

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY CELEBRATIONS PLANNED

IUPUI's Martin Luther King, Jr. Day celebrations will begin Jan. 20 with a breakfast, end with a dinner and feature appearances by noted civil rights leader Rev. J. Otis Moss, Jr. of Cleveland and Shirley Chisholm, the first black woman elected to Congress. Moss will speak on the theme of "Extending the Dream: Community, Not Chaos" at a 7:30 a.m. breakfast at the Madame Walker Urban Life Center. Chisholm, the keynote speaker at the 21st annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. dinner, will speak on "Fulfilling the Dream: Completing the Conquest." The dinner is sponsored by IUPUI's Black Student Union and will be held at the Westin Hotel at 7 p.m. Activities also include the first Martin Luther King Invitational Workshop from 9:30 a.m.-noon at University Place Conference Center, led by Vincent Harding of the Iliff School of Theology, King's close friend and noted scholar on his life. Tickets are available in person at the Minority Student Services office, LY 006, for $15 (students) and $25 (faculty and community guests). For more information, call 4-4239. — Alicia Dean Carlson

DENTAL, MEDICAL SCHOOLS BEGIN $3.1 MILLION FLUORIDE RESEARCH PROJECT

Researchers from the Schools of Dentistry and Medicine will join forces in a five-year $3.1 million research project looking into the safe use of fluoride in high-risk populations in the United States, the People's Republic of China and Ecuador. The project, funded by the National Institute of Dental Research, is designed to test the safety of fluoride use among people whose environment, nutrition or medical status makes them vulnerable to fluoride-related problems. Project participants include Dr. George K. Stookey, Dr. Ann J. Dunipace and Dr. Richard D. Jackson of the School of Dentistry and Dr. Barry P. Katz from the School of Medicine. Stookey will lead the nutritional study, which includes research efforts in China and Ecuador, Dunipace is in charge of the animal study phase of the project and Jackson is heading the clinical phase. Katz is leading the biostatistics portion of the project, interpreting data from the other three studies.

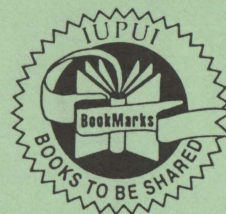

COMMISSION ON NATIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE MEETING AT CONFERENCE CENTER

President George Bush's 21-member Commission on National and Community Service will hold two days of hearings at the University Place Conference Center Jan. 12-13. I.U. President Thomas Ehrlich is a member of the commission, as are ex-Notre Dame basketball coach Richard (Digger) Phelps and Leslie Lenkowsky, president of the Hudson Institute. The commission was created to help expand volunteer service opportunities throughout the U.S. The hearings will feature time for public comment about the importance of community service. — Sandy Matthys Roob

COATS, BAR ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT SCHEDULED TO APPEAR

Indiana Sen. Dan Coats and American Bar Association (ABA) president Talbot (Sandy) D'Alemberte will give free public addresses Jan. 15 at the I.U. School of Law-Indianapolis. D'Alemberte will open the program at 10 a.m., with Coats scheduled to appear at noon. Congressional hopeful Stephen Buyer, a Gulf War veteran, will speak Jan. 22 at noon as a guest of the Student Bar Association.

BOOKMARKS PROGRAM NEEDS YOUR HELP!

BookMarks, the successful IUPUI reading program started this year, wants your help. Readers are being invited to nominate their favorite books for consideration as part of the 1992-93 reading list. Nominate your favorite novel, biography, work of history, set of essays, poetry collection or a volume on any topic. BookMarks officials would like to have all nominations by Feb. 1, and they can be sent to: BookMarks, AO 139, 355 N. Lansing St., Indianapolis, IN 46202. For further information, please call 4-4371. Two BookMarks events are set Jan. 29, including a brown-bag lunch at noon in CA 438 to discuss the Federalist Papers #1, #38 and #51 and a poetry reading of Gwendolyn Brooks' Selected Poems in the Ball Residence Hall lounge from 4-5:30 p.m. Bill Blomquist of the political science department will lead the Federalist Papers discussion, sponsored by the Political Science Students Association. The poetry readings by Larry Barclay and Dr. Regena Turner-Barclay are sponsored by the Undergraduate Education Center and the Student Council of the UEC. Continuing Studies' discussion course on all five BookMarks selections will continue Jan. 14 with the Federalist Papers and Jan. 21 with Silent Spring. The course is held from 7-9 p.m. each Tuesday through Feb. 11 in the Union Building Roof Lounge.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

GREEN SHEET NOTES--Media Relations staff member Ric Burrous has been named the interim editor of the Green Sheet, replacing Charlotte Hughes Wright, who is on leave. Other notes about upcoming editions of the Green Sheet: the next edition is scheduled to come out Jan. 26, with news items due by 5 p.m. Jan. 21 at the Media Relations office, AO 136. The normal schedule of first and third Sundays will be resumed with the Feb. 2 edition, with copy due by 5 p.m. Jan. 28.

COMPUTERS IN TEACHING--IUPUI Integrated Technologies and IBM are co-sponsoring "Teaching With Multimedia: Tools YOU Can Use," a day long seminar Feb. 7 at the Conference Center. Seminars and breakout sessions will focus on ways to use computers to make lectures more engaging and subject matter more understandable. For registration information, call 4-4532.

ADDICTION AND INTERVENTION SEMINAR--Counseling and Psychological Services is co-sponsoring a seminar on alcohol and drug addiction and intervention Jan. 15 and 17 in BS 4093, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. The seminar is designed to assist professionals and para-professionals who do not provide substance abuse treatment but who do work with clients facing substance abuse problems.

INFORMATION, PLEASE--The Department of Environmental Health and Safety and the Human Resources Administration have scheduled safety training, new employee orientation and benefit plan information sessions Jan. 20. Safety training for all non-hospital new employees will run 10 a.m.-noon. The new employee orientation session for all full-time non-hospital new employees will run from 1-3:30 p.m. The benefit plan information session for all full-time new employees is scheduled from 1-2:30 p.m. All sessions will be held in the Union Building Roof Lounge on the sixth floor.

INTERNATIONAL EVENTS--International House is sponsoring its fourth EDUCATE (Enlightened Dialogue for Understanding Cultures and Transnational Events) program, "Nationalism and Religion in Sri Lanka," Jan. 21 from 4-5:15 p.m. in IE 105. Also set are two International Coffee Hours, featuring India Jan. 17 and Turkey Jan. 24. The events run 4-6 p.m. in the commons on the second floor of International House.

BRYN MAWR, ANYONE?--A workshop is set Jan. 17 for IUPUI faculty and staff members interested in attending the Summer Institute for Women in Higher Education Administration at Bryn Mawr College this summer. The workshop will run from 10:30 a.m.-noon in CA 438.

COST REDUCTION NOMINATIONS MADE

Five IUPUI departments have been nominated for Cost Reduction Awards given annually by the National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO). Departments nominated include Campus Facility Services, Graphic Reproductions, Human Resources, Purchasing and Parking Services. The cumulative cost reductions amount to over $300,000, and all but one recommendation were implemented in 1991. Final results are expected by the end of the school year.

HONORS 'N' ACCOLADES

DAR HONORS--Chancellor Gerald L. Bepko received the highest honor of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution last month, the Medal of Honor. The award was presented as part of the Bicentennial of the Bill of Rights. Bepko delivered the keynote speech at the event, held at Speedway High School.

RESEARCH GRANT AWARDED--The U.S. Air Force has awarded a $149,000 grant to Dr. Frank Witzmann, associate professor of biology at IUPUI Columbus, to buy a high-capacity computer system to aid his research in predicting potential toxicity in chemicals.

MARTIN LEADS IACUBO--Robert E. Martin, vice chancellor for administrative affairs, has become president of the Indiana Association of College and University Business Officers (IACUBO) for 1992.

WHO'S WHO NEWS--Mary M. Von Burg, project manager for Regionalization of Care for Abused Children at Wishard Hospital and a member of the department of pediatrics at the School of Medicine, has been elected to the "Who's Who Among Human Services Professionals 1992-93."

NEW TEXTBOOK PUBLISHED--Purdue School of Science chemistry professor Clifford E. Dykstra is the author of a newly published textbook, "Quantum Chemistry and Molecular Spectroscopy." The text is for junior- or senior-year courses in physical chemistry and includes an introduction to quantum mechanics and spectroscopy.

Both the presentation and reception are free and open to the public.

EXPERT TO DISCUSS 'AIDS AND COLLEGE STUDENT'

"AIDS and the College Student" is the theme of a presentation Jan. 15 by Dr. Richard Keeling of the University of Virginia School of Medicine. Keeling, an associate professor of internal medicine and director of the Department of Student Health at Virginia, also is a consultant for Health Advocates in Charlottesville, VA. Keeling, the chairman of an HIV infection and AIDS task force for the American College Health Association, will speak at 5:45 p.m. in the University Place auditorium after a 5 p.m. reception in the lobby.

Keeling Sponsors are the Student Activities Programming Board and Wellness Education Committee. For more, call Fred Luers, Student Activities office, 4-3931.

IF YOU DON'T HAVE YOUR HEALTH ...

Health is near the top of many New Year's resolution lists, so a number of upcoming events and bits of information are worthy of attention, including:

- * "Choose an Exercise Program": Check out this free event Jan. 14 in BS 4093 from 11 a.m.-1 p.m., co-sponsored by MAX*WELL and the American Heart Association. Fill out a form to help the staff design an exercise program to meet your needs.
- * "Dump Your Plump" Successes: Shedding those unwanted pounds from too many Christmas cookies is possible. Ask the 81 members of the "Dump Your Plump" (TM) program at the Medical Center, who finished the contest with an average loss of five pounds per person, with over one-third reaching their weight-loss goal.
- * Lite'n Up: Improve your health in "Lite'n Up: The Science of Eating for Success," an eight-week National Institute for Fitness and Sport program starting Jan. 23 at noon in BS 3013. Topics include sports nutrition, eating on the run, cooking light, reducing fat in your diet, reading product labels, behavior modification and the role of exercise and nutrition. For more call 4-0610.
- * Diabetes Study: People ages 30-75 who have type II diabetes and do not take insulin may be eligible for free blood sugar and laboratory testing, a self blood glucose monitoring device, physicals, diabetes-specific information and EKGs. For more information, call 630-8869.
