Feb. 7, 2013

InScope

Weekly news for faculty, staff and students from the Indiana University School of Medicine

---

top headlines

Fort Wayne visit

IU President Michael A. McRobbie traveled to the state's second-largest city Feb. 1 to visit the IU School of Medicine-Fort Wayne.

Evansville expansion

IU School of Medicine-Evansville will release the first of a two-part expansion analysis on Feb. 12.

Flu restrictions ending

Visitor restrictions implemented at Marion County hospitals to protect against the flu will end Feb. 8.

---

features of the week

story

MBA consultants

Science and business minds from the Kelley School of Business Indianapolis and IU School of Medicine worked together to solve supply chain issues at the Indiana Institute for Personalized Medicine and IU Vector Production Facility.

---

editor's picks

News to Use

Strategic Research Initiative

IU Health's CEO discussed the IU School of Medicine-IU Health Strategic Research Initiative in State of the System Address.

Opportunities

Curriculum Development

The Office of Educational Affairs seeks participants in the next phase of curricular reform. Deadline March 1.

Grants

Clinical ethics fellowships

---

Applications are open for the 2013-2014 Clinical Ethics Fellowship from the Charles Warren Fairbanks Center for Medical Ethics.

Kudos

Kaplan Prize
Vincent H. Gattone II will be honored by the International Society of Nephrology for his leadership on polycystic kidney disease.

Faculty & Staff Spotlight

Championship Doctor
Doug McKeag helped keep the American lacrosse team healthy in Finland as it competed for a 2012 world championship.

Student Spotlight

New Adventure
Xiaodong Peng is embarking on a new adventure as a bioinformatics developer at Eli Lilly after earning a master's in translational science from the IU School of Medicine.

This week, "Sound Medicine" features segments on threats to women's health, including funding cuts, overstated research results and unnecessary double mastectomies. In addition, IU School of Medicine experts discuss flu season myths and how less expensive drugs can reduce health care costs.

Events & Lectures

The Vagina Monologues
02-08-2013

Global Health Seminar Speaker
02-14-2013

Terre Haute Community Health Fair
02-17-2013

Stepping Stones Lecture
02-20-2013

IUSM Newsroom
News and headlines from Indiana University School of Medicine.

IUSM Campus Links

Bloomington • Evansville • Fort Wayne • Indianapolis
Lafayette • Muncie • Gary • South Bend • Terre Haute

Submit your news

Subscribe or unsubscribe to this newsletter.

IU Communications | 251 N. Illinois St. | Indianapolis, IN 46204