

green sheet

volume nine, number thirteen

april 1, 1979

IT'S CCC TIME AGAIN

IUPUI invites the entire Indianapolis community to the third annual Circle City Circuit. The festival opens April 16 and will feature a variety of activities including volleyball and golf tournaments, a flea market, concerts, canoe races, and much more.

The gala week kicks off April 16 (10 a.m.-3 p.m.) with a volleyball tournament and a noon cookout at the 38th Street Campus. (April 20 is the rain date for this event.) On April 17, an all-campus dance is planned for 9 p.m. at the Union Building.

A flea market at 10 a.m. begins the activities for April 18, followed by an ice cream social and cookout. A 40-piece band provided by the Indiana Federation of Musicians' local chapter will play easy-listening music beginning at 11:15 a.m. Pizza lovers can then compete in a pizza-eating contest at 12:45 p.m. All these events will take place at the Union Building.

The IUPUI Cavanaugh Mall is the scene of a new activity for Circle City Circuit starting at 1 p.m., the Warm Weather Women's Festival (WWWF). This "festival within a festival," coordinated by Miriam Z. Langsam and Kathleen G. Klein, will offer a series of films, arts and crafts demonstrations, a concert, and readings April 18-19.

WWWF activities on April 18 include the 1932 classic "I'm No Angel" with Mae West and Cary Grant and "All That Heaven Allows" with Jane Wyman and Rock Hudson at 8:15 p.m. Both films will be shown in the Lecture Hall. At 7:30 p.m. at Cavanaugh the Bacchic Trio -- flute, oboe and recorder, and harpsichord -- will perform at IUPUI for the first time.

WWWF activities will open the Circle City Circuit program on April 19 with demonstrations on auto maintenance and plant care on the Cavanaugh Mall from 10 a.m. to noon. Between noon and 2 p.m. "Pure Love," a rock jazz, and blues band of five women and one man, will perform and women of the IUPUI ROTC detachment of the Army will descend from (rappel) the roof of the library. April 19 films in the Lecture Hall will be "Stella Dallas" (1937, Barbara Stanwyck) at 2:30 p.m. and "Dance Girl Dance" (1940, Lucille Ball and Maureen O'Hara) at 8:15 p.m.

Also on April 19, golfers participating in the Circle City Circuit Banker's Handicap Golf Tournament will tee off at 1 p.m. at the Eagle Creek Park golf course.

April 20 is the date for the Honors Day Banquet at the Hideaway cafeteria where the program will include the announcement of the first Circle City Circuit scholarship winners.

The final day of the festival, April 21, will feature canoe races at 9:15 a.m. at Eagle Creek Park's Walnut Point. Students, faculty, staff and members of the community will compete in the canoe races. Following the races at 12:50 p.m., the IUPUI ROTC detachment of the Army will sponsor a demonstration (weather permitting) by the "Golden Knights," a U.S. Army parachute team. At 1:30 p.m. the spring festival will conclude with an "Almost Anything Goes" contest at the Eagle Creek Park beach. (The rain date for the canoe races and the "Almost Anything Goes" contest is April 22.) For more information, contact the Student Activities Office, Ext. 3931.

* * *

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY
(Week of April 1-8)

Displays -- Pharmacy displays this week in University Hospital will be Lederle Laboratories on Monday and W.B. Saunders Publishers on Friday.

More Displays -- The freshmen, sophomores and juniors at Herron have put it on the wall and all around the school's gallery -- "it" being their prints, paintings, graphic design work, sculpture, photography, woodworking and ceramics. All is on view at this, the "1979 Student Show," through April 16. Gallery hours are from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. weekdays and Wednesdays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. . . A hundred years of hats, chapeau samples from the 1850s through the 1950s, is on view downtown at the Indiana State Museum through April 30. The museum is open every day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. . . . Contemporary Japanese art is on display, 58 prints in all, through April 22 in the Beesley Gallery and Krannert Pavilion at the Indianapolis Museum of Art.

Meet -- Teamwork among health professionals in caring for children with lung diseases will provide focus for this week's two-day conference of the American Lung Association. The meeting will be held at the Indianapolis Hilton Monday and Tuesday. Medical Center participants will include Jane Engdahl and Jean Homrighausen from the Riley Hospital nursing staff, Pat Wylie, pulmonary team co-ordinator at Riley, and Dr. Richard L. Schreiner, assistant professor of pediatrics.

Final Film -- "Executive Action," the last film in the Political Insight Film Series, will be shown Monday at 7 p.m. in Lecture Hall 101. The free show is open to students, faculty and staff.

Seminar -- "Designing Methods for Phased Array Transducer Configuration," Ultrasound Research Laboratory Seminar by Dr. K. Katakura, visiting engineer to the Indianapolis Center for Advanced Research; University Hospital, Room C424, 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Genetic -- "Selective Polymorphisms of Human Salivary Proteins," Medical Genetics Seminar by Patricia Goodman, graduate student; Riley Research, Room 138, 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Special Lecture -- The Third Annual Sunnyside Guild Guest Lecture is scheduled for Wednesday at 8:15 a.m. in Myers Auditorium at Wishard Memorial Hospital. Dr. Marvin A. Sackner, director of medical services at Mount Sinai Medical Center and president-elect of the American Thoracic Society, will discuss "Respiratory System in Sleep Disorders."

Visitor to Dentistry -- Dr. M. Michael Cohen, professor of oral and maxillofacial surgery at the University of Washington (Seattle) School of Dentistry, will make two presentations Wednesday, sponsored by the Department of Oral Facial Genetics. From 10 a.m. to noon, he will discuss "Face and Biological Types of Syndromes" and from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. he will discuss "Syndromology's Message for Cranial Facial Biology." Both sessions will be held at the dental school, Room 114 at 10 a.m. and Room 115 at 3 p.m. Dr. Cohen, also a professor of pediatrics, holds degrees in dental medicine from Tufts, in oral pathology from the University of Minnesota, and in anthropology, also from Minnesota.

Scientific Show-and-Tell -- The spectacular solar eclipse will be the topic for Frederick C. Kleinhans during the School of Science Dean's Convocation Series program at noon Wednesday in the faculty lounge of the Krannert Science Building.

Who's on WAT -- This month's "Grand Rounds in Surgery" series offers a program on "Coarctation of the Aorta," with Drs. Harold King and Donald Girod. The program can be seen at noon Wednesday in all regular WAT 21 viewing areas.

Liberated -- "The Hour of the Furnaces, Part I; Neocolonialism and Violence," the fourth presentation in the "Films of Liberation Struggles" series, will be shown Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Lecture Hall 101. The 1968 film focuses on Argentine society. There is no admission charge.

Water Workshop -- Holcomb Research Institute (HRI) of Butler University will host an international ground water modeling workshop Thursday and Friday with 50 scientists from the U.S. and other countries meeting to establish the operating policies for an HRI ground water model clearing house. Sessions will be at the Sheraton West and HRI. For information, call 283-9551.

Did you know that...

In the Green Sheet's never-ending search to gain reader satisfaction, we are going to make a slight change in the deadline - the aim being to get the Green Sheets to you in better time. Henceforth, the deadline for items going in the Green Sheet will be 5 p.m. on Tuesdays (instead of Wednesdays). By moving up this deadline, you should be receiving them by the first of the relevant week. New deadline: 5 p.m. Tuesdays, in the News Bureau, AO 139.

No. 9 -- "The Age of Personal Peace and Affluence" is the ninth film in the "How Should We Then Live?" series being shown Thursday at 12:15 p.m. at the School of Dentistry, Lecture Hall S116. Admission is free.

Program at Park -- The Indiana Consortium for International Programs (ICIP) will host a "Teaching Strategies and Materials Conference" at McCormick's Creek State Park Friday and Saturday. For information, call Ext. 7294.

Colloquium -- Robert B. Cairns, professor of psychology and director of the Developmental Psychology Doctoral Program at the University of North Carolina, will speak on "Social Deprivation and the Limits of Plasticity" this week. The occasion will be the monthly Psychology/School of Science Psychiatry/School of Medicine Colloquium, which will be held in the Krannert Science Building, Room 031, Friday at 1:30 p.m. For information, call Cathi Eagan at 923-1321, Ext. 358.

Panovs in Bloomington -- Galina and Valery Panov, former Kirov Ballet dancers, will appear in "Giselle," the spring ballet production of the School of Music. Performances will be Friday at 8 p.m. and Saturday at 3 p.m. in the I.U. Auditorium. Ticket prices range from $1.50 to $5. For information, call the box office (812) 337-1103.

Man and Technology -- Lech Zacher, director of the Joint Polish-American Research Project on Technology Assessment and the Future for the Polish Academy of Sciences, will be on campus Saturday. He will talk on "Human Goals and Technological Progress" at 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. in Lecture Hall 104. All interested persons are invited.

Distinguished Visitor -- Poet Stephen Spender will make two public appearances at the Lecture Hall -- on Saturday at 3 p.m. (readings of his and others' works) and on Sunday at 8 p.m. (autobiographical lecture). Both sessions are free.

* * *

SPECIAL PROGRAM ON SPECIAL EDUCATION

The practical approach will be stressed in a program on "The New Focus on Special Education and Its Implementation in the Classroom" scheduled for April 10 in the Hoosier Room at the Union Building. Guest speakers will be Howard H. Spicker, professor and chairman of special education, IUB, and Gilbert Bliton, director of special education for the Indiana State Department of Public Instruction.

All interested faculty, staff and students are invited. The program opens with a 6 p.m. social hour, then a 6:30 p.m. turkey divan dinner, and speakers at 7:30 p.m. Dinner tickets are $7. For reservations, call the Alumni Office (Ext. 8828) as soon as possible.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

JEANNETTE MATTHEW
LIBRARIAN, SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS
420 BLAKE STREET