguished Professor of the Year.

William J. McClogan

William J. McClogan retires

WILLIAM J. MCCLOGAN, '25, director of Physical Education in the Bflo. Public Schools retired on October 1. Bill had a varied career in the field. After being graduated from N.A.G.U. in '27 he was appointed as a temporary teacher in the Bflo. Schools. In 1928 he was ass't. athletic director of the Bflo. Athletic Club. In 1929 he was appointed to the Bflo. Public Schools as a regular teacher in Phy. Ed. Bill taught in both Elementary and High Schools. In High School he coached football, baseball, cross-country, and his great love, swimming.

Bill received his master's degree in '45 and his doctor's of education in 1960 from the University of Bflo. He was appointed Ass't Principal at School 75 and then acting principal. In 1952 he became a Supervisor of Physical Education in the Bflo. Public Schools. In 1964 he was appointed Director, succeeding another Alum, Ray G. Glunz. In all, 43 years of service in the department.

Being director was only part of his work for he extended himself in many activities.

In his retirement, Bill will continue to teach at the University. Bill's top priority was his great interest in the young people attending the Buffalo schools. A recent major accomplishment in their behalf was Bill's persuading the School Board to retain the Buffalo stadium for the children rather than turn it over to the Bison baseball team.

Bill and his wife, Henrietta (Hank) have a daughter and three grandchildren living in Birmingham, Mich. and visit them often. Bill and Hank sold their home in Buffalo and are now living in Lockport, N.Y. Bill wants to try apartment living for a few years before they make up their minds just what to do. His address is 515 Locust St., R3, Lockport, N.Y. 14094.

George Geoghan

Arthur J. Schuettner

Schuettner still climbing

ARTHUR J. SCHUETTNER, a 1915 graduate of the Elementary Class, has just received another honor to the lengthy list of achievements he has earned in the past 55 years. Most recently he was promoted to Chairman of the Board of Directors of the N.R.T.A. and the A.A.R.P. Previously he had been financial secretary of these two national organizations,—the National Retired Teachers Association and the American Association of Retired Persons. He is also a member of the trustees committee of the Travel Service for both organizations. Art has been active in the A.A.R.P. since his retirement some years ago.

His physical education "Tests and Measurements" for the University of Illinois are regarded as the first successful attempt to measure and evaluate achievement in diversified sports. He was also among the first to produce physical education films for school use.

Holder of a B.S., magna cum laude, and a M.S. from the University of Southern California, he was for many years director of physical education at several colleges and universities. Arthur and his wife, Matile, were the first couple to move into Grey Gables, the N.R.T.A. retirement home in Ojai, Calif. in 1955. They still call it home, although they travel both in the United States and in European countries seeking information for the knotty problems of the membership division of the A.A.R.P. which has more than two million members.

The Phi Epsilon Kappa Founder's Day Dinner on May 23, 1970 brought out many of the old gang. Among those not seen for a long time were Ruth and Lou Montgomery, Marion and Hank Thayer, Albert Haas, Lee and Ron Moody, Gladys and Ted Bednarczyk, Allene and Clair (Pat) Fissler. Many of the regulars were there also, Carl Baer, William (Bill) Braun, the Stocker's, the Boehmer's, the Lee's, Peter Cipola, the Samuls (Celia Witezak '39), and the Geoghan's. Ray G. Glunz received the D.S.A. at this dinner.

The memory of John C. Duerr, '25, has been honored by the New West Hertel School here in Buffalo. John taught 32 years at School 51 which is in that District. The JOHN C. DUERR AWARD goes to students who have shown "diligence and an eagerness to learn and are a joy to teach." Edna Duerr presented the first award at the graduation ceremonies in June.

Franklin J.J. Diemer, '29, Town of Tonawanda, director of recreation, was elected president of the Niagara Frontier Recreation and Park Society.

Lou Montgomery, '22. Former athletes and friends honored Lou, athletic director at the Buffalo Athletic Club, at a retirement luncheon in the BAC on July 6. The veteran Bennett, Kensington High and Cornell track coach, retired from his post at the BAC. Lou and his wife, Ruth, plan to move to California to join their sons. Lou came to the BAC in 1966 after retiring from Cornell. At the club, he regenerated interest in the club's athletic program with a well-organized program attuned to all age groups. He leaves his many friends in Buffalo but he has many friends in all parts of the world for Lou has a National and International reputation as a track coach and is considered an authority in the field.

William A. Naab, '32, is the new president of the Buffalo Turners. Bill is teaching in the Buffalo Public Schools and going strong.

Carl Heinrich, '32. In a split-second decision skipper Carl Heinrich switched from sailor to life saver on August 30. As his Cal-28 cruiser swept across the finish line in front of the yacht club on Grand Island at the end of a boat race, Carl noticed a young swimmer in trouble. When the boy called for help, Carl left the tiller of his craft and dived after the youth. Heinrich and the boy were hauled aboard another craft in the river. Gusty winds and the swift, strong current had swept the boy out beyond the safe swimming area. He was in real trouble and Carl is credited with saving his life. Carl, as you remember, was a great swimmer and held many city records when he swam on the Bennett High School Team.

Chester D'Amato, '29, has been elected chairman of the board of the Western New York Track and Field Official's Association.

Ray G. Glunz, '19 left in September to visit his brother-in-law, Bill Kittlaus, '28. Bill is still in Syracuse. Ray's other brother-in-law, Louis Kittlaus, '23, spent some time with him here in Buffalo during the summer.

The Boehmers, Rose and Les, vacationed in New Hampshire this summer.

The Lees, Lois and Teeney, spent 10 days with Buddy and Swede Nilson at the Nilson's beautiful home in Stone Lake, Wis. Guess that you can't beat the Nilson's hospitality, the Heises are there now. Clara and Rudy will return to Seneca Falls, N.Y. and then leave for Ft. Lauderdale to spend the winter. What a life this must be.

Heard from Mary and Bill Treichler, '30, and they are enjoying their new home in Naples, Florida. Bill just bought a boat that sleeps three and is all set to go to sea.

Edward Mumenthaler, '24, and his wife, Eleanor, jetted to the Orient and Expo '70 this summer on a tour conducted by Ray G. Schiferle, '17. Ray heads the Endress Travel Service, Inc. 10 Lafayette Square, Buffalo, New York 14203. If you are planning a trip, write to Ray and have him mail you brochures of the tours he plans for this year. He says it is not too early to make reservations for the 1972 Olympics opening in Munich on August 26. A 22-day tour is planned to feature a week at the games and two weeks visiting the surrounding countries.

Clair "Pat" Fissler, '27, and his wife Allene, jetted to Europe on a 25-day tour. They took in London, Rotterdam, Brussels, Florence, Rome, and any place you can mention. Pat says the trip was beyond his wildest expectations and is all set to go again. Pat looks fit and trim and enjoys his retirement more each day.

Albert Haas, '14, has recovered from surgery performed last June. He feels quite well and keeps busy, Hubert C. "Teeney" Lee, '30, retired last June after teaching 36 years in the Buffalo Public Schools. He taught at various schools but his tenure at School No. 44, where he finished his career, was the longest, 16 years. School No. 44 is a Center School and the relay teams coached by Hubert hold all the City records. His basketball teams always did well and won the city championship several times as did his softball teams. While coaching swimming at School No. 1, his team was City Champ.

Besides his great teaching ability, Teeney himself was a great performer. While bowling with the Buffalo Schoolmasters, he held high average for 17 years in succession and high game for 14 years. This record has never been equaled. His golf game is on the same level and he still shoots in the middle and high 70s. He was honored by the faculty and friends and parents at a dinner last June.

John N. Muto, '24, retired last June after 42 years of teaching in the Bflo. Public Schools. John finished his career at Genesee-Humboldt School. He was there 10 years and was the first teacher in the new school. While there, his track teams won the City Championship in their own class 8 times out of the 10. While coaching baseball at old Hutchinson Central High School, his team won the Cornell Cup twice in a row. While coaching swimming at School No. 1, his team won all three crowns, A, B, and C. A grand slam that has never been matched. His Track Teams at Schools No. 1 and No. 6 won two and four (respectively) crowns in a row. John is still an excellent golfer and holds the Oakwood Golf Course Record of 62 for 18 holes. In establishing the record, he shot 8 birdies and an eagle on the back nine. Last June while he and Carl Bear '15 were playing Grover Cleveland course, he went around in 66, so the old touch is still there. He has two holes-in-one to his credit. And last but not least, let's not forget his pinochle playing. His son, Edward, is varsity basketball coach at the University of Bflo.

Allene and Pat Fissler

Clair "Pat" Fissler, '27, retired last June after 39 years of teaching in the Buffalo Public Schools. He taught at Schools 40 and 62 and the last 22 yrs. were spent at School No. 11 where he taught both Girls and Boys from grades 1 to 8. He taught demonstration classes in singing and story games for the lower grades. You all remember what a great runner Patty was in the old days. He ran on two championship Cross-Country teams at old Masten Park High School where he was also a member of their winning Track Team. The half mile was his forte but he held the Canadian-National record in the 660 yd. run, and the ¾ mile run as well as the half mile. Many of his old Y.M.C.A. records (indoors) still stand. Anyone who ever saw him play baseball will never forget his great fielding ability; in center field he could run and catch anything that was hit in the air. And how he could hit that ball! When N.A.G.U.

played Butler, Pat connected with a homerun off the fabled Hildebrand who later pitched the Cleveland Indians to pennant winners in the American League.

Esther M. Jolley, '32, retired after 35½ years in the Buffalo Public Schools. She taught at Schools 4, 28, 37, 66, 53, and 81. While at School No. 53 she did herculean work in pageantry and assembly programming. Many of her numbers were incorporated in the copywritten versions of these affairs. Her intramural programs were well known throughout the city, and she was the innovator of after-school bowling leagues for girls. Her tennis and basketball leagues were models as well. Esther is living in her beautiful new home in Grand Island, N.Y., and her hobbies are gardening and traveling.

Robert J. Duerr, '37, principal of School No. 84 here in Bflo. for the physically handicapped will soon preside in the new $4 million-plus building which is to be open on Feb. 1. Everything about the new school has been carefully planned to the special needs of the children. The entire school is on a single level. When a child enters the building there is no need for him to change levels unless there is an air-drill or other emergency. Bob was consulted by the architects when the building was planned, and much of design and innovation is due to Bob's first hand knowledge of what was needed.

Elias "Allie" Zuk, '30, was a recipient of the God and Youth Award given by Western New York Catholic Diocese. Allie received the award at the Diocesan Catholic Youth Convention in Buffalo, N.Y., in October. The award is given annually to the person or persons who have contributed to the interests and welfare of the youth of the community.

Paul A. Smaldone, '30, is still a very successful restaurateur but on occasions he substitutes in the Buffalo Public Schools just to keep his hand in the old game and to do something for his great love for youngsters. Paul and his wife, Mary, have one son, also named Paul, who played 3 years of varsity baseball at Fordham University. Turning down several offers to turn pro he went on to get his law degree and is now a warrant clerk in Buffalo City Court and also has a law practice.

William "Wee Willie" Shurgot, '30, is now living and working in Canton, Ohio. He is head purchasing agent for the Bliss Manufacturing Company in that district. Willie and Mary have two daughters, one son, two granddaughters, and one grandson. Willie always liked to keep things even. For recreation he is playing a lot of golf and gets in some swimming.

Richard D. Frazer, '37, is director of Health, Physical Education, and Athletics at Cheektowaga Central High School. He has a staff of 10 Physical Education teachers under his direction. Dick and his wife, Betty, have three daughters and one son. The oldest girl, Beth, is a graduate of Ashland College, Ohio where she majored in social work. She is now engaged in social service work in the Eric County Welfare Dept. Their son, Richard, is a graduate of Brockport State where he majored in political science. He is going to Washington, D.C., where he is to launch his political career. Their next daughter, Jeanne, is a sophomore at Indiana University where she is majoring in P.E. She is on the cheerleading squad and a member of the water ballet. The youngest daughter, Bonnie, is a senior at Cleveland Hill High School and plans to go to Indiana University next year and major in P.E. She is also a cheerleader and soloist for the Cleveland Hill High School Water Ballet. Dick and Betty went to the Indiana U. vs. Michigan State game which they expected to enjoy, and to see Jeanne perform as cheerleader and Pom Pom Girl.

David "Jack" Nevins, '29, is still keeping his real estate business but has returned to subbing in the Bflo. School Dept. when he can spare the time.

Philip H. "Red" Tinsworth, '28, is director of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics at Hardin Simmons University in Abilene, Tex. Heard from Phil recently and he says that he is still free from aches and pain and puts in two or three hrs. on the tennis courts daily. He coaches the varsity tennis team in addition to his many other duties.

The mother of Frank J.J. Diemer, '29 recently passed away.

Edna Shafer Eggleston, '25, who is retired, became a three-time grandmother to three boys, born to her daughter, Doris, on April 16. Edna tells me that she retired just in time so she can help Doris with "a big problem."

Angela Tripi Russell '29, has been delighted that her son has returned from Vietnam, all safe and sound. He, his wife, and child are living nearby in Silver Creek, N.Y. Her daughter, Kay, '64, is taking some extension work at Brockport State U., during the summer and a couple of evenings a week. Kay met Jane Duke, '63, on the campus. Jane is also doing extension work there as well as teaching at Brockport U.

Eleanor Seymour and Catherine Fitzgerald '33, retired this past year.

Russell Garcea, '23, is a very proud "Papa". His oldest son, Chris, graduated from I.U. last June, after spending two years at N.C. He tried the Buffalo examinations and passed very well, and is teaching here in Buffalo. His daughter, Kathleen, will finish I.U. in June. His youngest son, Joseph, is a freshman at N.C.

Andrew Lascari, '22, has had quite a year! He and his wife were both in the hospital. Both are now feeling well. They flew with their younger daughter to Iowa City to the wedding of their oldest son, Andre. Andre is in charge of the Department of Pediatrics of Iowa State and also an assistant professor. The second son was the best man. He has his Ph.D. and has a position at the University of British Columbia at Vancouver, Canada. He will be teaching and will coach the gymnastic team.

Ray Gluntz, '19, became a great grandfather in May. He is doing very well since his retirement. His brother-in-law, Bill Kittlaus, '28, retired from the Syracuse School

'23, visited in this area this summer. Louis's sons, Paul and Carl are very successful. Paul is a minister in California. Carl is a stockbroker in Chicago. Karen, the daughter, is married and teaching physical education in St. Louis.

Now, for our travelers! Irene Mazenauer Marquis, '31, spent the summer in Europe visiting her youngest daughter, Heidi, who was studying in Florence, Italy. Heidi returned this fall, and will finish her studies in the University of Buffalo. By the way, Grandma Mazie is a grandmother for the second time. She is teaching at Lafayette High School with Mina Schnitzer Johnson, '25.

Our World Traveler! Sophia Hofmann, '21, left Oct. 15 for around the world trip. In five weeks she will visit Portugal, Tunisia, Italy, Jerusalem, India, China, Japan, Australia, Honolulu, Los Angeles, Acapulco, Ecuador, Miami, and New York.

Martha (Wigal) Walsh spent her vacation in Stroudsburg, Pa., visiting her son and family.

Helen and August Pritzlaff enjoyed August in Crofton, Md. with their son and family.

Lenora Suder is home recuperating from a broken hip. Some of her hospital visitors included Helen Pritzlaff, Harriet Harz, Anita Hartung, and Esther (Wieland) Krupke.

Bob and Jo (Workman) Hatfield drove west leisurely via Canada and returned home via San Francisco.

Bill Gilson can't complain of boredom! He was on a T.V. program in September, describing the National Retired Teachers Association. He was on a radio program previously participating in a Father's Day program.

In August, Bill and Clara spent a week on an island in Lake of the Woods. They returned later in September to see if they could catch some hungry fish.

They both attended the NRTA convention in Fort Worth, in June.

The ninth annual 'Hall of Fame' ceremonies were May 19, in the Chicago City Hall. Bill was one of the outstanding 'Senior Citizens' who was honored for distinguished community service since reaching 62. Clara had to receive his award for him, as he was attending the A.A.R.P. convention in Oklahoma City. (He is a founding member of the American Association of Retired People.)

Hattie (Hettich) Vossell enjoyed a Caribbean Cruise.

Lib and Wally Hente drove to Oregon in May to visit her sister, Dorothy (Rath) Applegate. Dot had had a knee injury previously.

In May, August Pritzlaff, Gertrude Dickman, Bob Pegel, Art Buehler, Bill and Clara Gilson and Bobbie Larsen attended the Retired Chicago Teachers Association luncheon.

Enroute to Florida this spring, Bill and Min (Wassermann) Braker visited with Evelyn Romeiser, Clara Hester, Lillie Rice, Mil and Mac McCartney, Jim and Helen (Humphrey) Scott, Cass and Charlotte (Herringer) Newman, and Theresa (Pfeiffer) Wuehrmann.

Al (Huth) Krumbein, Martha Schneider and her sister toured the Scandinavian countries.

Rudy and Katherine (Zimmermann) Green are finding it hard to breathe again because they are back in Bogota, Colombia.

Elsa and Ed Hall in Spooner, Wis. found that berry picking and entertaining kept them busy.

Emil and Louise Rothe attended the Passion Play at Oberammergau this summer.

During the spring vacation Bill and Millie Shaefer met Millie and Bob Pegel at Eureka Springs, Ark. Bill taught Driver Ed. this summer, and then he and Millie visited their family in Atlanta, Ga., and Savannah Beach. Bill Jr. is out of service, and daughter Jane is with the Peace Corps in Afghanistan.

Ed Schalk is now senior vice commander of the American Legion, Department of Illinois. Both Ed and Robert Kruetzer worked together with the Mentally Retarded Special Olympics in Chicago during the summer.

The Charlie Sieberts had an A.G.U. get-together plus the Lane H.S. gym men and their wives this spring. They will drive to Los Angeles, winter in Honolulu, return to the mainland in April, and return home via Washington State and Yellowstone.

Millie and Bob Pegel enjoyed the beautiful Panhandle area of Idaho in August, and followed the trail of Lewis and Clark.

Ralph Marx of Illinois had a stroke recently and is now doing well.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Martha (Wigal) Walsh who lost her father this spring.

After Homecoming Bobbie Larsen drove to Chicago and eventually returned home via Key West. En route she visited many friends. In Florida, busy Bob Colwell was moving, but she visited Helen Scott and Bill Bischoff.

Harry and Louise Feucht had both been hospitalized. He is recovering from a stroke. Since then Louise wrote that they are bathing in the ocean again.

Arthur Isers, after forty summers at the Illinois Turner Camp, have sold their cottage and are going to live with daughter Arline in New York for two months of the year, then back to their trailer home in Clearwater, Fla.

Rudy Schmidt keeps trim by playing golf every Monday in the nice weather. In the cooler weather he bowls and attends the Millionaires gym and card class at the Northwest Turner Hall.

Bernie Brockman teaches Industrial Arts at Blaine School in Chicago and loves it. The Brockmans were in Europe for five weeks. They visited relatives, did a lot of hiking, and had a grand time.

Regina Sonnenleiter just had a cast removed from her lower leg and foot. She fell off a stool while helping her daughter, Judy, pack. Didn't think too much about it until the pain made her go to the doctor. A broken metatarsal and six weeks in a cast.

John and Barb McDonald Baas went to London for eight days with a Purdue Alumni group. They had a terrific time and are ready to visit another country overseas.

Ralph and I bought a boat, and the entire family became water ski enthusiasts this summer. It was a beautiful summer for boating and water sports. We have been visiting college campuses with our son, Rich, who is a senior in high school.

Cleveland

Reporter: George Heesch, 4585

Otto Eckl continues as part time instructor at American Turners-STV two nights a week. Congratulations are due him, as he is now managing the new District Center of the Cleveland Twist Drill Co.

Carl Lakosky is also teaching part time at the same Turners-the Bears and Senior Ladies one night a week. He has a full time teaching schedule at the new Lincoln West High School. By the time this goes to press he anticipates becoming a Grandpa.

Paul Fiening, as head of the Physical Education Department at Collinwood High School in Cleveland, keeps going strong. He also teaches the Bears and Active Men's class at Cleveland East Side Turners. This past summer, he and Mrs. Fiening enjoyed a great trip to Hawaii.

Don Blanchard asks that the Alumni News correct a previous statement. He is now at University School (not Hawks School). He is freshman swimming and track coach, teaches physical education in grades 1 to 4, and swimming in all grades 1-8. His son Don is now in Puerto Rico as a Navy dentist; and son Charles is now with Continental Can Co., in New York.

Hilda (Wagner) Simons was judged Golf Rookie-of-the-Year at the Westwood Country Club. Their son is now 3 years old. She and her husband expect to spend New Years in Florida.

Sophie Lessing is still at Thomas Jefferson Junior High in Cleveland. She and her mother have bought a home in suburban Eastlake, and she is, therefore, very involved in keeping it in shape.

Albina (Macy) Walsh is not teaching at present. She serves as secretary for her insurance-husband, Dale, and keeps busy taking care of her four children—14, 12, 8 and 4. She and Dale had a great time on a trip to Colorado Springs this past summer.

Jean (Wagner) Daniels, although only a very short time at Normal, is a very active and sought after Slimnastics teacher in this area. Her teaching schedule—Children's Co-ed class in gym at the Jewish Community Center; Active Ladies and Men's class at Amer. Turners-S.T.V. one night a week; 2 Ladies classes in our local recreation program; a Y.W.C.A. Ladies morning class twice weekly, and 2 Ladies classes at Wickliff. Her daughter Heidi, before an injury, was a college gym champ, and her son Kurt, recently broke the high jump record for the 9th grade.

And now Us Heeschens—Lucille continues as children's librarian at a County branch in Euclid, and I continue as office manager and purchasing agent at the same location as before. We've really lived this past 6 months. In May we spent a week with son Richard and wife (Terry Laba), and their 4 children in Tampa. With just his dissertation to go Dick will soon have his doctorate. Went from there to Huntsville, Ala., where our 3rd son George Jr., is an Aerospace Engineer with Lockheed. August 19-23, however, was our Prime Time. We were able to get all five of our children and their 13 children here at one time and we HAD A BALL. Since we could house all but 7 right here at home, and could feed all of them, it was truly a GAS. Russ, our youngest, now 24, after his Army career, is a sophomore at Cornell-Electrical Engineering. Since the five are scattered—Michigan, Alabama, Florida, and two different cities in New York, Russ' wife hadn't met all the rest, and, of course some of the grandchildren had never seen each other. 'Twas great.

Although I can now retire because of age, I'll hang on a few years in case Russ needs any financial help—but then—it will be traveling and Rockhounding for us.

Detroit

Reporter: Richard Strohmer, 14832

1904—Else Seiffert (Mrs. George Fuchs) has been happily engaged in her Detroit home with visits from members of her family, daughters, granddaughters, grandsons and nephews from New York, Ontario, Iowa and California. In this clan are teachers as well as the youngest grandson who, at age 17, is attending the University of Michigan. Else manages to get out-of-doors daily, and walking keeps her sharp in mind and body.

1909—Arthur Froehlich is well but sticks quite close to home and registers no complaints. He wonders if there are any members of his class who are still alive. How about Roland Neumann?

1913—Louis Thierry keeps busy at their Torch Lake home. His latest project being a Rogue's Gallery which he installed and which includes pictures and relics of years long since gone—and you can rightfully guess that Turnverein and especially Normal College activities are depicted in great profusion. When driving up U.S. 31 you will get a hearty welcome if you drop in on LOU and TEENE, just south of Eastport. Lou went on a painting binge earlier in the summer but finally settled down on his mini-tractor to mow the lawn, to keep the garden in good shape, and now to do some fishing.

1946—Loretta Thierry (Mrs. Malcolm Hodges), Lou's daughter, is teaching at the Morley and the Stanwood schools near Big rapids, being gymnasium instructor and basketball coach for high school girls. Malcomb is a professor of history at Ferris State College. Granddaughter, Sharon, attends Ball State College.

1915—Fred Spier and his wife, Lelia, did some traveling in Maine and New Hampshire visiting relatives, then had a visit with their daughter who is on the University of Colorado staff in Denver and who had just returned from a lengthy stay in S.E. Asia. The Spier couple is now headed for a few weeks in Hawaii.

1913—Minnie Wasserman, (Mrs. Braker), sent a cheery note with a change of address; 10,737 South Keating Ave.; Apt. 201, Oak Lawn, Ill., 60453.

1921—Gertrude Kessler, (Mrs. H.T. Bailey), retired in 1943 and still resides in Walled Lake, Mich. Hears from Edna G. Hoffman, (Mrs. Parkinson) in Union, N.H.

1931—Lucille Jost (Mrs. Preston Maring), continues teaching elementary grades in Avondale school and is in good health; has two daughters who are teachers and a son, Preston, who is a senior at the University of Michigan.

1934—Henry Dreyer, principal of Courville school in Detroit, has recently been with the U.S. Government as camp inspector in eight counties in Michigan.

1920—Therese Prinz (Mrs. Emil L. Pletz) reported staying close to home with hay fever. 1924—Emil Pletz also close to local activities, but well.

1951—Patricia Husemann is to undergo two major operations in the near future. Pat resigned in May from the Towne Personnel Inc. Previously she had been in charge of Birmingham city and school year-round recreation program. In 1952 Pat was a sophomore at the Normal College, but at Christmas time that year she became a victim of polio, thus ending her Olympic ambitions as she was a definite contender, being an expert swimmer and a wonderful athlete. Certainly Pat would be happy to hear from her many friends. Pat's address is 5785 Harvard Street, Detroit 48224.

1913—Richard H. "Dick" Strohmer welcomes any news from members of that class of June 1915—18 ladies and 10 men. Please write to Dick and let him know how many of that "brave 28" are still with us.

Ft. Wayne

Phyllis (Minnich) Florea, '58, and I had a long and pleasant chat. The big news is the birth of her son, Stanton Edward Florea, on October 7. Phyllis and Dick now have three children—two daughters ages 7 and 5, and Stanton. Dick has just been promoted to news director at WKJG TV in Fort Wayne. Other item: Phyllis opened an antique shop last December called Portage Path.

Harry S. Grabner, that traveling man, spent two and a half weeks abroad and visited Germany, Switzerland, Austria and Ireland.

Marjorie (White) Young is a consultant for Physical Education for the Fort Wayne Community Schools. She also teaches at South Side High School.

Liverpool, N.Y. Area

Harry Dippold, '26, is enjoying his retirement and is enthusiastic about his teaching at Penn State University Extension at Monroeville, Pa. Harry is editor of the newsletter for the Allegheny County Association HPER.

Frank Eckl is still getting around and made his presence known at the Founders Day Banquet of the Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter of Phi Epsilon Fraternity.

Karl Fehrenbach spends his time traveling. He has just returned from a three weeks hunting and fishing trip which proved to be successful and profitable.

Alma Fenske seems to be lost somewhere. Let's hear from you.

Coleman Kortner, '24, is proving to be a champ salesman of sporting goods and equipment. He is a very busy individual.

Harvey Lecollier, '24, suffered a second heart attack last March but has recovered and is doing nicely. He is still working part time with the H & R Block Co.

Laura Rosengarth, '24, is keeping busy with her volunteer work but we would like to hear from her and get a better report.

Dr. Herman L. Schmitt is planning to retire in a few months after many years of successful practice. He keeps himself physically fit working with a neighborhood group of boys.

Louise Stover, no news. Let's hear from you.

It was good to hear from Bill Heiland, '24, from Chicago but disheartening to hear that he has had a long, long siege of illness and operations and was in such poor health but good to know that he has fully recovered and is the old "Bill" again.

Another Normal College product has been added to the Rock Island High School teaching staff, Fred Friedrichsen, '49. He teaches physical education and is head swimming coach.

An interesting article appeared recently in the Davenport paper about Cyrilla Doering, Rock Island, who used to play the piano at Normal College, and her husband, Leo '22. They were celebrating their 46th wedding anniversary by taking a boat cruise on Lake Winnipeg. The former Cyrilla Humes 'so charmed the passengers that the captain asked her to play every day of the voyage, and she obliged with an unlimited repertoire.

I am teaching physical education to first through twelfth grades at the Ville de Chantal in Rock Island again this year. Although this involves only three days a week, the range in classes keeps me on my toes. Our girls enjoyed an Archery Sport's Day recently and were pleased to place third.

We now have a senior, junior, and sophomore in high school, and a seventh and sixth grader. Need I say more about our family and their activities!

The Eberhardts (3) Louise, Jean and Walter spent a month at Salisbury Beach Mass., Walter's old stamping ground. On the way east they stopped to visit with the Meissners for several hours. After straightening out all problems on the Turn-Verein, schools and the program in general, the Eberhardts went on to Massachusetts.

Of the 32 active members in the St. Louis Phi E K Alumni Chapter exactly 50% are Normal people — in every respect.

August Plag and Elsa recently celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary. Both Elsa and August are doing well— he is 86 and Elsa still refuses to give her age. Incidentally, August took up the all American game, golf, when he retired at 70 — he has not missed a weekly session, other than the few cold months in this climate.

Their son Fred, '29, and Betty are also doing well. Fred is chief of recreation with Veterans Administration Hospital at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis.

Marie Hanss, '22, before her retirement, was a professor at Harris Teachers College in St. Louis. She still participates in golf tournaments, swimming, gardening, and oil painting. Even with this she finds time to travel and give service to church-school committees.

Louise Nagel, '20, now retired, was formerly on the physical education staff of Hanley Junior High School in University City, Mo. Although originally from St. Louis, she now resides at 4700 Locke, St. Louis, Mo. 63109.

Martha Ehrlein Belzer, '23, finds time to do charity work and pursue her interest in art, particularly in oil and water color. This is above her responsibility as a housewife and companion to her husband, Oliver.

Jean Eberhardt, '57, continues to enjoy her teaching of physical education at the Gaunt High School in Affton, Mo.

Fred Friederichen, '49, has resigned his position on the staff of Southeast Missouri Missouri State College according to a St. Louis newspaper article last August. He has accepted a high school coaching job in Illinois.

Louis C. Jurinich, '29, is serving the St. Louis Alumni Chapter, Phi Epsilon Kappa Fraternity as vice-president. Lou is responsible for organizing and administering the social and professional program for the 1970-71 year.

Frank Bild, '30, sought his third term in the Missouri House of Representatives on the Republican ticket in November.

Edward Dziallik, '47, and his wife, Violet, have been very proud of their number one son's performance on the Webster Groves High School's water polo team.

Arnold Trummer, '40, was elected to another two year term as national chairman for Health and Physical Education at the summer convention of the American Turners at McKeesport, Pa.

Syracuse

Reporter: Walter Black, 409 W. Genesee St. 13202.

Thomas M. Anthony, 60 North St., Marcellus, N.Y., attended Normal College from 1961-63. He is an elementary physical education teacher at Solvay Public Schools, where he is coach of football and wrestling and is program director at the Solvay Geddes Youth Center. He is married and has a one-year-old daughter.

Salvatory (Sam) Contino, 100 Deerfield Rd., East Syracuse, N.Y., attended Normal College from 1927 to 1930. Sam is retired and is an ex-member of the "committee" attempting to revive urban "education." Married 44 years, he is busy, he states, becoming an expert in home economics, raising vegetables and a "fig tree." When he isn't busy with his "chores" at home, he is commissioner for the Conan Football Conference which is made up of 43 teams of boys, 8-14 years of age. Sam is also a member of the Onondaga County Clean Air Committee and a member of the Board of Directors of the TB RD Association of Central New York. From Our Mailbox

Betty (Sullivan) Laymon: We had a most pleasant surprise when we went to the luncheon and football game of I.U. vs California U. at Berkeley and saw Dottie Lackey! I'm sure I hadn't seen her since our leaving Normal College in 1938. The couple we were with had attended University High at Bloomington when Dottie was Dean of Girls. We had such a nice visit.

Fred Friedrichsen: My wife Georgia and I and our son, Scott, are leaving Southwest Missouri State College where we have been for the past four years, and moving back to the Quad Cities. I am head swimming coach, and physical education instructor at Rock Island High School.

Incidentally, just to show you how time flies, I had Frank Fry's son, Gary, in classes here at Southeast. Remember how proud Frank was when he brought young Gary to school way back in 1950. He's following in his father's footsteps and majoring in physical education too. Gary reports that his young sister is an excellent gymnast and has scored well in recent meets.

Bill Klier: Ginny and I took time out to take a trip up through Canada. We also took in Mackinac Island.

Brother Herb is making plans to reside in Florida when he retires in a couple of years. They are building there now and Flo, his wife, goes down occasionally to see how things are coming along.

Al Knieser: Last year I started a new job as athletic director in a brand new high school in Cicero, N.Y. This year was our first year of varsity competition in gymnastics, and we were very fortunate in finishing the season with a 10-3 record, and finishing in second place behind Bill Luttinger's team.

I saw Jim Menapace at a meeting about a month ago. He is athletic director at a large middle school in the West Genesee School district.

One of your recent graduates, Mike Marquart, is teaching in a middle school in Liverpool and is officiating gymnastics in that area.

I ran into Don Egan this winter. He was at our school to watch his son play basketball against us. He is looking good and keeping busy teaching in the East Syracuse Minoa school district. He is also quite busy with an unusual sideline, selling fire engines! He is quite active in volunteer fireman work.

Amy Miller: The summer began with a visit from Babs Huston and her two children from Indianapolis. They no sooner got on the plane for home when I was on my way to the Girl Scout camp 26 miles north of Key West. I played camper rather than counselor for three weeks. I taught skin diving to interested campers since swimming lessons were nearly impossible. At low tide the water never got higher than our waists and sea urchins meant shoes at all times. After three weeks I came home for three weeks during which time I had Spanish speaking children and young black children together in a swimming program. This proved to be very interesting and rewarding. That program was over before I knew it and I was on the road again and heading north to the Girl Scout camp in Sebring, Fla. Those two weeks were very productive on the waterfront. We gave a junior lifesaving class and basic canoeing course besides the swimming lessons and ended the two weeks with a great two day canoe trip. That two weeks ended quicker than it began and I found myself at the Miami airport waiting for Skeek (from Ft. Wayne). On August 17, with 28 scouts, Skeek and I flew to the beautiful waters of the Bahamas on a seaplane. After landing in Bimini we divided into groups of 15, half of us boarding The Pride, an 80-foot Bargantine sailboat. The rest of us, including Skeek, settled ourselves on a 120-foot schooner from Sweden called Ynex. This boat was so fabulous I can't describe it with the proper justice. We sailed the area islands around Bimini exploring the waters beneath and seeing unbelievable sights. Our trip ended as it began but so relaxing, beautiful and enticing to stay. The Swedish food was delicious, the Swedes were interesting, the boat beautiful, the waters exciting and what more can I say. (The above are excerpts from Amy's letter.)

John (Mike) Dalton: I continue to work and enjoy my rehabilitation job. I heard from Lou Montgomery, an ex-Buffalo, ex-Cornell alumna as well as an outstanding graduate of NCAGU. Lou is greatly interested, as I am, concerning the progress of our Cincinnati Big Red Machine (our National League baseball club). I also heard from Joe Schweitzer who continues to enjoy the seacoast in the New Jersey area and it seems he is better than a raw amateur at cards, particularly bridge. I can remember Joe in his pre-bridge days, when he, John Mute, Holtz, "Heeks" Peuzer, Chuck Stahle, Ernie Senkeztz and I, used to fester around a green felt table in the old Atheneum, as we tried to outsmart each other in the plain, old, down-to-earth game of stud poker.

I have yet to see the new Normal College location but from what I hear, it will be up to the usual high standard, turn out the same high type of individual that we saw so many years ago.

Dorothea Winters: Our son Glenn has just come home for the summer. He graduated from City College in New York a few weeks ago and also served with VISTA in Harlem, N.Y. for several years. He will enter Mt. Sinai Medical School in the fall.

In August we are heading out to the Pacific Northwest for our vacation. Our daughter, Lois, will be out there for a month on an assignment in Mount Rainier with the Student Conservation Association. At the end of her tour of duty, we will meet her in Seattle and all return to Chicago with a stopover of several days in Glacier National Park.

Marion (Dadeker) Schoenly: Two weeks ago my husband and I drove to Chicago for a workshop which my husband attended, via Indianapolis. I couldn't go through without stopping at 415 E. Michigan where we found Normal College almost the same as it always looked. However on the inside changes were taking place, new flooring was being put in, furniture was shifted around. The gym, however, was still unchanged with most of the apparatus and equipment there. It brought back many memories. From there we drove to the Circle which seemed the same. Then to 1240 Broadway, our old dorm, which had miraculously escaped demolition for a thruway that was being constructed. Then on to Broad Ripple, the scene of many happy hours playing softball, hockey, soccer, etc. There, I saw the biggest change with a large swimming pool and many recreational facilities. Finally we looked up the new temporary location at 1010 West 64th St. I really learned a lot about Indianapolis in our drive to find this one. This is quite a dramatic change from the old Normal School building. This visit proved to be most pleasant and satisfying.

I received word that Nellie (Passant) Jessep retired last June.

Mrs. Joanna Fritz Schlechter has been retired from teaching for eight years. She has been a widow for three years. She keeps busy in many worthwhile organizations such as Lankenau School Auxiliary (president for 25 years), and is editor of the Crier, a publication of the Germantown Historical Society.

In Memoriam

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the friends and family of the following who have passed away:

Richard Barrick, class of 1930, after a long siege of illness and a lengthy stay in the hospital, passed away last August. The Pittsburgh Board of Education will have a hard time finding someone to fill his position and his many devoted friends have suffered a great loss.

George Wallenta, class of 1929, died at his home on May 22. A hip fracture that didn't heal properly led to an early disability retirement. He was in and out of the hospital twelve times in the last seven years, six times for hip surgery. He maintained excellent spirits and kept in close touch with outside activities from his wheel chair.

George earned his MS Degree at DePaul. He taught at the Seattle Turners one year, and many years at Vorwaerts in Chicago. He also was a very successful baseball coach at Lane Tech High School in Chicago.

George was married to Emma, nee Hunt, who also attended A.G.U. in 1927 and 1928. He is survived by Mrs. Wallenta, and by five children and eight grandchildren.

Edward R. Bartels, '15, died July 31, at the age of 82. Ed taught physical education in the Buffalo Public schools for 40 years. He was a member of the faculty of School No. 63 from the opening in 1918 until he retired in 1958. He also taught night classes in Bennett High School and had taught for a year in Rochester before coming to Bflo. A veteran of World War I, Ed was one of the pioneer teachers in the Buffalo System. His demonstrations in dancing and free exercise were unequalled. He was a native of Peru, Ill. He is survived by four sons, two daughters, 24 grandchildren, two sisters and a brother.

Carl J. Baumann, '23, died Sept. 16. Carl taught in the Bflo. Schools for forty years and was a member of School No. 23 for 25 years. He was a veteran of World War I. All who knew Carl were impressed by his great warmth and kindness. He is survived by his wife, Frieda Kosfeld Baumann; a daughter, a sister and three brothers. Carl was a member of the American Turners for over 50 years and a life member of the Buffalo Turners.

Gertrude Alford Duquin, wife of Ralph Duquin, '25, passed away July 31. Gertrude was a real Turner, an accomplished gymnast and beautiful dancer. Besides her husband, Ralph, she is survived by three daughters, 11 grandchildren and two sisters.

Alumni Help Conference

Rudolph Memmel was site coordinator for the National Conference on Perceptual Motor Development in Cincinnati this fall.

Other Normalites assisting with the conference were Norman Schulte, Hans Hefer, Charles Sallwasser, Bob Ploetz, and Arch McCartney.

Alumnus Heads Project

The story of ECCO, the Educational and Cultural Center for Onondaga and Oswego Counties, was one of the featured "hits" of a conference on innovation sponsored by President Nixon's National Advisory Council in Syracuse last spring.

Nicholas Collis is director of ECCO.

ECCO, one of 16 regional educational planning centers in New York State operating under Title III of the Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act, also was one of the top four projects in the nation.
