March 16, 1918.

Present: F. Vonnegut, Stempfel, Scherer, Rath and Westing.

Dean Rath reported Dr. Carl B. Sputh was hired to teach Physiology replacing Dr. Reed and Emergencies replacing Dr. Maxwell.

On Rath's recommendation, it was decided to inquire how much it would cost of have slides made.

In addition, Rath reported that Ms. Eileen Cammack from Greencastle left the Seminary for this year due to a light accident.

Ms. Elsa K. Hein handed in her resignation from her assistant position. Decided to accept the resignation and send Ms. Hein a letter of thanks for her work in the Seminary.

Decided to collect $10 per year from each student in the future to cover expenses for accident insurance, paper, ink, soap, drinking cups, etc.

Decided to grant approval for Dean Rath to take vacation so he may visit other gymnastic teacher education institutions in the East.

The following invoices were sent on for payment:
