

green sheet

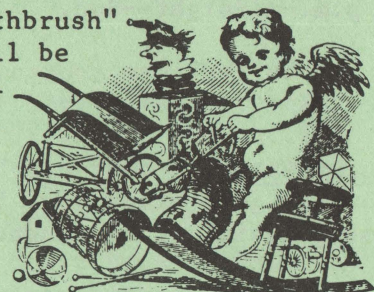

volume seventeen, number twenty-nine

september 13, 1987

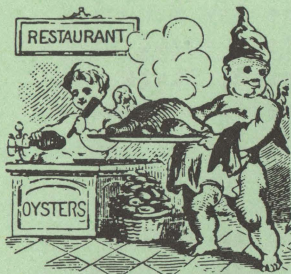

PEDIATRIC DENTISTRY OFFERS NEW PROGRAM FOR LITTLE ONES

Expectant parents, parents of children newborn to three years old, grandparents, and others who care for children are invited to the first campus program, "Infant and Toddler Dental Care." The new education outreach program, the first of its kind in the nation, is the brain child of India-born, Dr. Hala Henderson, chairman, Div. of Undergraduate Pediatric Dentistry and professor of pediatric dentistry. Her assistants, JoAnn Heasley, coordinator of the infant dental care program, and Elizabeth Hatcher, special projects coordinator, will teach the basics of good dental hygiene, even for little people with only one tooth. Focus will be on very young children and a condition known as "Nursing Infant Syndrome" in which decay and abscess are caused by nursing bottle or breast during sleep. Many infants with this problem have been treated at the School of Dentistry. Adults will be shown how a terry cloth "toothbrush" can be used to clean tiny teeth of infants and toddlers. They will be shown the importance of dental hygiene for infants and of a dental checkup before the age of three, the traditional age for a first checkup. Civic and religious groups, social organizations, hospitals and day care centers are expected to sponsor the program. The first campus program is Oct. 6, noon-1 p.m., Nursing Building, room 204. There is no charge. For reservations or more information, call 4-8220.

GO GALAPAGOS with the Geology Department. While the Pan Am glow still lingers, Gary Rosenberg is inviting students, staff and faculty to a trip to the Galapagos and the Incan ruins at Machu Picchu, Dec. 27-Jan. 12. An organizational meeting is Sept. 18, 5:30 p.m., CA 433. Call Gary at 4-7484.

RESERVE YOUR PLACE AT INTERNATIONAL DINING TABLE

Linda Brothers has arranged for her "favorite little restaurant," the Lockerbie Fare, to be used by students as a laboratory in which fine ethnic food from such places as Hawaii, Louisiana and Indiana will be served now through December. Restaurant owner Angela Stroud is letting advanced students in Restaurant, Hotel and Institutional Management (RHI 460) to get practical experience in her establishment. Dinners will be served promptly at 6:30 p.m. and by reservation only. Prices will be about average for good fare. Dinner will include an appetizer, salad, entree, vegetable, bread, dessert and beverage. A different menu will be served each evening of the project and all will be ethnic American cuisine. There will be no tax, and tips will not be necessary, but all profits will be donated to the Ronald McDonald House on campus. Following are the dates and dinner themes: Sept. 22--Hawaiian, Sept. 29--Pacific Northwest, Oct. 6--Southwest, Oct. 13--Southern, Oct. 20--Chesapeake Bay, Oct. 27--New England, Nov. 3--Pennsylvania Dutch, Nov. 10--Creole, Nov. 17--Hoosier Thanksgiving, Dec. 1--Hoosier Christmas. For prices, full menu and reservations, call 4-8772.

SIX CAMPUS LIBRARIES SET HOURS

If you have a driver's license or other valid identification, you can use all of IUPUI's six libraries. Generally, in the professional school libraries, you have to be enrolled or be on faculty to take out books, but in other libraries you do not. University Library, despite the need for more space and more material, has a good reference section, helpful librarians and is a depository for U.S. government documents. Hours there are 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.--Mon.-Thurs., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.--Fri.-Sat., noon-8:30 p.m.--Sun. Herron School of Art Library is comfortable and has many exquisite art and art history books. Hours there are 8 a.m.-7 p.m., Mon.-Thurs., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.--Fri., 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.--Sat., closed Sunday. Science and Engineering Library at 38th St. has a little known collection of more than a quarter-million technical reports on microfiche from NASA and NTIS (National Technical Information Service). Hours are: 8 a.m.-10 p.m.--Mon.-Thurs., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.--Fri.-Sat., 1-5 p.m.--Sunday. Back on the downtown campus, the toothsome School of Dentistry Library is closed Sunday. It is open 7:30 a.m.-10 p.m.--Mon.-Thurs., 7:30 a.m.-5 p.m.--Fri., 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.--Sat. The School of Law Library is esthetically beautiful and a good study place. Hours there are 8 a.m.-11 p.m.--Mon.-Fri., 9 a.m.-7 p.m.--Sat., noon-9 p.m.--Sunday. Finally, the School of Medicine Library, in the Medical Science Building, is the place to burn midnight oil. Hours are: 7:30 a.m.-midnight--Mon.-Thurs., 7:30 a.m.-6 p.m.--Fri., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.--Sat., 1 p.m.-midnight--Sun.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Lucky Cars--If your car battery fails, chances are that 70 percent of the people around you can jump start you. If your heart fails, only 51 percent know enough CPR to get you going again. (Oct. Harper's Index)

Lost Keys--A yellow snap-on key ring with seven or eight keys on it was lost Sept. 1 in the vicinity of University, Nursing and Riley. If found, please call 4-8554.

For Females--A seminar on management skills for women in business is offered on this campus Sept. 24-25 by the IU School of Business. For fees and more, call IUB, 335-0229.

Fix Phone Number--The phone number of our new Adult Education Center was printed incorrectly in the August "Staff News." It is 4-2066.

Free Forum--The Indiana Civil Liberties Union bicentennial committee and the law school invite you to a free forum, "Are the States Obsolete?," on Sept. 18, noon-1:30 p.m., LS 109. Panelists include Indiana Supreme Court Chief Justice Randall T. Shepard, State Senator Edward Pease, law school professor James W. Torke and IUPUI director of applied politics Rozann Rothman. Moderator will be law school professor Helen P. Garfield. Call 635-4059.

Try an Apple--Everyone is invited to test Macintosh computer products during an Apple Computer Corp. demonstration on Sept. 17, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., ACCESS Point, ET 1030D. Call 4-0767.

Honorable Money--Awards up to $1,000 are available to winning students in the IUPUI Honors Office Support Undergraduate Research Award (SUR) program. All upperclass undergrads can apply, Honors-eligible students get preference. Applications are in ES 2126 or call 4-2660.

Watch Out--David Stashevsky, 5700 block of Washington Blvd., needs a house sitter during his sabbatical. Call 253-2199.

Willing Losers Wanted--Anyone interested in joining a campus Weight Watchers group is asked to call Marsha Brickey, 4-5332.

LAWN PARTY PLANNED FOR EHRLICHES

Vice President and Mrs. Gerald Bepko are hosting a lawn party for President and Mrs. Thomas Ehrlich on Sept. 20, 4-6 p.m., 5801 Sunset Lane. The IU Alumni Association and the Indianapolis Men's and Women's Clubs invite us all for refreshments and entertainment under a big red tent. Anyone planning to attend is asked to call Sharon Holland, 4-8828.

EMPLOYMENT, RECRUITING DAYS ARE SET FOR NURSING NEXT MONTH The School of Nursing is sponsoring a recruitment open house program, "I.U. Nursing for People Who Care," on Oct. 4, 1-4 p.m., room 103, at the school. An overview of nursing education at IU and many small interest group topics will be presented. For more, call Lavern Sutton, 4-2806.

More than 80 health care facilities from across the state are expected at the Nursing Employment Opportunities Days, Oct. 16 and Oct. 19, 10 a.m.-1:30 p.m., Nursing Building. Sponsor is IUPUI Career and Employment Services. Nursing students from Anderson, DePauw, Marion College, U. of Indianapolis and all IU campuses are attending.

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Send Someone--Space will be limited, but units and departments on campus are invited to send one rep to a free two-hour computer seminar, "Introduction to Local Area Networks (LANs) on Oct. 9, 10 a.m.-noon, ET 1017. Sponsor is Computing Services, in conjunction with Purchasing. For reservations, call 4-0710; for information, call Jim Williams, 4-0736.

Constitutional Celebration--IUPUI Columbus invites us all to hear State Senator Robert Garton give the keynote address during its celebration of the 200th anniversary of the Constitution of the United States on Sept. 17. His topic will be the grand old document and contemporary politics. It is at 7:30 p.m., room 143, Columbus campus, which is in the same place, but has a new address--4601 Central Ave.

Rozy Retirement--Erna (Rozy) Simek is retiring after 29 years of teaching occupational therapy to baccalaureate and associate degree students. A party for her is Sept. 23, 3:30-5:30 p.m., Hoosier Room, Union Building. Presentations will be at 4:30 p.m. All welcome.

Wyatt Joins the Ranks--After 29 years of service in Purchasing, Jim Wyatt is turning in his pager. A retirement party for him is Oct. 2, 2:30-4:30 p.m., Roof Lounge, Union Building. All welcome.

Civil Meeting--James A. Trulock will present "The Waterloo of the Confederacy, General Joshua L. Chamberlain at Five Forks," in the next Civil War Round Table meeting, Sept. 14, 7:30 p.m., Indiana Historical Society auditorium. There is no charge; all are welcome. Call 547-5370.

Talk About Religion--Faculty, staff and students are invited to a discussion of Catholicism on Sept. 21, 4:30-5:30 p.m., MS A-518. Sponsored by the IUPUI Newman Center, the group, "Rediscovering Roman Catholicism" will meet every Monday. Call Fr. Jeff Godecker, 632-4378.

Research Forum--John Whitaker, producer/director of graphic art & design, and Holly Mortlock, instructional designer/educational consultant, both from MERP, present "Preparing an Effective Research Presentation" on Sept. 14, noon-1 p.m., NU 215. Topics include graphic design for poster presentation, slide and transparency preparation, instructional development and consulting. All welcome, no charge, bring lunch. Sponsor is the School of Nursing.

SOCCER IS THE SEVENTH SPORT

Joseph Ray Veal begins a whole new era as first coach of the newly formed IUPUI Men's Varsity Soccer team. Added to intercollegiate women's volleyball, basketball and softball, and men's baseball, basketball and tennis, soccer rounds to seven the intercollegiate sports on campus. Winners in the first two games, the team plays as an independent in District 21, NAIA. The team is made possible by a generous gift from Manufacturer's Financial Group, one of IUPUI's Metro Athletic Club Boosters. Home game tickets are $1 for students, $2 for others. Games are at the Track and Field Stadium, with home games set for Sept. 12, 15, 18 and 19. For a schedule, call 4-2725.

POSITION AVAILABLE--RESEARCH ASSOCIATE, Dept. of Physiology and Biophysics. Should have Ph.D. in physiology, biochemistry or related fields. Requires experience in chromatography, tissue culture and/or catecholamine analysis. Write to: Nira Ben-Jonathan, Ph.D.; Dept. of Physiology and Biophysics; IU School of Medicine, 635 Barnhill Dr., Indianapolis 46223.

IUPUI is an AA/EO Employer

DEADLINES NEAR FOR FELLOWS, SCHOLARS, WRITERS, CHILD ACTORS

Deadline is Nov. 2 for competing in the 1987-88 annual Pfizer Pharmaceuticals postdoctoral fellowship program for up to $30,000 in annual grants in five medical areas. For applications, call Ann Kratz, Research and Sponsored Programs, 4-8285.

Returning women students have until Sept. 30 to apply for the $750 Woman's Rotary Club award given through the School of Continuing Studies Office of Women's Research and Resources. Must be over 25 and returning after a five year or more absence. Stop by Cavanaugh Hall, room 001D, or call 4-4784.

Deadline is Oct. 15 for amateur and professional writers and poets to enter the second annual contest sponsored by "The Inside from the Outside," an international newsletter for writers. For rules and more, write Normajean MacCleod, editor/publisher, University Faculty Records, Bryan Hall 014, IUB, 47402, or call IUB 335-1517.

Children ages 6-14 who are not over five feet tall can audition Sept. 19, 2-4 p.m., Butler University, Lilly Hall, studio 27, for roles in the Butler ballet's "Nutcracker," set for performances at Clowes, Dec. 3-6 and at Kokomo, Dec. 13. Call 283-9231.

FIND OUT ABOUT VERDI'S JESTER

The Indianapolis Opera and our Div. of Continuing Studies and Butler's Office of Extended Programs is making it possible for reduced rate tickets for students and for the chance to learn all about upcoming operas, including IU's "Beatrice and Benedict," set for Indy next spring. The first opera is "Rigoletto" and the class for it is Sept. 30, 7-9 p.m., Butler. For $10 for this course, or $36 for all of the four classes offered, you will see a dress rehearsal, get a "layman's" plot summary, see video excerpts and learn about the composer. Other operas and preview courses include "The Barber of Seville" and "The Tales of Hoffman." To enroll, or for more information, call 4-5036. For opera info, call 283-3470.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

(ARCH-791205)

ARCHIVES
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
420 BLAKE STREET