WM. PLATER

PLATER DEEMED A DIFFERENT DEAN

William M. Plater, dean of the School of Liberal Arts, was approved recently by the I.U. trustees as the new dean of the faculties at IUPUI. Also a professor of English, Dean Plater will work closely with Howard G. Schaller, who will continue as executive dean and as acting director of the new Center on Philanthropy. Vice President Gerald L. Bepko said he is delighted that Bill is stepping into the position, and that his abilities and commitment to academic excellence make him the ideal choice as the new dean.

SCHOOLS, STUDENTS SELECT OUTSTANDING FACULTY FOR THE YEAR

Deserving faculty have been noted as award-winning teachers for the year. From the School of Science, seven were honored for outstanding teaching, service, counseling or research. JOHN F. KREMER, associate professor, Dept. of Psychology, won the Amoco Foundation, Inc., outstanding undergraduate teaching award. J. ROGER WARE, associate professor, Dept. of Psychology, won the school's counseling award. RICHARD R. PATTERSON, associate professor, Dept. of Mathematical Sciences, won the school's service award. JUDITH L. GERSTING, professor, Dept. of Computer and Information Science, won the school's teaching award. CHAROLAMBOS D. ALIPRANTIS, professor, and OWEN BURKINSHAW, professor, both in the Dept. of Mathematical Sciences, received the school's award for outstanding collaborative research. And, BARNETT B. MORRIS, professor, Dept. of Psychology, was given a teaching award named for him--the first of its kind to be given by Psi Chi psychology honorary to an outstanding department teacher.

The School of Public and Environmental Affairs also gave its annual honors at a recent meeting. TERRELL ZOLLINGER, assistant professor, won both the graduate and undergraduate outstanding faculty award. JAMES KOUSOULAS won the outstanding part-time instructor award.

FREE PUBLIC CEREMONIES TO OPEN OLYMPIC ACADEMY

The history, philosophy and ideals of the Olympic games will be the focus of the U.S. Olympic Academy XI in Indianapolis next month. IU basketball star Steve Alford and other sports greats will be among participants and speakers who will join Olympic officials for the four-day public conference hosted by the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, IUB, and the School of Physical Education on campus. Also expected to participate is NBC vice president for media and Olympics Alan Baker and some medalists. A public ceremony on June 17 at 6:30 p.m. in the natatorium kicks off the conference and features synchronized swimming events. The rest of the academy will be held June 18-20 at the Howard Johnson Downtown Hotel. Credits can be given for participants. For more, call Jeff Vessely, 4-2824.

THERE IS A PARTY PLANNED FOR MAJOR GENERAL WILLARD E. HANSHEW, retired from the U.S. Army Reserve, retired assistant to the director of administrative affairs, and soon-to-be-retired director of Parking, Transportation and Special Services. You are invited. Staff and faculty are welcome to a reception in honor of his retirement from his latest post on May 26, 2-4 p.m., Hoosier Room, Union Building.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Bullish Beginnings--In fair weather under a tree on Wall Street and in foul weather in a nearby restaurant, 195 years ago some two dozen merchants and brokers met on May 17 to start what is now called the New York Stock Exchange. Some years later a small group met at the same location to steal as much from it as they could.

For Gene--A reception to commemorate the retirement of Gene Selmanoff from the Dept. of Community Health Nursing, School of Nursing, is June 10, 3-5 p.m., NU 127. All are welcome.

IACTE Selects Five Here--The new volunteer education group, the Indiana Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, included five students from our schools in its first annual recognition banquet. The School of Education had four of the five, Science the other.

CST Meetings--From the Indiana Corporation and Science and Technology, the Control Systems Committee meets May 19 and the Medical Technology Committee meets May 22. For times and places, call 635-3058.

Markers at the Lincoln--Lincoln Hotel Corporation announces that two former Adam's Mark executives will be at its new hotel on campus. Howard M. Skillrud, formerly the Mark general manager, is named general manager, and Cindy Wheeler, also a former Mark employee, is named director of marketing.

Editor's Note--There will be no Green Sheet May 31. Beginning June 7 it will be published twice a month during the summer.

Memorial Day Notes--Some employees will enjoy the benefit of a holiday on Monday, May 25. Others have to work but will take off another time. Also, that weekend the School of Dentistry library has special hours. It will be open May 22, 7:30 a.m.-5 p.m.; closed May 23-25, open May 26, 7:30 a.m.-8 p.m.

¡Nos Vemos!--For months the people throughout the city who have been interviewed as Spanish interpreters for the Pan Am Games have gotten together in small groups (tertulias) to practice their Spanish, bone up on Latin American culture and to encourage one another. On May 31, domingo 31 de mayo, those groups are coming together in a tertuliantes. Anyone who speaks Spanish or has some interest in the games is invited to join all the groups in fun. There will be musicians and ethnic food and lots of conversation--Spanish, please. The meeting is 2-5 p.m., Roof Lounge, Union Building. Cost is $3. Registration is necessary and can be made by calling 4-7314.

Fair Trade--Students attending Indiana Business College are looking for temporary lodging in exchange for light housekeeping and child care. They attend school 8 a.m.-2 p.m. and will need quarters from 6-18 months. Call Rena or Jill, 634-8337.

Next on MERP--This week Medical Education Resources Program presents more noon programs on the Medical Television Network. May 19 is Managing Our Miracles: Final Choices, May 20 is The Dean's Hour: Dentistry Nutrition Update and Coping with Stress in the Dental Office, and May 21 is Grand Rounds: Comprehensive Burn Management. For viewing sites, call 4-4083.

BUY PAN AM TICKETS NOW, OR GAMES MAY "CAYMANCE" WITHOUT YOU

The Education Student Advisory Council is selling tickets on campus for the Pan American Games, and they are having fun doing it. Following is part of the notice the group sent: Did JAMAICA ticket purchase for the games yet? It's too good to BELIZE, but the ESAC is selling tickets.... Brochures to PERU and ticket information are available in the Curriculum Resources Center, room 1125, Education/Social Work Building, or phone 4-6867. Bring your TRINI "DAD" or your trini "mom", or even your best GUYana. Tickets are on sale May 18-June 8. Cash or checks only. ANTILLES we meet again, adios amigos.

TRADE IN YOUR OLD TOOTHBRUSH AND EAT YOGURT AT THE VA HEALTH FAIR June 3, 9 a.m.-3 p.m. in the front lobby of the VA Hospital on 10th Street. There will be free hypertension screening, yogurt samples, fitness screening and many displays. All Medical Center personnel, VA employees, and veterans and their families are welcome. For more, call Sally Pollard, 635-7401, Ext. 2018.

PERSONNEL CHANGES EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION/BENEFITS WORKSHOPS

Orientation for new employees will be held separately for hospital and non-hospital personnel. New hospital employee orientations will be on Mondays at 8:15 a.m. Call Leon McKenzie, 4-8119. Other new employees can have orientation every two weeks at 2 p.m. in the Personnel Dept. conference room, third floor, Union Building, beginning June 8. Health insurance information meetings for all personnel will be at 2 p.m., Union Building, mezzanine level, on alternate Mondays, beginning June 1. For non-health employee information, or insurance information, call Mary Kennedy, 4-4596.

A FEW MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Invited Speaker--Rodney Million, M.D., professor, Radiation Oncology, U. of Florida, and School of Medicine alumnus, will present "Twice-Daily Fractionation for Head and Neck Cancer" at 3:45 p.m. during the Dept. of Radiation Oncology Resident's Day program, May 22, 1-5 p.m., Union Building, Roof Lounge. All are welcome. Call 4-1315.

Men and Women Needed--Drs. Diane Brashear and John Mulcahy are investigators in a study of a new experimental drug and are seeking men and women, 21 or older, for the treatment of abnormally low sexual desire, or difficulty achieving sexual arousal or sexual orgasm. For more, call Sharon Harden, 4-2014.

About Diane--The Dr. Brashear mentioned above is an assistant professor of obstetrics and gynecology who is often seen on TV. She is also serving on Mayor William H. Hudnut's Homeless Task Force. In a third-phase report she said of the homeless in Indianapolis, "The most important thing is linking services already in existence and extending the services creatively to the homeless population." The report is available in the mayor's office.

Leading 13,000--During a recent annual meeting in San Diego, Dr. David R. Hathway, professor, Dept. of Medicine, was installed as president of the 13,000-member American Federation for Clinical Research. It is the nation's largest internal medicine organization of physicians and scientists. His duties will include closely monitoring issues of funding and legislative regulation in biomedical research.

Also Serving--Dr. Maynard K. Hine, IUPUI chancellor emeritus, was recently elected to the Board of the Indiana Medical History Museum, Inc.

MEDICAL ALUMNI TO FETE CLASS OF '37

On May 20 under a big red and white striped tent on the lawn, east of the Union Building, returning School of Medicine alumni will enjoy their annual special strawberry shortcake, dedicate a new courtyard at Riley and learn about the significance of the new Medical Research Center and Library being built on campus. The class of 1937 will receive special recognition on this 40th annual Medical Alumni Day. Participants who will talk about medical facility development on campus include Executive Vice President of IU and President of the IU Foundation George Pinnell, Vice President Gerald Bepko, Dean of the School of Medicine Walter Daly, Chairman of Medical Genetics Dr. Joseph Christian and President of the Eli Lilly Research Laboratories and Executive Vice President of Eli Lilly & Co. Mel Perelman. At 2:30 p.m. an inner courtyard at Riley Hospital for Children will be dedicated in the name of James O. Ritchey, M.D., who was chairman of the IU Dept. of Medicine from 1932-1956. He was the first internist from the state to be elected to a Mastership by the American College of Physicians. He also served for nearly 40 years as chairman of the school's admissions committee. Intended as a haven for patients and staff, the courtyard will include unique plantings that reflect Dr. Ritchey's love of horticulture.

$ TRUSTEES APPROVED TUITION HIKES FOR ALL CAMPUSES during a recent meeting at IUB. Our undergraduate resident fees are $58 an hour, up $4.25 over last year and $1.60 less than IUB students will pay. Non-residents will pay $159.50. Graduate fees per credit hour, including the School of Law, are now $77.80 for Hoosiers, $212.80 for others. Annual fees for dental students are $4,300 in-state and $9,000 for out-of-staters. Annual rates for the School of Medicine are $4,500 for residents, $10,500 for non-residents.

VISITING FOREIGN PROFESSIONALS NEED SUMMER HOMES

From such places as China, Korea, Argentina, West Germany, Liberia and Ireland come teachers, lawyers, health specialists and other professionals who are among 13 foreign guests who are already in Indianapolis as part of the annual School of Social Work-Council of International Programs work, education and cultural exchange. While here they work in public service areas and live in the homes of families who have volunteered to provide a private room, meals and transportation. They have places to stay through May and the first week in June, but host families are still needed through June and July. To learn more or to volunteer, call David F. Metzger, associate professor and director of the program, 4-6718 or (317) 255-4887.-SAR
