MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT

FOR the first time in many years the convention of the American Turnerbund, our Tagsatzung, is held in the East, and it is a happy omen that it should be held in the city of Philadelphia—a city associated with all that we hold most dear and revere most highly in this America, with our ancient liberties and our undying ideals.

The city where Thomas Jefferson wrote the immortal Declaration of Independence, where Benjamin Franklin first made the printing-press a power for mental progress in our land, where Thomas Paine issued his flaming tirades against tyranny, is the appropriate spot for the gathering of an association devoted to the cause of liberty in all its various forms, to the building up of sound bodies in order that men may develop sound minds.

We are glad to gather in Philadelphia, whose Turngemeinde has celebrated its eightieth anniversary. Our deliberations and decisions should be worthy of this old Turner city's proud and glorious history.

Several important chapters in Turner annals have been written during the past year. The Turnfest of the Deutsche Turnerschaft at Cologne took place in last July, and the American Turners who went over to the number of several thousand had every reason to be proud of their champions. An American, Emil Preiss of Chicago, shared the highest honors with a German Turner. Many of our contestants came home garlanded with wreaths of victory.

The Cologne Turnfest was a magnificent demonstration of the vitality of Father Jahn's idea—and also an astounding revelation of the unbroken and immortal spirit of the German races from which we are descended. It was more than that—it was a reknitting of old fraternal ties and a fresh consecration to united effort in promoting the peace of nations and the happiness of all humanity.

This is history—it belongs to the past. We are met today to discuss problems of the future. Again I must repeat the words I sent forth last year:

We are not doing as well as we should. The missionary spirit of old seems to be turning to embers. The flaming zeal of our fathers is only flickering in our day. Unless steps are taken to counteract this apathy, and to spread the principles of our organization into places where they are yet unknown, our future is insecure.

This is due in large measure to the fact that our youth has not been impregnated with our principles. The Turner cause is a cause that calls to young men. Father Jahn started the Turner movement with young people and for young people. It is youth that must carry the banner and storm the heights. Youth alone that can win the battle.

If the young men and young women for whom this organization was founded do not pick up the weapons that have dropped from the grasp of our fallen heroes, the fairest hopes humanity has known will sink to ruin and defeat.

In most of our Turner societies, old men or aging men stand at the helm to guide the ship. They have labored arduously. They are entitled to rest on their laurels in the evening of their glorious day. But others must rise and take hold of the wheel, to guide the ship to port.

This is a call to youth!

Where are these young hands? Where these young eyes looking eagerly toward the shores of tomorrow? Where these young voices shouting the battle-cry of freedom?

In many cases, where the elders still conduct the affairs of Turner societies, it is because they have been unable to find young spirits to follow in their footsteps.

In some cases it may be because they have not had enough faith in the younger spirits to relinquish control.

In a few cases, perhaps, they have selfishly held on to the power and prestige of office until they have discouraged possible successors.

It should be understood that the Turner cause is greater than any individual's ambition, more powerful than any individual's personal capacities. It does not depend on any man or clique of men. If it has not within itself the potency of life, if it has no longer any service to render to democracy and liberty, then it will perish, no matter what effort is put forth.

But who will question the continued need of Turner activities? Who that looks out upon our beloved land will fail to realize that in this turmoil of selfishness and unscrupulous bigotry, the great principles enunciated by the fathers still require apostles and defenders!

Even the cause of physical education, triumphantly vindicated so that it has become part and parcel of American school systems, still demands vigilant care to keep it from disintegration and being lost in noisy sport.

Let the elders one by one step aside, and call upon the young men to do their part. Nestor may be all right in council, but Achilles is needed in the battle. This is the age of young men. Give them a chance!

Besides turning over the leadership of the organization to the young men, we must cultivate a new spirit of sacrifice and enthusiasm in the financial column. It is no longer possible to conduct the business of any organization according to the old system which has become penny-wise and pound-foolish. Nowadays men talk in dollars instead of nickels. Holding fast to the old sense of values, many societies lag behind, unable to offer in their halls such equipment as the more modern and generous-spirited of other organizations provide for their members. Such societies naturally lose members continually, and there is no incentive for new members to join, and ultimately these societies pass out of existence, perhaps dividing up a few hundred dollars and leaving an inglorious memory.

I call upon every Turnverein within the Bund to take stock of its financial position. Is it paying its way? Is it building for the future? Is it competing in effective manner with similar organizations for accretion of membership and for the growth in loyalty of those who are members?

These things must be done if we are to continue as a force in the history of this country. The Turner principles are the same that were put into the Declaration of Independence and the Gettysburg Address by Jefferson and Lincoln—the two greatest men America has ever produced. The Turner spirit is the American spirit—the spirit of democracy and human equality. We must find ways to spread this spirit in ever widening circles.

The National Executive Committee, realizing the importance of such missionary activity, has started work in this direction, and more will be undertaken as soon as the workers are found. Cooperation on the part of districts and societies will be required and is expected.

There is no reason to despair of the outcome—if our message is properly presented it will be embraced by thousands. The experience of two districts, Western New York and Lake Erie, shows that it is possible for Turnvereins to have waiting lists of people who wish to become members. And we should take pride in our membership growth, not deplore the fact that per capita tax will be increased and conceal such increase in order to save 50 cents. It is my certain belief that the membership of the Turnerbund is at least 40,000, though the statistics are many thousands short of that number.

Why should we laugh at Scotch jokes when we see how slowly the Jahn Educational Fund is growing! There is no doubt whatever that the objective will be attained, but we cannot afford to drag the campaign out, and we should be ashamed to drag the contributions out of unwilling purses. If we had adopted the customary methods of extracting such funds, employing financial dentists to pull your gold teeth, the Fund would already be double what it was planned. We trusted to your initiative and generosity, and the Fund is about one-half of what it should be. It is unnecessary to say more upon this topic.

There is another subject of which I have spoken in two successive messages—the creation of a Fund for the retirement of instructors who have faithfully served their societies for many years. The suggestion was made that some one with means to do so come forward with an initial gift of not less than $5,000 to start such a fund. Upon such a gift we could build a system based upon contributions from three sources—the Bund, the society, and the instructor, as in the teachers' pension funds many state educational departments have established.

Up to the present no Maecenas or Carnegie has claimed this honor. So I am going to suggest to this Convention to create such a Fund by taking $5,000 available in the Treasury of the Bund, which has not been designated for any other purpose. This $5,000 will form the nucleus of the Fund. If there is any district or society that wishes to add another $5,000 to this sum, the National Executive Committee will be glad and proud to place the administration of the Fund in the hands of that district or that society. The Jahn Fund is administered in Pittsburgh, so the new Fund should be located somewhere else. Provision should be made for its continual growth in the same way that provision has been made for the continual growth of the Jahn Fund.

This may also be advanced by another suggestion. By careful management and economy the National Executive Committee has been able to carry on its work effectively, and has no inclination to indulge in future extravagances. If the Convention authorizes us to pay 5 cents of all per capita tax into the Jahn Educational Fund and 5 cents into the Teachers' Retirement Fund, I believe the rapid completion of these Funds would be definitely assured. There will also be an incentive to our societies and districts to do missionary work in order to increase their membership. Increased revenues from increased membership would provide sufficient means to carry on the missionary work the need of which has been pointed out.

Lack of general interest in the undertaking has been responsible during the past two years for the failure of our attempt to launch the new "Turner's Weekly" authorized by the last Convention. Some societies did all that could be expected to secure subscriptions—others did hardly anything. After three numbers had been issued, it was obvious that the demand for such a publication had been prematurely voiced. Turners did not feel its need in sufficient number to assure a subscription list that would make it worth while. So the publication was discontinued, though all the machinery for its resumption is in hand. It remains for the present Convention to decide what should now be done. Some suggestions of value are before the Convention—they should be discussed calmly and dispassionately, to provide for a national organ.

When these various matters have been disposed of, when the Jahn Fund has reached its goal, when the Teachers' Retirement Fund is well established, when the problem of the national organ has been solved, we must also take into consideration the future of our Normal College, now located at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis has made a great success of this institution. It is one of the few schools of its kind regarded with highest favor by educational authorities. Other organizations whose principles do not harmonize with ours are actually reaching out acquisitive hands for this splendid engine of educational activity.

We should provide within the next few years a permanent home and an adequate endowment for the Normal College. While the devotion and intelligence of the men in Indianapolis have made the institution the success it is, these men, like the rest of us, are growing old in years and a bit weary in spirit. It is for the young to raise aloft the banner and go forth into the battle. We wish to pass the command on to them unimpaired and undismayed.

The word "battle" is not used in any poetic sense. If we strive to be real Turners, we have a real fight before us. If the American people do not wake up soon, they'll wear more padlocks than medals. Intrenched busybodies tell you what you shall drink; voices over the radio tell you what you should think. Pennsylvania cannot even get rid of its Blue Laws or its Cossacks. Innocent citizens are shot down upon the highways by the government's Black Hundred, who are trying to enforce laws that are themselves crimes and can be enforced only by criminals.

We need a new birth of freedom, a new Declaration of Independence—and in this city, within sound of the Liberty Bell, the air is propitious.

Let us look to the future—let us take hope of a new sunrise in the eyes of our youth—and let us continue in the true Turner spirit to work for the up-building of the human race, for its emancipation from ancient taboos and superstition, for its glorious advancement toward a real civilization, in which such anachronistic ulcers as War and Prohibition will have disappeared and the human spirit, truly free, will climb to the utmost peak of dreams the poets and philosophers have dreamed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MENTAL TRAINING

During the past year only 12 Societies submitted reports on Mental Activities, a relatively small number when we take into consideration the of number of Societies composing the Turnerbund.

While this is regrettable, we are aware that quite a number of Societies have been actively engaged in fostering Mental Training, among whom we mention first the Ohio and New York Districts, as also the New England District. The former two are to be commended for the able manner in which they have been conducting inter-society debating courses. The efforts of the officials of the New England District hold forth much promise along these lines.

Never in the history of our country has it become more necessary to proclaim the rights of the people, so that there may be brought about a modification of existing laws, which deprive the people of personal liberty and other human rights.

Resolutions should be submitted from time to time, subject to the approval of the people, to bring about an abatement of such laws, direly affecting the people's rights. We should have the courage of our convictions fearlessly to demand the modification and elimination of statutory laws of a baneful nature, detrimental to progress, enacted centuries ago and having little if any bearing upon present-day life. Ours is the duty to advocate public ownership of public utilities, conservation of natural resources, and other matters of importance to the public welfare, so that the control of the nation's resources may be preserved, distributed, and more equably enjoyed by the people as a whole.

Ours should be the privilege of leading our groping fellowmen out of the valley of darkness, where they have been overshadowed with doubt, fear, and ignorance, out upon the broad sunlit plains of confidence, truth, and knowledge, to enjoy the blessings of good citizenship, under an enlightened form of government.

The history of past ages gives ample evidence of the value of minority action! In fact, these wicked laws were fastened upon us by persistent minorities who knew what they wanted. Ours is the duty to stand eternally for the rights of the people; to stand staunchly for our country's honor—"when it is right, to keep it right; when it is wrong, to set it right;" so that we, as citizens of a republic, may enjoy the largest measure of personal liberty with the least measure of harmful legislation, in consonance with peace, tolerance, liberty, and justice. If we will faithfully give expression to our opinions, we shall not fail to exert a beneficial influence upon our lawmakers.

We call to the attention of the National Convention and recommend for adoption the suggestion of your committee on Mental Training, for the formation of debating courses among the District Societies of the organization. They are as follows:

(1) Debates of District Societies are to be held semi-annually. The two teams obtaining the highest number of points are to meet in a final debate, during the date of the next District Festival.

(2) The teams which receive the highest number of points at the District finals are to meet for the final debate with their competitors of the other Districts during the days of the next National Festival.

(3) The debates of the District Societies are to be conducted and judged by the District Committee on Mental Training. Topics for debates are to be selected by these Committees.

(4) Final debates, to be held during the days of the National Festival, are to be conducted under the supervision of the National Committee on Mental Training, under the Rules and Regulations governing National Competitions.

(5) Topics for debate are to be selected by the National Committee, and are to be printed and distributed, free of charge, to the Societies of the National Organization.

(6) Suitable prizes are to be provided by the National Executive Committee, defrayed out of the treasury of the "Jahn Educational Fund," and distributed to the successful contestants at the conclusion of the National Festival.

The reiteration of our Principles, that we are members of a broad-minded democratic organization, believing in equal opportunity for all; that education of the masses is the basis of a sane democracy; that a sound body is necessary for the functioning of a sound mind; to develop those traits which the history of ages show to be the seeds of all human progress—this should be our aim, and undoubtedly is our Duty! Turners, awaken from your slumbers! Brush away the cobwebs festooning your minds. Prove yourselves worthy of the heritage of our founders. Meet the problems of the day and hour with courage and determination. Stand for progress and liberty!

TURNERS' NORMAL COLLEGE

The Normal College of the American Turnerbund is now conducting the twenty-second course since its removal to Indianapolis.

Improvements were again made during the year at Camp Brosius, Elkhart Lake, Wis., where the summer sessions are being conducted, and where a four weeks' course in camping, etc., is given the regular class at the close of each school year. The hotel operated in connection with the camp has found favor with members and friends of the Turnerbund, and was well attended during the season. It is hoped to make Elkhart Lake the Turner Chautauqua.

The Board of Trustees of the Normal College consists of the following: President, George Vonnegut; Secretary, Dr. C. B. Sputh; Treasurer, Carl H. Lieber; Theo. Stempfel, Leo M. Rappaport; Karl H. Heckerich, Minneapolis; Carl H. Burkhardt, Buffalo; Dr. Rudolph Hofmeister, St. Louis; Grover W. Mueller, Philadelphia; Emil Rath, President of the College and Dean of the Department of Theory and Practice of Physical Education; Dr. C. B. Sputh, Dean of the Department of Science and Hygiene; W. L. Richardson, Dean of the Department of Education, Social Science, and Languages.

The faculty, consisting of thirty-four instructors, includes members of the teaching staff of the Indiana University School of Medicine, Butler University, and the Indianapolis high schools. The following courses are offered:

A four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Physical Education (B.P.E.) and to certification as Teacher of Physical Training for Colleges and Universities.

Graduate courses leading to the degree of Master of Physical Education (M.P.E.).

A three-year course leading to certification as Teacher of Physical Education for High Schools.

A two-year course leading to certification as Teacher of Physical Training for Elementary and Junior High Schools.

An elementary one-year course, open to male non-matriculants who have attained a high degree of proficiency in gymnastics (gymnasts of the second or third grade) and meet such additional requirements as may be prescribed, including a satisfactory knowledge of German. Students who complete this course receive a certificate attesting that they are qualified to teach physical education in schools maintained by societies of the American Turnerbund.

Summer courses, comprising special courses in the theory and practice of physical education and in related subjects. These courses are open to persons qualified to pursue profitably the work chosen by them. Credit and certificate will be given for work satisfactorily completed.

Complete information about these courses is given in the catalogue of the Normal College and in the special summer session program, sent on request.

Beginning with the year 1919-20 the Board of Trustees of the Normal College has offered seven scholarships to members of the American Turnerbund (one for each of the circuits), consisting of free tuition for the two-year course. Full information about these scholarships will be sent on request.

The 27th convention of the Turnerbund decided to offer similar scholarships to 22 members (one for each of the districts), without the high school education required for those mentioned above, consisting of free tuition for the elementary one-year course. Complete information will be sent on request.

HERE'S A HINT FOR EVERYBODY!

As the Jahn Educational Fund is a permanent endowment, intended to grow to ever greater proportions as the years pass, there will be many Turners, no doubt, desiring to make provision in their wills to perpetuate the principles of Turnerism through this Fund. For the guidance of such Turners the following form is given to write into their wills as a codicil:

I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Jahn Educational Fund of the American Turnerbund the sum of
