NORMAL COLLEGE OF THE NORTH AMERICAN GYMNASTIC UNION

Library Rules

1. Books are divided into three classes: Reference works, one-books, and seven-day books. All books not designated in the catalogue as reference works or one-day books, are seven-day books.
2. As long as notice to the contrary is not given by the Administrative Board, students will have free access to the shelves reserved for reference works. Books of this class may be used only in the _____, and should be returned to their proper places on the shelves not later than 5:30 o'clock p. m. on the day of their removal.
3. The cases containing one-day and seven day books shall be locked only during the periods fixed for the delivery and return of books; and the librarian shall keep these cases securely locked all other times.
4. Application and receipt cards are furnished in two colors, one for one-day and seven-day books, respectively. A separate card must be used for each volume. Every card placed in the application box should bear the number of the volume as given in the card catalogue, and the applicant's name; when the volume is delivered to the borrower, he will convert the application into a receipt by signing his name on the last line of the card. If the applicant personally places the card in the hands of the librarian at the time fixed for borrowing books, the catalogue number and the borrower's signature will suffice. In either case, the librarian will write on the card the book number of the volume delivered, and stamp thereon the date of delivery, and subsequently the date of return. The librarian will also stamp the date of delivery on the card attached to the third cover page of the volume.
5. Each student is entitled to 4 volumes, exclusive of texts drawn for class use (§ 6).
6. Copies of a seven-day text issued at the request of an instructor to the members of a class for class use, may be retained until the time set by such instructor for their return. All other seven-day books may be retained for one week only.
7. A one-day book should be returned on the session day next following the day on which it was drawn.
8. All books must be returned on or before the last Thursday of each semester.
9. For keeping any work over time, the borrower incurs a fine of ✓ cents per day and volume; provided that for books retained after the day given in § 8, the fine shall be 10 cents per day and volume.
10. The librarian will preserve all application and receipt cards, and deliver them from time to time, as directed, to the Administrative Board.
