About IUPUI

Indiana University – Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) is Indiana's most comprehensive university campus. IUPUI was formed in 1969, but several programs have provided Central Indiana with quality education and services for much of the century. IUPUI is a premier urban institution and offers students courses year round at times during days, evenings and weekends that meet the demanding schedules of adult learners.

Reflexology

Revenues for the U.S. spa industry grew an unprecedented 124 percent from 1999 to 2002 and those revenues are still growing, according to an ISPA spa industry report. Reflexology continues to grow in demand in the alternative health field.

The Indiana spa industry catapulted forward in 2006 by nearly a thousand jobs related to the renovation at Baden Springs. Reflexology grows in visibility and demand with medical spas now at two Clarian Health hospitals.

If you have dreamed of training for a rewarding career in the spa or holistic health industry, now is the time to prepare with a course aspiring to the highest of professional standards — Restore, Inc., educational provider to IUPUI's Community Learning Network.

Fees and Dates

The one-time Certificate Program Fee of $35.00 is due upon registration. Course Fee: Per module plus non-refundable application fee, $30 manual, $5 chart and textbooks.

Call or visit the IUPUI Continuing Education website or www.restore-inc.com/iupuireflexology.html.

REFLEXOLOGY CERTIFICATION AT IUPUI

Restore Inc., educational provider to IUPUI Community Learning Network, recognizes professional reflexology standards upheld by the American Reflexology Certification Board as the model for U.S. professional reflexologists. This program offers comprehensive scholastic information to meet ARCB registration for national certification.

CLASS LOCATION/TIMES

The three core modules meet 9 a.m.-6 p.m., Saturday-Sunday, two weekends per module and includes independent study: Intro to Professional Reflexology, $670; Intermediate Professional Reflexology, $500; Advanced Professional Reflexology, $500. The final two modules are scheduled personally with instructors: Practical Application, Skills Assessment and Documentation Standards, each $200. Students seeking certification must satisfactorily complete each of the five modules in order. Students not seeking certification may take one or more of the first three modules.

PROGRAM INTENTIONS

Prepare students for a successful career as reflexologists; train in the development of business skills, marketing and ethics, teach thorough knowledge of anatomy, physiology and body systems as related to reflexology; offer a thorough knowledge of reflexes as they are anatomically reflected on the feet; teach competency in effective manipulation of reflexes on the feet that correspond to organs and parts of the body; and inform students about ethical scope of practice.

Admission Requirements

Students must be 18 years of age, a high school student in good standing or submit a high school diploma or GED; submit admission application and be willing to give and receive reflexology during and outside class.
