

volume eleven, number twenty-five

june 28, 1981

SPORTS CENTER CONVERTS TO MUSICAL STAGE

The histrionics which have been on display at Wimbledon will give way to symphonics this week at the Indianapolis Sports Center as national music stars perform for the second annual All-Star Music Festival.

Catering to every musical taste, the festival will feature a different sort of entertainment every night at 8 p.m. as fans fill the 8,000 seats (plus seats at up-front on-court tables). Their musical exposure will run the gamut from country hoedown to upbeat jazz.

Here's the "Music, Music, Music" schedule:

Monday -- Country: T.G. Sheppard, Margo Smith, David Frizzell and Shelly West
Tuesday -- Big Band: Glenn Miller Orchestra, Pearl Bailey with Louis Bellson
Wednesday -- Family: Mitch Miller, Kelly Garrett, Indianapolis Symphony
Orchestra (with "1812 Overture" and fireworks)
Thursday -- Jazz: Ella Fitzgerald, Dave Brubeck and Quartet
Friday -- Pops: Ben Vereen, ISO

Tickets are available at the Indianapolis Sports Center box office and the Symphony box office in Clowes Hall. For information and reservations, call 255-7827.

* * *

MINI-CALENDAR

Study It -- Classes begin Monday for Summer Session II.

"Park" It -- The presentation for the master plan for White River State Park will be made on WFYI-Channel 20 Wednesday at 7 p.m. The development of the park plan ends a year-long effort by eight firms to create the blueprint for the downtown site -- 250 acres next to the Indianapolis central business district. Planners will premiere a detailed design for the urban park.

Hear It -- The renowned Beaux Arts Trio will perform Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Musical Arts Center at Bloomington. Call 812-337-7433.

Enjoy It -- "You Can't Take It With You" after this week at the Brown County Playhouse in Nashville. The Kaufman and Hart comedy will be on stage Wednesday through Sunday at 8 p.m. For tickets ($4 adult, $2.50 children 14 and under), call 812-337-1103 or 812-988-2123.

Join It -- The Festival Music Society will open its 1981 season of concerts next Sunday (July 5) at the Indianapolis Museum of Art. The concerts feature works from the Renaissance and Baroque periods, performed by musicians on authentic reproductions of instruments of those periods. "Music for Midsummer Eves" will begin Sunday with the "Une Fete Galante." Period costumes (18th-Century France) are encouraged for this picnic and wine celebration which starts at 6:30 p.m. The Fete will be followed by the Indianapolis Ballet performing on the outdoor concert terrace at 8:30 p.m. For information and tickets, call 251-5190.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Memo from Bookstores -- If you haven't done so, please send your fall semester class book request forms to the Bookstores' Textbook Office. Request forms are available from your department head or the Textbook Office will send you a supply if you call Ext. 3961.

Available -- The School of Medicine Class of '81 announces that copies of the yearbook, Caduceus, are available for $7 each in the Medical Science Building, Room 164, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Retiree -- Frieda M. Weaver, who has been a clerk-typist in the Purchasing Department for 15 years, retires this week and plans to spend her newly won free time with handcrafts and lawn and gardening work.

In Case You Haven't Noticed -- Printing Facilities has moved to 1350 Stadium Drive. Feel free to come over to the new building or simply mail your work orders to that address.

Position Opening -- Assistant dean for administrative affairs, School of Science. Responsibilities include budget, purchasing, personnel, payroll, recruiting, affirmative action, research and sponsored programs. Applicants should hold a doctorate, be qualified to accept an academic appointment within the School of Science and have teaching and administrative experience. Salary commensurate with experience; employment starts August 26. Send application by July 20 to: Dr. Patricia Boaz, Chairman of Search and Screen Committee, Purdue University School of Science, 1125 East 38th Street, Indianapolis 46205.

Position Available (Deadline Extended) -- Counselor-Academic, 12-month, entry-level appointment in University Division for academic counseling in the IUPUI undergraduate degrees and personal counseling as it relates to academic concerns. Requires master's degree in guidance and counseling or highly related area and counseling practicum. Salary: $11,500 to $12,000. Send all of the following by July 17: letter of application, resume and transcript of graduate course work or placement credentials, and three recent letters of recommendation to: Staff Recruitment and Selection Committee, University Division, 925 West Michigan Street, Indianapolis 46202. (Black male candidates are urged to apply.)

Rider Wanted -- To and from Martinsville, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. $14 per week. Call Ext. 4194.