

green sheet

volume seventeen, number thirty-seven

november 8, 1987

TRADE SMOKES FOR SANDWICH IN CAMPUS SMOKEOUT

8p3
C1

S smokers who want to kick the habit for at least one day during the Great American Smokeout on Nov. 19, can trade in tobacco or cigarettes for a free turkey sandwich. To help you quit for a day, you can get buttons to brag about your success, get tips from ex-smokers and medical people who deal with the ravages of smoking. If you're a non-smoker willing to "adopt" for one day a volunteer one-day quitter, both of you are eligible to win a whole turkey. You can test your lung function and see an exhibit of how lungs are supposed to look, and how they look when they are diseased and covered with tar and nicotine. If one day free of your tobacco habit isn't good enough for you, while you're browsing through the helpful aids, you can register to stop smoking for good in the Lung Association's Freedom from Smoking program that begins on campus Nov. 23. The program costs $25 and comes with the promise that if you quit on time and are smoke-free for a while, you get $15 back, among the other benefits.

Smokeout exhibits, buttons and info will be available on smokeout day from 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m. in the lobby of University Hospital and in the atrium at Riley Hospital. All faculty, staff and students are urged to take part. For more information, call Debbie McGuire, 4-1625.

NOVEMBER IS OPEN ENROLLMENT MONTH FOR TWO IMPORTANT BENEFIT PROGRAMS

November is the month for enrolling or changing your status with Personnel in regard to group medical/dental insurance, as well as the tax saver plan. Workshops to inform you of your insurance choices and information booklets about tax saver benefits are available before enrollment periods end. During the month staff and faculty can enroll in one of three plans--Blue Cross/Blue Shield Traditional, Blue Cross/Blue Shield Preferred Care, and Metrohealth, which will soon be part of the national MAXICARE Health Plans Network. During the open period you can change from single to family status or vice-versa, drop or add dependents, drop or add dental or switch from one plan to another. This opportunity is given only once a year.

Heath Insurance Information meetings are Nov. 16 and Nov. 30, 2-4 p.m., Union Building, mezzanine.

November 30 is the last day to take advantage of the tax saver plan for the coming year. It exempts various out of pocket medical, dental and dependent care expenses from federal, state and county and social security taxes. Information booklets and forms are available in Personnel, 4-4596.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS, Nov. 26-27, make it necessary to move ahead the deadline for that week's GREEN SHEET. The deadline for the issue of Nov. 29 is Monday, Nov. 23 at noon. Otherwise the deadline is at 5 p.m. the Tuesday before publication. All items should be typed and a contact person should be included. Your items are welcome. Call 4-5453.

Are you helping? Thousands of Hoosiers need your UNITED WAY pledge.

HOOSIERS
HELPING HOOSIERS

IUPUI UNITED WAY UNIT REPS are eligible for door prizes that include gift certificates, tote bags, meals and more if they provide reports from their areas. The prizes will be given at each of three reporting sessions. Speaking of the UNITED WAY campaign on campus, a recent Green Sheet story about the co-chairman spelled his name incorrectly and said that Michael Cozmanoff is the registrar. Nope. He is the bursar. He is still hoping that you will make your pledge so that people who need help get it in the coming year and so that IUPUI employees pledge $204,000 this year, the amount we need for the Lilly Endowment to donate another $34,000. Even more would be nice.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Beware?--People who suffer from triskaidekaphobia need no reminder that Friday is the 13th. Some people believe the day is lucky, not unlucky as do phobics, and they regret that while every year has at least one Friday The Thirteenth, no year has more than three.

New Guild--A meeting for volunteers and members in the newly formed Bone Marrow Donor Guild is Nov. 12, 7:30 p.m., Fellowship Hall, Carmel United Methodist Church. Topic is "Bone Marrow Transplant: No Longer Just a Family Affair." The guest speakers, from the medical center's bone marrow transplant program, are Vicky Kennedy, ACSW, and Sherry Weideman, RN. For more, call Ruth Nisenshal, Central Indiana Regional Blood Center Foundation, 927-3031.

Bring Lunch--Next in the Women's Studies Forum is Dr. Carol Brooks Gardner, sociology, presenting "Creating a Course on Women and Mental Health" on Nov. 11, noon-1 p.m., CA 001-CD. All welcome.

Staff Only !?:;,.--The next Writing Center workshop is "Punctuation Problem Solving" on Nov. 11, 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., CA 427. Staff only, please.

Monies Makers--A new three-credit course, "Principles and Practices of Effective Fund Raising" is offered in the spring. Gene Tempel, vice president of IU Foundation and chairman of the operations advisory committee for the Center On Philanthropy, sponsor, will teach the course on Monday evenings, 4:40-7:20 p.m., SI 208. Education majors should register for course EDUC C750, section B112; others register for EDUC F-500, section B-114.

Citrus Sale--You still have time to order Florida red grapefruit and navel oranges from Kappa Kappa Sigma sorority. Delivery of large and small boxes of both fruits is to your building on Dec. 11. Call 291-1432.

Magic Comes Back--Dance Kaleidoscope's holiday play for children of all ages "The Magic of Christmas Love" is back with four performances in November at the Children's Museum. Call DK, 634-8484.

Southern Culture--The play "Ah, Wilderness" runs thorough Nov. 14 on the Main Stage at IUB. There are many performing and fine arts presentations at IUB. For details, call 1-800-234-2500 or IUB 5-1103.

Think St. Nick--While you're making your list and checking it twice, the city's neediest children and adults hope you will add them and become a volunteer now for the United Christmas Service. Your money and/or your time are crucial. Units and individuals are welcome to help. Last year 1,886 people were assisted at Christmas. To help, call 923-1466; after Nov. 16, call Jane Shivers, 924-1454.

Shop Talk--Bring lunch, visit and share your concerns in the next meeting of the Association for Women in Science Indiana Chapter on Nov. 10, noon-1 p.m., Provincial Room, Union Building. Call M. Egar, 4-8539.

LOW COST BREAST CANCER TESTING ON CAMPUS

Kathy Staples, RN, wants women on campus to know that, like it was for Nancy Reagan, early detection and prompt treatment is the best defense against breast cancer which will develop in as many as one in 10 women. For $50, about half what is charged at other places in the city, the St. Margaret's Diagnostic Breast Center will provide a screening mammography, the first of which is critical in setting a baseline for determining future changes in your breasts; a physician's exam and instruction in BSE, breast self-examination. You can ask your doctor to refer you to St. Margaret's, but you do not need a physician's referral. For an appointment any weekday, 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m., call 630-6266.

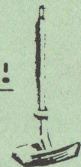

-----clip 'n' save-----

FOR THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN SUBJECTS USED IN EXPERIMENTATION, any research involving humans must be approved by the IUPUI Institutional Review Board. Deadlines for receipt of materials to be reviewed through 1988 are Nov. 20 this year, and in 1988 they are Jan. 4, Feb. 1 and 29, Apr. 4, May 2, June 6, July 5, Aug. 1, Sept. 6, Oct. 3 and 31 and Dec. 5. Since the board meets only on the third Tuesday of each month and the review process requires two weeks, researchers are asked to pay close attention to deadlines. Material received after a deadline will be processed in the next cycle. For forms and more, call Research and Sponsored Programs, 4-8289.

HARVARD ECONOMIST TO LEAD FREE SEMINAR ON TAXES AND GIVING

A free, public seminar, "The Effect of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 on Individual Giving" is being offered by the IU Center on Philanthropy and the IUPUI Dept. of Economics on Nov. 19 at 1 p.m. in room 4095, Business/SPEA Building. Professor Lawrence Lindsey, Dept. of Economics, Harvard University, and senior research associate of the National Bureau of Economic Research, will lead the seminar.

SOCIAL WORK IS 75 YEARS OLD--HAPPY DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY TO STAFF AND FACULTY!

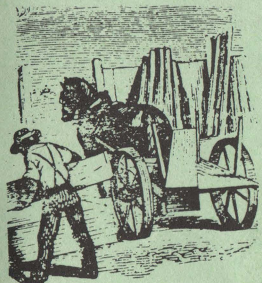

EDUCATORS HERE TO TRY ON LEARN & SHOP

Jim East, associate dean in the School of Liberal Arts, years ago invented Learn & Shop at IUPUI and has steered the shopping center learning program to become the largest in the nation with about 1,800 students enrolled here in credit courses. Educators from the U.S. and Canada were his guests Nov. 5-6 during a conference in Indy to discuss Learn & Shop type programs. East is dean of the IUPUI's Weekend College, and he led a companion conference on that subject Nov. 6-7.

THE IUPUI POLICE WANT YOU TO NOTICE A CHANGE IN TRAFFIC FLOW ON CAMPUS

Within the next few weeks there will be a change in traffic flow on the service drive under the Business/SPEA, Education/Social Work Buildings. The north (Michigan St.) entrance will be closed and the south (New York Street) entrance will be opened. The drive will be posted with a five-mile-per-hour speed limit and only University vehicles will be allowed north of the service parking area. The drive is not a public or through street and should not be used as such.

"WHAT'S NEW IN PSYCHOLOGY AT IUPUI" will be the topic of discussion when the IUPUI Psychology Department Alumni Association meets Nov. 10 at 7-8:30 p.m. in the faculty/staff lounge, room 168 of the Krannert Building at the School of Science, 38th Street campus. John T. Hazer, chairman and associate professor of psychology, will lead the discussion.

MORE NEWS 'N' NOTES

Tan Sack--All faculty members are invited to a brown bag lunch on Nov. 10 in BS 4093 at noon. Sponsor is the Adult Education Coordinating Center. Adult students from several IUPUI schools will talk about their experiences at IUPUI and the way faculty can help adults make the transition to higher education.

Caring Colloquium--Vernice Ferguson, deputy assistant chief medical director for nursing programs and director of nursing service for the entire Veterans' Administration, will give the keynote address, "Coming of Age," for the Patient Care Research Colloquium at the University Conference Center on Nov. 20. Nurses from seven states will share their research in papers and poster presentations. Sponsors are the School of Nursing and University Hospitals Nursing Services, with support from Sigma Theta Tau (Alpha Chapter) and the IU School of Nursing Alumni Association. For more, call Diana Sullivan, 4-4041.

From West Lafayette--Joanne Otto, Ph.D., Dept. of Biology, Purdue U., presents "Protein Interaction in Adhesion Plaques" in a Dept. of Biochemistry seminar on Nov. 9 at 4 p.m., MS 326. Coffee/tea at 3:30 p.m., MS 205. All welcome.

Visiting Scientist--Professor S. Papastavridis from the University of Patras, Greece, will present "Reliability of Consecutive-k-out-of-n Systems" in a mathematical sciences colloquia and seminar on Nov. 20, 3-4 p.m., KB 059. Refreshments at 2:30 p.m. in KB 060. Call Garry Owens, 4-6918.

Another Hine First--Dr. Maynard K. Hine, chancellor emeritus of IUPUI and former dean of the School of Dentistry, was awarded the first Presidential Award by the American Academy of Periodontology during a recent meeting in Denver. Dr. Hine is past president of the Academy and was editor of its journal for more than 20. The award honors his long-standing service to the Academy and his many contributions to periodontics.

ME Seminar--Dr. Osita Nwokah, Purdue U., presents "The Control of Industrial Multivariable Systems" in a mechanical engineering seminar Nov. 10, 1 p.m., AD 127.

War Signals--Myron Cohn of Chicago presents "The Signal Corps and the Military Telegraph During the Civil War" in the next Indianapolis Civil War Round Table on Nov. 9, 7:30 p.m., Indiana Historical Society auditorium. All welcome.

Exclusively Theirs--Dr. Margaret Pike and Professor Betsy Joyce and Joyce Martin, School of Nursing, have been accepted as pledges in the prestigious L Club. Formal induction ceremonies are Nov. 16. For more about the club and membership requirements, call Dr. Margaret Applegate, 4-4353.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202