

1969

John Hickam positions future institute as a laboratory for research, integrating research programs into actual patient care

Institute establishes Regenstrief Medical Record System, physician-designed integrated inpatient and outpatient information system, in the Wishard Diabetes Clinic

Regenstrief Institute for Health Care chartered, Raymond Murray assumes the role of first director

Siu Hui establishes the Biostats Division at Regenstrief

Wishard clinics implement Medical Gopher

Recognition of Institute administrative professionals is annual highlight

Bill Tierney establishes Institute for Quality Assessment & Improvement section, precursor of Health Services Research section and the IU Center for Health Services and Outcomes Research

Chris Callahan establishes and becomes director of IU Center for Aging Research

Tom Inui becomes president and CEO of Regenstrief Institute, Inc.

Institute names Brad Doebbeling to direct health services research program

Institute names J. Marc Overhage to direct Regenstrief Medical Informatics

A noted researcher in the fields of geriatrics and medical ethics, Greg Sachs joins Institute

Health Information and Translational Sciences building, new major location of the Institute, opens

1967 1968 1969 1972 1975 1976 1977 1981 1983 1984 1985 1986 1988 1990 1993 1994 1997 2000 2001 2002 2003 2004 2005 2006 2007 2009

Sam Regenstrief creates Regenstrief Foundation

Joe Mamlin becomes future institute's first researcher

Clem McDonald joins Institute

Institute receives its first federal funding

Charles Clark establishes Diabetes Research & Training Center

Gus Watanabe, IU Department of Medicine Chair, becomes director of Institute

Regenstrief Health Center opens for outpatient clinical services and as home of the Regenstrief Institute for Health Care

Wishard Hospital implements Medical Gopher

First Regenstrief Conference

Softball team, Tenth Street Blues, ably represents Institute

Institute develops LOINC the nation's first coding standard for laboratory tests and clinical measurements

Regenstrief Foundation and the Regenstrief Institute for Health Care elect Len Betley president following Sam Regenstrief's death

ResNet, one of the first practice-based research networks in the country, launches

Indianapolis Network for Patient Care (INPC) launches later renamed Indiana Network for Patient Care

The Institute of Medicine inducts Clem McDonald

Regenstrief faculty in Mosoriot, Kenya

Kurt Kroenke begins first training group for CITE program

VA HSRD receives recognition as Center of Excellence

Institute forms OpenMRS as open-source medical record system framework for developing countries

Regenstrief investigator Lisa Harris becomes medical director and CEO of Wishard

Regenstrief Medical Informatics Group reaches $70 million in total external funding since creation of RMRS

Number of distinct laboratory and clinical measurements/observations in Regenstrief Medical Record System exceeds one billion

Institute wins Komen Race for the Cure Paint the Town Pink competition

CDC creates Indiana Center of Excellence in Public Health Informatics at Regenstrief Institute

Regenstrief Institute

Advancing health care through research, development and education.